City Asked To Help Industry, Business

Councilmen Tuesday night were asked immediately to pass a resolution that would aid in promoting the growth and expansion of Tecumseh. Points in the resolution, brought to the council by Jack Osburn, president of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, covered "free taxes" and "half price" on sewer and water.

The president's letter to the council follows:

"The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce is requesting that: the city council pass a resolution granting the following

"1. Free taxes to any new industry, who will build a 20,000 sq. ft. building on one floor within the city, with sewer and water at half price.

"2. Free taxes only to any existing industry, who will build a 20,000 sq. ft. addition on one floor.

"3. Free personal property taxes to any industry, who will employ 50 or more men.

"4. Free property taxes to any business or professional man, who will build a 3000 sq. ft. building on one floor.

"These privileges to las ta duration of five years from the time of the completion of the building.

"These are things that will cost the city nothing but are making positive steps toward the growth of Tecumseh. With these incentives at the hands of the chamber of commerce and all other local people, we have something to offer everyone to make Tecumseh grow.

"Please pass this resolution at once.

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce
Jack Osburn, President"

Mayor H. H. Hanna replied: "We're all interested in seeing that Tecumseh continues to grow and to prosper but is this plan legal?" He wanted to know if it had been done in any city before.

Councilman Bill Powell said: "It has been done in Tecumseh, Mich." He said years ago Cyclone Fence Co. and the Tecumseh Products Company were given such aids.

Mr. Osburn explained that other cities in Michigan are doing what he proposed to get new industry and business.

Mayor Hanna wondered if it would be unfair competition against existing industry. Mr. Osburn said he didn't think so.

The mayor also wondered if anything had ever been done to get a plant here that would hire women. Mr. Osburn said "yes." He explained that this was done last spring but the plant went elsewhere.

Answering another question from the mayor, he said that plans are underway to sell the Universal Button Company plant here. He said both "local and outside money" are interested in the plant.

Councilmen Purkey, Powell and Hamilton thought "it is about time we do something to help promote the growth of Tecumseh."

Mr. Osburn pointed out that existing industry also would come under the proposals. He asked: "What have we as a city ever done to encourage the Products or others to build additions here? Maybe if we would give them a little boost they might build here again instead of going to Timbuctoo."

Mayor Hanna thought more study should be given the proposals to see that "we're on firm ground." He also said that "we might want to change parts of this or to add something to it."

But Mr. Osburn said "we've waited too long now." He said he had people to see "right now" who are interested in Tecumseh. He thought that he could not wait until the next council meeting for action.

So councilman Hamilton made the motion to adopt the resolution, subject to review and possible changes.

And J. C. Beardsley, city attorney, was asked to check with the Michigan Municipal League to see what other cities in the state are doing to get new industry and business.

Mrs. Keith Perkins and daughter Vickie

Vickie Perkins Wins First Baby Contest

A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Perkins on Pentecost road in Franklin Township won the second baby derby sponsored by Tecumseh merchants.

Vickie was born in Herrick Memorial hospital Sunday at 10:58 a.m. She tipped the scales at eight and one-half pounds. She won 10 prizes by local merchants. Her father, incidentally, is sort of a merchant himself. He works for the J. C. Penny Co. in Adrian. Vickie was the Perkins' first child.

It was a fine race this year with four babies being born on New Year's Day at Herrick Memorial hospital and four more babies were born Sunday at Bixby hospital in Adrian.

This is the time-table on the babies that were born in Herrick Memorial:

10:58 a.m.—girl—to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Perkins of Franklin Township.

1:40 p.m.—boy—to Mr. and Mrs. James Hurst of Tecumseh.

2:15 p.m.—girl—to Mr and Mrs. Robert Irwin of Britton.

2:45 p.m.—boy—to Mr. and Mrs. John Gorr of Petersburg.

Bixby hospital babies were born on this time-table:

10:41 p.m.—girl—to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey of Adrian.

As a result of her being the first baby born in the New Year in the HERALD's main circulation area, Vickie won the following prizes from Tecumseh merchants taking part in the baby derby:

Easton's—10 gallons of gas;
Lad & Lassie—crib blanket;
Rosacrans—$5 merchandise certificate;
Meadowridge—Two and one-half gallons of ice cream;
The HERALD—A two-year subscription;
Eggleston's Cleaners — $5 for baby and $5 worth of cleaning to mother;
Eggleston's Jewelry—Child's set;
Dixon's Studio—Aunt Mary picture membership;
Western Auto—baby car seat; and Sluyter Electric — $5 merchandise certificate

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

THREE OF THE BABIES born on New Years's day at Herrick Memorial hospital were heavy weights over eight pounds. The winner Vickie Perkins weighed eight and one-half pounds; the second also weighed eight and one-half; the third weighed nine; but the fourth could muster up only five pounds and 13 ounces.

MRS. MARY CLEVELAND, a neighbor of Willie Brown who received the bike from Santa with an assist from Tecumseh patrolmen and Harv Carpenter, reports that the lights in Willie's eyes really shine. Incidentally, the wonderful story in last week's paper about how Willie got the bike was a bit jumbled. Patrolmen Barnes and Christensen actually bought the bike. Harv Carpenter contributed $10. And Tecumseh police passed the hat to equip the bike. Skip Rex at Western Auto sold the bike at cost and also added a "dual exhaust" as his contribution.

WHERE DO KIDS hear such things? Our six-year-old, drinking ginger ale at a family New Years eve party quipped: "This tastes like shampoo". Of course she meant champaigne which we thought she had never heard of. We thought she didn't know the difference between champaigne and the duckbilled platypus. But, then, she is the same one who calls a station wagon a stationary wagon. Come to think of it, probably those who over-indulged in champaigne celebrating next day might have thought they had been drinking shampoo.

HERE'S SOMETHING HANDY to know. Take a cigarette out of the package. The package then becomes a cigarette lighter. Get it?

Central P.-T.A. Jan. 19 Expects Record Attendance

Approximately 600 mothers and fathers are expected to discuss several important projects that confront the welfare of their children at Central school, Thursday, Jan. 19.

A letter will have been given to every child to deliver to his parents, advises P.-T.A. President Carson House, covering the proposed projects for Central school during 1956.

President House said: "No parent should fail to come out on this date. Get your baby sitters arranged for at once. You owe it to your child."

ASKS FOR BETTER HOUSE NUMBERING

A communication from Dr. R. G. B. Marsh to the city council Tuesday night calling for a better system of house numbering was referred to the city planning commission for action.

Dr. Marsh pointed out that some houses are not numbered at all and this fact causes difficulties for doctors who answer calls, especially at night.

Hold Up Nets $80 at Tipton

State police of the Clinton post and sheriff deputies are still on the look-out for two young men who robbed the Burns Market in Tipton of $80 Wednesday night, Dec. 28.

Mrs. Florine Burns, wife of the owner, was held up at knife point after two young men bought pop. She was alone in the store about 7:30 p.m. when the men entered.

Pulling a long knife from his belt, one of the men said: "This is a stick-up."

Mrs. Burns opened the cash register and the robbers scooped up the money. They drove away in a car parked outside but Mrs. Burns could not describe it for police.

State police and sheriff deputies set up a road block on main roads in the area but the robbers' car was not found.

Mrs. Burns said the robbers were in their late teens. Both were well dressed. They did not attempt to hide their identity, but she did not know either one of them.

Filthy Conditions Cost Trailerite $47.20 in Court

Clarence Speller, 46, of the Ferris Trailer Park, pleaded guilty to violating the city health ordinance and to creating a fire hazard when he was arraigned before Justice Robert French Tuesday.

He was assessed a fine and costs totalling $23.60 on each charge, or a combined $47.20.

Speller was arrested by Tecumseh policemen last Friday, but he posted a $100 bond to be free over the holiday.

Chief George Kilbourn said: "We could hardly get in the place. The filthy conditions reported to us included garbage, spoiled food and beer cans all over the room."

Justice French also gave Speller one week to get his trailer cleaned up and he warned him "to keep it cleaned up."

Win DAR Good Citizens Award

Abi Evans Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, announces that Beverly Ann Rohrback, Britton-Macon high school; Shirley Larned, Tecumseh high school; and Sandra Manchester, Clinton Community high school have been named good citizen girls for 1955.

The girls, as has been the custom in the past, will be presented with gold pins, given a chance to win a $100 bond, entertained with their mothers at a good citizens' tea Feb. 10 at the home of Mrs. K. D. Hall in Herrick Park and on March 17 they will be entertained by Abi Evans Chapter at the state D.A.R. meeting in the Hotel Hayes in Jackson.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrback, 11200 Milwaukee road, Britton, Beverly Ann, 17, is a senior at Britton-Macon. She has taken part in chorus, Girls' Athletic Club in which she now is vice-president, Future Homemakers' Association of which she now is secretary, journalism and school plays. She has been treasurer of the freshman class, a member of the student council and she now is secretary of the senior class.

Beverly Ann also is a member of the Congregational Christian church in Britton where she sings in choir and she is secretary of the church's youth fellowship. She is a member of the Tecumseh Grange and she has been a member of 4-H.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Larned, 301 Chippewa street, Tecumseh, Shirley Larned, 17, has been a member of the school band and drum majorette for six years, a member of the Girls' Athletic Association for five years (president in junior and senior years), vice-president of the student council in her junior year, treasurer of the senior class, society editor of the school annual and she took part in debate in her sophomore and senior years.

Shirley plans to attend Cleary Business College in Ypsilanti or to major in physical education at Michigan State Normal College.

She works part time at the Cameron Drug. Co.

Sandra Manchester, 17, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Manchester of Route 1, Clinton.

She has been a member of the Clinton high school band for four years, and she has been a member of the school chorus three years.

Sandra also played intramural basketball and she took part in government day activities Dec. 8.

She has been a member of the Future Nurses' Club for two years and last year she received an award for perfect attendance.

Sandra attended Wolverine Girls' State; she is a member of the student council and the newly-organized Clinton Community Youth Center, serving as chairman of the house committee.

She attends the Clinton Methodist church where she is a member of the choir, Sunday School and youth fellowship.

Next year she plans to attend the school of nursing at the University of Michigan. Her goal is to become a registered nurse.

Car Stealer Lands in County Jail

Clifford Adkins, 20, of Route 1, Tecumseh, is in the county jail charged with unlawfully driving away an automobile, driving without an operator's license, leaving the scene of a property damage accident and for investigation of parole violation.

Sheriff deputies said Adkins stole a car parked in Clinton Sunday. The car was owned by John Curtis of Tecumseh. About 12 p.m. Sunday the car driven by Adkins ran into the rear of one driven by Edward Sayler of Route 2, Tecumseh. The accident happened on Occidental road, about two miles south of Tecumseh.

Mr. Sayler told deputies that he talked with Adkins after the accident and when he mentioned calling the sheriff, Adkins walked away. About 2 p.m. sheriff deputies apprehended Adkins as he hitchhiked on M-52, about a mile north of Adrian.

Adkins is on parole from Southern Michigan prison. He was given one to 15 years in 1953 for breaking and entering.

Describes Ravages of Flood

(Editor's Note: The following letter was received by the John Calhoun family, 4202 Rogers highway, from Mrs. Ruth Moranda who lives in Ferndale, Calif., near the ravaged flood areas. Mrs. Moranda was the former Ruth Rector, daughter of Albert and Madge Hialey Rector. Mrs. Moranda is Mrs. Calhoun's niece.)

Ferndale, R F D 213,
California.
Christmas Eve

Dear Aunt Edith and all:

Well I suppose you have heard of our flood and wonder how we fared? Not too badly right here on our ranch, tho we have a lot of repair work facing us, and two new pump outfits to buy, etc. But we didn't lose any animals or buildings and we are all safe ourselves. The amount of havoc throughout the valley is appalling! Our power has been off for several days so we hadn't heard until news came in first by patrol boat (docked right on our runway from the storm shed to the field!) and then today people waded in, and the things we hear turn our stomachs upside down!

Three bridges out between us and town, the approach to the big bridge to the main highway torn out, etc. and upriver from us whole towns washed away — 47 houses from one place alone. The paper reported cloudbursts in the mountains drained by the two rivers here caused it—six inches at the headwaters of the Eel River, and south of us it rained one inch an hour from 7 a.m. until 3 p.m. the day of the storm!

Refugees all over the town around here—many came in a state of shock—nothing like this in history here before. And I hope never again. Whole herds of cows drowned—some in barns, and some in the fields the night the river rose. Our two neighbors' barns suffered—one was basted in by logs and drift and the other's roof collapsed on the cows. We and the neighbors right across the street were the only ones without water in the house around here.

Silvie's mother's house had two feet of water in—we are just that much higher. The water lacked four or five inches of coming in here! We surely prayed hard!

We had the row boat moored at the back door—even the top step was under water. Down on the marsh west of us a dike broke, and one rancher lost 80 cows in 20 minutes. Across the river from us a barn swung sideways and collapsed—eight cows left now of a herd of 80 cows.

And so it goes — the more we hear the sicker we get! Silvie says he hasn't definitely made up his mind about staying on the ranch, but I think it's fatigue and discouragement. He seems to feel that the river has moved closer to us with this flood—a lot of cutting in just east of us, bringing the main channel nearer. We'll see later on.

We have no water supply—caught some in jugs before the power went off—today the neighbors brought some in milk cans—one of rainwater and two drained out of a windmill tank. I am cooking for several extra—some of the wives and children left by boat. Not a fence left intact—most vanished entirely.

The river patrols urged people to leave—one of our neighbors had five feet of water in his house—he and wife and baby were waiting in the milk house for the boat to take them out—another with his wife and five children (one a new baby) were taken out by the Coast Guard at the height of the flood—what kept us from being in so much danger is our trees, God bless them—they held the drift off. You perhaps remember the long line of trees beyond the barn along the slough?

You should see what's piled up beyond them. We would have been wiped clear off the map without them. There were trees behind the next ranch too, but the last renter cleared the land—foolishly.

Thre are lots of saw logs around the country—from one mill alone a $50,000 pile of logs took off. There's a house in the brush east of us—and at the height of the flood a whole two-story house floated past half a mile or so from

CAR HITS SNOW PLOW

A county road scraper used to plow snow and a car driven by William Browne, Jr., of Tecumseh were involved in an accident on Sutton road about 2 p.m. Monday.

Browne told sheriff deputies that he came over a hill and saw the scraper too late to stop. He struck it in the rear and his car also hit a bridge abutment.

WAIVES EXAM

James McKenzie, 48, waived examination when he was arraigned before Justice L. J. VanDeusen last Thursday on a charge of aggravated assault.

Arrested by Clinton state police the previous Wednesday, he was charged with beating his former wife.

He was bound over to circuit court on a $1000 bond.

He stood mute to a second charge of entering without permission and he was remanded to jail on a $100 bond.

John L. Brooks Died Saturday

John Lester Brooks of Newburg road, who had lived all his life in the Tecumseh community, died Saturday evening at the University hospital in Ann Arbor. He had been a patient at the hospital for 12 weeks and had returned there after spending Christmas at his home.

Mr. Brooks, who was 53 years of age was born Feb. 9, 1902, in Tecumseh township and was the son of Allen Leeds and Mary Cummings Brooks. Feb. 5, 1927, he was married to Edna Curry and for the past 19 years they have lived in their present home. During that time he had been employed by the Tecumseh Products Co.

Mr. Brooks is survived by his wife; two sons, John D. and Robert L. Brooks; one daughter, Barbara, Mrs. Richard Graff and five grandchildren all of Tecumseh; one brother, Howard Brooks and four sisters, Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett, Mrs. Irving Gove and Mrs. Charles Stevenson of Tecumseh and Mrs. George Kielwasser of Ann Arbor.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Ralph whose death occurred in Nov. 1955.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. at the Green Funeral Home with the Rev. Edward Escolme officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Study Sessions Planned for Methodist Youths

To acquaint children of the Methodist church with phases of [illegible] Woman's Society of Christian Service, the society is offering 10 study sessions in the Sunday school rooms beginning Saturday, Jan. 7 from 2 to 3 p.m.

The theme around which the study centers is the "Indian Americans." The primary group will learn about "The Gray Eyes Family," a story of a Navajo family living on the reservation and the influence that the Christian church has upon their lives. Mrs. Joseph Poley will be in charge of this group.

The juniors will have as their study the "Yakima Boy," a story of two Indian boys that shows how both learn to accept the Christian way. Mrs. George Anderson will direct this group.

Filmstrips, songs, games and stories will comprise each session. This entire program is in charge of the secretary of children's work, Mrs. Horace James.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
from The Bible

Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God.—(I John 3,1.)

Each of us came into this world filled with the love, the good, of our Heavenly Father. We depart from them through our own wilfulness, selfishness. But even then God continues to love us as His children, ever ready, through our prayers, to forgive and help us.

Consumers Will Show GE's House of Magic

Consumers Power Company has engaged General Electric's famous "House of Magic" show for presentations in Adrian, Tecumseh, Jackson, Hudson and Morenci during the first week of Jan.

This show, which has appeared in every major exposition and world fair for more than 25 years, has included this part of the country on its current national tour.

The stage show will demonstrate interesting and entertaining marvels of science developed in the famed laboratories of the General Electric Company. Each of its many demonstrations has been carefully tailored to give a simple, easily understandable explanation of a scientific fact. The show does not deal in slight-of-hand; rather, it takes samplings of research which seem to be magic, and strips them of their mystery.

Since its inception, the "House of Magic" show has appeared throughout the United States and Canada and in all major countries in Central and South America.

Jan. 4, it will be shown at Tecumseh high school at 2 p.m.

Two showings are scheduled at Jackson high school Jan. 5; one at 8:25 a.m. for Jackson high students [illegible] 2 [illegible] for parochial school students and students from Vandercook Lake, East Jackson and Michigan Center.

Jan. 6, the show will be held at the Hudson Theatre at 10 a.m. for Hudson students, and at 2:30 p.m. the same day in Morenci, at Stair Auditorium, for Morenci area students and residents.

WIT AND WISDOM CLUB HAS QUIZ PROGRAM

The home of Mrs. Earl Wickwire and daughter Marjorie was festive with holiday decorations Monday evening when they entertained the Wit and Wisdom Club for the Jan. meeting. Due to other social events there was not a large attendance. Neither the president nor the vice president were present and the brief business meeting was conducted by the treasurer, W. G. Waldron.

The program was in charge of the men of the organization and Robert Bonner was program chairman. He conducted a number of amusing and interesting quizzes giving honorable mention to the winners.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses who were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins and Mrs. Fred Rector. The Feb. meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fay VanValkenburg.

Phone Co. Trains Korean Wire Chief Yoo Kun Oh

General Telephone Company of Michigan is having a hand in schooling of a future wire maintenance chief in a large Korean city. The utility yesterday welcomed Yoo Kun Oh, chief of the engineering section of the Taejon Tele-communications Bureau, Ministry of Communications of the Republic of Korea, to a four-month stay of on-the-job training.

Residing at the YMCA, Muskegon, Mr. Oh will visit the utility General offices daily to participate in on-the-job training in maintenance methods used by General Telephone, including training in operation and maintenance of automatic and manual switchboards. In addition, Mr. Oh will study methods of preparing cable records, utilization of testing equipment and preventive maintenance in general. He will also visit many of the utility's 78 exchanges in Michigan.

The Korean engineer, who reports he is "right at home" in today's frigid weather — mild in many respects in comparison to his home city of Taejon, famed as part of the 'Iron Triangle' battle sector of the Korean conflict — was sent here under the joint sponsorship of the OEC and the Republic of Korea Ministry of Reconstruction.

On completion of his training, Mr. Oh will return to Korea to a position as wire maintenance chief in a large Korean city now equipped with a 4,000-line manually-operated switchboard telephone system.

Here's why more farmers choose
TWENTIETH CENTURY WELDERS

There's more than one reason why Twentieth Century Welders are a favorite among farmers who know good welding.

First and foremost ... they'll tackle, and turn out "to a T", any welding job. Just dial the right heat for the job, and put your Twentieth Century Welder, and Carbon Arc Torch to work:

• Cutting metal • Brazing
• Drilling holes • Bending and shaping
• Soldering • Hard Surfacing

AND ... Twentieth Century Welders save you time and money.

NOW ... You can quickly and easily repair or replace worn or broken parts on automobiles, tractors, trucks, on all farm machinery.

AND ... with a Twentieth Century Welder, you can easily make pieces of new equipment.

TWENTIETH CENTURY
MFG. CO.

Take the work out of welding, with the welder that "fits" your farm—a Twentieth Century Welder. Come in. See us for information and demonstration.

HARRY OLIVER, EDITOR, writes in his newest edition of the "Desert Rat Scrap Book"; The scrapbook is a non-profit organization. We didn't mean to be—but we are." In another column Harry also wrote: "Due to the increased cost of printing and mailing, taxes and inflation, this paper now comes to you for a damn-site lousier lousy thin dime than formerly. And in another column the desert philosopher really gets to the point with: "It's the unimportant things that are important. Can you take an hour to play with a kitten or your dog? If you can't you ain't living."

ELMER SLAYTON OF ADRIAN gave us four old HERALDS, one of which is 100 years old. When time permits we will explore each one and share them with our readers. Elmer at one time was in the feed, fuel and lumber business here with his father. Their store was located in the building now housing Des Ermia's Home Furnishings. After years with the A. B. Park Co. in Adrian, Elmer retired; but he found he couldn't stand having nothing to do so he got a job with the chain and cable company in Adrian and he has been going strong ever since.

IN CASE YOU HAVEN'T noticed, this is Leap Year. This means more than just adding an extra day to the month of Feb. This year according to the custom, the lady can take the initiative in proposing to the man of her choice. Of course, some of them do this in any year.

IF YOU WANT SOME first class entertainment, don't fail to see "Blithe Spirit", this year's senior class play. It plays next week Wednesday and Thursday.

DURING THE LONG WEEK-END for the want of something better to do I picked up one of several puzzles given to the children. To work one you have to put three rings on a cat's tail. It was interesting but it was not half as interesting as the description on the back which advertised the English puzzles: "Popular portable puzzles proving positively perplexing and perppetually pleasing posers presenting persinstently provoking problems providing profuse pleasure, and producing a palliative or placid panacea to people possessing a propensity for persistence, patience, perspicacity and painstaking propensities."

CONGRATULATIONS TO the three young ladies named D.A.R. good citizens of the year. By a look at their fine records, they deserved the awards.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs—maybe you just don't understand the situation."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: The lowest ebb is the turn of the tide.—Longfellow.

Episcopal Women Install Officers

New officers for the Daughters of St. Peter's Guild were installed Tuesday evening at the regular January meeting held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Bly in River Acres. The out-going president, Mrs. Harry Schuch opened the meeting and during the period of devotions Mrs. Cecile Smith read an original poem and prayer as a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. Lyman Curtiss.

Mrs. John McCaughn installed the new officers who are: president, Mrs. A. H. Brown; first vice president, Mrs. Jack Smith; second vice president, Mrs. Cecile Smith; secretary, Mrs. Lynn Hubbard; treasurer, Mrs. Anna Haughn and chaplain Mrs. Bly.

The new president then appointed Mrs. Jack Smith as program chairman and Mrs. A. C. Hamaker and Mrs. Sidney Wilson as the sunshine committee.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. McCaughn served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

The next meeting, Jan. 17 will be held in the Parish House and each member is to bring a useful article to be auctioned for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

FLOOD

here. We were house-bound at the height and for some hours after—too much current in the yard to handle a boat. Seems possible, doesn't it? The water poured out of the storm shed door in a raging torrent—Sil tried to get to the barn, but gave up.

I still don't go out much—too hard to walk in the inches deep sediment. My poor, once lovely garden! Wow! But at least the gophers are drowned. And sediment is good fertilizer, if only the flood doesn't come again. It is blowing a gale tonight and beginning to rain. I don't think we will ever feel secure in a storm again. I'll take the earthquake any day, thank you! At least it doesn't leave mud everywhere.

Tonight we had 13 at dinner—four extra at the last, as one family who had gone out came back. One neighbor had a tank of gas and one had a 30-inch gas stove, extra from the vacant hired man's cabin—so they set it up in my washroom and presto—I can cook adequately again—had been getting by on a Perfection heater and my oil cook stove (no power—no blower, but pretty good heat up to a point).

We had to stop using the cookstove as the water in the boiler came to a boil, with no cold water coming in—so I was able with the help of the bottled gas stove to serve up stewed chicken, mashed potatoes, corn, cranberry sauce — also had celery, hot rolls and currant jelly, cake and coffee, and of course fruits, nuts and candy.

It was really our Christmas dinner, as without refrigeration, we couldn't keep the chicken any longer. With pooled food supplies, we do fine. We have a freezer full of food but can't open it until the power is back on.

They have power in town again today, but not down here yet. Soon, we hope. They tell us our freezer will keep O.K. without opening for a week. I hope they're right because it is full, and I'd hate to lose what we have in it.

I'll have 12 for lunch and dinner tomorrow—only seven for breakfast. We have a big pot of venison stew for dinner—one of the neighbors had two packages in his refrigerator units. Luckily our canned goods supply is ample—and I canned quite a bit myself too, pears, tomatoes, apricots, peaches and so on—three kinds of tomato relish, quantities of jams and jellies.

We had a pleasant time tonight in spite of the wreckage around us —and I wrapped up some of the boy's extra books for the visiting children, and gave their mother some currant jelly.

Must go to bed now as tomorrow is another busy day—funniest and saddest Christmas I ever saw.

Love from Ruth Moranda

Services Held for E. Friedlander

Mrs. Emma T. Friedlander, widow of Harry A. Friedlander died Monday morning at her home in Ridgeway after an illness of several months.

She was 71 years of age and was born in Lenawee county the daughter of William and Jessie Lowe Birdsall and spent most of her life in this community. She was a member of the W.S.C.S. of the Ridgeway Methodist church, of the Willing Workers Sunday school class and also of the Tecumseh chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

Survivors are two nieces, four nephews and several cousins. She was preceded in death by her husband in Feb. 1945 and by one brother, Coonrad Lowe and a half sister, Mrs. Mary Henry.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frieddander were held Wednesday afternoon at the Niblack Funeral Home with the Rev. Loren Carter of Ida officiating. Burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery with Warren Benham, Vern Thomas, Everett Exelby, Howard Landin and Daniel and Virgil Linn as bearers.

the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. At that time he was working in the University Hospital, Nanking. He was permitted to return to the United States in Aug., 1942.

Mrs. W. E. DeVol and her twin daughters left China before Pearl Harbor on the advice of U. S. officials. She spent nearly one year at Tecumseh residing with her daughters at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Edward Escolme.

During that time she worked as a nurse for about six months at the Herrick Memorial hospital. For the balance of her stay in Tecumseh she worked in the office of a local physician.

Dr. W. E. DeVol is the son of missionary parents, both of whom were medical doctors. His mother was one of the first women ever to receive a medical doctor's degree from the medical college of Western Reserve University. Dr. DeVol is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, and he is spending a considerable part of his furlough at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., where he is being accorded many privileges.

The public is cordially invited to hear him during his visit to Tecumseh. Tickets for the banquet may be secured from Ralph Comfort, Dalton VanValkenburg, William Hayden, and Edward Escolme not later than Friday evening of this week.

Michigan Department of Conservation Official News Bulletin

Rabbit hunting in southern Michigan promises to be even better than last year when hunters bagged more than 1,400,000 cottontails.

Reports from the Conservation Department's Rose Lake wildlife experiment station show an estimated 20 per cent increase in rabbit populations over last year. Rabbit kill at Rose Lake has increased this year although hunting pressure is down four per cent.

Moderate weather following December's cold spell promises better hunting for the remainder of the season which extends through Jan. 31. Cold weather caused rabbits to hole-up and also kept hunting pressure down.

Conservation research in Michigan in 1956 will point to more accurate estimates of fish and game populations, improvement of fishing, better game cover and deer range, control of forest diseases and insects and continued advancement of all reseource management methods.

Oddities reported during the last deer season included an eight point buck that shed his antlers after he was dead.

Mrs. Donna Swarthout of Harrison bagged the buck and said one antler dropped off before she got the animal home. She placed her seal on the other antler and dressed out the deer. Later, while she was dragging the deer, the other antler dropped off.

Mrs. Swarthout called Conservation officer Edward Beechem who checked both antlers and found they fitted the sockets perfectly. The antlers had just come off prematurely.

All predator trapping figures for the month showed decreases from totals for Nov., 1954 when trappers took seven wolves, 235 coyotes, 349 foxes and 107 bobcats.

The annual inventory of migratory waterfowl will be taken Jan. 3-16 by 2200 state and federal game workers at the birds' wintering areas.

The survey is designed to study the distribution of wintering waterfowl and shifts in distribution resulting from major changes in land and water management. The inventory will range from southern Canada to Yucatan in southern Mexico.

Six sportsmen's clubs in Calhoun county have formed a council aimed at improving farmer-hunter relations.

Spokesmen for the council said the group intends to come up with a program to benefit both hunters and farmers. Included in the program is a clarification for farmers of the Horton Trespass Act, explaining when and where it can be applied.

The council also plans to distribute 1100 Michigan United Conservation Clubs posters which offer a $50 reward for the apprehension of persons damaging farm property while hunting.

Michigan is taking more steps to re-establish pine martens in northern forests.

Arrangements have been made with Ontario to obtain more of the little tree-living furbearers for release in the upper peninsula.

Conservation game workers released eight of the animals earlier this year in Porcupine Mountains state park in an attempt to bring the species back to Michigan. Martens once were common in the state, but disappeared when heavily-wooded areas were reduced by timber operations.

The eight martens already released also were obtained from Canada.

Delrad, an organic chemical compound dericed from rosin, has been found effective in the control of green algae in ponds.

Conservation Department fish specialists sprayed 10 ponds experimentally during 1954-55 and found Delrad "highly effective" against algae in hard water when used at a concentration of .66 parts per million.

Below 1.0 parts per million, the chemical did not appear to harm fish or fish food organisms.

Delrad is more convenient to use against algae than the more common copper sulfate, and its high cost prohibits use in large-scale treatments.

It looks as though Alpena Power Company is losing a battle with nature and company officials are considering a strategic retreat.

Several months ago, a goose from the Alpena Wildfowl Sanctuary flew into high voltage wires connecting the company's generating units and disrupted electrical service in Alpena.

Last weekend, a swan from the sanctuary caused another power failure by flying into the same 34,500 volt wires.

Power company officials, faced with an ever-present blackout threat, are considering re-construction of the electrical lines to move them out of the path of waterfowl taking off from sanctuary waters.

Michigan small game hunting license sales to both residents and non-residents during the first 11 months of 1955 showed sharp increases over the same period in 1954.

Some 505,000 resident licenses were reported through Nov. 30—a five per cent increase over the 481,000 reported in the same period in 1954. Remittances for non-resident licenses jumped 18 per cent from 4150 to 4922 for the 11-month period.

A nation-wide survey of economic aspects of hunting and fishing is scheduled to get under way Jan. 7 when survey agents begin personal interviews with hunters and fishermen.

The survey, supervised by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, is designed to determine: (1) the number of persons, by age, sex and licensing, who hunted and/or fished for sport; (2) the amount of time spent on these sports by each hunter or fisherman; and (3) the amount of money spent by each, including all expenditures for items directly connected with hunting or fishing.

The total contribution of hunting and fishing to the nation's business has been estimated at $5 billion to $11 billion annually.

Fish and Wildlife Service officials say data collected in the survey will help to answer questions facing legislators and fish and game management authorities on the amount and importance of hunting and fishing.

Free trees and shrubs — along with farm planning for wildlife — again are available to landowners in the southern half of the lower peninsula.

The trees and shrubs, which serve as living hedges, windbreaks, erosion stoppers and future Christmas trees can be obtained by mailing a card to the Conservation Department at Lansing, 26.

Future Looks Great

More Michigan people than ever before can look back on 1955 as the most prosperous year of their lives. It has been a year when almost every aspect of the state's economy either reached or approached a new high.

These are the findings of the Michigan Economic Development Department on the state's economic activity for 1955:

More is being spent on industrial and commercial construction than ever before.

Non-agricultural employment stands at its highest level in the state's history.

Utilities and automobile companies announced multi-million dollar expansions which should mean a continued high level of employment for years to come.

For each of the first 11 months of 1955, commercial and industrial construction in Michigan hit new highs. Figures for the period through Nov. show the amount spent on non-residential construction totals $498,785,000—20 per cent above last year's same 11-month period.

Residential construction in the state is up seven per cent over last year at this time, despite a decrease for the country as a whole. Total construction in the state amounted to $1,216,159,000.

Twenty-six out of state companies moved to Michigan last year.

In addition, at least two major companies outside of Michigan selected locations in this state during the year but aren't ready to announce their decisions.

Forty Michigan companies picked new locations in Michigan during the year outside of the counties in which they already were operating. Many of these companies had considered moving into other states.

The count of Michigan manufacturers making important expansions during the year in the counties in which they were already located is 125.

Other business indicators are equally encouraging. Electric power consumption underwent a sharp upturn from the decline experienced in 1953 and 1954 and reached an all-time peak in Aug. with a near 700 million kilowatt hours consumed. Michigan bank debits, the most all-inclusive measure of business activity, also hit new highs during the year.

Bank debits increased to such an extent that Detroit led the nation in percentage increase, with 23.5 per cent more for the first 11 months of 1955. The motor city, which in 1946 ranked sixth as a banking center, now stands only below New York and Chicago.

As ususal the fortunes of Michigan rested largely upon the fortunes of the automobile industry. According to Ward's Automotive Reports, the industry produced an estimated 9,200,000 cars and trucks — a record production and a 40 per cent increase over 1954 production.

Sizable expansions were announced by the state's two major power companies.

Consumers Power Co. of Jackson, serving the greater part of the Lower Peninsula outside the Detroit area, began its biggest one-year expansion program in history, spending more than $75 million for new projects. In May, the company announced its intention of laying a cable to carry electric current across the Straits of Mackinac, from the Lower to the Upper Peninsula.

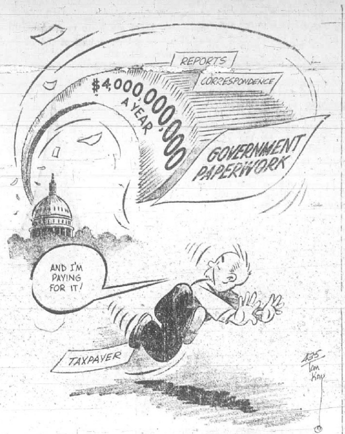
Detroit Edison began an $85 million construction program, the largest in its history. Of its many projects, the most ambitious is the River Rouge steam electric plant, the first unit of which will have a rated capability of 260,000 kilowatts. During the year it was announced that Detroit Edison and a group of other companies would construct an atomic power plant in southeastern Michigan.

Ford, General Motors, and Chrysler announced giant expansion programs, all of which are expected to strengthen the state's economy substantially. Ford started construction of a 1,500,000 square foot Lincoln division assembly plant and several office buildings in Novi township and expanded its Dearborn plant. Other Michigan projects include a 4,000 acre vehicle-testing area near Romeo and a 1,750,000 sq. ft. chassis parts plant north of Detroit.

In June, General Motors announced a new $500 million expansion program, much of which would also benefit the state. Locations in Detroit, Pontiac, Flint and Lansing were assured of millions of dollars for additional floor space and new machine tools, presses and other facilities. According to Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors, the company hoped to create new jobs at the rate of 28,200 annually.

Chrysler will undertake multi-million dollar expansions in Plymonuth, Highland Park and Detroit.

All of these economic expansions speak well for Michigan's economic future.



No Rest for the Weary—Taxpayer

State's Work Force Sets New Record, Report Shows

More men and women were at work last Nov. in Michigan's factories and business concerns than at any previous time in the state's history, the Michigan Employment Security Commission revealed today.

Non-agricultural employment rose to 2,616,000, topping by 8,000 jobs the previous peak set in June, 1953, Max M. Horton, Michigan Employment Security Commission Director, said.

He added that the employment gain of 154,000 between Nov., 1954, and Nov. 1955, was slightly more than the entire labor force in the Flint area, the state's second largest labor market.

Manufacturing made the greatest contribution to this new Michigan employment plateau, Horton said, adding 100,000 wage and salary workers to their payrolls. The automotive industry proved itself once more the backbone of Michigan's economy, leading the employment advance with a gain of 55,000.

INCREASES LISTED

Producers of metal and metal products added 31,000 men and women to their payrolls and machinery manufacturers boosted employment by 19,000 jobs. Textiles and apparel manufacturers added 3,000 workers during the 12-month period and the state's vital chemical industry increased employment by 2,000 jobs, Horton said.

The only manufacturing employment losses for the year were registered by the makers of miscellaneous durable products, down 6,000; food processing, down 6,000, and the paper industry, down 1,000.

Non-manufacturing industries added 53,000 workers in 1955, led by retail trade which accounted for 23,000 more jobs between Nov., 1954, and Nov., 1955, the Michigan Employment Security Commission Director said.

The service industries — hotels, restaurants, laundries, business services, recreation and entertainment, added 10,000 jobs during the year, public transportation and public utilities added 7,000 and construction increased 8,000. The employment peak for construction was reached in Sept. and Oct. with 116,000.

IS UP 1.5 PER CENT

Michigan's labor force has increased 237,000 in the past six years, an annual increase of approximately 1.5 per cent, Horton said. This expansion includes the natural annual gain of new workers over losses by death and retirement. It also includes an annual migration of nearly 75,000 workers from other states.

Farm employment has dropped 16,000 in the last six years in keeping with the national trend. This gives concrete evidence of the increasing size of individual farm holdings and the growth of agricultural mechanization. Although there is a continuing need for a large volume of seasonal labor for the cultivation and harvesting of Michigan's many specialty crops, growth in the use of machinery on Michigan farms is more than keeping pace with industrial mechanization, Horton declared.

Unemployment in 1955 was far below the seven-year average at 105,000 a month or 3.7 per cent of the labor force. The seven-year average is 159,000 at 5.9 per cent of the labor force. In 1949 and 1954 this reached 7.6 per cent and in 1953 fell to only 2.9 per cent.

Manufacturing employment in 1955 was second only to the peak year of 1953, Horton said. It averaged 1,172,000 as against the 1953 figure of 1,240,000 when Michigan's manufacturing plants rose to the double challenge of turning out a record year of civilian production plus a large proportion of the nation's defense equipment, Horton pointed out.

OUTLOOK IS BRIGHT

The outlook for the first half of 1956 appears as a continuation of the present high level of employment, Horton declared. Outside of the usual seasonal dips in the construction industry and in retail stores during Jan. and Feb., the Michigan labor market should be a seller's market with labor in high demand. This will be particularly true for all occupations requiring fully qualified and competent workers.

High production quotas have been scheduled in the automobile and allied industries and increasing personal incomes will provide support for a continuing high level of activity and employment in construction, trade and the service industries, the Commission Director said.

During the 1955 calendar year—on the basis of incomplete Dec. reports — the Michigan Employment Security Commission will handle an estimated 3,290,000 claims for unemployment insurance, Horton revealed. This is less than half of the 6,877,000 claims made in 1954.

Benefit payments will amount to approximately $68,500,000 as compared with $148,501,000 the previous year.

The Commission's job placement activities increased 18 per cent over 1954. A total of 339,000 jobs were found, including 145,000 on Michigan farms. There were 194,000 job placements in industry, including permanent jobs for accountants, engineers and other professional and technical occupations, as well as for skilled and unskilled workers.

Realty Views

Benjamin Franklin, the noted early American statesman and philosopher, advised:

"Let every new year find you a better man."

Mr. Franklin meant we should strive each year to improve our position. To become better in every way.

Consider, for a moment, how you might become a "better man" in 1956 with respect to your real estate holdings.

For some, this may mean ceasing to rent and buying a home.

For others, it will call for selling a house that is too small, too big, too far out, or otherwise no longer as convenient or desirable as you need and can afford. Then, it will necessitate acquiring a more adequate home.

Likewise, owners of farms, acreage or commercial property may wish to "better" their positions.

Analyze your real estate situation. Does it need "bettering?" If so, call on our office for expert assistance in buying or selling.

During 1956, we pledge our help so that you may become a "better man."

BY [illegible] TOUBORG

A change of scenery — our chamber maid, Arap Sohi, has done his washing and is spreading our sheets and pillow cases out on the grass to dry, trousers are dangling from branches, Jens' heavy sox from twigs; George with the white sailor cap and white sneakers has borrowed the cocktail table for an ironing board; boots are being polished. From far in the rear of the camp come the voices of the skinners, squatting on their haunches, scraping the skins; some are busy spreading salt, some answering the shrill voices of the Masai women who have joined them. Yards and yards of buffalo strips are drying from the clotheslines in the sun — it's called "Jerky" in this country. The natives love it, and so do the vultures who take an occasional nip.

Feb. 20, 1955
Sunday, two o'clock

I'm like the young southern soldier who had never seen snow before. He was stationed up north where he saw his first snowfall. His first letters home were filled with description of its wonder and beauty; but then one letter arrived "We've now got six feet of the darned stuff!" That's the way I feel right now. (Don't know why I sounded so despondent — probably all alone at the breakfast table).

GETS HIS BUFFALO

Jens and Andy left camp early. I awakened and finally got up to keep warm — had not refilled the hot water bottle. Our tent was damp and dark, and I wasn't in very good spirits, but at ten o'clock the camp went wild, and this time I was there. Andy's jeep had been sighted down the road — two flags flying, the gunbearers in back chanting loudly. Each boy grabbed the handiest noise maker, and I joined the gang, yelling and racing over the cow patties to the car. The former ceremony was repeated — Jens was dragged from his seat by many black hands, borne high in the air across the field to a chair where he was dumped and then was kept busy shaking hands with each camp boy. He had shot a huge Buffalo!

Break: The men had come back for me and for the camera. Jens took movies of our descent down the mountain side through the woods to the huge black bulk of a buffalo who could charge no more. I admired it with my hanky held to my nose, watched while the first knife thrust pierced the thick skin, and then I clambered around on the side of the hill until I could find a cozy spot to sit and wait out the skinning — out of the wind side.

IT'S RUGGED GOING

Then it was a feat to get the jeep down the mountain side to the beast. I went back to the car with Andy — such a steep climb up over the rocks that I was too breathless to possibly run for my life, if necessary. After inspecting the terrain, it was necessary to drive almost a mile around to the other side, a ride of zig-zagging between deep gullies that set the jeep on a precarious angle. In the woods the boys chopped a path and Andy eased the jeep slowly down until we met Jens and the other boys preparing a track from their side.

RUN TO SLIT THROAT

Many of the boys in camp are Moslems, and the Koran forbids them to eat meat unless the throat of the animal has been slit by a properly authorized representative of the faith. This is a rite called "Chingi." When hunting on the plains for antelopes or any other animals, we aren't allowed to shoot the animal closer than 400 yards from the Jeep. Therefore, when Jens is stalking an animal, it is necessary for the Jeep to be driven quite a ways from the scene. In the moment that the shot rings out and the animal falls, the red fezzed Mohamed sprints instantaneously from the Jeep — knife drawn — racing against death — before the animal gives his last gasp.

Jens rests behind his ambush of anthill or bush chuckling, wondering whether or not Mohamed will make it. Sometimes he doesn't, and in that case there will be no meat for the Moslems in camp that night. They very conscientiously observe this rite — for which we must admire them. This means nothing to the Wakambas or the Turkanas — they know the animal is well and full of life when shot, and that is enough for them.

Sometimes when the animal is a real trophy the throat can't be cut because it will spoil the cape of the skin for mounting, and when we are short of camp meat, it is difficult for us to say, "No, do not cut the throat," because the boys are so pleasant and so nice. However, Andy is much sterner, and it isn't difficult for him to bark, "No—Stop—you big baboon!"

DON'T GET IMPATIENT

The other day Andy trudged back to the Jeep after a long trek, pushed his sweaty brown felt hat back on his head, and asked me in amazement as I smilingly greeted the men from my perch in the Jeep, "Peg, how can you be so patient? You wait for hours all by yourself and never crab about it?" I was puzzled. I get tired and antzy, yes, but it has never entered my head to be impatient. I'm in no hurry to go any place (unless I see a wild animal); no phones are ringing; no one expects anything from me. I relish my all aloneness. I'm in peaceful surroundings and at peace with myself.

To day dream — to watch the "stick fly" manipulate his long straw-like feelers around the long yellow grass stem — completely camouflaged, and now so out of place here on my khaki trousers; the childish occupation of prodding a column of ants on to their hole; to lie on one's back in the tall grasses and watch the sky. The African sky! "The heavens declare the Glory of God," and I have never before felt so keenly the majesty of His Being — so humbled — so grateful for all the beauty and happiness in the life I have already known.

To be alone with one's thoughts has its compensations.

Music Club Hears of Chamber Music

Chamber music was the program topic of the Music Club meeting for Dec. held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Hayden. Mrs. Robert Warren, who has been a member of chamber music groups was the program leader and told of the origin of this type of music and of its growth in Detroit and Ann Arbor and the present organizations in that area.

Following her talk Miss Sally Rentschler played Handel's Sonota for Flute" to the accompaniment of Mrs. William Hayden at the piano and with Mrs. Warren playing the cello in what is known as "basso continual."

The club chorus practiced after the program in preparation for their part in the public combined meetings of the Monday Club and the Business and Professional Woman's Club to be held Jan. 23 at the Baptist Youth House.

The hostesses then served refreshments with the assistance of Mrs. Clarence Brock and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins.

Christian Science Services Listed

The purifying power of true prayer will be set forth in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Sacrament" at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Bible passages will include the counsel of Christ Jesus regarding prayer (Matt. 6:6): "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly."

Continuing the explanation of prayer, a correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (15:9): "To enter into the heart of prayer, the door of the erring senses must be closed. Lips must be mute and materialism silent, that man may have audience with Spirit, the divine Principle, Love, which destroys all error."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (51:10): "Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me."

MESA Branches Out to Cover More Workers

More than four out of every five Michigan workers will be under the protection of the Michigan Employment Security Act in 1956, Max M. Horton, Commission Director, predicted today.

An expansion of the act to cover employers with as few as four persons on their payrolls during any 20 calendar weeks of the year is expected to add more than 200,000 additional workers to the 1,850,000 already covered by the act.

It will also double the number of employers affected, adding more than 30,000 to the 32,400 already enrolled in the program.

Effective date of the expansion, approved last spring by the Michigan State Legislature, is Jan. 1, 1956.

LETTER EXPLAINS IT

The Michigan Employment Security Commission is sending explanatory letters about Jan. 15 to more than 50,000 of the state's employers who might possibly come into the program under the new expansion. On the back of the letter is a form which the employer may use in electing to pay the required payroll tax on a quarterly basis.

Otherwise the amounts due for two or even three quarters may become payable at one time, Horton warned.

The tax payment is due on the 25th of the month following the close of the quarter in which the employer's payroll records make him subject to the act, Horton said. Any employer who becomes liable at any time of the year is liable for the entire year under the terms of the act.

About May 15 each of the employers listed in Federal Social Security Records as having employed from three to seven persons during the second quarter of 1955 will receive from the MESC its "UC-9" form from which liability is determined.

As an aid to the employer in keeping his necessary reports, the MESC has devised a small card listing each of the calendar weeks of 1956. Space is provided in which the employer can list at the end of each week the number of persons on his payroll that week.

RECORDS REVIEWED

At the end of the quarter he can briefly review this employment record and determine on how many weeks he employed as many as four persons.

Horton pointed out that the act is based on the calendar week and not on the fiscal week which so many businessmen use as their payroll basis.

On the reverse side of the card is a brief listing of the various categories of workers who must be included in figuring liability as well as those who may be excluded from consideration.

The payroll tax is 2.7 per cent — or $81 — of the first $3,000 earned by each employee during the year. This rate is maintained for four years after which it may be adjusted to as low as one-tenth of one per cent or as high as four per cent, depending on how much the employer has contributed to the fund and how much has been paid from the fund to his former employes.

It looks high priced
...but it's the '56 Chevrolet!

THE NEW BEL AIR SPORT COUPE—one of 19 high-priced-looking Chevrolet models.

It looks strictly "upper bracket" with its bold new Motoramic styling . . . its longer, lower hood . . . its proud new grille that spans the full front end.

But, even beyond the costly appearance of its Fisher Body, Chevy gives the high-priced cars a run for their money. For it's one of the few great road cars built today!

It brings you the added security of nailed-down stability on turns and lightning acceleration for safer passing. Horsepower now ranges all the way up to 205! All engines now have hydraulic-hushed valve lifters.

Of course, Chevrolet has safety door latches in all models. In addition, you can have seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

There's a new Chevrolet just made for you. So come in and highway-test it.

Spruce Up Pack Lunches in Winter

Winter is the time of year when packed lunches seem to bog down with "the same old thing."

Whether the children or the father of the family carries them, there are some basic A, B, C's to follow in making pack lunches, declares Rachelle Schemmel, instructor in foods and nutritions at Michigan State University.

First of all, a good lunch is fresh. You can keep supplies of fresh sandwich fillings in the refrigerator — even the bread can be kept in the freezer to insure freshness. Miss Schemmel suggests you keep the butter or margarine out at room temperature for easy spreading.

Second, a good lunch is attractive. Wrap sandwiches neatly in waxed paper or cellophane. Use waxed cups for salads or desserts, and a thermos bottle for hot or cold liquids. A glass screw-top jar for a hot stew or main dish is often a good idea. Paper towels can be wrapped around the jar to keep the food hot.

Third, the lunch should be nutritionally well balanced. The one serving of vegetable, which should be in every lunch, may be lettuce, romain or watercress in the sandwich or a vegetable filling such as lettuce and tomato. Celery curls, radish roses and carrot sticks can also be enclosed as relishes.

The lunch should have at least one serving of protein. The easiest way to do this, says Miss Schemmel, is to fill the sandwich with meat, cheese or eggs. Or, without sandwiches, many hot meat dishes pack well. Also included should be at least one fruit as a salad or dessert. A baked fruit, turnover, dumpling or tart can be an interesting surprise instead of the unpeeled orange or tangerine that is so often brought home uneaten.

A nutritional lunch should also have milk either as the beverage, or for the adult, as a creamed soup or custard or pudding dessert. Scalloped or cream dishes include a good supply of milk, too, concludes Miss Schemmel.

Need Help With Your Tax Forms?

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Russell C. Harrington has announced revised plans for assisting taxpayers in preparing their income tax forms during the coming filing period.

Outlining the plans, Commissioner Harrington said that Internal Revenue field offices will maintain expanded telephone service on all working days and will encourage taxpayers to call when tax questions arise. By this means, the service hopes to save many taxpayers the trouble of making personal visits to revenue offices.

For taxpayers who want more help than can be given over the telephone, the revenue service will designate special "taxpayer assistance days" throughout the filing period. On these days a full staff of employees will render assistance. Taxpayers should visit on designated "assistance days", but will be given all possible help on other working days, Commissioner Harrington said. On non-designated days, however, taxpayers may have to wait longer.

The offices will use a number of time-saving techniques to speed up service. In past years, most revenue offices simply made out each person's return for him. This slow method resulted in long lines of taxpayers with consequent long waits for service.

This year, every office will assign an employee to ask each person what kind of assistance he wants. Those who simply want forms, or have a question to ask, will be separated from those who want full assistance. All offices will adopt "self-help" methods, and will provide tables, pencils and forms so that taxpayers may fill out their own returns. When a taxpayers reaches an item that causes him difficulty, one of the revenue employees will advise him. By this means the service hopes to save time for taxpayers and its own employees.

Mrs. O. N. Rice Buried in Adrian

Mrs. Cynthia Rice, widow of Dr. O. N. Rice, who was well known in this area for many years when her husband practiced medicine in Tipton, died Dec. 27 at Thorn Memorial hospital in Hudson.

Mrs. Rice, who had been making her home with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Gove of Manitou Beach was 80 years of age. She was born in Ontario the daughter of George and Lucy George and after her marriage to Dr. Rice lived in Tipton and later in Adrian.

She is survived by two daughters, Lucille, Mrs. Gove and Mrs. Musa Rice Grove of Curtice, Ohio, both of whom attended high school in Tecumseh. Other survivors include three sisters, one brother, three grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. One sister, Mrs. Clara Bell of Adrian lived in Tecumseh for many years when her husband was connected with the railroad.

Funeral services for Mrs. Rice were held Thursday in Adrian and those attending from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Duaine Service, Mrs. Lawrence Drewyor, Miss Agnes McIntyre and Mr. and Mrs. Fay VanValkenburg.

GORGEOUS PACE
-and a figure you'll love
This new Buick SPECIAL 2-Door 6-Passenger Sedan delivers locally for less than some models of the well-known smaller cars. Come in and check!
BUICK

IF YOU think you can't afford a big-bodied, big-powered, big-muscled Buick like the one shown here—we'd like to set the matter straight.

If you can afford any new car, you can afford this strapping and stunning Buick SPECIAL Sedan—and no kidding.

For this Buick is tagged within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars — and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. The price we show here proves it.

So maybe you can understand why Buick—for two years running now—has outsold every other car in the land, except two of those well-known smaller cars.

But low price is just part of the picture.

Big reason for Buick's soaring sales sweep is that folks are finding here a lot more automobile for the money—more style boldness, more power thrill, more ride stability and more solid structure than the same dollars buy elsewhere.

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Any state and local taxes, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. A wide variety of extra-cost equipment and accessories available at your option.

Just ask yourself: wouldn't you rather go traveling with the lift and life and pace and poise of a stunning new Buick—when it's all yours at just about the price of a smaller car?

Drop in on us this very week—tomorrow would be fine—and we'll seat you at the wheel of the biggest and most beautiful bundle of high-powered Buick ever offered in America's low-price field.

Best Buick yet

Soil Conservation District Meets

The annual meeting of the Lenawee Soil Conservation District will be held at 8:15 p.m. on Jan. 25 in Palmyra Community Hall, it was announced today by Hal Benner, chairman of the district board.

This was determined at the regular meeting of the board held in the district office Dec. 6. Present were directors Hal Benner, Clarence Ehlert, Clarence Kleidinst and Lloyd Ruesink. Also present was Woodrow Barclay, U.S. Soil Conservation Service.

In addition to entertainment and refreshments, a vote will be held to fill vacancies of two board memberships. A nominating committee comprised of Howard Evans, Robert Hanke, Norman Richardson and Coe Smith was appointed to select nominees to fill the expired terms of Clarence Ehlert and Clarence Kleidinst. The committee nominated Clarence Kleidinst, Jasper, Mich. and Frank Gerber, Route 2, Blissfield for the southeast quarter of the district, and Clarence Ehlert, Palmyra, and Merritt Wattles, Route 1, Tipton for the northeast.

All occupiers of land who hold title to or are in possession of three or more acres of any lands lying within the district are elgible to attend and to participate in the director's election. A "land occupier" or "occupier of land" includes any person, firm or corporation who shall hold title to, or shall be in possession of, any lands three acres or more in extent lying within a district organized under the provisions of the Districts Act whether as owner, lessee, renter, tenant, or otherwise.

When your cookbook says to cut meat "julienne' 'style, cut it into long, slender strips. To "lard" a roast means to insert strips of fat in gashes made in the meat or to insert them into lean meat by means of a larding needle. "Marinating" means to allow the meat to stand in French dressing or a mixture of oil and vinegar. To "saute" means to cook in a small amount of hot fat.

Phone Men Go Back to School

The old school bell is a telephone bell for the installer-repairman of General Telephone Company. Gathering from all over the state, six men for each two week course, the students are instructed in the training classroom on the fifth floor of the Muskegon telephone building.

Telephone repair, maintenance, installation and even pole climbing are part of the curriculum. Instructed by Joe Dumas, veteran installer-repairman, the classroom work includes practical laboratory periods as well as visual-aid instruction by film. Standardization of installation and service procedures, orientation to new developments in telephony, and re-emphasis on service philosophy from the core of the training program. Pretests to determine know-how are followed by intensive eight-hour-a-day sessions. Post-tests evaluate the accomplishments and each "graduate" is awarded a certificate of completion at the termination of the two weeks course. Five groups have graduated to date, with a fresh class starting every two weeks.

General Telephone's training supervisor, Frank Johnson, points out that this course is the initial phase of a comprehensive training program which will extend to all areas of the operational phases of the telephone business. Employees who have completed or are presently in the training school are: Arthur R. Boyer, L'Anse, Robert T. Getz, Swartz Creek, William E. Freese, Deckerville, Jack E. Frederick, Three Rivers, Dale W. Clark, Dundee, Russell H. Carlson, Manistique, Conrad R. Nelson, Harry S. Shafer, Ludington, Robert H. Bancroft, Harold L. Sheldon, Grand Ledge, Jacob E. Wagner, Harry L. Groenink, Coopersville, Walter H. Norman, Temperance, Ralph H. King, W. Jack West, Sturgis, Jack E. Kipfer, O. Keith Filley, Harry R. Byers, Coldwater, Ferris M. Brown, Marshall D. Sowden, Charles B. Grosskopf, Imlay City, and Gerald M. Barringer, Harold R. Keikkinen, Gerald F. Curtis, James E. Miller, Ronald J. DeMarr, Allen L. Fink, Floyd G. Puckett, Basil S. Bud, Gerald E. Civis, from Muskegon.

Aliens Must Report Addresses

Commissioner J. M. Swing announced today the Immigration and Naturalization Service expects some 2,600,000 aliens to report their addresses in Jan. under the 1956 Alien Address Report Program.

The Commissioner explained that under the 1952 Immigration and Nationality Act every alien in the United States must report his address to the service each Jan.

More than 2,300,000 aliens filled out cards last Jan. under the program, and the figure is expected to reach more than two and one-half million in 1956.

Mr. James W. Butterfield of the Detroit office of the service said 132,000 aliens registered under the program in this state last year, and a slight increase is expected under the 1956 registration.

The immigration spokesman pointed out that every noncitizen (except persons in diplomatic status and foreign representatives assigned to the United Nations) in the United States must report his address to the government each year in Jan.

He said each alien must fill out a registration card available at U.S. Post Offices or at the nearest immigration office.

Parents may fill out cards for their children under age 14. Legal guardians of aliens in custodial care should fill out the address reports for such persons.

Pythians Have Joint Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Josephine H. Hall Temple of the Pythian Sisters held Dec. 28, Mrs. George Green Sr. and Mrs. John Stephens were duly elected as protector and guard after being elected pro tem at the previous meeting.

A tentative date of May 10 was selected for the district convention of Pythian Sisters which is to be held in Tecumseh this spring and Mrs. Edna Staulter, Mrs. Cecile Smith and Mrs. Carl Thompson were appointed as a committee to obtain a suitable meeting place. The same three ladies were also appointed as the sunshine committee for Jan.

Thursday evening, Dec. 29 the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters of the local temple held a joint social meeting at the Pythian hall. It was a building fund holiday party and included a cooperative ham dinner. Instead of the customary gift exchange of the season each member contributed one dollar to the building fund.

The supper committee was Mrs. Luther Wood, Mrs. George Green Sr. and Robert Wood and the same three with Mrs. Edna Staulter at the piano led the 30 guests present in group singing after the supper. Cards were the entertainment of the evening.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Randolph and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hornby of Adrian.

Another joint party of the two groups is planned for next month, the date to be announced later.

Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wood entertained at a turkey dinner Monday evening of the Christmas weekend honoring the birthday anniversary of Mr. Wood's uncle, Glenn Wood of Adrian. The guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Floyd Biddix and daughter Ronda Kay of Topeka, Kans., Mrs. Flora Wood of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wood of Tecumseh. On Christmas Day the Robert and Luther Wood families attended a holiday reunion party of the Wood family held in the Palmyra community fire hall. There were 50 members of the family present.

Julia Boyce, Sharon Reis and Ray Puffer III attended a reunion of the members of the Michigan Synod summer camp Wednesday of last week. It was held at the Presbyterian church at Centerline, Mich., and included a social afternoon and supper served at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Elman Service of Ann Arbor were Christmas weekend guests of his father, Duaine Service and Mrs. Service.

Miss Agnes McIntyre returned to her teaching position in Muskegon, Monday after spending the holidays with her sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sisson. Christmas guests in the Sisson home were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore and family and John McIntyre of Detroit and Mrs. Jay Morse of Tecumseh.

Short Courses Are Available for Farmers

Young men in Lenawee county have an opportunity to choose any of the five eight-week short courses for farmers at Michigan State University, starting Jan. 9.

County 4-H Club Agent Ray Piffers said the courses include:

Agricultural engineering — Subjects include farm shop, electrification, machinery, gas engines and tractors, irrigation and drainage and farm buildings.

Dairy production — Subjects include dairy cattle judging, feeding, management, diseases, milking, forage crops and soil management.

Fruit production — Subjects include fruit production, machinery used, diseases, insects, soils, beekeeping and farm management.

General agriculture — (The first 8-week term of the two-year program). Subjects include one course in each of these departments: Animal husbandry, dairy, agricultural economics, poultry, farm crops and soil science.

Poultry production — Subjects include poultry breeding, judging, incubation, brooding, management, agricultural engineering and bacteriology.

A four-week vegetable production course also is offered next term. Subjects include vegetable growing, soils, insect control, vegetable diseases, farm accounts and machinery.

The local extension office has details on how to enroll for a short course.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

MARILOU BURLESON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burleson of Tecumseh has set a fine record at Cleary College. Taking six courses, she compiled a straight "A" average for the first term. It was the first time in the history of the Ypsilanti college that a student taking six courses obtained a perfect report.

WHEN JOHNNY COOK, a bright little eighth grader was asked what disease may result from a lack of vitamin "C," he answered "crickets." Of course he only had one too many "c's" in his answer

DID YOU KNOW that a pheasant can and will roost? A gorgeous cock roosted in a tree behind Harvey Robinson's on north Union last Thursday. If you don't believe it, ask Buck Maynard.

A LADY DROPPED INTO the office and, seeing the staff of 'Smoke Signals" clustered about working on this week's issue, she asked: "This is the HERALD office, isn't it?" We told her that it was, but we could hardly resist telling her that she was in the juvenile home.

THE NEXT BEST THING was done by Chuck Butler when he shipped in a bunch of Rose Bowl hats with Michigan State University markings for a party. His friends had been after him to try to get him to pick up the tab for a trip to see MSU play in the Rose Bowl. Instead he invited the six couples to his house for a party and gave them the hats which came directly from the bowl, the Rose Bowl that is.

Hobbies Displayed by Monday Club Women

Interesting displays of the hobbies of club members were exhibited at the Methodist church Monday afternoon for the Jan. 9 meeting of the Monday Club with Mrs. Charles Allen as chairman. There were sample collections of salt and peppers, pitchers, china painting, water colors and oils and many types of needle work.

About 50 were present and the meeting began with group singing, using the song books of Mrs. R. S. Moore. Thank you notes were read from the federation officers and others who were guests at the Holly and Tinsel breakfast of the club in Dec.

The president, Mrs. Murphy announced the winter meeting of the county federation to be held at the Adrian Library, Feb. 2 with a potluck dinner at noon. Further details of this meeting were supplied by the federation president, Mrs. Eugene Ryan, who with Mrs. Frank Reynolds of Onsted were guests at the meeting.

Announcement was also made of the musical program of the club, Feb. 6 which will be held in the Methodist church parlors rather than in the home of Mrs. R. J. McCoy as originally planned, and of the public meeting on Jan. 23 to be given in conjunction with the Business and Professional Woman's Club. A type of family night, this is to begin with a 6:30 supper at the Baptist Youth House followed by a chalk talk by Arthur Sinclair of Detroit. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Robert Bonner, Miss Lillian Cannon and Mrs. Carlos Jones.

The program leader, Mrs. R. J. McCoy then introduced Mrs. Truman Rentschler, who spoke on her special hobby which is bells. She traced the history of bells from their origin in China, told of the various materials used over the centuries and described the uses of bells in many lands, saying that England is known as the land of bells, that the most beautiful ones are in Rome, the largest in Russia and that the Swiss bell ringers are the most famous in that type of musical group.

When Mrs. Rentschler asked for comments, Mrs. Claus of Tipton said that the bell at the Community church there had been brought from Boston in 1874. Another member noted that Mrs. Eisenhower is interested in promoting the ringing of Easter bells across the nation at dawn on Easter morning.

Mrs. Clarence Brock was in charge of the refreshments committee in the absence of Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney and Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Allen poured tea from a table decorated by a blossoming gloxinia plant.

Mrs. Robert Fuller Elected Head of Hospital Auxiliary

Election of officers and reports of out-going committees and officers were the main items of business at the annual meeting of the Hospital Auxiliary, Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian Fellowship Center.

The report of the nominating committe resulted in the election of the following officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Rob- Fuller; vice president, Mrs. Earl Baldwin; second vice president, Mrs. Cecile Smith; secretary, Mrs. Carlos Jones; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Wilson of Clinton; treasurer, Mrs. John Surratt; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Ned Rosacrans and custodian, Mrs. Veva Connor. Auxiliary directors for 1956 are Mrs. Orrie Gilbert and Mrs. H. H. Hanna.

Among the reports of officers and chairmen was a very inspiring one about the holiday ball and also regarding the success of the hospital cart. Funds from the latter project have been used to purchase a coffee maker for the hospital kitchen.

The guest speaker of the evening, Dr. Howard Eddy of Adrian brought his audience a very thoughtful and informative talk on the subject of cardiac diseases, their cure and care. He emphasized the fact that people who learn they have heart trouble and take proper precautions seldom die of that disease, and he outlined what those precautions are. He also outlined proper health habits that would act as preventive measures.

Refreshments following the meeting were served by Mrs. Elwyn Merx, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. John Surratt, Mrs. Jean O'Neill, Mrs. Harry Richard and Mrs. William P. Snook.

CHURCH MEETS

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held Thursday, Jan. 12 with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. Coffee, rolls and meat dishes will be furnished.

The meeting will be held in the church.

NEW CAR FOR SCHOOL — This new Plymouth four door sedan, courtesy of Wilson's Motor Sales, has been donated to teaching sisters of St. Elizabeth's school for their use during the school year.

Harvey Wilson, owner of the car agency, hands the keys to Sister Anne Xavier, principal of the school, as the Rev. Father Thomas Collins, pastor of St. Elizabeth's church, watches.

Booths Are Sold for M. M. Show

All 38 booths have been sold for the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Show sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The show will be held in the United Products Workers' Union Hall Feb. 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Twenty-eight merchants have been signed for the show, some of whom are taking more than one booth for their displays.

The list concludes with Meyers Aircraft, Elmer W. Eberdardt Insurance, Easton's Friendly Service, Locke Roofing Co., Andy Ransom, R. S. Moore & Son Co., Tecumseh Electric, Tecumseh Tire Service, Weatherseal, Culligan's Soft Water, Gambles, Hodges Drug Store, Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association and Kohler Real Estate.

Ken Hinkleman is chairman of the show this year.

BLEACHERS

The Jaycees now have $334 toward their $1000 goal to help provide bleachers for the recreation field.

The club realized $214 from its football banquet and $120 from its Christmas trees sale.

It has three more projects planned. One is the glee club sing Saturday night; one is a womanless wedding and one is a donkey basketball game.

BOY INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Francis Reed, 4, of Britton, suffered a large gash on his forehead Tuesday at 9 a.m. when a car driven by his mother, Mrs. Patricia Reed, 26, of Britton, hit a patch of ice on Adrian street near Cummins street, went out of control and hit a utility pole. The car, going south, was demolished.

RIDGEWAY TOWNSHIP PASSES REGULATIONS

The Ridgeway Township board has enacted a building code which includes plumbing, heating and electrical installations; regulations providing for the storage and use of house trailers; and it has provided a zoning board.

WANT A JOB?

The closing date for the substitute clerk carrier examination at the Tecumseh post office is Jan. 24, reports Jack Metcalf, postmaster. Those interested may apply at the local post office for application blanks.

Yearning for Learning?

There Are 15 Adult Evening Classes

Registration of adult evening classes will be Monday, Jan. 16, from 7 to 9 p.m. at the high school in room 13. A schedule of the 15 different class offerings is on page two.

An explanation of a few of the courses follows: An ORCHESTRA will be directed by Mr. Robert C. Smith. As a beginning for a community orchestra, it will be necessary to require at least a string quartet of two violins, a viola, and cello. Anyone with an instrument and the ability to play is invited to audition with Mr. Smith Tuesday evening, Jan. 24 at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Persons not able to audition at this time may make other arrangements by phoning Mr. Smith, 87-J.

Would you like to play in a BAND? Can you play a BAND instrument? Under the direction of the high school band director, Mr. Don Johnson, a BAND for adults will be formed for the pleasure of so many who were once able to play a band instrument and who now feel it would be fun to do it again. Regardless, if you played a year ago or 50 years ago, you are welcome to join. Such instruments as bass drum, baritone, and French horn are available as is a variety of music from pop tunes and marches to the light overture and concert type numbers. Dust the horn off, loosen up the lip and enroll for a period of fun in the ADULT EVENING BAND. About 20 persons are needed as a minimum. There is no maximum.

OFFICE MACHINES—A rotated plan of instruction will be given on the following machines: DICTAPHONE with the use of a new Smith electromatic typewriter. Eighteen dictation belts will be furnished on which there are five letters per belt.

FRIDEN CALCULATOR, BURROUGH CALCULATOR, COMPTOMETER, ADDING MACHINE training will be given in the correct methods of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division.

Not only stencils and hectograph carbons will be typed but mimeoscope drawings will also be made and duplicated on the A. B. Dick mimeograph and hectograph machines.

TYPEWRITING—A business college instruction plan will be used for typewriting. Each typist, either beginner or advanced, will determine his individual needs and progress at his own rate.

The adult evening program offers a class in DRAWING and PAINTING conducted by Russell Steinke. Beginning and advanced students are accepted. It is the instructor's aim to prepare the student artist for individual and creative expression in his chosen medium through an intensive and thorough knowledge of drawing. The study of light and shade, color, and composition and their application to drawing and painting are the subjects given particular importance.

Courses will be offered only with sufficient enrollment. REGISTER EARLY — JOIN OUR CLASSES — HAVE FUN WHILE YOU WORK AND LEARN, urges Mr. Delmar Crisp, director.

Cub Scout Show Set for Saturday

The annual county-wide Cub Scout show of handicraft and live demonstrations of making handicraft will be held in the United Products Workers' Union Hall Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Games and stunts also will be displayed as well as the pinewood derby racers.

RRecognition will be given for "proficient" and "standard" work.

Packs in the Tecumseh area that will take part are Pack 4, Tecumseh, Dr. R. E. Dustin, cubmaster; Pack 23 of Britton, John Slick, cubmaster; and Pack 73 of Tecumseh, Erwin Richardson, cubmaster.

THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Perkins and baby daughter Vickie of Franklin Township publicly thank the merchants who gave prizes in the first baby contest.

"We appreciated these items very much," Mr. and Mrs. Perkins said, and Tiny Vickie added a "goo."

Merchants giving prizes to the family last Thursday were Easton's Friendly Service, Lad & Lassie Shop, the Rosacrans Store, Eggleston's Cleaners, Eggleston's Jewelry, Sluyter Electric, Western Auto, Meadowridge Dairy, Dixon's Studio and the HERALD.

Brownie Troop 13 Elects Officers

Lily-of-the-Valley Brownie Troop No. 13 held its first meeting of 1956, Monday with election of new officers.

They are: president, Joan Forrester; vice president, Shirley Mitchell; secretary, Judith Purkey and treasurer, Marilee Kiser. The outgoing officers are Vickie Lord, Donna Grigg, Marilyn Beland and Joan Forrester.

Other members of the troop are Cathy Custard, Fawn Choske, Carlyn Fletcher, Sharon Gillis, Connie Harrison and Sandra Petrovish. Their leader is Mrs. Junior Fouts assisted by Mrs. Wilmer Kiser and they are sponsored by the Abi Evans chapter D.A.R.

During Dec. the troop made Christmas gifts for their parents and Dec. 19 were entertained at the American Legion hall by Girl Scout Troop 17 led by Mrs. Orville Bishop. The big sister—little sister party included a potluck supper, games, a visit from Santa Claus and carolling.

Central PTA Meets Thursday

Carson House, president, reminds members of the Central school PTA of the important meeting at the school next Thursday night, Jan. 19, at 8 p.m.

Members, he said, will discuss "those important 1956 projects considered necessary to students' welfare."

He urges parents to mark their calendar to remind themselves of the meeting.

Monday Club and BPW Plan Public Dinner

Arthur A. Sinclair, artist-lecturer will use the subject, "The Lighter Side" when he gives a chalk talk Monday evening, Jan. 23 under the sponsorship of the Monday Club and the Business and Professional Woman's Club.

His lecture will follow a 6:30 public dinner at the Baptist Youth House and the event will be in the nature of a "family night" for Tecumseh.

Mr. Sinclair, who received his early training at the Chicago Art Museum and has had years of platform experience, uses chalk of many colors to sketch the large brilliant pictures which illustrate his themes as he speaks.

He has had a wide experience in other fields of art, in personnel and recreation work in industry and in editing an important industrial magazine. He is also an enthusiastic naturalist and has a special appeal for children.

Further information as to reservations and tickets will be given later.

ARTHUR SINCLAIR

Patterson PTA Hears Babb

Delinquency is a most severe problem but the number of boys and girls "going to the dogs" is a small fraction of the total, declared Roy Babb of the Lenawee County Probate Court before members of Patterson PTA last Thursday.

Introduced by John Surratt, Mr. Babb explained that the probate judge is the juvenile judge taking cases of boys and girls up to 17 years of age.

The three departments in the department are dependent children, neglected children and delinquent children.

Cases may be referred to probate court by petition (complaint) or unofficially. In both instances investigations are made.

No community has a priority on delinquency, he said.

The countless and complex reasons causing delinquency, he added, complicate the problem.

SCHOOL MEETING PLANNED

Macon village school district No. 1 will meet Monday, Jan. 16 at 8 p.m. at the school to discuss annexation. All interested persons are invited to attend.

Planning Commission Gets Street Numbering Problem

Members of the city planning commission with Ed Nelson, city manager, are studying ways by which street house numbers may be improved and possibly simplified.

The problem was referred to the planning commission by the council after a communication from Dr. R.G.B. Marsh for the staff of physicians at Herrick Memorial hospital.

Dr. Marsh's letter follows:

Your attention is invited to the following communication. It is recommended by the staff of the Herrick Memorial hospital that the commissioners of the City of Tecumseh take the necessary action to improve the system of numbering the houses of the city for the following reasons:

1. Many buildings have no numbers.
2. The numbers on a large number of residential buildings are not in a logical sequence.
3. Numerous instances exist where numbers are the same color as that of the building making it exceedingly difficult to locate a house at night.
4. There is a lack of uniformity of the location of the number.
5. There are numerous instances where the number is located on a sign board or other object in the yard which is often obscured by over hanging branches of shrubbery or snow.

It is further recommended that recent and future changes of street names be made a matter of public information.

It is the opinion of the physicians of Tecumseh that improved service to the citizens can be rendered if action is taken to improve the state of confusion that now exists in locating places to which they may be called.

Yours truly,
R.G.B. Marsh, M.D.
Vice-Chief of Staff

Councilman Don Purkey, also a volunteer fireman, reported to the council that firemen also have a difficult time in finding houses during fire alarms because of the number situation.

The city planning commission currently is studying the problem with Ed Nelson, city manager, and recommendations as to how to correct the problem probably will be forthcoming.

DIMES

The Tecumseh-Raisin district March of Dimes, under its director, Mrs. Rolland Reister, is organized for the Jan. campaign. The Tecumseh chairman is Mrs. Harold Easton, who is assisted by Mrs. Ted Golat. Mrs. Charles Stevenson is also on the committee as is the treasurer, Mrs. Wellington Wotring.

Canisters have been placed in the stores by Dave Vanderpool for members of the Legion Auxiliary Drill Team and the annual Mothers' March will be conducted by the auxiliaries of the V.F.W. and the Legion. Anyone else who is willing to assist with this porch light drive is asked to get in touch with Mrs. Easton or Mrs. Warren Filter.

Letters have been sent to all local organizations asking for support of the drive which ends Jan. 31.

The Mothers' March will be held Thursday, Jan. 26, from 7 to 8 p.m.

A county-wide project "Peanuts for Polio" will be sponsored this Saturday by the Teen Club.

MSU Glee Club Sings Here Sat.

Another project in the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce's program to help build a fund for permanent bleachers for the recreation field will take place here Saturday night when the Jaycees sponsor the Michigan State University Men's Glee Club concert in the high school gym at 8 p.m.

A 60-voice club appeared on the Ed Sullivan Christmas show. And it will appear this year in many Michigan communities to gain further experience and provide cultural entertainment. In addition, the men will present concerts on the Spartan campus, and on numerous radio and TV programs.

Men from practically every college on campus make up the Glee Club. It is a non-credit activity, the men participating for their own enjoyment and musical advancement. The M.S.U. Glee Club has been a source of entertainment for Michigan people since 1880.

The singers will be directed here by Edward Richmond. He has a wide experience as a professional vocalist, student of music and conductor.

A local committee has been established, under the chairmanship of Bob Mohr with Karl Schneider, Bob Breniff, Joe Conway, and Dave Faling to help with the staging of the concert, the promotion of the program and other details.

Services Held for Edwin Baldwin

Tecumseh relatives were in Howell Sunday to attend the funeral services for Edwin Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Baldwin and grandson of Mrs. Nina Heath, which were held Sunday afternoon in the Howell Presbyterian church. His death occurred Wednesday, Jan. 4, at Limon, Colo., as the result of a traffic accident.

Edwin, who was 17 years of age and a senior at Howell high school had gone to Colorado to spend the holidays with his older brother, Peter who had been working for a short time at the Aspen Ski Resort near Estes. They were returning to Michigan and the car apparently struck a patch of ice, spun around and overturned, throwing both boys clear. Edwin was killed instantly.

He is survived by his parents, both of whom formerly lived in Tecumseh; two brothers, Peter and Mark; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baldwin, who are in Florida and Mrs. Nina Heath of Tecumseh. His mother was formerly Marguerite Reid, daughter of Mrs. Heath; Mrs. Jennie Satterlee is a great aunt and Ned Baldwin is an uncle.

Those attending from Tecumseh were Mr. and Mrs. Ned Baldwin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin, Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. Bobbie Robison and sons and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Williams and family.

New Rec Program Begins Jan. 21

The city recreation board's recreation program will begin Saturday, Jan. 21, in the high school gym.

The gym will be open from 9 a.m. to 12 noon for boys six years of age and over and for men who want to take part.

Recreational supervisors will be Vic Lawson and Don Brazee.

Saturday afternoon of the same day the gym will be open for women from 1 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Sam Sisson will supervise the ladies' program.

All types of recreation will be given every Saturday for 12 Saturdays through March.

DEADLINE LOOMS

Sunday, Jan. 15, is the deadline for paying city water and sewerage bills without penalty. The city office will be open until noon Saturday.

PATTERSON

The kindergartners are now studying community helpers — the firemen, milkmen, doctors, nurses, and many others. They have learned some nice songs and many other things about their friends who make our town a better place in which to live.

First graders are all ready to work hard in 1956 because they know they have many things yet to learn if they are to be second graders next year.

Dean Hebb spent his Christmas vacation in West Virginia. He brought back some boughs of holly that everyone enjoyed seeing.

"It was so nice to have a vacation and now we are glad to be back in school again," says the second grade at Patterson. One reading group has been looking forward to the new reading books which they are now using.

We are going to learn all we can about houses in the next two or three weeks. We're going to start with houses in Tecumseh and hope to find out about the kind people use in other places too.

Out bulletin board is also a weather chart this month. We want to find out if there are more sunny days than cloudy days in January and the temperature for each day.

The fifth grade is glad to be back in school and wishes everyone a Happy and Healthy New Year. We each brought a Christmas gift to show to our classmates. Then we wrote stories about our Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Murdock is teaching for Miss Baker while she is in California.

CHILD STUDY CLUB PLANS BAKE SALE

Mrs. Roy Cadmus, teacher in the Tecumseh schools, was the guest speaker at the Child Study Club Monday evening. Her topic was "Developing Work Habits and Responsibility" and she spoke from much experience as both a teacher and a mother.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Ries in Ridgeway, who was assisted by Mrs. George Green Jr. and Mrs. Owen Partridge. A new member, Mrs. Lloyd Westcott was introduced and guests of the evening were Mrs. Don Twiss, Mrs. Douglas Sisson and Mrs. Harold Ries.

Plans were made for a bake sale which the club will sponsor, Saturday, Jan. 14 at Eberhardt's insurance office. The sale will open at 9:30 a.m.

Family night will be observed by the club at their next meeting in Feb.

BIRTHS

Jan. 5, to Mr. and Mrs. William Tilton, Clinton, a son.

Jan 5, to Mr. and Mrs. William Geissler, Tecumseh, a son.

Jan. 6, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis, Manchester, a daughter.

Jan. 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Brockway, Petersburg, a son.

Jan. 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman, Tipton, a daughter.

Jan. 9, to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson, Deerfield, a son.

Frank P. Keeney Died in Chicago

Frank Perry Keeney, who was born and spent his boyhood on the family farm, Keeney Orchards, near Tipton died early Monday morning in Chicago after a period of failing health. He was associated with the Keeney Publishing Co. of Chicago, which he founded and which specialized in trade publications relating to heating and air conditioning.

Mr. Keeney was born Nov. 4, 1877, the son of the late Joseph and Margaret Perry Keeney, attended Franklin rural schools and graduated from Tecumseh high school with the class of 1896. He spent most of his mature life in Chicago where he married Mrs. Edna Craig Clark in 1930. His home there for many years had been at the South Shore Country Club.

Besides his wife he is survived by one brother, John R. Keeney of Tipton, who with Mrs. Keeney is now in Florida; one sister, Ruth, Mrs. James Waldron of Burlingame, Calif., and four nephews, John Keeney of Tipton, Pfc. Frank P. Keeney with the army at Fort Benning, Ga., and [illegible] and Lawrence Waldron, both of Calif. Beth, Geneva and Perry Satterthwaite of Tecumseh are cousins.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in Chicago and the body was brought to the Collins Funeral Home in Tecumseh, Wednesday. Burial services were conducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. in Brookside cemetery by the Rev. E. C. Dickin of St. Peter's Episcopal church. A group of business associates from Chicago and New York accompanied Mrs. Keeney returning to Chicago by train after the services.

7 to 9 P.M.

High School — Room 13

The car says GO and the price won't stop you!

Invest in Dependability... get a Bonus in Go!

You can buy it on its name alone—this big, high-powered '56 Pontiac—and be safe in the knowledge that you couldn't have made a better investment in years of dependable, carefree motoring.

The good things you've been hearing about Pontiac for years assure you that.

But "go" is the word for '56! Performance so new and dramatic it must be experienced to be believed!

A short spell behind the wheel will nail that statement down as a fact. Come along for a drive and see.

Waiting for the light to change, you can't hear the engine. But touch your toe to the accelerator and in a split second there's a torrent of power, sparked by the most advanced engine of them all—the blazing 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8.

Team this terrific power plant with Pontiac's all-new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic* and you've got the smoothest take-off that ever brightened a highway.

And remember—this easy handling dream is actually among the biggest, huskiest cars built!

Now for the final test—head for the open road and some landmarks you can challenge. Wipe out a hill. Straighten a curve. Smooth out a stretch of rough road that's bothered you for years.

Now see why they're calling this the greatest "go" on wheels?

More than that—it's the greatest buy on wheels! And that too, is easy to prove.

Nothing will stop this powerful beauty from being yours!

*An extra-cost option.

COUPLES HONORED

A "Best Wishes" party was held Saturday evening in the Macon church dining room honoring 12 couples who were married in 1955. They were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Monigan, Mr. and Mrs. John Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore of Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Taylor of Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold VanValkenburg of Willow Village, Mr. and Mrs. William Rhoades of Saline, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Van Valkenburg of Deerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark and Mr. and Mrs Malcolm Bates of Clinton.

The Rev. Vaughn Whited had charge of games and contests and presented each couple with a leatherbound family Bible. There will also be flowers placed on the church altar for 12 Sundays in their honor, a different couple receiving the flowers each Sunday after the service.

Seventy-five guests attended the party from Ann Arbor, Saline, Deerfield, Tecumseh, Clinton, Britton and Macon. It is planned to make this an annual affair.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. Melvin Travis was hostess to the Jan. meeting of the Macon Women's Society of Christian Service. Mrs. Lois Jordan opened the meeting with devotions and Mrs. Lina Kuder had charge of the program. A reading, "My Creed" was followed by the lesson on misisonary work.

Mrs. Donna Scudder conducted the business meeting in the absence of the president and vice president. Feb. 22 was the date chosen for the father and son banquet. "Talent dollars" will be turned in at the Feb. meeting at which there will be a potluck dinner. Mrs. Rose Gilmore, chairman of the sunshine committee since 1942, reported on the activities of that committee.

Susan Rose Sloan Services Today

Susan Rose Sloan, baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James N. Sloan of 7980 Occidental road died Monday evening in the University hospital, Ann Arbor. She was nine months old, having been born April 5, 1955, and had been a patient at the hospital for only four days.

She is survived by her parents; a brother, James Jr.; a sister, Mrs. Alison Rye of Tecumseh and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlop of Boyne City, Mich.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 a.m. at the Green Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. George Walworth. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery in Clinton.

Richard Pearson Weds Danella Marie Hewitt

MRS. RICHARD PEARSON

The many friends of Richard Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pearson of Tecumseh will be interested to learn of his marriage, Dec. 28, to Miss Danella Marie Hewitt of Westfield, N. J. Miss Hewitt's parents are Dr. and Mrs. John G. Hewitt of Westfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Pearson, their grandson, James Cook, and Miss Ann Carson, all of Tecumseh, attended the wedding, which took place at 5 p.m. in Holy Trinity Church in Westfield.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and the double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henry J. Watterson before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums, snap dragons and roses. Baskets of the same flowers with poinsettas were used throughout the church and the pews were marked with clusters of white chrysanthemums tied with satin ribbon. Nuptial music was played by the church organist, who also accompanied a soprano soloist.

Miss Hewitt's attendants were her sister, Rosemarie Hewitt who was her maid of honor and her sister, Gloria Hewitt, Miss Margaret Alexanderson of Westfield and Mrs. Alan Lowe of Morristown who were bridesmaids. Mr. Pearson was assisted by Joseph McGuffigan of Boston as best man. John Nolan, Vincent Lombardi and Richard Miller all of Boston were ushers.

The bridal gown of antique satin was made with a cathedral train and fitted bodice which had a yoke of heirloom lace that had been worn by her mother and grandmother. Other heirloom lace formed the cap which held her illusion veil and she carried a lace handkerchief which is an heirloom in the groom's family. Her flowers were Albe Plana camelias and stephanotis on a satin covered prayerbook and she wore a diamond set, gold cross which was the groom's gift.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore velvet gowns of poinsettia red with which they carried white fur muffs with clusters of Woodville red camellias.

Mrs. Hewitt wore beige lace in cocktail length with brown orchids and a tiny sequined hat. Mrs. Pearson's dress was blue lace. Her corsage was of white butterfly orchids with pink rose buds and her hat and gloves were pink.

Following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held at the Fortnightly Club where a wedding supper was served to the guests who were seated at small tables. The club was lavishly decorated with white flowers which also garlanded the serving table which held a beautifully decorated, tiered wedding cake.

The new Mrs. Pearson is a graduate of William and Mary College and is associated with the Harvard School of Public Health. The bridegroom, who graduated from the University of Michigan in 1950 is a senior at Boston University School of Law. Until his graduation they will live at 91 Kilmarnock St. in Boston.

Tuesday evening preceding the wedding the out of town guests and the bridal party were entertained at a rehearsal dinner at the Echo Lake Country Club and Wednesday morning the same group attended an 11 o'clock brunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Richter in Summit, N.J.

RESOLUTION

Meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, held on the 3rd day of January 1956.

Present: Supervisor J. V. Ferman, Trustee Frank Kniffen. Trustee Charles Fairbanks, Trustee Viva Brown.

Abrest: Trustee Lester Edelbrock.

The following preamble and resolution was offered by Trustee Fairbanks and supported by Trustee Kniffen.

WHEREAS the recent experience of divers municipalities has indicated the primary importance of appropriate building regulation legislation to protect the health and morals of the populace and to preserve property values; and

WHEREAS this Township does not have a Building Code in effect.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Township Board declare its intent of proceeding under the provisions of Act 185, Public Acts of Michigan of 1943, to enact appropriate standards of building practices, including plumbing and electrical installations, to be followed in the unincorporated portions of the Township of Ridgeway.

2. That the Township Clerk be instructed to publish a copy of this resolution in The Tecumseh Herald, said publication to be had no later than 10 days hereafter.

Ayes: Unanimous.

Nays: None.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest:

Viva C. Brown, Clerk.

Dated: 3 January 1956. 1-12

ORDINANCE

Meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee and State of Michigan, held on the 3rd day of January. 1956.

Present: Supervisor J. V. Ferman, Trustees Kniffen, Fairbanks and Brown.

Absent: Trustee Edelbrock.

The following preamble and ordinance was offered by Trustee Fairbanks and supported by Trustee Kniffen.

WHEREAS past experience has indicated the necessity of regulating the storage and use of house-trailers, both for the protection for the inhabitants thereof as well as for the preservation of property values.

NOW THEREFORE THE TOWNSHIP OF RIDGEWAY ORDAINS:

1. That this ordinance be enacted immediately, the same to be Effective 1 February 1956.

2. PARKING OF TRAILERS. It shall be unlawful for any automotive trailer designed or utilized for occupancy, whether on wheels or not, to be parked or stored on any public or private property within the Township limits, save and except under the following terms and conditions:

(a). The owner or custodian of such trailer shall petition the Township Board for a temporary permit. If such permit be granted, the Township Clerk will, upon payment of $3.00 deliver to the owner or custodian a license. Such license will be prominently displayed on the trailer and will be in such a position as to be clearly discernible from the nearest public street.

(b). Each such permit will be valid for a period of one month but may be renewed by payment, before the expiration of such month, to the Township Clerk, of $1.00. Each such permit may be renewed 5 times. but no more. Persons desiring a trailer to remain for longer periods than 6 months must again petition the Township Board for a new license.

(c). This ordinance shall not prevent the Township Board from establishing by resolution, from time to time, authorized trailer areas within the Township wherein the provisions of this ordinance shall not apply.

(d). Any house trailer stored, but not occupied, is exempt from the payment of a license fee. However, said trailers are required to register and to display the license.

Ayes: Unanimous.

Nays: None.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest:

Viva C. Brown. Clerk.

Dated: 3 January 1956. 1-12

ORDINANCE

Meeting of the Township Board of the Township of Ridgeway, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, held on the 3rd day of January 1956.

Absent: Trustee Edelbrock.

The following preamble and ordinance was offered by Trustee Fairbanks and supported by Truste Kniffen.

WHEREAS this Township Board resolved on 2 November 1955 to proceed under the provisions of Act 184, Public Acts of Michigan of 1943, to enact appropriate zoning legislation for said Township; and

WHEREAS due publication of said resolution was made on 11 November 1955 in the Adrian Daily Telegram, a newspaper of general circulation within the County of Lenawee; and

WHEREAS no objections have been received touching upon the intentions of the Board to so zone said Township.

NOW THEREFORE THE TOWNSHIP OF RIDGEWAY ORDAINS:

1. Effective immediately, there is hereby established a permanent Township Zoning Board, the same to be composed of 4 members, 2 of whom should be appointed to hold office for the calendar years of 1956 and 1957; and 2 of whom shall be appointed to hold office for the calendar years of 1956, 1957, 1958 and 1959. Each member of said Board shall serve until his successor is appointed and has qualified.

2. The Township Board shall, on or before 15 January 1956, select said members. No elected officers of the Township nor any employee of the Township Board shall be a member of the Zoning Board and no less than 2 members of such Board shall be residents of the unincorporated portions of the Township.

3. Each member of the Township Zoning Board shall receive $10.00 per day compensation but not more than $1,000.00 annually. may be expended by the Zoning Board for salaries, expenses, and all other items.

4. Said Board is directed to submit its recommendations of a zoning plan to the Township Board but before submitting same, shall hold at least one public hearing, notice of which hearing shall be given by two publications in a newspaper of general circulation within the Township, the first such publication to be printed not more than 30 days nor less than 20 days and the second publication, not more than 8 days before the date of such hearing. The notices shall include the places and times at which the tentative text and any maps of the Zoning Ordinance may be examined.

5. Following such hearing, the Zoning Board shall submit the proposed Zoning Ordinance including any zoning maps to the County Zoning Commission of Lenawee County for approval. The approval of such County Zoning Commission shall be conclusively presumed unless such Commission shall, within 30 days of its receipt, have notified the Township Clerk of its disapproval.

6. Following such approval from the County Zoning Commission, the Township Zoning Board is directed to submit its plan and map to this Township Board for enactment.

Ayes: Unanimous.

Nays: None.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

HY-LINES CONTINUE LEAD — Hy-Lines are now in FIRST place in four out of six official Random Sample Egg Laying tests. Latest information (Dec. 16, 1955): FIRST PLACE IN: Texas, Central New York, Florida, and Missouri "A." In Missouri "B"—Third; California — Ninth. Remember, Hy-Lines are produced by an inbreeding program. Divided flock tests conducted on farms (54 tests in 1954-55) prove Hy-Lines lay, on the average, thirty-eight more eggs and live better than other chickens. We guarantee (in writing) eighteen more eggs per hen housed if you care to run your own test. See us for particulars. NEUHAUSER HATCHERY, Adrian, Mich. 2-2

Here's why more farmers choose TWENTIETH CENTURY WELDERS

First and foremost . . . they'll tackle, and turn out "to a T", any welding job. Just dial the right heat for the job, and put your Twentieth Century Welder and Carbon Arc Torch to work:

Cutting metal • Brazing
Drilling holes • Bending and shaping
Soldering • Hard Surfacing

AND . . . Twentieth Century Welders save you time and money.

NOW . . You can quickly and easily repair or replace worn or broken parts on automobiles, tractors, trucks, on all farm machinery.

AND . . . with a Twentieth Century Welder, you can easily make pieces of new equipment.

Take the work out of welding, with the welder that "fits" your farm—a Twentieth Century Welder. Come in. See us for information and demonstration.

RIDGEWAY

Elmer Linn
Correspondent

O. C. Sweetland of Tedrow, Ohio, visited friends in Ridgeway last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Korth have moved to the R. S. Pocklington house south of Ridgeway

The United Workers will meet at the home of Mrs. Nina Sturtevant Jan. 19. Miss Julia Gilmore is co-hostess.

Several persons from the Methodist church were guests Sunday afternoon in the home of the Rev. Lorne Carter's daughter Josephine near Monroe. The Rev. Carter and his mother will leave soon for six weeks stay in Florida.

Miss Florine Linn spent the weekend in Romulus and New Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Long have moved from the Kruger house to Britton.

Mrs. Doris Wilson has been caring for her son's wife, Mrs. Howard Wilson of Tecumseh who is ill.

Mrs. Pearl Pocklington of Tecumseh called on friends in Ridgeway, Saturday. She also attended burial services of George Younglove of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birdsall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birdsall of Sipio Center, N.Y., Mrs. Howard Birdsall of Richford, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Birdsall of Auburn, N.Y. and Mrs. Dina Ballard of Ithaca, N.Y., were called to Ridgeway by the death of their aunt, Mrs. Emma Friedlander.

Services Held for Mrs. Leon Exelby

Floy Underwood Exelby, wife of Leon Exelby and a former resident of Britton died last Thursday in Lakeland, Florida, where Mr. and Mrs. Exelby were spending the winter.

Her home had been in East Lansing for many years but she was born in Britton Jan. 21, 1890, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Underwood. She attended Tecumseh high school graduating with the class of 1908.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Jane Reed of Decatur, Ala. and Mrs. Joanna Houghton of Plymouth; one son, Robert of Eustis, Florida and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in East Lansing at 11 a.m. Tuesday and burial was in Ridgway cemetery at 2:30 p.m. that day.

Area Cage Teams Win League Games

Knights Win First Game

Boysville's Fighting Knights won their first basketball game of the season Friday night by turning back Hartland, 52-38.

Joe Murray led the Knights' attack with seven field goals and a foul shot for 15 points. It was his first basketball game of the season. He broke his arm during football season and had not been able to play until Friday night.

Simmons was high for Hartland with 13 points.

Boysville outscored Hartland for three quarters, 16-6 in the first quarter; 11-9 in the second; and 9-4 in the third. In the final quarter Hartland took the lead, 19-16.

Tories Win Close One

Britton-Macon Tories won their first cage game of the season Friday night, beating Onsted in a Little Six thriller, 63-61.

The Wildcats took a one-point, 16-15, lead at the end of the first period and increased this to 32-25 at the end of the half. They again outscored the Tories in the third stanza, 15-13; but the Britton-Macon five came roaring back in the last period, scoring 25 points while holding the Wildcats to 14.

Dean Clement, Tory sophomore, took scoring honors with seven field goals and a foul shot for 15 points. Rhora added 13 on four goals and five free throws.

Abbott was high for Onsted with 15 while Branch added 13.

The Onsted junior Wildcats won the first game, 37-34 in overtime. Tom Conrad with 10 points led the Tories.

Indians Click on 75% at Charity Line

An amazing number of cashed free throw attempts by Tecumseh high school Indians Friday night helped them to a 79-49 Southeastern League basketball victory over Monroe Catholic Central. The Indians' ability at the free throw line was just short of uncanny. Out of 57 shots from the charity line they were able to sink 43 or a fine percentage of 75. Mike Sisson tallied 12 of 13 tries.

The win gave the Indians a 1-1 mark in league play. Currently they are tied with Bedford for third place in the league.

In the final two periods they scored 21 and 14 points while the Falcons made 10 and 19. Coach Vic Lawson used 11 players in the game, trying to see what other combinations than the starting five could do.

Bill Hansen, Indian junior, took charge of the Tecumseh attack. He had 20 points made on seven field goals and six free throws.

Dick Vigliotti was high for the losers with 19 points made on six goals and seven free throws.

In the preliminary the junior Falcons took the measure of Coach Doug Murdoch's Papooses, 50-37. Fero was leading Indian scorer with 12. Larry Yoakum played an outstanding defensive game.

Junior High Teams Win 2

Tecumseh high school seventh and eighth grade teams scored two basketball victories over Clinton last Thursday.

In the seventh grade game Tecumseh won, 36-23. Ross with six baskets and two free throws for 14 points was leading Tecumseh point maker.

For Clinton it was Bodell with eight baskets for 16 points. He was Clinton's all-around player.

In the eighth grade game Tecumseh slaughtered Clinton, 35 to 10. Curth was high scorer for the Indians with seven buckets and one charity toss good for 15 points.

Clinton's scoring was evenly divided.

SPORTS JOIN MARCH OF DIMES

The Salk vaccine, developed with March of Dimes funds, is a medical milestone. Since it is not 100% effective, however, much more money is needed for research projects now underway at many universities across the land. Bob Considine, National Sports Chairman, has appealed to the entire Sports world to join the 1956 March of Dimes, January 3-31.

Michigan Department of Conservation Official News Bulletin

The first deer starvations of the winter were reported this week as severe cold and heavy snow prevented the animals from ground feeding and hampered their activity.

One small deer was found starved in Kalkaska county, with cause of death confirmed by autopsy. Another deer death in the Mio district was attributed to starvation.

Some new snow was reported in the upper peninsula and deer were yarded in swamps and low areas throughout the peninsula except along the Lake Michigan range.

Deer also were confined to yards in northern and western portions of the northern lower peninsula. Whitetails left heavy cover to range fairly widely in the Mio district during the recent brief warm spell.

Five thousand firearm deer hunters will receive postcard questionnaires in the next few days, asking for information about their 1955 deer hunting activity.

The Conservation Department's annual poll of hunting information got under way when the first group of cards was mailed early this week.

Another 3000 late returns will be mailed in two weeks and a final 2000 will go sometime in March.

Hunters are asked where and when they hunted and if they got a deer or bear or both.

Information from the 10,000 hunters will provide a statistical sample of all firearm deer hunting activity.

An estimated 4000-5000 small game hunters will be similarly polled in March, as will 2000 archery deer hunters and about 200 camp deer permitees.

Nobody has to believe this, but it really did happen.

Mac Frimodig, resident manager of Ft. Wilkins state park in northern Michigan, returned home one night last week to find a truck firmly stuck in his park driveway.

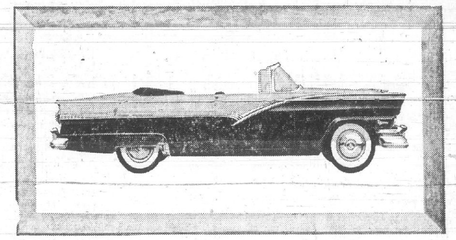
THE FORD THUNDERBIRD
This low-slung beauty combines all the dash and daring of a sports car with the luxury and comfort of a passenger car. It won America's heart from the start . . . and is winning even greater praise from fine-car enthusiasts this year.



THE '56 FORD
From any angle, you can see that the Thunderbird inspired the beauty of the '56 Ford. Both have that sleek-as-an-arrow look and massive grille styling. And under the broad flat hoods of both, you find the same brand of "lightning!"

Look alikes . . . act alikes . . .

In Ford you get long, low Thunderbird lines . . . the lightning of the Thunderbird Y-8 engine . . . and in addition you get exclusive new Lifeguard Design!

No matter how you look at it, you see the new Ford's kinship to the Thunderbird. Take a look at their "look-alike" silhouettes and you'll do a double-take. (The Ford is the one in family size.) For the Thunderbird and its kissin' cousin, the '56 Ford, both have the long, low lines of leadership—one of the reasons why your Ford is worth more when you sell it, too.

And the new '56 Ford is a real live wire. For, 'neath its broad, sweeping hood is the Thunderbird's own engine—the Thunderbird Y-8. You get all the famous Thunderbird "git" . . . plus the assurance of this obedient engine's passing and climbing power. The Thunderbird Y-8 is the standard eight for all Fairlane and Station Wagon models, at no extra cost.

Besides the Thunderbird's spark and sparkle, you get still another Ford exclusive—new Lifeguard Design. This whole family of safety features was designed to give you extra protection against the major causes of accident injuries. And Ford Lifeguard Design is just one among many fine-car advances that make the new 1956 Ford truly a worth-more car!

Pause and Reflect, Take a Long Look

The plan of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, through its president Jack Osburn, submitted to the city council in which the chamber asked for "free taxes" and "half price" on sewer and water for industry, business and the professions under certain circumstances needs a pause and a lot of reflection.

We take this pause and present the following unrelated by themselves but very much related taken as a whole questions and comments concerning the proposed chamber of commerce resolution which was passed by councilmen "subject to review and possible change."

Mayor Hanna was right in wanting to "hold off until more facts are gathered" but the "young Turks" as they are sometimes affectionately, and otherwise, called wanted the resolution passed "right now." Mr. Osburn, too, was in a state of "this can't wait." He had people to see "right now" who might be interested in coming to Tecumseh. The question is suppose Mr. Osburn goes to these people and tells them in good faith that the city will do what is outlined in the resolution; then suppose the council reviews and changes the resolution, what then?

Let us digress for one moment here to comment on the repeated remark that the action by Mr. Osburn as the new president of the chamber of commerce was one that would help the chamber gain more members because the board could sit back and say "Look what we are doing for you, Mr. Merchant. We're trying to get you more business." This is frank talk but the occasion demands frank talk. This action was not what some call "another last ditch stand" by the chamber of commerce. One has only to remember when the chamber was on the trail of a small company a few months ago to realize that this is not something dreamed up over night as a campaign for membership. Whatever else may be said about the plan and how fast it was accepted, subject to possible change, we feel that the chamber of commerce should be given a big "E" for effort. Of course it is being criticized. Things can never be attempted without some sort of criticism.

This criticism follows a general pattern all over the state of Michigan today and part of it stems from the fact that trying to get a new industry or business in a town is one of the

Presbyterian Men Will Meet Jan. 25

Sunday evening an executive meeting of the old and new officers of the Presbyterians Men's Club was held to begin formulation of plans for the new year.

Plans were made for a pancake supper and installation services for the new officers of '56 to be held Jan. 25 at 6:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold for the supper and the money used to help pay registration fees for delegates to the 8th annual meeting of the National Council of Presbyterian Men at the Palmer House in Chicago, March 16, 17 and 18.

The annual meeitng of the Presbyterian men has grown from 250 delegates in 1949 to 6000 delegates, meeting in three regions of the United States for the 1955 meeting. The local Men's Club is one of 2500 chapters of the National Council of Presbyterian Men whose purpose is "to encourage men to serve Jesus Christ in the work of the church and to follow Him in the vocation of the common life."

Christian Science Services Listed

Man's God-given right to health and healing will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon on the subject of "Life."

Christ Jesus' healing of the centurion's servant who "was sick, and ready to die" (Luke 7) will be among the accounts of the life-giving power of God to be read from the King James Version of the Bible.

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (369:16): "Jesus never asked if disease were acute or chronic, and he never recommended attention to laws of health, never gave drugs, never prayed to know if God were willing that a man should live. He understood man, whose Life is God, to be immortal, and knew that man has not two lives, one to be destroyed and the other to be made indestructible."

Realty Views

Jack Jordan scoffed at friends who suggested he should buy a home. "You fellows are like a group of married men trying to convince a bachelor he should follow suit."

"I've got the ideal rental," Jack added. "A nice house at a low rent. Doesn't that sound like a good deal?"

After two or three years of renting, Jack persuaded the owner to redecorate and make many other small improvements.

Then, came the blow. The owner told Jack he would have to increase the rent substantially. Jack protested. But the next days' mail brought an eviction notice.

"Can you help me find a good home to own," Jack asked us shortly thereafter. Before long, the right home appeared.

"Here's where I empty my safety deposit box" Jack said as he dumped a stack of U. S. Bonds equal to one-half the cost of the house on the bank counter.

Jack and his family moved in the next week. They "redecorated" and made some "small" improvements" but no eviction notice came!

"This is the life," Jack said with a grin. "My only regret is that we didn't get wise sooner."

May we serve YOU too?

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

The stamping of their bare feet on the ground is still beating in my ears. Twenty young warriors came last evening to do a tribal dance around our campfire — for a few shillings and a bottle of cherished Sherry for their Chief — a huge man bundled up in a heavy brown overcoat with brass buttons and a medal from Queen Elizabeth shining on his broad chest.

The warriors advanced in a group, stamping their feet in time to their monotonous chant, their spears raised high; then a vocalist would shatter the chants with his plaintive voice and the chorus would answer him. At times an individual would stamp forward alone, leaving the group, then turn and walk nonchalantly back into the group, his impulse satisfied. Other would leap high in the air, higher and higher, their long orange locks slapping on their bare backs. Our camp boys frolicked on the sidelines and some even ventured into the circle of entertainers. It was monotonous, but a thrilling sight — one which made me thankful it was just paid entertainment.

SKIP CAMP TWO

We're going to skip Camp Two and will soon be moving into the elephant country. It's going to be much lower elevation and [illegible] Probably just endurance for me because I'm jittery about a herd of elephants at too close range.

Day before yesterday Chris took us out in his open jeep hunting for Oryx. We rode for six hours, a merciless ride with Chris charging over rocks and stumps, zig-zagging through the thorny shrubs that swept their long spiked branches around and over our heads. We rode with coat collars high, hats down over our faces, our heads ducked, and when we could come up for air, I was busy picking off the ants and brushing the spiders away. The two boys in back were gnawing on some buffalo bones so that the tiny flies were constantly with us too. We did see many herds of zebras, flocks of neat little Thomson gazelles, the frolicking impalas, and a few scampering monkeys. The men tracked an oryx for about half an hour with no success. Didn't expect any luck after all the coughing, slamming of car doors, etc.

ROMANCE IS FLEETING

February 25, 1955
Seven o'clock in the morning. Rhino hunting.

The breeze caresses the tall grasses and they murmur "Swish, swish;" grey branches give up the ghost and fall from the trees with a startling crackle; a raucous "caw caw" explodes the air, shattering the background music of the twittering birds. My alert ears hear snarls and grunts and thumping hoofs. I see rhinos among the bushes, buffalos on the hills, and elephants in everything! I shudder and snuggle down into the many layers of clothing, wiggle my toes in my tennis shoes to warm them. Soon the yellow rays of the hot African sun will rest heavily on my head; I'll steam in my flannel underwear; the flies will cavort on my nostrils and lips; and the romance of the crisp African morning will be a memory.

Break: Am out with Chris and Jens on the trail of a decent rhino — so far they have not been specimens worth shooting. Bitten has Andy tied up each morning waiting at her buffalo bait where a lion was spied.

Teenagers Dance at Country Club

One of the most pleasant and successful social events of the holiday season was the teenage dance given Friday evening at the Tecumseh Country Club for the younger generation of the membership.

Fifty-five couples attended, each member being permitted to bring one guest couple. Favors, donated by Frank Owen, were distributed during the evening and there were door prizes, which were won by David Hohenstein and Judy Seidel.

Driscoll's orchestra furnished the music and a buffet supper was served at midnight by the committee which included Mrs. John Tomorsky, Mrs. Philip Colgrove, Mrs. Virgil Tucker and Mrs. Robert and Mrs. C. H. Hanna. The ladies were assisted by their husbands.

Services Held for Mrs. Neil DePuy

Mrs. Neil E. DePuy, the former Beatrice Walkinshaw, whose home was at [illegible] road, died Wednesday noon at Herrick Memorial hospital. She had been ill for about 10 days.

Mrs. DePuy was the daughter of the late William and Julia Cooley Walkinshaw and was born in Bellevue, Mich., June 22, 1892. She graduated from the Bellevue high school in 1910 and was married to Mr. DePuy in June, 1912. They lived in Marshall before coming to Tecumseh in 1934. She was a member of the Tecumseh Baptist church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Harold Coates of Tecumseh; two sons, Wendell of Charlotte and William of Tecumseh; six grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. L. G. Wilson of Bellevue; a brother, Francis Walkinshaw of Battle Creek and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral services for Mrs. DePuy were conducted Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Blair Bashore at the Collins Funeral Home and burial was in Riverside cemetery in Bellevue with Virgil Tucker, Charles Mensing, Fred Westfall, Gerald Dunn, Lewis Lent and Raynor Kerr as bearers.

Relatives and friends attended from Bellevue, Battle Creek, West Branch, Albion, Marshall, Hudson, Charlotte and the nearby communities.

BIGGEST OF THE BIG 3
-and mighty proud of it!
You certainly should look at the '56 Buick SPECIAL!
We've said it before, and we'll say it again:
If you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—and the sales figures make the proof of that stronger and stronger.
Just ask yourself: which cars would normally be in the top 3 of America's best sellers? The well-known smaller cars—naturally.
But which cars are in that Big 3? Two of the well-known smaller cars, and Buick — for over two years running now.
That means Buick prices are well within reach of more and more people—thanks primarily to the budget-tagged Buick SPECIAL, like the one pictured above.
And that's the whole point of the matter.
For this low-priced Buick SPECIAL—so close in cost to the smaller cars—is so much more automobile for the money, it's the stand-out buy of its field.
It's the biggest of the Big 3 in power thrill, in comfort, in size and breadth and luxury and sheer roadability.
It's the biggest of the Big 3 in the solidity and softness of its all-coil-spring ride – in the sweep of its styling—and in the pure thrill of its performance.
For where else but in Buick can you get the nimble getaway, the gas-saving mileage, the electrifying switch-pitch action and the absolute smoothness of the new Variable Pitch Dynaflow?*
Come in to see and drive the biggest bundle of high-powered beauty and energy ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.
It's proud we certainly are to be able to offer so much car for the money—but nothing to how proud you'll be when you boss a new SPECIAL. Can you come in tomorrow?
*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

LONG LOOK

most highly competitive transactions possible. Today there are hundreds of cities and villages competing for industries in our state alone. And to meet this competition you have to offer something; and when you offer something you are going to be criticized and you are going to be questioned.

Another criticism leveled at the chamber of commerce is why hasn't it done something about the Palman store here. Chances are that it will; but this may be a difficult assignment. Sure, almost everybody would like to see a large department store in that spot; but in a free enterprise situation you cannot force a store owner to do something against his will. He also has the freedom to keep a store empty, even though it gives a town a black mark.

But we have digressed. To return to the "free tax" suggestion and the "half price" sewer and water we raise these questions:

What will happen to the city tax roll if discriminatory taxation precedures are followed? Anybody knows, or certainly should know, that only a small percentage of the total tax roll can be gained from real estate alone: that the lion's share of taxes come from business and industry. How is a city that is still creeping along going to provide services that citizens clamor for if it is not getting enough personal taxes from business and industry? Better think hard on this one. The future of Tecumseh may depend on how well it is going to be answered.

What are residents, particularly in Tecumseh Acres and other outlying areas, going to think of half price sewers and water lines for some business and industry when they have to pay the full price to acquire such services. Are we going to be able to educate them that they will benefit, although indirectly from more business and industry in the city? What about the city ordinance covering sewer and water?

What about the school and county tax — a tax that the city only collects and which it has no control over, except in making assessments? Will the county board of supervisors go along with the "free tax plan?' The city tax rate of 15 mills is small compared to the county and school winter tax rate. Does the chamber of commerce want to go after the bigger tax reduction by trying to get "free taxes for five years" on the county and school tax? Could this be done?

The recent proposal by Mr. Osburn, speaking for the chamber of commerce, brings to mind comments made by "outside money" who might have been willing to start new businesses and new industries here. Summarized, the comments were: "Oh, yes, Tecumseh is a great town. It has a great industry. But it has its eggs in one basket although it is quite a basket."

Sure outside money is cognizant that Tecumseh is the capital of the refrigeration industry but they would like to see more diversified industry here before they commit any great amount of money. The chamber of commerce is attempting to help in this diversification. But does Tecumseh really need outside aid? Does it want outside money?

Still other questions must be raised. What about the local labor supply? Notice that word LOCAL. oD we want a commuters' town—a town that employs a lot of folks who leave as soon as they get out of work on Friday night and who take little or no interest in making the town a better place in which to live and to raise a family. Such a commuters' town would not even be good for business if workers left town before they cashed their pay checks.

In summary, the proposal made by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, practiced in some forms by many Michigan towns today, needs some good hard thinking and some good long looking before definite committments are made by city officials interested in the progress and growth of Tecumseh.

Speaks softly and packs a powerful wallop!

Whether idling at curbside or cruising, this new Chevrolet talks in a well-mannered whisper. You scarcely ever hear more than a soft undertone of power from its deep-chested V8. (One reason is the hydraulic-hushed valve lifters now in all Chevrolet engines—V8 or 6.)

Soft-spoken, yes—but this handsome traveler packs a wallop that ranges up to 205 h.p.! It's charged with sheer action!

Action that can save you precious seconds for safer passing on the highway! Action that lets you take steep hills in stride! Action that helps you zoom out of trouble spots almost as quickly as they develop!

And action isn't all. Chevy holds the road like part of the pavement! You feel added assurance in the way it clings to curves.

Of course, Chevrolet brings you the security of safety door latches in all models. Instrument panel padding and seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, are offered at extra cost.

Come in and drive a new Chevrolet. We've got one ready and waiting for you.

Field and Streams

It took an hour to get the truck out of the snow.

During the hour, Frimodig explained at length to the man that he should have turned left instead of right when he got to the main highway out of Chicago.

"Right highway, wrong direction," wrote Frimodig in his weekly report. "Didn't believe him at first, but his chin dropped so close to his Oxfords when I showed him a map that I was convinced."

Frimodig aimed the errant traveler south. He couldn't, in any case, get any farther north without using a boat. Ft. Wilkins is the northernmost point in Michigan — as far north as Seattle, farther north than Japan and nearly as far north as the Aleutian Islands of Alaska.

There is a newspaperman's rule-of-thumb that when dog bites man, it isn't news but when man bites dog, it's worth printing. This story, however, of dog injuring man is news.

Russell Tosseey, Cadillac, and a friend were hunting in Gladwin county this fall. A pheasant was shot and Tosseey placed his shotgun on the ground to take the bird from the dog's mouth.

Another dog, bouncing about happily, stepped on Tosseey's gun and discharged the weapon.

Six pellets glanced off the ground and hit Tosseey in the legs.

Great Lakes ore boats carried 87,460,000 tons of iron ore south from the western Lake Superior region during 1955, the fourth heaviest season in history.

The 300-boat ore fleet got off to a slow start with scattered shipments during April and no apparent hurry on the part of shipping companies. Early predictions indicated only 70,000,000 tons would be shipped during the year.

Other conditions hampered shippers. Lake levels are low, so ships passing through the Soo locks could not load heavily. Also, early winter freezes made shipping tough in November and ended the season somewhat early in December.

The telephone is ringing loud and long at the home of Conservation Officer Robert Straube of Monroe — and the Straube family isn't happy about it.

Mistakes in the classified section of the Monroe telephone directory have Straube's home phone number listed as the number to call for the Michigan State Employment Service, the state Unemployment Compensation Commission and the Veterans Employment Representative in Monroe.

In addition, Straube is due for a misdirected flood of mail. His residence also is listed as the address of those state agencies.

BIRTHDAY HONORED

Members of her family staged a surprise birthday celebration Sunday for Miss Edna Gamboe at her home on north Pearl street. The party was made up of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Abner of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gamboe of Brooklyn, Mr and Mrs. John Abner and family of Blissfield and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Abner and Mr. and Mrs. George Meads and their families of Tecumseh. A decorated birthday cake baked by Mrs. Meads was a feature of the potluck dinner and Msis Gamboe received several nice gifts.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

IN THE 300 BLOCK of north Pearl, kept for posterity's sake, is the imprint of a tiny footprint in the concrete of the sidewalk. Apparently Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood has nothing on Tecumseh kids.

FLOYD BILLINGTON WHO lives on east Monroe road "captured" a big northern pike in Sand Lake last Friday night. The one he speared stretched 42 inches and weighed 18 pounds.

AFTER HEARING THE Michigan State University Glee Club Saturday we were convinced that this is the type of fine entertainment that Tecumseh needs and wants.

THE FIRST ROBIN reported in the area usually draws some comment but Mr. and Mrs. Russell Comfort of Rogers Highway saw eight redbreasts in a tree by their house. They think it is a sure sign of spring, even though the calendar hardly agrees.

THE LIGHTS WENT out during a crucial time in the senior play last Thursday night because of a blown fuse. When she was presented a gift from the seniors between acts, Miss Jacqueline Egan, director, said: "We're going to re-wire the building with the profits from the play."

MAYBE CLARA WALDRON, our partner in crime, needs new glasses or maybe that beautiful Boxer owned by Clayton Young looks quite human (and the way he patiently sits in the car waiting for Clayt he certainly does). At any rate Clara saw the Young car parked in front of the office and she waved to the person sitting in the car. The person was that beautiful Boxer.

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: An enterprise, when fairly once begun, should not be left till all that ought is won. — Shakespeare.

Jaycees Salute Merlyn Downing

Merlyn Downing, assistant cashier of the United Savings Bank where he has been employed for the past nine years, was saluted this week by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce for "his outstanding achievements in the Jaycees."

The 28-year-old former Britton boy is a charter member of the club. And he served as treasurer from 1954 to 1955. Merlyn currently is chairman of the club's membership drive. He also served as treasurer of the Community Fund drive. And he served as a member of the club's charter night committee.

He is married and he and his wife Myrna have two small sons.

SERVICES SATURDAY FOR MRS. T. E. SPALDING

Mrs. Thomas E. Spalding of Tipton, lifelong resident of Franklin township, died at Herrick Memorial hospital Wednesday morning. Mrs. Spalding was born Sept. 26, 1871, and was the former Loa Butrick.

Services will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Green Funeral Home with the Rev. Edward Escolme of the Tecumseh Friends church and the Rev. David Holly of the Tipton Community church officiating. Burial will be in Franklin cemetery.

95 PER CENT OF WINTER TAXES PAID

Ninety-five per cent of the total winter taxes were paid in Tecumseh by deadline time, reports Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city treasurer. The total paid amounted to $320,430.-30.

Local taxpayers can still pay at the city offices, but now there is a four per cent penalty added to the tax bill. March 1 is the deadline before delinquent taxes are turned over to the county treasurer.

DRIVER FINED

Cecil Arnold, 52, of Manchester was arraigned before Justice Robert French last Friday on a reckless driving charge.

Tecumseh police who made the arrest said he ran a stop light on the corner of Chicago and Maumee and caused a school bus to take to the curb to avoid being hit.

Arnold was fined $25 and assessed costs of $8.60.

BEGIN INSPECTIONS

The city now has the necessary equipment set up to start electrical inspections beginning Jan. 23. Contractors and journeymen can get their licenses and wiring permits at the city office.

Last Registration for Night School Is Next Monday

Although 81 registrations were filed for adult evening classes Monday evening, selections were varied so that many courses are still open.

If the required number of enrollments is not met, the respective class will be closed and money refunded by mail, reports Delmar Crisp, director.

Following is a list of subjects offered and the number of people needed to meet the minimum enrollment; international problems, nine; general woodworking, three; drawing and painting, four; ceramics, 10; algebra, seven; plane geometry, nine; bookkeeping, one; shorthand dictation, five; hooked rug making, eight; orchestra, one; women's recreation, 16; band, 17; men's recreation, 19.

The last registration night will be Monday, Jan. 23, from 7 to 9 p.m., in room 13, at the high school. For further information call Mr. Crisp at 800 or 329-J.

TWO MORE SIGN FOR MM SHOW

Two more merchants have signed for the Veterans of Foreign War's merchants' and manufacturers' show scheduled for Feb. 9, 10, 11 and 12 in the United Products Workers' Union Hall. They are Paul's Trailer Sales and Jack Shutt, subdivider. The VFW will furnish drapery materials for booths without charge to the 30 merchants taking part.

VETERANS MAY GET EXEMPTION

Any veteran receiving a pension who wants to apply for a veterans' homestead exemption must report to the city assessor's office or to his township assessor's office by March 1.

HOUSE BURNS

The fire department was called at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday to the home of Herman Schmidt at 208 W. Cummins street where about $1000 damage was done to house and contents. Origin of the blaze has not been determined.

Eat, Give to March of Dimes

Tecumseh area folks Sunday, Feb. 5, will have a chance to have Sunday breakfast or dinner out and make a contribution to the March of Dimes.

The special meals, planned by the March of Dimes committee as its major project, will be served from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in Don's Grill. Breakfast will be served from 8 to 11 a.m. and dinner will be served from 12 to 8 p.m.

There are no set prices for the meals, but those eating may pay what they wish. All proceeds go to the March of Dimes to continue the fight against polio.

Everything necessary for the project will be donated. Don Smith, proprietor, has donated the use of his restaurant and his staff has donated their time to help prepare and serve the meals.

Members of the March of Dimes committee and other volunteers also will donate their time to the project and they and others, including merchants, will be asked to donate money or food for the project.

Fire Losses Total $109,195

According to a report issued by Cecil Alderdyce, chief, fire losses during the past year totalled $109,195.

The report shows that Tecumseh volunteer firemen answered 77 alarms, one of which was a false alarm. Thirty-two of the fires were in dwellings.

Losses on these dwellings totalled $6,225; losses on buildings other than dwellings totalled $36,700. Losses on contents in dwellings were $2,785 and losses on contents other than in dwellings totalled $62,075. "Other losses" amounted to $1410.

Fifty-three of the fires, the report shows, developed from "unknown causes." The rest were from miscellaneous causes which included careless smoking, careless burning of rubbish and thawing frozen water pipes. Faulty fuel oil burners, defective wiring, defective chimneys and lightning also were causes.

The fire department covers Tecumseh, Tecumseh, Franklin, Macon, Raisin and Ridgeway Townships and it has a mutual agreement with the Clinton department.

TEEN CLUB DANCE IS SATURDAY NIGHT

A dance for the Teen Club will be held Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at Central school gymnasium. Dancing will be from 9 to 12 and any teen ager in this area will be welcome. The event is sponsored by the Jaycees and is free to the young people.

CENTRAL

Tonight (Thursday), is "Central Night" at the school and the PTA is planning a program of interest to every parent and teacher.

The program committee is made up of Mrs. Donald Cobb and Mrs. C. O. Bailey. On the hospitality committee is Mrs. Russell Langham and Mrs. Fred Oberlin is in charge of the membership.

She said a cash gift would be awarded to the classroom with the greatest number of parents present and this award will be used for future meetings.

"To vote at the meeting you must be a member," she said, "so sign up tonight."

APPOINTED

Aden Mead was appointed to the board of review for a three year term by action of the council Monday night. In other action the council re-appointed Perry Satterthwaite and Mrs. Edna Staulter to the election commission.

Pirate Theme Used by Cub Scouts at Pack Meet

Yo ho ho and a bottle of rum! Fifteen men on a dead man's chest — Pieces of eight — Walk the plank ye bloody swabs — These were the order of the evening at Pack 4's Jan. pack meeting.

During the program Den 4 captured Dens 1 and 7 and made them walk the plank. Den 2 challenged Den 4 to a knot tying contest, Den 2 winning. Den 1 gave a compass and steering wheel demonstration Den 5 gave a physical fitness demonstration, Den 6 a duel with news papers. Den 3 presented a very amusing skit called "Captain Cub's Secret" written by Mrs. John Ward, narrated by John Ward Jr.

It was also announced that Pack 4 won a blue ribbon for proficiency at the district meeting held Saturday evening at the Union Hall.

A prize of pirate gold was presented to Tracy Oliver for bringing the oldest piece of eight dated 1802. Terry Beland received the runner up prize for an 1825 piece of eight.

Awards were presented to Douglas Goldsberry, silver arrow under wolf; Richard Stearns, one year service star; Jack Rutherford, Lion Badge, a gold and silver arrow under the Lion Badge, three-year service star and a graduation certificate.

Mrs. Kenneth Rutherford was recognized and is leaving the job of den mother after serving in this capacity faithfully for five years.

Den 2 received Tin Can Cubby for having the greatest percentage of boys and parents present.

C of C Lays Dinner Plans

The Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce plans a dinner meeting tentatively set for Tuesday, Feb. 14. Jack Osburn, president, said the chamber is trying to contact a "name speaker."

Mr. Osburn also cited this recent chamber activity:

An attempt is being made to get a department store in the Palman building. The Palmans currently are cooperating with the chamber in this program.

Outside peddlers will have to have written approval from the secretary of the chamber of commerce. Merchants should ask to see the approval and home owners also should cooperate in this "protective program," he said.

Mr. Osburn pointed to the current membership drive and he urged that payments for dues be made as soon as is possible to meet current operating expenses.

Officers Installed by Pythian Sisters

The Josephine H. Hall Temple of the Pythian Sisters installed new officers last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Fred Whelan acting as grand chief. She was assisted by Mrs. Harry Schuch, grand senior; Mrs. Ervie Raymond, grand manager and Mrs. B. E. Brees, grand secretary.

Officers installed were Mrs. Cecile Smith, most excellent chief; Mrs. Henry Kempf, past chief; Mrs. Elizabeth Freer, senior; Mrs. Carl Thompson, junior; Mrs. Edwin Swift, manager; Mrs. Walter Hizer, secretary; Mrs. Luther Wood, treasurer; Mrs. George E. Green, protector; Mrs. John Stephens, guard and Mrs. Edna Staulter, pianist and press correspondent.

Mrs. Smith was presented with a white gavel by the new officers and Mrs. Kempf received a gift from the retiring officers. All officers were given corsages of roses by Mrs. Kempf.

During the business meeting, which preceded installation, 35 year paid-up certificates, each decorated with a red rose, were presented to Miss Nellie Wilson, Mrs. Lynn Harris and Mrs. Bert Aten. Mrs. Aten also received one for her husband.

Refreshments were served after the installation by Mrs. Freer, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. M. A. Matthews and Mrs. Grace Coffey.

VOTING PRECINCTS ARE CHANGED

An additional voting precinct has been added to the city. State law requires that precincts using voting machines must be altered when the registration list passes 1400.

Council Rescinds Jan. 3 Resolution

A proposal by the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce asking the city to grant "free taxes" to business, industry and the professions under certain circumstances has been ruled illegal by J. C. Beardsley, city attorney.

After he gave his opinion to councilmen Monday night they immediately rescinded a resolution passed "subject to review and possible change" at their regular meeting, Tuesday, Jan. 3.

Part of his opinion also showed that such a proposal is unconstitutional. The Michigan Constitution reads in part:

"No city or village shall have power to . . . loan its credit, nor to assess, levy or collect any tax or assessment for other than a public purpose."

The city attorney checked current rulings and conferred with the Michigan Municipal League before giving his opinion.

In his opinion to the city council he cited four Michigan Supreme Court decisions and eight opinions of the state attorney general's office.

One of the opinions cited dealt directly with "money cannot be raised by tax to be given as a bonus to industries locating in the city."

"ADVERTISE ADVANTAGES"

On the other hand, one of the attorney general's opinions stated: "Money . . can be used to advertise the city's advantage for factory location but not to buy land to be given for a factory, to build a factory for sale or rent, or to give a bonus for locating a factory in the city."

There were no dates on the Supreme Court decisions cited but the attorney general opinions came from cases that developed over a period of years from 1928 to 1938.

Attorney Beardsley's opinion stated: "Participation by the city council in the proposal outlined by the chamber of commerce would be illegal."

And he recommended "That the resolution of Jan. 3 be rescinded."

ADDS STATEMENT

In a general statement he wrote: "As a guide to future municipal action, I would suggest the following rule-of-thumb: even though it may be assumed that additional industry or business would benefit all of the population—and in that sense might be construed a pubilc benefit—the law will not consider it a public purpose UNLESS SUCH BUSINESS OR INDUSTRY IS MANAGED AND CONTROLLED BY THE PUBLIC. The above principles are firmly established in Michigan law. However, it is doubtful if those principles would be extended to prevent the city from maintaining a public relations service or to prohibit the city from maintaining a general campaign to make this municipality more attractive to prospective venture."

TENT

An oxygenaire (oxygen tent) has been presented to Herrick Memorial hospital by Mr. and Mrs. Orville W. Farver of Tecumseh.

The tent was given in the memory of the late Mrs. Marion Wilcox Hart who had been a friend of Mrs. Farver's.

Mr. Farver is president of the Blissfield Manufacturing Company. His concern makes the tents.

The tent was accepted Saturday morning by Clarence Gilman, president of the hospital board, and by O. L. Gilbert, hospital superintendent.

Exchange Club To Fete Ladies

The Tecumseh Exchange Club will hold a ladies' night at the Tecumshe Grange Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 6:30 p.m.

Guy H. Hill, director of high school cooperation at Michigan State University, will be the speaker. He has been a member of the MSU staff for 20 years and he is a former East Lansing high school principal.

PEANUTS SALE FOR POLIO TOTALS $191

Music Club Sings at Special Dinner

The chorus of the Tecumseh Music Club will sing Monday evening, Jan. 23, at the Baptist Youth House when the Monday Club and Business and Professional Woman's club will be joint sponsors of a lecture by chalk artist Arthur Sinclair.

Mrs. John McColl is leader of the chorus and Mrs. William Hayden is their accompanist. A 6:30 supper will precede the lecture and both are open to the public.

Mr. Sinclair is highly recommended as a speaker who has much of interest for both young and old and the sponsoring organizations have arranged his appearance as a family entertainment.

CULBERTSON SCHOOL

All residents of Culbertson school district are requested to attend a meeting at the schoolhouse Tuesday evening, Jan. 24. Milton Porter, Lenawee county superintendent of schools, will be present to discuss the matter of proposed annexation to the Tecumseh district.

PROFESSIONALLY DONE—The unusual comedy "Blithe Spirit" was spiritedly and professionally presented to full houses last Wednesday and Thursday nights by Tecumseh high school seniors.

In this scene, close to the climax, the two blithe spirits—two of the most attractive ghosts ever haunting a man—Judy Seidel and Sharon Claxton, Ed Lewis, Mary Pat McCann and Pat Davis are trying to work out a solution to the problem.

They were outstanding throughout the polished performance. And others who performed capably were Judy Fairbanks, Hal Weakly and Don Partridge.

The three-act comedy was directed by Miss Jacqueline Egan with Sylvia Helzerman as producer.

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

We have been jostled and trounced over the plains until I'm fearful for Dr. Hammel's needlework. The tops of the grasses fly in and stick like tufts of cat hair. Have picked up two native warriors who have directed us to this spot where they have recently seen two bull rhinos with tusks this long — and they measure off on their arm. The men have stalked down the hill and I'm now surrounded by six natives who have come over the ridge. They are laughing and spitting and chattering loudly as they inspect Mohamed's binnoculars while he practices with one of their spears.

I do have a fragrance in the car to compete with the pungent odors from the back—branches from a carlesi like shrub—its pink blossoms fragrant as jasmine. They are also covered with long thorns as is everything here. The grey mimosa trees are festooned with moss that flutters in the wind like tatters of pale green chiffon.

GET NEW SHOES

An old man just passed by through the grasses, saluting me with an important "Jambo." Around his neck swung a pair of brand new shoes, their shoe laces knotted together. As he approaches the village he'll squeeze his broad feet into them and painfully, but proudly, strut through the street for others to envy and admire.

Last night our camp boys staged an amateur show for us around the campfire. Couldn't start until they got their dishes done, but it was worth waiting for. I laughed aloud as their miserable group approached us out of the darkness a la warriors. They had attempted costumes and were motely arrayed—green branches stuck in felt hats, donkey tails simulating long hair; old sheets or table cloths wrapped around their middle, their khaki shorts protruding behind. At the end of each number a shrill whistle would blow, Kipsoi, evidently the director, would fumble in his pocket, bring out a crumbled paper, and decipher their next number under the car lights. They giggled like children as they found their places again. Oh—it was wonderful. Chris presented each with $3 from the kitty and they filed past our receiving line, shaking our hands gratefully and smiling, "M'zuri sana, sana, Memsaab" (or Bwana).

GUM IS STALE

It's high noon now, my stomach is hungry, my gum is stale. The heat, the swarming flies, the zooming bees remind me of the old currant patch on Uncle Roy's farm. It was always so nice to take refuge once in awhile in the coolness of the dark crate house.

Friday afternoon.

Again no luck. Four rhinos were in the thick bushes and luckily Chris wouldn't go in after them. Too dangerous in case they all decided to charge.

Starting to rain now—brought in the towels and pushed our table away from the tent opening. My housework for the day. I have no intentions of helping with the dishes; their method is too different from mine!

Wish someone would shoot us about three impalas—about enough for one good meal. The 28 boys like five pounds of meat each per day. Last night the buffalo tail soup was pretty thin—just the waft left, and I'm hoping the buffalo tongue is gone. Otherwise our meals are delicious.

Local Topics

A group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lathers of Ypsilanti, formerly of Tecumseh visited them Sunday afternoon in observance of their 25th wedding annivesrary. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Voorhees and son Robert of Denver, who is spending a 10-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe and Miss Mary McWilliams. Supper was served and the group presented Mr. and Mrs. Lathers with a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey spent Sunday in Ann Arbor at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Beal.

Mrs. James Hartsell is confined to her home by illness.

Maynard Mulvaney is making an excellent recovery from major surgery at Herrick Memorial hospital and will probably be home the last of this week.

Mrs. Robert Bonner was a dinner guest recently of Mrs. Nell Smelt of Pleasant Ridge. Mr. and Mrs. Bonner will go to Detroit Jan. 21 to see the play "The Bad Seed" at the Cass Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Dickerson of Toledo visited her sister, Mrs. Fred Fairbanks Thursday evening and attended the senior play "Blithe Spirit" in Central auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks entertained at a birthday party last Sunday for their son Gary, who is five years old. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fairbanks and daughter Judy of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruhl Jr. and family of Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Baker and family entertained Sunday Mr. Baker's cousin, J. B. Williams and Mrs. Williams and family of Allen Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer left Saturday for a two weeks' vacation in Florida.

Mrs. Hazel Eaton and Mrs. Bessie Aten of Jackson will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Saturday when a family dinner party will celebrate their birthday anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Partridge returned by air Tuesday evening from Brentwood, Calif., where they had spent three weeks with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Partridge. They report just two sunny days during their stay and an almost continuous day and night rain. Brentwood is not within the flood area.

Miss Mary Whitelock, who has been confined to her home by illness for the past six weeks is considered to be somewhat improved. Mrs. N. C. McConnell is with Miss Whitelock.

ST. PETER'S GUILD COMMITTEES NAMED

Eighteen members of St. Peter's Guild of the Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon at the Parish House. After devotions by Mrs. M. W. Wilson, the new president Mrs. E. C. Dickin appointed her committees for the coming year.

"The Altar, Altar Vestments and the Vesting of the Altar" was the subject of the afternoon's program discussion given by Mrs. R. K. Anderson. Her explanation of the significance and traditional use of the articles was most interesting and informative.

Mrs. Theodore Rundell was presented as a new member and it was announced that the Jan. 20 meeting would be at the home of Mrs. Charles Newell at 2:15 p.m. Mrs. L. W. Larsen served refreshments to the group.

Monthly News

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE has changed greatly since the days when Doctors visited their patients in a horse and buggy. Physicians then used to carry a few drugs in their bag which they would give, even though the same medicines seemed to be used for almost every ailment.

IT DIDN'T MAKE TOO MUCH DIFFERENCE because there were very few drugs known then that could accomplish a positive result. The most important things a physician could do were to diagnose the condition, offer some medicine to ease distress, and give his valuable advice on how to take care of one's self while very slowly waiting to get better.

BUT NOW WE HAVE THOUSANDS of new medicines, unknown then, that can be depended upon to not only give relief, but often, almost a miraculous overnight cure. Slowly, but surely, we are perfecting specific drugs that will treat specific diseases. It would take a physician's bag the size of a prescription department to hold all we now have.

ONE OF THESE MEDICINES, your physician knows which, will help you most if sickness invades your home. In our prescription department are these thousands of different medicines. Your modern physician knows he is no longer limited by the few drugs he can carry in his bag or office.

Mrs. Whelan Tells D.A.R. Chapter of European Trip

The Jan. meeting of Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. was held in the Parish House of the Episcopal church last Friday evening instead of at the home of Mrs. Joe Rice as had been planned originally.

The change was made to allow more space for full enjoyment of the beautiful colored pictures shown by Mrs. Hoyt Whelan to illustrate the account of her summer trip to England and Holland. There, under the sponsorship of the Mayflower Society, she visited the places made famous by the original Mayflower travelers. Mrs. Whelan was introduced by the program leader, Miss Edith Ingersoll.

Preceding the program the regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson conducted the business meeting during which she announced three new members, Mrs. Wallace Whiting, Mrs. Joe Russell and Mrs. Purnell Osburn. Mrs. Levy, a guest from the Jackson chapter and chairman of the entertainment committee for the state D.A.R. convention, which is to be held in March at the Hotel Hayes in Jackson reviewed plans that have been made for that event. The convention will be entertained by the chapters of Jackson, Hillsdale, Adrian and Tecumseh.

Mrs. Roy Whiting was appointed chairman of the rummage and bake sale to be held at Butler Motor Sales Jan. 27 and 28 and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson was appointed to be her assistant. The bake sale will be held only on the 28th.

A memorial service for Mrs. Lyman Curtiss, former member and registrar of the chapter, was given by Mrs. Orville Laidlaw.

The nominating committee, headed by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, then reported the following officers for the coming year: regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson; first vice regent, Mrs. Roy Whiting; second vice regent, Mrs. Charles Mensing; chaplain, Miss Edith Ingersoll; recording secretary, Mrs. K. D. Hall; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Carter; treasurer, Mrs. Al Helzerman; registrar, Mrs. J. M. Artman; historian, Mrs. Howard Wilson; librarian, Mrs. Francis Stone and directors, Mrs. Leon Rosacrans and Mrs. Paul Keyser.

Mrs. Pearson appointed Mrs. Joe Rice as the regent's delegate to the Continental Congress, the National D.A.R. convention to be held in Washington, D.C., in April.

After Mrs. Whelan's talk, tea was served from a lace covered table with a centerpiece of white chrysanthemums with Mrs. Laidlaw presiding at the urn.

Mrs. K. D. Hall will entertain the chapter in Feb. when the Good Citizen girls and their mothers will be guests.

ORDINANCE:

WHEREAS divers complaints have emanated from different sections of the City in connection with vicious or noisy dogs as constituting nuisances to neighbors and pedestrians; and

WHEREAS, in view of such increased complaints, a more detailed Ordinance is desired to control such rather than under the general nuisance powers of the City.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS:

1. To be effective 10 February 1956;

Section 3.900. No person shall own, harbor or keep any dog, which by loud or frequent barking, yelping, or howling, becomes a nuisance in the neighborhood, in which such dog is so kept.

Section 3.901. No person shall own, harbor, or keep any dog, whether licensed or unlicensed, that by destruction of property or trespassing on others property, becomes, a nuisance.

Section 3.902. No person shall be convicted under the provisions of Section 3.900 and 3.901, except upon evidence of 3 or more persons of different households, all of whom must reside within 500 feet of the situs of such nuisance.

Persons found guilty of a violation of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest: H. H. Hanna, Mayor
Attest: Naomi Sallows, Clerk
Dated 19 December 1955

MISS VALDEZ RETURNS TO MEXICO CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Calhoun and children, Miss Jane Ashley of Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Porter and daughters of Tecumseh recently accompanied Mrs. Calhoun's cousin, Miss Hilda Valdez, who had spent the last three months as the guest of the Calhouns, to her home in Mexico City.

On their arrival they were guests of honor at a surprise party and were entertained by a group of Mexican musicians dressed in native costumes.

The Calhouns, the Porters and Miss Ashley went from Mexico City to Acapulco, where they remained for some time. There they saw the natives dive from cliffs 135 feet high into the Pacific Ocean.

Mrs. Calhoun's brother, Eduardo Davila of Mexico City arranged for Mr. Porter and Mr. Calhoun to make aerial flights over Mexico City of Acapulco, giving them an opportunity to take pictures from the air.

The Misses Porter and Ashley returned by air to their colleges Dec. 30 but the Calhouns and Porters remained for a longer stay in Mexico City. The Calhoun family returned Jan. 11. The Porters will stop in Florida on their return.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD

The annual meeting of the Holloway Presbyterian church was held Thursday evening preceded by a potluck supper. Fifty-four members attended the meeting. New elders elected were Matt Lunn and Leslie Calhoun. Myrlen Fairbanks was re-elected elder. New trustees are Mrs. Matt Lunn, Earl Bennington and Elwyn Green.

SEWING CIRCLE ELECTS

The Raisin Sewing Circle met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John Marks. Election of officers resulted in the following: president, Mrs. Claren Bates; vice president, Mrs. James Mitchell; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Mitchell; flower committee, Mrs. Ed Mitchell; reporter, Mrs. Don Jaqua. The next meeting will be Feb. 10 at the home of Mrs. Bates.

A family gathering was held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Calhoun. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Calhoun and family of Palmyra, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Calhoun and family of Tecumseh and Mr. Calhoun's niece, Mrs. Leigh Peters and Mr. Peters of Adrian.

Mrs. John Calhoun has received word from Mrs. Nina Nixon, formerly of Holloway that Mrs. Frank Hendrick is seriously ill in a hospital in Port Huron.

HY-LINES CONTINUE LEAD — Hy-Lines are now in FIRST place in four out of six official Random Sample Egg Laying tests. Latest information (Dec. 16, 1955): FIRST PLACE IN: Texas, Central New York, Florida, and Missouri "A." In Missouri "B"—Third; California — Ninth. Remember, Hy-Lines are produced by an inbreeding program. Divided flock tests conducted on farms (54 tests in 1954-55) prove Hy-Lines lay, on the average, thirty-eight more eggs and live better than other chickens. We guarantee (in writing) eighteen more eggs per hen housed if you care to run your own test. See us for particulars. NEUHAUSER HATCHERY, Adrian, Mich. 2-2

There's more than one reason why Twentieth Century Welders are a favorite among farmers who know good welding.

First and foremost . . . they'll tackle, and turn out "to a T", any welding job. Just dial the right heat for the job, and put your Twentieth Century Welder and Carbon Arc Torch to work:

Cutting metal • Brazing
Drilling holes • Bending and shaping
Soldering • Hard Surfacing

AND . . . Twentieth Century Welders save you time and money.

NOW . . You can quickly and easily repair or replace worn or broken parts on automobiles, tractors, trucks, on all farm machinery.

AND . . . with a Twentieth Century Welder, you can easily make pieces of new equipment.

Senior Scouts Attend Concert

Senior Girl Scouts of Troop 11 enjoyed a mystery trip last Friday evening. After having dinner together, they visited the museum of musical instruments at Hill Auditorium in Ann Arbor and then attended the mid-winter concert of the University of Michigan symphony band conducted by William D. Revelli.

Guest conductor of the evening was Ralph Hermann, who is now engaged as an arranger, composer and conductor for the American Broadcasting Co. besides having been an arranger for Percy Faith and Andre Kostelanetz.

W.S.C.S. Gives $25 to Polio Fund

Mrs. Robert Bonner, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, conducted the business meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Edward Harper read the religious service with Mrs. W. G. Waldron at the piano.

Mrs. Horace James reported that 18 junior and 22 primary students attended the first of the 10 study group meetings to be held each Saturday at the church. The study topic is the Navajo Indians.

Letters were read to the group from the Methodist Navajo Mission School at Farmington, N. M. and from Seward Sanitarium at Seward, Alaska thanking the society for gifts and cash contributions sent at Christmas time. Announcements were made of a Father-Daughter banquet for which plans are being made but for which no date has been set and for a sale of homemade bread, pies and baked beans to be sponsored by the Mary Foster Circle, Jan. 21 at Western Auto.

The society voted $25 for the March of Dimes, and the president appointed a nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Edna Codling, Mrs. Erwin Buss and Mrs. Walter Hizer.

FLORENCE WELD GUILD INSTALLS OFFICERS

The final meeting of the Florence Weld Mission Guild of the Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mrs. Ted LaBounty, Monday evening with 24 present.

There was a bountiful potluck supper at 6:30 and the new officers were installed as they will be needed for the reorganization. They are, president, Mrs. Lynn Harris; vice president, Mrs. F. C. Dickinson; secretary, Mrs. Donald Purkey and treasurer, Mrs. Rhea Stephenson.

The balance of the evening was spent in reminscences of the past of the guild which was organized nearly 50 years ago by the pastor's wife, Florence Weld. Excerpts from the minutes were read and provoked both amusement and nostalgia for the times and people who were gone.

Boysville Loses to Pinckney, 60-54

Boysville's Fighting Knights dropped a League of the Lakes basketball game to Pinckney Friday night, 60-54.

The score was tied eight all in the first period but Pinckney drew away in the second, posting a 26-18 first half lead. In the third period Pinckney again outscored the Knights, 18-14. But in the last period the Knights outscored Pinckney 22-16 when substitutes were playing for Pinckney.

Joe Murray with 19 and John Murray with 17 contributed 36 points to Boysville' scoring. Bob Temerowski added 10.

Packed led the winners with 18 points.

Charity Tosses Save Deadeye T.H.S. Beat Airport

An amazing accuracy from the free throw line in the first half enabled the Tecumseh high school Indian cagers to hold off a later threat from the Airport Jets and to win their second Southeastern League basketball game Friday night, 54-45. They now have a 2-1 record in league play.

The Indians, led by Bill Hansen with eight, cashed 17 free throws in the first two quarters out of 20 tries.

And as it turned out they were fortunate in assuming a 14-point, 39-25 first half lead over the Jets.

Consider these statistics and you'll see why:

In the first two quarters the Indians had a fairly good combination of field goals and foul shots. In the first they had six goals and eight free throws, good for 20 points and in the second they made five goals and nine free throws, good for 19 points.

Airport, meanwhile, garnered four field goals and eight charity tosses in the first quarter for 16 points and in the second the Jets had three each, good for nine points.

TACTICS CHANGED

But in the third quarter Coach John Shadford apparently changed his tactics and the Jets, realizing the potency of the Indians' deadeye shooting at the foul line, were not quite as anxious to press. Therefore, the third period was dead compared to the first two and Tecumseh was bewildered and faded slightly. As a result the Jets, scoring four field goals and two gift shots good for 10 points, while holding the Indians to a brace of field goals, chopped six points off the locals lead.

In the final period when it looked like the Jets might overhaul the Indians, the visitors again pressed and, as a result, they fouled. This apparently saved the game. The Indians made only one field goal in the final period but they added nine points from the free throw line. The Jets, meanwhile, added four field goals and two foul shots, good for 10 points.

SISSON SCORES AGAIN

With five minutes to play the score was 44-37 in favor of the Indians. Mike Sisson, Indian high scorer with seven field goals and four gift shots for 18 points, added a bucket and he was fouled. He made good on the gift shot. Dickinson added a single charity toss and Larned added a brace. Bill Hansen contributed three; and Sisson added another to complete the scoring. Meanwhile, Hatcher banged two goals for the visitors and Price added one. Moments later Whiteside was fouled and completed the Jets' scoring with a free shot.

Coach Vic Lawson started a fairly tall five. Sisson, Hansen and John Elliott are string beans that can get that ball on rebounds. Rounding out the first five were scrappy Val Spangler and versatile Ken Miller.

Hansen, with two field goals and 12 gift tosses, was second high Indian scorer with 16 points.

RON HATCHER STARS

In the preliminary, the Indians' junior varsity lost 61-35. Don Sherman hit 18 points for the Jets. Yoakum with eight and Miller with seven, were the leading Papoose scorers.

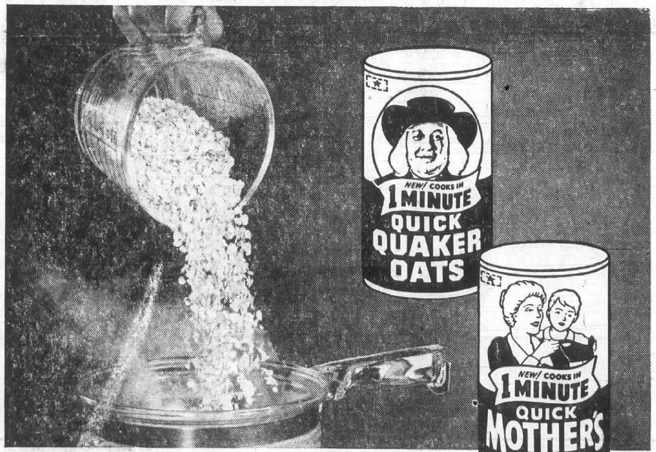
6. Winners will be notified by mail by May 10, 1956. Names and addresses of winners will be posted at Plymouth dealers. Prizes awarded at Detroit, Mich.

7. Second prize winner must complete around-the-world trip within two weeks, by October 31, 1956. Total cost of trip for two not to exceed $5,000.

8. Contest subject to Federal, State & Local regulations.



What do these famous products have to do with Tecumseh

...besides provide good breakfasts—quick?

"One of the advantages of working at Quaker Oats is the opportunity to participate in their outstanding Hospital Care Plan. If a member of my family becomes ill and must be hospitalized, it provides liberal payments for surgical fees and other hospital costs. It's a wonderful plan and the company helps pay for it," says Raymond Seagert, one of the "Quakers" in Tecumseh.

MANY folks here in this community work for the Quaker Oats Company. It's known far and wide for lots of famous products, including Quaker Oats and Mother's Oats.

You can't help noticing a feeling of pride in people who work for the Company. Not only in what they help produce, but in all Quaker products. It's a family pride. They like the idea of living up to past tradition and moving ahead with the times, too. (A good formula for any business, wouldn't you say?)

New Quaker oatmeal is smoother than ever. There's an extra creaminess that especially appeals to children. And the high-protein content supplies needed strength and energy for busy days at school. Good news for mother—cooking time has been cut to a quick minute.

As you enjoy these cereals, you'll share some of the pride your neighbors have in all Quaker Oats Company products.

Our Neighbor's Keeper

America is a land in which, next after the family, the neighborhood is the social unit. In times of trouble and disaster, neighbors have a way of taking care of their own. Volunteer workers — again "the neighbors" — are always ready and willing to go into action when disaster strikes at their fellow Americans.

So it has been in the fight against infantile paralysis, a disease which so often has the impact of both personal and family disaster.

The March of Dimes has won support all over America because one neighbor is willing to help another. But it's not always the neighbor next door. The "neighbor" in the fight against polio may be an afflicted child in another city far away.

Notwithstanding the Salk vaccine, many thousands of polio patients still need help. They are people for whom the vaccine came too late. And there's still a big job to be done in medical research, in recruiting and training scientists, doctors and other experts for a fight to the finish against this crippling disease.

Jan. — through to 31 — is March of Dimes time. It is your chance to send in your check for as much as you can afford to the County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis; and with the small change you have around, to fill the little dime cards that are being distributed throughout the county or the cannisters in local stores.

The March of Dimes merits the support of everyone who can give — even a little. Be a good neighbor. Join the March of Dimes today.

It's Already in Use

It always gives one a fine feeling to be one of the first to inaugurate a program that is later backed by a higher authority. This feeling of "well done" can be said about Herrick Memorial hospital in its X-ray screening program.

The local hospital has been X-raying patients over 15 years of age for some time.

And now the Michigan Department of Health points out the importance of this program by endorsing recommendations by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association that Michigan hospitals receiving Ford Foundation grants use a portion of the grants to set up admission chest X-ray screening programs.

Herrick Memorial hospital did not receive a Ford Foundation grant. It had its X-ray screening program going many months before the grants were made.

The aim of the screening program is to detect TB, Cancer and heart diseases early and to protect hospital patients and personnel from infection by unknown tuberculosis patients.

Dr. John A. Cowan, Director of the Division of Tuberculosis and Adult Health of the State Health department, said that such a program would play a large part in controlling the spread of TB in the state.

"It has been shown by information coming from other states that from two and one-half to three and one-half times as many cases of tuberculosis can be found by chest X-raying admissions to general hospitals as can be discovered in screening surveys in the general population," Dr. Cowan said.

It is heartening to note that Herrick Memorial hospital with its fine X-ray equipment was one of the leading hospitals in beginning the X-ray screening program.

AMERICAN INDUSTRY SPENDS billions of dollars on research — yet, contrary to popular belief, industry gets many of its most revolutionary ideas from independent inventors. Here are some of them:

Letter to Editor:

Jan. 13, 1956
Editor, The Tecumseh Herald,
Tecumseh, Mich.
Greetings.

The item in this week's "Lining" commending Mahlon Sebring for his altruism in cleaning the snow from the ice-rink at the East Branch School site awakened in this perennial juvenile a fitfully slumbering nostalgia. In consequence he resurrected from a semi-retirement a long-neglected pair of figure skates, disguised himself rather ineffectually as a callow lad, and, despite the incipient ankylosis integral to a doddering antiquity, proceeded to spend enjoyable few hours among the ebullient and uninhibited younglings. He found that, despite the fugittings of Tempus he could still cut as neat a circle and take as graceless a tumble as in auld lang syne!

The City Fathers of this burgeoning burg are warmly to be praised for their thoughtfulness in making available to the young-in years (and the young-at-heart) a place where they may pursue the twin sports of Ice Hockey and "Terpsichore a la Glace" in comparative safety. However, it is obvious to even the casual observer that a very real danger still exists. Those two art-forms are by their very nature incompatible. They violate a primal precept of practical physics — the dictum that "no two bodies can occupy the same space at the same time". A lusty team of young males, playing a very good game of Ice Hockey, find their sport considerably hampered by the naive wanderings of the smaller fry. These boys show an admirable courtesy and restraint, despite such provocation, let it be said to their credit. And on the other hand, a troop of innocents, serene and secure in their trusting in their Guardian Angels, ventures freely and constantly into the midst of slashing sticks and flying puck. One fears that same Guardian Angel, in a moment of aberration caused by an invisible flirtation with some passing deamon, may relax her vigil with a resultant collision between some flailing hockey stick and some golden-curled noggin — with disastrous results. (Broken hockey sticks cost real money to replace!)

Perhaps, another year, the authorities, in their infinite wisdom and opulent beneficance, may see fit to flood and freeze TWO adjacent and contiguous areas. One to be earmarked solely for the activities of the budding Red Wings, and the other sacred to the use of the Tots, Toddlers and Terpsichoreans. A consummation devoutly to be wished! Ponder it, ye Powers That Be.

John D. McColl

Realty Views

A prospective buyer insisted on a home in Indian Acres. The only house I could think of that might be for sale was owned by John Adams. John had another house and rented this one to a young couple.

"I wouldn't mind selling," John said, "I could use the money. But I'm afraid I'd better not. You see I have a very good tenant. He might get upset if I try to sell the house. And if it didn't sell, I might lose a good tenant. I'd hate for that to happen."

"Don't worry, John," I replied, "we try to consider the feelings of good tenants. First of all, we carefully screen prospects to prevent the merely curious from bothering your tenant. The prospect I have in mind is qualified to buy. Then, I will phone first and show the house strictly at the convenience of the tenant. That way, any reasonable person will cooperate."

"It sounds okay," John said. "I'll call the tenant first and tell him I'm not listing it with a big group but just with your office on an appointment basis."

My prospect looked at the house and bought it that day.

If you wish to sell, with a minimum of trouble, list your property with us!

JUNE IN JANUARY!

Time was when fresh fruits made their appearance in Michigan only in the summer — when they were in season.

But — thanks to the fast, flexible transportation trucks provide — our eating habits have changed a lot the past quarter of a century — and much for the better, of course.

Now, no matter where you live in Michigan, food stores are filled with a bountiful array of choice things to eat in every department. Nowadays, delicacies know no season.

Merchants today don't have to order in large quantities that stay on their shelves until they lose their crispy freshness. Truck transport has turned miles into minutes — and your standard of living is better because of this.

Our Fight Against Polio

BY RONALD WOTRING

Do we, the people who have not had polio, realize the needs of the March of Dimes? I never had polio but I can imagine the pain there is to it. Do you realize there were 19 cases of polio in Tecumseh and Raisin Township in the last three years? Do you have any idea the cost this was to the parents and March of Dimes? In these cases the March of Dimes helped a total of $19,608.55, which was spent in helping these people fight to live a normal life again. In many cases the cost for one patient will amount to well over $2,000.

Do we understand the amount of faith a person who has polio must have to live? Do we realize the fight that is put forward by these people? Can we understand or imagine how it feels to lie in bed and maybe never to walk again. Can you or I express the feelings of these children and adults? I don't think so. People like that have a faith in God that we can not equal. They put their trust in God and in us, as well. They know that we will not let them down. But are we really doing all we can to fight polio? Have we half the fight that the people suffering from this dreaded disease have? In the biggest share of the schools the teenagers have started some kind of a project that will earn money for the March of Dimes. What are we doing to fight the disease in our school?

I can just see some little girl or boy who has polio. There they lie in bed helpless, but if you were to go and see them you would find them in very good spirits.

They have faith in God and are sure they will walk, run, and play again. They're right. A lot of them will walk, run, and play again if we, the people, help them.

It takes a lot of hard work on the part of the patient as well as the doctors. These patients will fight to make a muscle that is stiff limber again so they can use it. After the patients want to walk the doctors get braces for them and then the long fight back to a normal life is just started. But the patients are very willing to fight until they can walk again. They have to learn to walk and use these muscles again. It's a very hard and long fight back. In time if we are willing to give all we can afford, we may trap and kill this disease. What are we the teenagers of Tecumseh going to do about this? How about us all showing the March of Dimes what the teenagers of Tecumseh really can do for them on Jan. 14, 1956. Why don't we all do what we can for the children and adults who are suffering from polio.

Remember we may have polio ourselves some day. But I pray that our dimes, nickels, and dollars will wipe this disease out.

Smartest Buy in the fine-car field

You've probably noticed that more and more people seem to be stepping into the upper circle of fine cars.

And there can be no doubt that "good times" have a lot to do with this.

But all by itself, it doesn't explain the sudden spurt in sales of the finest of Buicks—the 1956 Roadmaster.

For it has always been our experience that folks with the wherewithal to buy any car they choose are apt to be the choosiest of all.

So it seems quite clear that the marked and increasing preference for Roadmaster is in the fineness of the car itself.

We can tell you why very simply.

Roadmaster starts off with all the virtues that have vaulted the full line of Buicks to soaring popular favor—then caps that acclaim with a worthiness all its own.

You sense this especial eminence at once—in the individualized styling of this gracefully proportioned car.

You recognize it again—in the quiet elegance of its custom appointments—and in the good taste of its luxurious fabrics and color harmonies.

But you know it for sure in the lift and thrill and spirit of Roadmaster performance.

For here is the obedient might of the highest-powered V8 engine in Buick history—coupled to the flash-fast response and absolute smoothness of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow—most modern transmission in motoring today.

In all truth, no man who puts true merit above mere symbol could ask for more than is his in Roadmaster.

If that applies to you, we'll be happy to arrange an introduction. Will you phone us—or come in—for a demonstration soon?

Legion Auxiliary Gives $50 to March of Dimes

About 30 members attended the Jan. meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Monday evening at the Legion Home. Mrs. Robert Lowe presided at the business meeting when it was voted to give $50 to the March of Dimes. Mrs. Harold Easton spoke of the mothers' march for polio which is to be conducted by the auxiliary in co-operation with that of the V.F.W. and reminded the members of their part.

Plans were also developed for a "Koffee Klatch" to be sponsored by the auxiliary Thursday morning, Jan. 19 at Bancroft cleaners. Donations from this event are to be used for polio.

At the opening of the evening the charter was draped in memory of Mrs. Lyman Curtiss, who had been an active member of the group. The impressive ceremony was in charge of the president, Mrs. Lowe and the chaplain, Mrs. Homer Colson with the assistance of Mrs. Louis Schneider, who like Mrs. Curtiss, was a past president of the auxiliary.

A social hour closed the evening with refreshments served by the hostesses, Mrs. Donald Woods, Mrs. Frances Roe, Mrs. Thomas King and Mrs. Paul Maves.

West Branch PTA Hears Dr. Mohr

Parents and teachers of the West Branch school met Thursday evening at the schoolhouse for their association meeting. Dr. Robert Mohr was guest speaker and took for his topic, "Dental Care of Children's Teeth."

Dr. Mohr illustrated his remarks by drawing a picture of a molar, showing where decay starts and how it may destroy the tooth if not checked. He also showed X-rays of children's incipient second teeth and emphasized the importance of preserving the first teeth.

The association voted a contribution to the March of Dimes and the president displayed the charter which had been received from the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The members found that the classrooms had been newly decorated since their last meeting and were much pleased with the improvement. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Beal, Mrs. Robert Starkey, Mrs. Kenneth Hooton and Mrs. Allen French.

West Branch association will meet again Thursday, March 8.

Grange Plans Dance Jan. 28

At the regular meeting of Tecumseh Grange the evening of Jan. 12, several membership applications were read and voted on and Mrs. Percy Cadmus reported on the meeting of the Pomona Grange which was held at the Fairfield Grange the previous Wednesday.

Mills Swick and Percy Cadmus reported on a recent meeting on Grange insurance which had been held in Adrian. It was voted to hold a dance and card party at the hall Jan. 28, the entire proceeds of which would go for the March of Dimes. It was also voted to have a clean-up meeting at the hall Wednesday evening, Jan. 22 starting at 6:30. All members are expected to come prepared to help. Coffee and doughnuts furnished by the Grange will be served.

The Jan. 26 meeting will be preceded by the usual 7 o'clock pot-luck supper with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ricica and Mr. and Mrs. James Squires as chairmen and co-chairmen. The degree team will confer the first and second degrees on a class and announce that candidates for those degrees from other granges may join in the initiation by sending a notice to that effect.

Britton Drops Thriller, 60-58

It was Adrian's first league win. The result made a three-way tie for last place in the league with Britton, Adrian Catholic Central and Onsted all with 1-4 records.

The game was close all the way with Adrian posting a slim 15-14 first quarter edge and a 31-26 intermission lead. Again in the third quarter the Irish picked up another point, posting a 16-15 edge. In the final quarter a spirited Tory rally fell two points short of tieing as the Tories scored 17 points while holding the Irish to 13.

Hirons was leading scorer for the winners with 26 points on 10 goals and six free throws. Tim Linehan added 14.

Kimerer was high for Britton with 23 on sevn baskets and nine charity tosses. Rhora added 10 and Sanch nine.

FOUR COUNCIL POSTS ARE OPEN

Hanna, Moore, Titley, Purkey Terms Expire

Four council posts are open in the spring election which will be held Monday, April 2. Councilmen with terms expiring are Mayor H. H. Hanna, Robert H. Moore, LeRoy Titley and Donald Purkey.

Nominating petitions for the election may be picked up in the city clerk's office beginning Thursday, Feb. 6. Closing date for picking up nominating petitions is Tuesday, Feb. 20.

Mayor Hanna, councilmen Moore and Titley were elected to their posts two years ago. The mayor and councilman Moore at that time were elected to two-year terms and councilman Titley was elected to a one-year term. Last year councilman Titley was re-elected to a one-year term. And last year councilman Purkey was elected to a one-year term.

These men were elected to two-year terms last year.

|---|---|
| Hamilton | 664 |
| Schwartz | 593 |
| Powell | 532 |
| Titley | 500 |
| Purkey | 439 |

In the election last spring there were nine candidates.

There is no justice of the peace races this year. Last spring Robert French was elected to a four-year term.

Two Candles on the Cake

BY MRS. WILLIAM MACBETH

Director, Public Relations, City of Tecumseh

A second candle was figuratively placed on Tecumseh's birthday cake this month. The day of Jan. fifth marked the second official birthday of Tecumseh's becoming a city.

Since Tecumseh has become a city, numerous accomplishments have been realized which may escape the eye of the casual observer. For example, one may be sure that many new homes have been built, but who accurately can guess just how many? In 1954, sixty-three new residences were constructed and in 1955, an additional fifty-six were completed. The building of each home has been the concern of the individual family, it's true; but with each new residence an added responsibility has been placed upon the city and its officials. A family can scarcely be "settled" until water lines, sewer installations and streets have been adapted to serve them. The city has had to meet these new demands as well as to answer the needs of the established residences.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

Let us be a bit more specific in reviewing the work done by the city council, city manager Ed Nelson, and his workmen. Because most of the building property possessing adequate facilities had been utilized, new building sites were a necessity. As a result, during the past two years, 11,182 feet of sewer main alone had to be installed as did 15,500 feet of water main and 4500 feet of storm sewer pipe. That is to say that approximately six miles of new installations have been laid—a greater expanse than the distance between Tecumseh and Clinton. In addition to these lines new valves were tied into the water mains, making it possible to shut off the water in different sections of town, should repairs be necessary, without interferring with general water usage.

Most of us have been cognizant of the fact that Tecumseh has needed new sources of water supply. During these past two years, wells have been developed successfully north of Union street and from Newburg road. Another is almost completed at the north end of River Acres. However, it is still necessary to secure an extra water storage tank and feeder mains to fulfill the request recently made by the State Health Department.

While this work with our water system has been progressing, improvements have likewise been made on our streets. In the past two years, the street mileage has almost doubled—from 15.3 miles to an impressive 28 miles. Although Chicago boulevard was rebuilt by the State Highway Department under the village form of government in 1953, the city government has paid $8800 for the work and materials, plus $2800 for new lights on the boulevard. In addition, 87 new street lights have been installed throughout the city. Traffic lights have been placed on Maumee, Adrian and Union streets and an automatic timing device has been incorporated with these lights. (Incidentally, if you maintain a constant speed of 25 miles per hour through the city, you will not be detained by a red light the timer is so adjusted). These traffic lights were secured at a cost of $3100.

STREET MILEAGE DOUBLED

The materials used for street repair and rebuilding in 1954 and 1955 included 3,000 tons of gravel for foundation use, 4000 tons of stone and 140,000 gallons of asphalt. Not only are these figures impressive but, when one again recalls that our street mileage was almost doubled, we can appreciate the efforts and energies involved.

Temporary detours have made most of us keenly aware of the curb and gutter program. We may have sputtered a bit as we turned right when our destination lay to the left, but the work accomplished more than compensates for our short delay. An expenditure of $70,424 by the property owners and the city has resulted in 16,196 feet of curbing laid in 1954 and 19,016 feet laid in 1955. Mr. Nelson commends those persons who have already petitioned and secured new curb and gutter and welcomes all further requests for such improvements. He truly hopes that every street needing curbing can be served in the near future.

Before a workman can hope to achieve satisfactory results on any project he undertakes, he must have suitable tools with which to work. Therefore the city deemed it advisable and necessary to appropriate $27,000 for new equipment to facilitate the afore mentioned programs. A grader, a loader, a heavy duty truck and a heavy roller were purchased for the highway department as well as a pickup truck for the water department. New office equipment was secured—a typewriter, an adding machine, and a water and tax billing machine. The police department received a new police car. The city hopes that soon a power sweeper may be among its assets to augment the street cleaning program.

SITES ACQUIRED

Other city acquisitions in the two past years include a new parking lot off Ottawa street ($10,000) and the East Branch school property ($18,500) which is the site for a new city building. The city allowed payment for each of these additions.

The city, the schools, and the Community Fund have worked together in improving the Recreation Field. The running track is almost completed and a cement retaining wall has been placed on the east end of the field to accommodate the permanent bleachers.

WANT TO BEAUTIFY

A two-year-old has a full life ahead of him and the city officials feel that Tecumseh has a full schedule ahead of it. Besides meeting current needs, the council hopes more time and money can be devoted to beautifying our city and parks. But, tax revenue must be carefully budgeted. Money available must be used wisely. The members of the council are endeavoring to do just that.

False Report Nets Jail Term

He was fined $50, plus $4.30 costs and he was sentenced to 20 days in jail.

For allowing an unlicensed driver to drive his car he also was fined $20, plus costs of $4.30 and he was sentenced to 10 days in jail.

Jan. 1 he reported that his car had been stolen. Deputies, however, discovered that Curtiss had loaned his car to Clifford Adkins of Tecumseh. Adkins crashed the car and was held on a number of charges, including stealing a car and leaving the scene of a property damage accident.

Steve Is Dead

Steve Kadmanac, "Steve of the red bandanna," is dead. Word came Tuesday that he had died during the night in the jail at Wauseon, Ohio, of acute alcoholism and lack of food. It was a drab obituary and yet none of those who knew Steve and his story found reason for judgement or censure.

Steve Kadmanac came to the United States shortly after the end of World War I, as soon after as he could work his way over in the stoke hole of a steamer. He was born in Yugoslavia and he could not have been much more than a child that day he had hidden in the brush and watched the Germans kill his father, mother, brothers and sisters. Somehow he managed to escape to England and then to the United States.

He came to Tecumseh first about 1930 and Tecumseh had been his summer home most of the time since. For 14 years he had a bed, the first in which he had ever slept, in the garage of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Collins and worked as handy man for dozens of Tecumseh families. Every winter he drifted south, working where ever the spirit took him. Every spring, along with the first robin, he came back to the only home he knew. He was a familiar figure about town those years, thin, erect, draped in clothes that were always too large but always clean. And always he drank. Deadening bouts that blotted out memory for a little time but from which he always came back to work again.

Now Steve is dead and the usual obituary does not apply. There are no dates and no survivors to be listed. Steve might have been one of those sparrows whose "fall is marked".

Schools List Changes in Their Staff

Tecumseh public schools through James McDowell, superintendent, announces these changes in the administration and teaching staff:

Earl Greene now is coordinator of rural schools. When and if they annex to Tecumseh he will make a map survey of students' ages and grades for future planning. His office is in Patterson school where he now also is principal.

Wayne Kaiser, former Patterson principal, is now Central principal.

Mrs. Rose Crawford is teaching the sixth grade Mr. Kaiser taught at Patterson. The Rev. Alvin Brazee is substituting at Central in Mrs. Crawford's place and in about two weeks Don Francoeur, who will graduate next month from the University of Michigan, will succeed Mrs. Crawford as sixth grade teacher at Central.

And Mrs. Mary Alice Weitenhagen will replace Mrs. May Illeck, Central third grade teacher, who will quit teaching at the end of this semester.

CLOTHING

The Tecumseh Service Club announces that it finds there is a need for good used clothing for some of the children in Tecumseh schools.

Therefore, they have been given a room in the Central school building to use as headquarters for collection and storage.

There will be a representative of the club at the school each Wednesday from 1:30 to 4 p.m. to receive donated clothing.

Those unable to bring their contributions to the school may have them picked up by calling Mrs. Lee Purkey, Mrs. Edward Escolme or Mrs. Perry Hayden.

PLAN BRITTON JAYCEE CLUB

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is trying to organize a Jaycee chapter in Britton. There are 40 possible applicants in the village.

Anyone interested in joining may contact either Bob Wallace or Bob Williamson.

Meader Predicts Ike Victory

Rep. George Meader, in a letter to the HERALD, predicts that President Eisenhower will run for a second term and that Ike will win.

Rep. Meader's letter follows:

"For my first letter report of the second session of the 84th Congress, I am going to stick my neck out and get into the predicting game.

"President Eisenhower will run and will be elected to a second term.

"The economy may not be as prosperous as record-breaking 1955, but there will be no marked slump.

"There will be no war.

"The balanced budget presented by the President will be approved by Congress.

"There will be no significant tax changes. If there is an income tax reduction it will be small and will come late in the year after financial commitments have been determined. Corporate and excise taxes due to expire April 1 will be continued.

"An expanded highway program will be approved.

"Farmers will see some relief from the price-cost squeeze. The gasoline tax for farm use will be removed. The "soil bank" will be adopted. Rigid price supports will not become law. Surpluses will be reduced.

"After controversy over segregation, federal aid to school construction will be approved.

"Bills to exempt natural gas producers from federal regulation will not become law.

"An election year, investigations and alleged exposures, vote-catching proposals and political controversy will be abundant.

"1956 will not be dull."

Central PTA Seeks Balcony Improvements

Central school PTA will write the board of education a letter asking that what members term "junk" be taken out of the balcony in the auditorium.

This motion was passed by a record breaking number of members at the PTA meeting last Thursday night.

Former principal Earl Greene asked that the letter be written to himself or to Supt. McDowell but the membership thought it should be written to the board.

Members also voted to seal in the balcony so the miscellaneous chairs, tables and other items, some of which came from East Branch school, would not be seen. They also pointed out that acoustics would be better for plays in the auditorium.

President Carson House reported that Supt. McDowell said such a job would cost $1000.

Max Elliott, however, a local contractor, told fellow members the job would take "less than $100 in materials." And, he added, "give me four men and we can do it in a day."

As a result six men members volunteered to help Mr. Elliott in walling in the balcony.

But, members asked, if it's sealed in won't the mess become worse? They thought all the articles should be taken out of the balcony, so they passed a motion to write the board of education to dispose of the articles.

Principal Greene explained that the material was not "junk." He explained that some of the materials when called for can be sold. He said more than $30 was realized from a recent sale.

A five-minute recess was called while some of the men inspected the crowded balcony.

President House reported that the board of education said it would pay for the materials needed to board up the balcony.

The sealing off of the balcony was passed by the membership.

The membership voted for a record player at an approximate cost of $125. An amendment "for Central school only" was defeated.

A proposed baked goods sale to raise the money was voted down. Members thought "passing the hat" would raise the money.

The school has a paid membership of 160; 125 attended the meeting.

Wheaton College Women's Glee Club To Sing at Friends Church

The Wheaton College Women's Glee club will present a concert of sacred music at the Tecumseh Friends church on Friday, Jan. 27 at 8 p.m.

Miss Carolyn Comfort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort of Tecumseh, fifth from the left in the front row, will take part.

Under director, Mignon Bollman Mackenzie, the musical organization sings in churches and concert halls throughout the country.

Taking a short tour into Michigan, the group is presenting concerts in Tecumseh, Ann Arbor, Roseville, Detroit, Lansing, and Benton Harbor. A longer tour of the southern states is scheduled for their spring vacation.

DIRECTOR MACKENZIE

Included in the program of many choral arrangements chosen by Mrs. Mackenzie are Bach's "Lord God My Father;" "Hear Us O Lord," by Mozart, and Mendelssohn's "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers."

Featured soloists are Shirley Meyers, Townville, Pennsylvania; Marjorie Janzen, Dinuba, California; Ellen Sawyer, Wheaton, and Janet Rausch, Warren, Ohio. Pianist is Margaret Kennedy of Pleasantville, New Jersey.

A trio consisting of Joanne Dickinson and Donna Mae Witt, Long Beach and Glendale, California, and Jacpuie Williford, Joliet, Illinois, contribute to the program. Instrumental soloists are Ernestine and Helen May Wray, twin musicians on violin and harp from Williamsville, New York, and pianist, Adele Nystrom, Wheaton.

There is no admission charge but an offering, for the expenses of the glee club's trip here and return, will be taken.

Roman Catholics Get Mt. Olivet for Interments

A five-acre plot of ground in the Lenawee Hills North Memorial Gardens has been reserved for deceased persons of the Roman Catholic faith.

The frontage will be on the north half of north Adrian road.

It will be named the Garden of Mount Olivet and the memorial will be the Bible with the Lord's Prayer inscribed on it.

The garden includes 700 lots.

P.T.A.'s Plan Polio Dance

S. R. Illeck has accepted general chairmanship of the combined P.T.A.-sponsored polio fund raising dance to be held in the high school gym Saturday, April 7.

At a meeting held Monday night of P.T.A.'s executive committee at Patterson school Mr. Illeck announced his commitee as follows:

Music will be furnished by the Products orchestra. The Teen Club, under direction of John Hamilton, will be in charge of refreshments.

The purpose of this annual dance is not only to raise funds for polio, but it is also a means of enabling all the P.T.A. groups to have an annual get-together.

The chamber of commerce has been cleared for this date.

Tecumseh is invited to participate.

High School P.T.A. to Meet Tonight

Mrs. Laine Holden, president of the high school P.T.A., announces that the Thursday evening (tonight) meeting at the high school building will feature a panel discussion on the subject of the junior, senior high school receptions. The panel will be moderated by Mrs. Sam Sisson and will consist of members of the two classes and parents. There will be a question and answer period after the discussion and all parents of the students involved are urged to attend.

There will be a short business meeting during which suggestions for a money raising project will be considered. The meeting will open at 8 p.m. and refreshments will be served at the end.

SCOUT ASSOC. WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association will meet at the Scout cabin in Elliott Park Wednesday morning, Feb. 1, from 9:15 until 11 a.m. with the president, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, presiding.

All leaders, assistant leaders, committee members and officers have been asked to attend. Business pertaining to the activities of the Brownies and Girl Scouts will be transacted. Plans for the observance of "Thinking Day" will be presented.

—o—

RECEIVE DEGREES

Two Tecumseh area residents will receive degrees from Wayne University next Tuesday.

Douglas J. Ferman and Mrs. Marguerite Garlick will receive master of education degrees.

MARCH

Tecumseh folks who want to give to the Mothers' March on polio are asked to have their porch lights on tonight, Thursday, Jan. 27, from 7 to 8 p.m.

The march here will be made by the auxiliaries of the Legion and V.F.W. and other volunteers. Mothers taking part are asked to meet at the Legion Home tonight at 6:30.

Mrs. Harold Easton, local March of Dimes chairman, meanwhile, commented on the March of Dimes benefit breakfast and dinner that will be held in Don's Grill Sunday, Feb. 5.

"We have had very good luck in our soliciting and in volunteer contributions. Everybody has been wonderful and it looks like the benefit meals will be a big success."

Adult Classes Begin Monday

Final registration for the adult education classes Monday evening resulted in the establishment of classes in office machines, bookkeeping, typing, general wood work, oil painting and women's and men's recreation groups. The first five classifications will begin Monday, Jan. 30, at 7 p.m. at the high school building. Women's recreation will meet for the first time Feb. 1 and men's recreation Feb. 2.

Minimum requirements have been met in all classes but there will be room for a few more in each one except office machines. That category is completely filled.

Prizes To Be Given in M & M Show

The committee in charge of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Show sponsored by the VFW reports that four prizes will be awarded each night of the show which will be presented Feb. 9, 10, 11 and 12 in the United Products Workers' Union Hall.

The show this year, they said, will be bigger and better with 38 displays and 30 merchants and manufacturers.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

TWO LITTLE GIRLS WHO attended the long Central School P.T.A. meeting became almost glassy-eyed toward the end. So it was no wonder that they didn't quite know the score at the end when a roll call was taken to determine which room was to receive the cash award for having the best attendance of parents. When her mother stood up, one of the little tikes excitedly piped: "Mama, what are you doing?"

EMILY MANWARING IS ONLY seven and she's small, but she packs a mean snow shovel. She cleaned all the walks on one side in the 500 block of Brown street. Her mailman could not let her efforts go unnoticed. He gave her a dime.

"WELL," THE TECUMSEH father asked his small fry at dinner time, "did you do your good deed today?"

"Yup," he said, "today I did two good deeds."

"What were they?," his proud parent asked.

"I went over to see Aunt Lucy and she was glad. Then I came home and she was glad again."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "No man goes before his time —unless the boss has left early."

YOU ALL KNOW WHAT a bulldozer is. Well, now they're making a calfdozer. It may sound sort of silly but it really works. A British firm is marketing it. Originally designed to aid in home construction, the little machine has proved itself in ships' holds, shifting bulk cargo into place and on many other jobs with tight quarters.

ADD INCIDENTAL INTELLIGENCE: On Christmas Day the General Telephone's Tecumseh Exchange had a 21.8 per cent increase in outgoing long distance phone calls.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. VanWinkle

We have a very pretty snow picture on our blackboard. For every "A" we earned in spelling, during the month of January, we posted a picture of ourselves, sliding, skating, or doing some kind of winter sport, on the big blackboard picture. Many of us can find ourselves in three or four places on the big picture.

All of us are ready or almost ready for a new reading book. We have all worked hard and each new book that we get to read, shows us that we are ready for more new and harder words.

Mrs. Smith put some music on our blackboard and we wrote words to go with the music. We had a nice big snowstorm last night so we wrote about it and called our song "I Love Snow." Duane Keil thought up the name for us.

We finished our Achievement tests on Wednesday. We played games in these tests, and it was fun, but we all tried to do our best, too.

We are reading a book called "Someday Soon." It is all about our community, the place where we live.

Sometime soon we are going to go visiting—we are planning a visit to the fire and police stations first, then later, we will visit other helpers in our town.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Callihan

We are glad to see some snow for January. Now we can make the snowflake flowers to match. These have been busy days for us. Two of our groups have finished their reading books and are ready for new ones. We had special tests for each book as well as Achievement tests for the entire class.

We have also finished our "We Talk, Spell, and Write" and are anxious to use the new ones. Most of us have learned to write our names in cursive writing, but manuscript is much easier if we are in a hurry.

Birthday treats were given by Cathy Merx and Sandra Beaubien. Sandra Beaubien and Steven Butler were our twins for this month. Margie Parrett also has a birthday in January.

We are glad to see so many parents at P.T.A. Thank you for coming.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Schwartz

Our third grade room lost a girl and gained a boy after vacation. Glenda Shavalier went to Clinton and Terry Morden came to us from Danville. We now have sixteen girls and twenty-one boys.

In arithmetic we have just started adding larger numbers with carrying.

We wrote many tests during the lats week of the semester. Now we are each making two questions about one of the last four stories in our reading book. We shall each read our questions for the others in the class to answer.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Illeck

We feel quite grown up. We have been having tests of one kind or another all week, just like the high school people.

This is the end of the semester and the new semester brings many changes for our room. We are very sorry Mr. Greene will not be at Central next semester. The second half of the year also brings a new teacher to our room. Her name is Mrs. Weitenhagen. We know we shall enjoy having her as our teacher.

Mrs. Illeck is sorry she won't be with us the last half of the year.

SECOND GRADE—WEST BRANCH
Miss LaPointe

The pupils and teachers of West Branch are very grateful for the improvements made in our building. We heard many complimentary comments at the last P.T.A. meeting about the attractive appearance of the rooms since they were redecorated during the Christmas recess. We extend our thanks to all who were responsible for these improvements.

We are now using Weekly Readers and are finding them not only interesting but helpful in improving our reading.

Birthdays celebrated recently were Cinda Murphy, December 29; Connie Robinette, January 13; Donna Glass[illegible], January 15; and Beverly Eggleston, January 19. Connie and Donna celebrated at a joint party on Friday.

David Elder, who came from Talladega, Ala. was with us for one month and then returned to his home in the south.

Teresa Mann brough a tiny peanut plant for us to watch its growth. Gloria Green brought narcissus bulbs that are maturing rapidly. Our most recent contribution was a grapefruit seed planted in a pretty glass slipper, brought by Lina Brazee.

The birds are making good use of our feeding table.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Thomas

We have been writing stories during our language class. We presented our stories on our own television program. Thirty-five "famous" writers read their stories and we enjoyed them very much. The studio audience chose this story, written by Cheryl Heavener, as their favorite.

A SAD STORY

Once upon a time there was a little bear named Willy. He was a fat little bear. One day he went for a walk down to the river. He almost fell in the river. Along came a gorilla and pushed him into the water. The little bear landed in an alligator's mouth.

The father bear tried to get Willy out. But, just then the alligator swallowed Willy. The family was very sad.

This month we have two new nine year olds. Bruce Weaver and Fritzie VanNorman both have birthdays in January. Happy Birthday!

Group one just finished their first reading book. Now we are reading "Tall Tales."

We spent this week writing tests of all varieties. They were lots of fun and we tried our very best.

Betty Hyde has leftf us. She is now attending West Branch. We have a new boy from Raisin Center. His name is LaVern Lewis.

Mr. Greene is leaving us for a new position. Good luck. We welcome Mr. Kaiser, our new principal.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The kindergarten children are looking forward to using their new work books. We saw Mr. Young bring them in our room one day and Mrs. Updike let us look through them. We know that we will learn many new things and have a lot of fun, soon.

The first grade is having fun making snow pictures. Sometimes we tear our snowmen out of white paper. We like to use blue construction paper for our background and white chalk to show the snow on the ground.

Peggy Easton has a perfect attendance so far in the third grade.

We made snow men of cotton to use in the display case and for our winter snow scene.

Phillip Mobley nad Barry Roe had birthdays.

The third grade won the attendance award for P.T.A. We hope we can keep it. John Hayden won our semester spell down.

The fourth grade is keeping a record of the time of sunrise and sunset to see just how the days grow longer. We were surprised to find that only a minute or two of daylight was added each day.

We also have been playing a good breakfast game. Most of us are eating a good breakfast each morning.

We have been hearing a very interesting story about Vikings. Jim Osburn brought a very nice model of a Viking ship that he received for Christmas. Some of the children have drawn pictures of the ships.

The fifth grade is going to start doing Safety Patrol and Service Squad duty at the beginning of the second semester.

Mrs. Hardcastle is going to start square-dancing classes Monday.

The fifth grade is starting to study the Middle Atlantic States in social studies and adding and subtracting of fractions in arithmetic.

The sixth grade have been drawing some very fine maps of the various European countries. These maps are in the large display case.

Woman's Assoc. Officers Installed

Newly elected officers of the Woman's Association of the Presbyterian church were installed at the annual meeting in Fellowship Center last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Howard Truesdale presided over the impressive candle lighting ceremony and the officers installed were Mrs. M. R. Blanden, president; Miss Ann Carson, vice president; Mrs. Carleton Cook, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Garlick, corresponding secretary; Mrs. William Sisson, recording secretary; and Mrs. E. E. Davis, treasurer.

Annual reports were given by the retiring officers and two honorary memberships were presented. Mrs. Harold Wilson received membership in the Board of National Missions, the award being presented by Mrs. S. W. Boyce and Mrs. George Kidman presented a similar award in the Board of Foreign Missions to Mrs. F. C. Dickinson.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Roger Williams and Mrs. LeRoy Titley.

Thursday morning the executive committee of the association met with the presidents of the five member leagues to arrange their reorganization.

Two new presidents were appointed by Mrs. Blanden to head the two extra organizations to be formed. They are Mrs. Dwight Hodges and Mrs. Albert Williams. Names were then drawn for the seven new groups and members will be notified by letter of the number of their group.

The first meeting of all the circles will be the first Tueseday in Feb., when each will make plans for their own organization. There are 35 members in each.

Nothing without wings climbs like a '56 Chevrolet!

The new '56 Chevrolet handles hills like they aren't even there! Aim it up a steep grade . . . and you'll see why it's the Pikes Peak record breaker!

Ever level off a mountain with your foot? Nothing to it. Just point this new '56 Chevy uphill and ease down on the gas.

Up you go with a quiet (hydraulic-hushed valve lifters now in all engines —V8 or 6) rush of power. This is the car, you know, that broke the Pikes Peak record. The car that conquered towering grades and vicious turns to prove its superior performance, handling ease and cornering ability.

These are built-in qualities that mean more driving pleasure and safety for you. Chevrolet also offers such safety features as seat belts, with or without shoulder harness, and instrument panel padding at extra cost.

You've a choice of 19 frisky new Chevrolets all with Fisher Body and with horsepower ranging up to a new high of 205. Drop in, when you have a chance, and drive the new record breaker!

Services Held for Harry D. Marsh

Harry D. Marsh, who was born in Tecumseh 83 years ago and has lived here nearly all his life, died Friday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Shook in Tecumseh Acres. He had made his home there for the past 13 years and had been ill for the last seven.

At one time he operated a meat market in Tecumseh. He was the son of the late W. W. and Catherine Stevenson Marsh.

Survivors are four daughters, Mildred, Mrs. Charles Currier and Doris, Mrs. Clifford Campbell, both of Tecumseh; Bessie, Mrs. Alfred Sisson of Adrian and Wilhelmina, Mrs. Calvin Hutchinson of Flint; four sons, Clarence of Morenci and Earl Marsh, Gerald Allen and Arthur Jepson of Tecumseh; one brother, Wolcott Marsh of Los Angeles, Calif.; 11 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two wives; three sons, Harry, Dale and Frank Marsh; a daughter, Gladys; three sisters, Mrs. John Snow and Bessie and Ella Marsh and two brothers, Ralph and Bert Marsh.

Funeral services, conducted by the Rev. E. C. Dickin, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home and burial was in Brookside cemetery with Harry Campbell, Dale Campbell, Thomas Hartley, Donald Roesch, Clarence Kittle and Calvin Hutchinson as bearers.

Mrs. Leon Wilson Died in Gaylord

Funeral and burial services were held in Adrian Friday afternoon for Iva Gove Wilson, widow of Leon Wilson, who died Tuesday at her home in Gaylord.

Mrs. Wilson, whose girlhood was spent in Adrian and Ridgeway, lived in Tecumseh for a number of years when Mr. Wilson operated a filling station here. Because of Mr. Wilson's health, they moved to Gaylord where she has lived ever since.

She is survived by two grandchildren, Ann and Charles Wilson of Saline; a brother, Orville Gove of Devil's lake; a sister, Mrs. Lester Treat of Flint and her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Wilson of Gaylord.

Mrs. Wilson was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and her son, Charles, who was killed while serving in the navy during World War II.

Papooses Win and Lose to Sugar Boys

Last Thursday the Tecumseh high school seventh grade basketball team lost to Blissfield, 36-26, but the eighth graders won, 40-18.

In the seventh grade game Titley took scoring honors with five buckets good for 10 points. Blissfield high scorer was Hassen with 11 buckets and two charity tosses for 24 points.

Withrow led the eighth graders with eight points. Barrett also cashed eight for Blissfield.

The teams play Clinton today.

Janice Jedele and Curtis Rendel Married Saturday

In a candlelight service at 8 o'clock Saturday evening in the Tecumseh Friends church, Janice Arlene Jedele and Curtis Rendel were united in marriage. Janice is the daughter of Mrs. Jean Jedele of south Evans street, Tecumseh and the groom, whose home is in Adrian, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rendel.

MRS. CURTIS RENDEL

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward Escolme in a church decorated by hampers of white chrysanthemums and gladioli mingled with palms and candelabra. Her uncle, Delmar Manchester of Clinton gave the bride in marriage. Mrs. Amos Wilson of Clinton presided at the organ, playing the traditional nuptial music and accompanying Miss Diane Woodward as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's attendants were Miss Theresa Ann Verrier, who was the maid of honor, Sandra Lee of Manchester, bridesmaid and Ruth Ann Jedele, the bride's sister, who was the junior bridesmaid. Karen Sue Miller of Deerfield, a niece of the bridegroom was the flower girl.

The three brothers of the groom were best men and ushers. They were Donald Wayne Rendel of Adrian, Ronald Rendel of Jackson and Virgil Rendel of Riga. Ronnie Jedele, the bride's small brother carried the ring.

The bride was radiant in a gown of bridal satin, net and lace made with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Lace formed the long sleeves and a pointed peplum over the satin and net skirt and was also used to make the bonnet shaped headpiece which held the short tulle veil. A sculptured neckline finished the lace and satin bodice. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

All of the bride's attendants wore ballerina length dresses of light blue faille and carried arm bouquets of carnations graduating from light to dark pink. Their costumes were further complemented by flowered head bands.

A reception for 150 guests followed the ceremony at the Tecumseh Grange hall with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bonnel acting as hosts. Mrs. Delmar Manchester cut the four-tiered wedding cake, Mrs. Duane Rendel poured coffee, Miss Evelyn Schebella served the punch and Mrs. Ronald Rendel the ice cream. The serving of the refreshments was in charge of Mrs. Marvin Johnson and the guests were registered by Miss Delores Rendel, Mrs. Arthur Botham made the lovely wedding dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Rendel left after the reception for a short trip through the south, the bride wearing a beige suit with brown accessories. A graduate of Tecumseh high school with the class of 1955, she is employed at the Washtenaw abstract office in Ann Arbor, while the groom, who attended Sand Creek high school is employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. They will live at 823 N. Locust St., Adrian.

Pre-nuptial social events for the bride included a miscellaneous shower, given the evening of Jan. 11 by Mrs. Marion Miller of Blissfield, a sister of Mr. Rendell. It was featured by a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake baked by Mrs. Miller Sr. Jan. 13 three friends of Miss Jedele entertained in her honor at the home of Miss Theresa Verrier of Tecumseh. The other hostesses were Evelyn Schebella and Miss Barbara Retan. This affair was also a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

W.C.T.U. HEARS THE REV. CHARLES BURCH

The Tecumseh unit of W.C.T.U. held its Jan. meeting at the home of Mrs. Carl Burch with 25 present. The meeting was opened by a prayer by the Rev. Charles Burch of Ypsilanti, who also spoke later during the meeting. The Rev. Horace James of the Tecumseh Methodist church was also present and spoke briefly.

Mrs. Fuller of Ypsilanti gave an inspirational talk on what she called "Extension W.C.T.U." which includes those unable to attend regular meetings. There was a discussion also of the petitions which are being circulated, advocating federal legislation to regulate liquor advertising on TV programs. The speakers pointed out that while each state had control in its own territory none could regulate interstate programs.

Mrs. Burch served refreshments to the group and it was announced that the next meeting would be at the home of Mrs. Floyd Bryan.

COMFORT EXTENSION

The meeting of the Comfort Extension Club at the home of Mrs. Elray Finnegan Jan. 18 was a social one. Ten members attended and plans were made to entertain two other extension clubs of this locality for the Feb. meeting. That also will be a social affair with the object of a closer acquaintanceship between club members. Mrs. George Finnegan assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Garfield Gray Died Friday

Funeral services for Garfield Gray, 75, who died at Herrick Memorial hospital last Friday evening were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Niblack Funeral Home in Britton. The Rev. O. E. Priest officiated and burial was in the Ridgeway cemetery. Bearers were Wayne Gray, Guy Seidel, William Judkins, Clarence Hereford, Ernest Spohr and Ford Bushroe.

Mr. Gray was born Oct. 31, 1880, in Blissfield township, the son of Albert and Jeanette Bradford Gray. He married the former Nell Pocklington April 3, 1906.

Mr. Gray had been engaged in farming until 10 years ago when he retired and moved to the village of Britton. He served three years as president of the Britton board of education and also was a member of the board of review and the cemetery association of Ridgeway township.

He is survived by his widow; a grandson, James Garfield Danforth; five sisters, Mrs. Arthur (Saphronia) Bradley of Blissfield, Mrs. Christ (Charlene) Burnor of Adrian, Mrs. Lewis (Jennie) Theeke of Britton, Mrs. Gerald (Cora) Brown of Adrian and Mrs. Frank (Edna) Seidel of Deerfield, and by several nieces and nephews.

"DO-IT-YOURSELF" WITH A DIFFERENCE

It was a grandmother who remarked recently that "neighborliness was not dead after all". Her daughter-in-law had just come home from the hospital with a baby boy — her fourth, and the neighbors had really "turned to". Not only had there been food brought in to help with those first meals but one neighbor had taken off her coat, asked "Now what can I do?" and proceeded to do it.

Perhaps south Park street is not unique in this respect, even in these days of every man to his own television, but two of its young residents think it is the nicest neighborhood they have ever known. Of course the fact that Betty McCoy Powell and Pearl Brown Osburn have been friends since grammer school days and that their husbands grew up together has something to do with it, and perhaps the two couples have been a rallying point for the rest of the street. But the fact remains that it is a friendly spot, and a "Do-it-yourself — together" neighborhood.

The Powells and Osburns live just opposite each other in houses which, while they do not look alike on the outside are basically similiar in design. They are similiar in workmanship too. For the floors, finishing, painting, tiling and dozens of other processes in both houses are the work of the two couples working as a team of four.

They have "summered and wintered" together. Bill and Betty Powell began their house in August and moved in the next April, in time to be on the spot when the Chuck Osburns broke ground for theirs in May. The Osburns managed to move in in time to celebrate Christmas in their new home. The four are not sure which was worse; laying floors with numb fingers at Powells or mopping perspiration as they applied waterproof paint in the Osburns foundation trenches in the July sun.

Probably they were very fortunate to be able to do the work they did. Surely not all contractors, certainly not big city ones, would permit amateurs to work, even on their own houses. Neither of the men had ever built anything before and when they asked anxiously if their work on the roof was all right, one of the kindly Kempfs would answer with a twinkle, "Well, it's all going to be covered up anyway." But not all their work was covered up and at present writing it looks O.K.

There were some trying times, like the night that melting snow was dripping through the subflooring onto the newly poured cement in the Powells' basement. They worked all that night spreading tarred paper and then a layer of sawdust for protection only to have another fall of snow freeze over it all before they could shovel it off again. Both houses had ladder trouble. When one broke it left Bill Powell dangling by one hand from the massive roof beam which stretches from end to end of their house. The collapse of another when Pearl Osburn was painting window frames poured a bucket of paint from her chin to her ankles and sent her scurrying to the shelter of the Powells' garage and some of Betty's clothes.

There was fun along with the work, late suppers around the fireplace among the shavings and saw horses and outdoor snacks in the summer evenings. Always they had the inspiration and challenge of the MacGeorge house, next door to Powells, which Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge had built single handed.

With both houses completed they still had sufficient enthusiasm the following summer to build sun porches on each. The results of their labor are two beautifully finished homes in the modern manner; wide windowed, sunny and very livable. Because they "did-it-themselves" they appreciate the comforts and conveniences to the full but "if they never see another paint brush it will be too soon."

VFW AUXILIARY PLANS BAKE SALE FOR POLIO

At the regular meeting of the Auxiliary of Hall-Slater Post V.F.W. last Wednesday evening plans were made for a bake sale for polio to be held the following Saturday. Mrs. Lloyd Stites was appointed chairman.

It was decided to hold a family night sometime in Feb., date to be announced later. The group was reminded of their part in the Mothers' March Jan. 26 and that they would serve dinner for the post members on Jan. 25 and a wedding reception Feb. 4.

At the next meeting Feb. 1 all officers are to be in uniform as installation will be held and members of the Morenci Auxiliary will be guests.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Schriver and Mrs. Richard Butler.

Goodwill Needs Materials To Avoid Layoffs

Contributions to Goodwill Industries have meant that an average of 450 handicapped people have been able to work during the past year.

"Enough discards have been contributed so that Goodwill's production line has been operating through Dec. and the first half of Jan. without layoffs," said local Goodwill representatives.

"To insure against cutbacks during Feb., however, we are asking those who can, to get their discards together and call Mr. William Kuster at Britton 2121 and Mrs. Carl Burch at 868 in Tecumseh. The Goodwill trucks will be here Tuesday, Jan. 31.

"We are making an emergency call to have more discards, but at the same time, we wish to thankfully all those who have helped us so wholehearted during the first half of the winter months," they continued.

160 Attended Banquet Monday

The joint efforts of the executive committees of the Monday Club and the Business and Professional Woman's Club were well rewarded Monday evening when 160 people filled nearly every available seat at the Baptist Youth House. They were received by the officers of the clubs and were served a ham dinner by the ladies of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Herbert Murphy, president of the Monday Club, welcomed the audience after dinner and introduced Mrs. William Hayden, who played two Chopin Etudes in her usual gracious and finished manner. The musical interlude was continued by three numbers sung by the chorus of the Tecumseh Music Club. This group of 16 ladies was led by Mrs. John McColl with Mrs. Hayden at the piano. They sang first Bobby Burns' "Bonnie Doone," then Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song" and for a final number a negro spiritual without accompaniment.

Arthur Sinclair, a chalk artist from Detroit, then took the platform and entertained with a series of seven pictures which developed cleverly before the eyes of his audience. His subject was "Tme Lighter Side" and the pictures included nature themes and a series of amusing drawings of styles of ladies dress. The finished pictures were presented to members of the audience including Mrs. Ray Sluyter, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Mervyn Boltz, Robert Bonner, Mrs. George Schumm, Mrs. T. Rentschler and Charles Howe.

HISTORY OF OPERA IS MUSIC CLUB TOPIC

The January meeting of the Music Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ted Glauser in Herrick Park. She entertained instead of Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney because of Mr. Mulvaney's recent return from the hospital. There were 18 members and guests present.

Mrs. Harley McConnell was program leader and developed the subject of "Opera" by giving a talk on the history and growth of that form of musical expression over the centuries. She then conducted a very interesting musical quiz by playing the themes of the better known operas to be identified by her listeners.

Mrs. William Hayden assisted the hostess in serving refreshments and there was a practice session of the chorus following the meeting.

TWENTIETH CENTURY WELDERS

There's more than one reason why Twentieth Century Welders are a favorite among farmers who know good welding.

First and foremost . . . they'll tackle, and turn out "to a T", any welding job. Just dial the right heat for the job, and put your Twentieth Century Welder and Carbon Arc Torch to work:

Cutting metal • Brazing
Drilling holes • Bending and shaping
Soldering • Hard Surfacing

AND . . . Twentieth Century Welders save you time and money.

NOW . . You can quickly and easily repair or replace worn or broken parts on automobiles, tractors, trucks, on all farm machinery.

AND . . . with a Twentieth Century Welder, you can easily make pieces of new equipment.

HARMONY HOME MAKERS MEET

Mrs. Victor Voorhees entertained the Harmony Home Makers for their Jan. meeting last Wednesday. The usual noon potluck dinner featured three decorated birthday cakes which were served in honor of three Jan. birthdays, those of Mrs. Mabel Beardsley, Mrs. William Wallace and Miss Edna Gamboe.

Following the dinner a short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Clarence Hunt after which a program was presented by Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Bert Bruder. This consisted of two readings by Mrs. William Gregg and games in which all took part. A social hour followed.

Mrs. Ralph Atchison will be hostess to the group Feb. 15.

VFW Plans Dads' Post

A Dad's Post sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is being formed by Hall-Slater Post No. 4187.

Dads' Posts are a VFW sponsored organization of all dads of sons who have seen foreign service in time of war. There are 30 of these posts in Michigan and 172 in the nation. The Tecumseh post will make 31 in the state.

The Dads' organization is similar to its sponsoring organization with governing bodies both on the post and department level.

Sunday, Jan. 29, a meeting of all eligible dads will be held at the local VFW post home, 19 Mill street at 2 p.m. Herman Meuth Sr., of Roseville, past department president, will be here to explain and to give aid to the group. At this meeting the dads will elect their officers and organize the new Post.

The next Sunday, Feb. 5, Mr. Meuth again will be here with a group from Detroit to institute the new Dads' Post and to install the officers.

The public is invited to attend and all eligible interested dads are urged to attend the meeting next Sunday, Jan. 29.

Christian Science Services Listed

How spiritual understanding of divine Love enables mankind to make the Golden Rule practical in daily living will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love" is the Golden Text from 1 John (4:12): "If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us."

The spiritual basis for brotherhood is brought out in selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (518:13-19): "God gives the lesser idea of Himself for a link to the greater, and in return, the higher always protects the lower. The rich in spirit help the poor in one grand brotherhood, all having the same Principle.

The true story of Joe McConnell America's first triple jet ace is brought to the Color CinemaScope screen by Alan Ladd and June Allyson in "The McConnell Story."

Bedford Win Keeps Hopes Alive

Indians Must Clip Hornets' Wings Friday To Stay In Race

Tecumseh high school Indians kept their Southeastern League title hopes alive last Thursday night, after a shaky start, they edged the Bedford cagers in the final seconds to win 48-46. The win gave the Indians a 3-1 record in league play. Their only league loss was to Hillsdale early in the season. Friday night they play the Hornets at home and if they can pull the stingers out of Bohannon, Handy and the rest of the Hornets and win Friday's game the two teams will be resting at the top of the loop heap with identical 4-1 records.

"Red" Bohannon, Hornet ace, curently is leading the league in scoring with 74 points. Mike Sisson is close on his heels in second place with 62.

The Bedford game had a storybook finish with long John Elliott contributing the Merriwell touch. With the score tied at 46 all with nine seconds remaining in the game Johnny was down in the left hand corner about 20 feet away when he tried a set shot. The ball rolled crazily around the rim, then decided to make a hero of long John and dropped in. Bedford only had possession of the ball for a split second before the buzzer sounded and the Indians had wrapped up their third league win.

In the first two quarters the Indians, playing without the services of one of their best play makers Ken Miller who was laid up with a severe cold, could hardly hit the gym, let alone the basket, with their shooting. As a result they were down 9-6 at the end of the first quarter and 28-16 at the end of the half.

But in the third period Coach Vic Lawson clamped a press on the Mules and they lost their kick The Indians had been practicing the press all week but they couldn't put it on in the first two quarters. Between halves Coach Lawson worked out the bugs and it worked in the last two periods.

The result was that the Indians gained seven points on the Mules in each of the last two periods, outscoring Bedford 16-9 in each frame.

Not quite as sharp on their free throws as they had been in previous games, the Indians dumped 10 of 19 tries. The Mules, on the other hand, could have won the game easily from the free throw stripe. They were able to cash only 10 out of 25 attempts.

Val Spangler was leading point getter for Tecumseh with six field goals and two charity tosses, good for 14 points. Mike Sisson added 12 on five field goals and a brace of three throws.

Warren and Hammond did most of the kicking for the Mules with 10 points each.

Coach Doug Murdoch's Papooses dropped the prelim, 55-32. Scott Harvey was high for the Indians with 12. Kerekes had 15 for Bedford.

South Lyon Nips Knights

Boysville lost its fourth League of the Lakes basketball game Friday night to South Lyon, 57-47. The loss gave the Knights a 1-4 league record.

Boysville had a 16-9 margin at the end of the first period, but faded badly in the second and was able to pick up only three points while South Lyon added 14 to take a 23-19 first half lead.

In the last two stanzas the Knights were outscored 12-10 and 22-18.

Joe Murray with six baskets and three charity tosses led Boysville in scoring with 15. Hock with 22 was leading South Lyon point maker.

South Lyon also won the reserve game, 56-36.

Real Jaycees Don't Fade Away

In March of 1954 a group of young Tecumseh area men under 35 years of age banded together to form a local chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Soon after they began their regular monthly meetings there was talk that they would shoot high at the beginning then they would fall flat on their collective faces and disband because of a lack of interest.

Nothing could have been further from what actually has happened. Far from shooting up like a meteor and then fading away, the Jaycees of Tecumseh have become stronger, both in numbers and in worthwhile projects and in 1955 four of their members were elected to the city council. And early this year one of them, Jack Osburn, was elected president of the senior chamber of commerce. Jack also was chairman of the community fund drive. And Jaycees also serve on the community fund board and recreation board.

But the Jaycees are not noted for only four or five members' contributions. Under former president Jack Osburn and under current president Bob Murray the Jaycees — 55 strong — contribute as a group to every posible worthwhile community project.

Interest in these projects has not slacked for one minute in almost two years the Jaycees have been a Tecumseh club and there is no indication that this interest will die.

Consider this summarized report of the club's month-by-month activities for the past year and you will see how valuable it and its members have been to the welfare of the community:

In Jan. and Feb. Jaycee activities included a donkey basketball game and a minstrel show. Proceeds went to help purchase extra equipment needed by the fire department.

In March a Jaycee committee was instrumental in securing a local office of the Secretary of State and in April the club received state recognition when Bob Williamson and Bill Davenport were named directors of the Michigan Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In May projects of the club sponsored student Bill Browne's Boys' State trip and a teen drivers' roadeo and in June the Jaycees youth committee under John Hamilton held its first teen-club dance.

In July a baked goods sale raised funds that helped to send golfers to the junior golf tourney and for a street dance for young folks. In hot July Jaycees cooled off during a car wash and held a midget auto race. The $225 gained from these two projects went for youth activities.

In Aug. the recreation shelters in Tecumseh Acres and in Herrick Park were painted and in Sept. a donkey softball game against Milan was held with proceeds going for a movie camera for the football coaching staff at Tecumseh high school.

Sept. also was highlighted by the visit of Hugh McKenna, president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. More than 300 persons turned out to hear the national president speak.

In Oct. and Nov. the Jaycees for the second year took over the solicitation for the community fund, held another party for teen agers and helped with the Hallowe'en Party. They also set up a blood bank at Herrick Memorial hospital and pledged $1000 for permanent bleachers at the recreation field.

In Dec. their Christmas tree sales and football banquet brought in more than $400 for the bleacher project. And so far this month they sponsored the Michigan State University Glee Club and again proceeds went to the bleacher fund.

Next month they are planning a "womanless wedding," a corny hodpodge of laughter and song that will bring in more dollars for the bleachers.

No, far from disbanding, the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is going strong after almost two years working on worthwhile community projects and working for future goals. Members of the club really believe the last line of the Jaycee creed: " . . . Service to humanity is the best work of life." In other words, they see community needs and keep on plugging.

President Does All Right

Did you ever wonder how much the President of the United States receives in salary and grants?

Besides his salary of $100,000 annually which is subject to income tax deductions, he also has the use of $50,000 annually for travel entertainment expense which is accounted for on his certificate solely.

He also has an emergency fund provided by congress for unexpected or unusual expenses which he can spend at his discretion. The fund for the 1954-55 fiscal year was $800,000.

The President also lives rent free at the White House and has the use of furniture and other effects there which belong to the United States.

Even though it is a tremendous job, there is little wonder why, besides the great honor, so many would like to be president.

Many people, who have never spent a day in a medical university, foolishly believe that they can advise their friends how to treat an illness. They mean well, but can cause serious harm.

The proper diagnosis of a disease is an art that a Physician acquires only after years of study and internship training in a hospital. It is more important to treat the cause of an illness than to just relieve discomfort, which is usually the most any self treatment accomplishes. When you are sick be guided by your Physician.

200 from County Will Attend Farmers' Week

Lenawee county will be represented at Michigan State University's Farmers' Week by at least 200 people, Louis G. Hall, county agricultural agent predicts. The event starts on Monday of next week and runs through Friday.

Agent Hall said the traditional midwinter event offers many items of interest to farmers and homemakers of this area.

It would be wise Hall cautions, to make reservation for rooms as soon as possible if you're planning to stay overnight. Between 30,000 and 40,000 people will visit the M.S.U. campus before the week is over, he says. The county extension office at Adrian can help with reservations.

Besides the educational programs planned for all week, farmers will be able to see and examine new machines that will be on public display for the first time.

Some of the machines will include the latest in forage handling, crop drying and materials handling equipment as well as liquid fertilizer and devices for applying anhydrous ammonia.

There will be opportunities to tour the campus and University farm. He added that a bus schedule has been planned to allow 30 to 40-minute stops at the Michigan Artificial Breeders Cooperative headquarters and laboratory, loose housing dairy barns, swine farm and beef barns.

Realty Views

"I agree with you that my house is worth about $12,000. But we were hoping we could get more. How about taking the listing at $14,000. We can always come down." So said Mr. Montgomery.

"Let's make it $12,000 instead," I said. "Then we can promote it enthusiastically."

"Suppose we start at a figure we both admit it too much," I continued. "Naturally we wouldn't want to spend good money on an overpriced listing. And, if we get a prospect, consider our predicament if he asks "Do you honestly think it is worth the money?"

Mr. Montgomery nodded. "I hadn't thought of that."

"Here's another angle. Suppose we got a firm offer of $12,000 and you refused to sell. We would have produced a buyer at a fair figure and would receive nothing for our efforts. An excessive price discourages prospects and your selling agent as well."

"You've convinced me," Mr. Montgomery said with a smile. "Go ahead and sell it for $12,000."

A quick sale resulted at the agreed price Because the purchase figure was fair, the buyer had little difficulty in getting the necessary loan to complete the deal.

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

Four thirty in the afternoon. Here I am again. Have tried to take a nap but my thoughts are with you folks. Its much better to get up and do some busy work, perhaps do my eyebrows!

I certainly am reassured! Just before Andy and Jens started off after lunch, I was floored by the miserable thought — I'm the only white person in camp — what if I'm bitten by a spider or a snake while the men are gone? Jens relayed my fears to Andy who called to his head camp man. They conversed in Swahili and then Andy translated the man's answer, "Apply a tourniquet and rush Memsab in the big lorry to the mission hospital." What a relief!

Saw a stork today and then realized, of course, I learned in Denmark that their storks fly to Africa for the winter. It's actually winter now and the storks and I are in Africa together— for the winter!

PLANS ARE MADE

Have I told you about our morning ceremony? The night before, we discuss the next day's plans around the dinner table, most of us having had baths and are in clean clothes — no color or style variation — they're just the second change that has been washed and ironed that day — all khaki, but clean. My evening attire differs from daytime — a strong soap odor on the clothes, a dash of Blue Grass, white earrings, and my only scarf, which during the day I may use as a protection on my head from the dust, knotted coyly under my shirt collar. Oh, I cut quite a figure.

But to continue — after the coffee Kadi places the big Ben alarm clock by Chris and our doom is sealed. It may be at 4:30 in the morning (we're in bed by nine o'clock so it isn't as rugged as it sounds), our tent boy Arap Sohi hangs the lamp on the tent pole, pours fresh hot water in the basins outside, and then enters with two cups of tea which he places at our bedside table. Of course, Jens has already called out in his perfect Swahili, "Karibo" which means — "draw near or enter." I grunt and fumble under my pillow for my flashlight (too darned cold to sleep anyway), dig the mosquito netting out from under the mattress for more freedom, locate my attire at the foot of the bed, pull my trousers over my flannel pjs, and ease myself carefully out of bed so as not to rip the netting.

SHIVER IN DARK

Jens has been going through the same contortions and we meet outside at the wash bowls, shivering in the dark as we splash a little water on our faces. Look at the starry sky, the tiny sliver of moon overhead, grab our flashlights and pick our way to the mess tent, where we huddle in our rain coats (made in England) until faithful Kade appears with the hot coffee. We help ourselves to a plate of stewed apricots, pray that the eggs have been boiled for seven minutes (the altitude, my dears) and soon we're off.

Always take inventory first — guns, shells, fly ointment, our B.O.A.C. bag filled with cameras, films and our two binnoculars. I check my handbag, (a canvas duffle) for reading, my red portfolia, gum and sweets for the natives, and a very important item — toilet paper.

I crawl into the middle of the jeep, straddling the gear shift, between Jens and Andy. The two gun-bearers and driver and perhaps a native who has appeared out of the darkness by appointment, climb in the open back of the jeep and we are off. In the morning darkness all the paths look the same as Andy's car lights pick out the tracks through the morning mist. With the first rays of dawn, the lights are turned off and we jog along silently, following the black prints of yesterday's tracks through the yellow grass. The boys in back are huddled together, still sleepy; and we're quiet too, inhaling the crisp morning air — cozy in our many layers of clothing, confident that whatever adventure the day brings, our Andy will come through with flying colors.

SEES CARIBBEAN

Marine Sgt. William A. Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin F. Marsh of 412½ W. Chicago boulevard, Tecumseh, and husband of the former Miss LaWanda R. Carver of Russel, Ark., is scheduled to participate in Caribbean training exercises extending from Jan. until late March with Fleet Marine Force, Atlantic, Training Group 1-56.

The preliminary phase of the 1956 exercises will be conducted at camps in Puerto Rico and will stress training in the latest techniques of the Marines' air-ground combat team.

Later, Marine air and ground units will join elements of the Atlantic Fleet to climax the maneuvers with a full scale amphibious assault against "aggressor" forces entrenched on the Puerto Rican island of Vieques.

In off-duty hours, Marines of the training group will visit cities in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and other ports in the Caribbean area.

RAISIN GREEN BEES MEET

The regular meeting of the Raisin Green Bees was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Robert Beevers. The meeting was conducted by the leader, Mrs. Edwin Gove, with nine members present.

New Year's resolutions were given by each member. It was voted to contribute to Pennies for Friendship, Michigan Home Demonstrators Scholarship, and Okinawa Scholarship.

A report on the special interest meeting held Jan. 4 at the Michigan Producers Dairy Co. auditorium on "Your Child, His Social and Emotional Needs" was given by Mrs. Robert Beevers and Mrs. George Halberstadt. Volunteers were called for to see about getting milk for the school children in the community school.

A lesson on "Improving Your Storage Space" was given by Mrs. William Zwick and Mrs. George Halberstadt.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Robrt Beevers.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Zwick, Feb. 20.

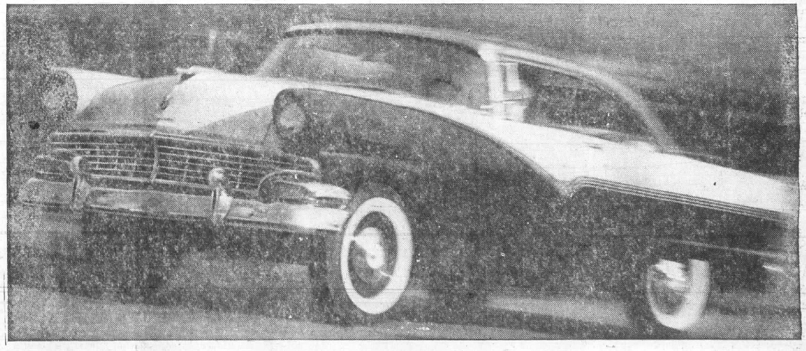
PERFORMANCE made it the Largest Selling "8" in the World...



the FORD V-8

Just look at these official registration figures for the first 11 months—January through November, 1955

|  | Car Sales | Ford Sales Leadership |
|---|---|---|
| FORD V-8 | 1,241,742 |  |
| Car C—V-8 | 634,376 | 607,366 |
| Car P—V-8 | 262,870 | 978,872 |
| Car C—Six | 845,153 | 396,589 |
| Car P—Six | 334,540 | 907,202 |

Here's why!

People just naturally go for 8 cylinders in the FORD package!

And to a world record extent!

Just think, in the first 11 months of 1955 alone, 344,496 more people bought Ford V-8's than bought the two other low-priced competitive eights combined! They even bought 396,589 more Ford V-8's than the next competitive Six!

Of course, the reason the Ford V-8 is the largest selling eight-cylinder car in the world is that more people like its brand of performance—the kind that comes with the car!

These people aren't amateurs in judging engines. Nearly 24 years of building Ford V-8's to supply their demand is convincing proof of that.

And the Ford V-8 of today is the best yet . . . by a country mile!

Smoother and quieter—you can scarcely hear it, even with the hood up! Sassier—just ask the highway patrol officer who drives one. He knows it takes a Ford to catch a Ford!

And, for the very practical question of durability—ask a Ford cab driver. He knows how Fords take it days on end.

So, if it's performance that you want—and wrapped like a gift—the '56 Ford V-8 is your baby.

Come in . . . try it today!

One take-off for traffic
-and two for the road
You ought to try Variable Pitch Dynaflow* NOW!

The light is red and you're ready.

And that's when you discover the Number One news about Buick's new Dynaflow . . .

That it gives you brilliant new getaway response for city traffic at only part throttle—even before you switch the pitch of this airplane-principled transmission. (And think of the big gas savings that means!)

Next comes the Number Two discovery—out on the road.

For here—still without switching the pitch—you have plenty more nimble acceleration to surge or spurt ahead, to climb hills, to do with almost effortless ease all the things normally called for by highway driving.

But comes an emergency—the need to get out of a tight spot—and you discover the Number Three news . . .

That you can do what a pilot does. That you can switch the pitch of your Dynaflow blades—just by flooring the pedal. And that you get, instantly, a full-power take-off from cruising pace—an electrifying burst of acceleration—the most thrilling safety measure on four wheels today.

This is performance too good to pass up—and you really ought to try it.

It's performance sparked by the whispered might of big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engines raised to record highs in power and compression.

It's performance that goes with the best ride yet, the best handling yet, the best interiors yet, the best styling yet—and, literally, with the best Buick yet.

Come in and see—and be shown—and learn, in the doing, about prices that make these '56 Buicks the best buy yet.

Preview of 1956 Is Topic of Garden Club

Mrs. Hal Kelso's home on Maple street was opened last Friday for the Jan. meeting of the Garden Club. About 25 members were present and the new officers were in charge of the proceedings.

The club voted a contribution to the March of Dimes and also decided to sell tickets as in other years for the Detroit Flower Show. The show will be held March 17 to 25 and the advance sale will be at a reduced price. Tickets will be available through Mrs. Leon Rosacrans or may be obtained from any club member.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Sage and, because of the World Day of Prayer, it will begin at 3 p.m. instead of the usual 2 o'clock meeting time.

Mrs. Al Helzerman was in charge of the afternoon's program and before her garden talk she conducted a short memorial service for the late Mrs. Lyman Curtiss, a member who had a very real devotion to her garden.

"Preview of 1956" was the topic of the day and Mrs. Helzerman listed the new flowers and vegetables which have received the All American Award for 1956 and which will be available from catalogues and markets this spring.

State Farm Mutual Has Biggest Ad

The biggest insurance ad ever printed in any magazine is a feature of the Jan. issue of Reader's Digest, according to Delbert King, local agent for State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company.

Telling the complete story of State Farm Mutual's service and plan of operation, this is the first multiple-page ad ever run in Reader's Digest since the publication inaugurated its policy of accepting a limited amount of advertising. Occupying six pages, the single ad required two whole carloads of paper for its printing in the magazine's more than 10,000,000 copies.

The State Farm story appeared in pictorial form in a five-page ad in Life magazine Jan. 31, 1955. The current six-page ad feature, Mr. King said, launches a bigger-than ever advertising campaign to bring the unique features of State Farm protection and service to the attention of more car owners during 1956. As the springboard for this campaign, State Farm Mutual, with the world's largest family of policyholders, chose the magazine with the world's greatest circulation.

A State Farm agent for the past two years, Mr. King said: "This is the biggest year in the company's history, with more than 4,000 new members joining every working day. This ad tells why State Farm insurance is so popular that we are just about to reach the mark of 4,000,000 cars insured, far more than any other company."

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

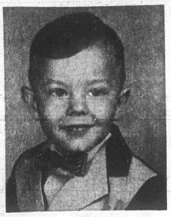
Frankie



Marvin

TWO LITTLE CHAPS made the news this week. The first to make it, including page one of the Detroit News, was Frankie Kruger, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kruger of Tecumseh.

Some weeks ago Frankie went along when his dad went to the Lenawee County Sheriff's office in Adrian to have his driver's license renewed.

Looking up at the flag in front of the jail on Winter street, Frankie noticed that the flag, which had flown since early 1954, was tattered and he told his dad: "The jail needs a new flag."

Frankie knew that his dad, immediate past commander of the VFW, had helped to get new flags for area schools and he thought he could help get a new one for the jail.

Mr. Kruger, however, forgot all about it; but Frankie didn't. A few days later he said to his dad: "Don't you think we really should do something about getting a new flag for the jail?" And Frankie was persistent. Every few days he kept asking his dad about the flag.

Finally, Mr. Kruger told Harold Warren, commander of the VFW, about it and last Thursday Frankie, his dad and Commander Warren presented a brand new flag to the jail. Frankie, all shined up, made the presentation to Sheriff Wade Willett who commended him for his patriotism.

Nor was this all. Frankie was given the "keys" to the jail, rode in a patrol car and screamed the siren and maybe you think he wasn't some pumpkin when he told about it in Mrs. Lillian Buttolph's first grade room at Patterson school. Why Frankie even made the first grade news, too!

THE OTHER TINY TYKE to make the news was Marvin David Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Miller of Raisin Township.

Marvin, who will be four in May, wanted to help with the March of Dimes so four months ago he began to save pennies, nickels and dimes in his piggy bank.

This week he turned over the whole piggy bank to the Raisin Township March of Dimes committee. The committee counted $2.03 as Marvin's personal contribution.

PROF. HARLOW O. WHITTEMORE, professor of landscape architecture at the University of Michigan reports that Tecumseh's wide main street did not just happen. He said the 100-foot street resulted when farmers came to town with horses and long wagons. When hitched to railings along the sidewalks, the wagons protruded far into the street and one made a 100-foot witdth in order to go behind them.

DOES THIS REMIND YOU of your grandmother. This poem, from the Michigan Milk Producers' monthly news magazine, does mine:

Grandmother, on a winters day,
Milked the cows, and fed them hay,
Slopped the hogs, saddled the mule,
And got the children off to school.
Did a washing, mopped the floors,
Washed the windows and did some chores:
Cooked a dish of home-dried fruit,
Pressed her husband's Sunday suit.
Swept the parlor, made the bed,
Baked a dozen loaves of bread,
Split some firewood and lugged in
Enough to fill the kitchen bin;
Cleaned the lamps and put in oil,
Stewed some apples she thought would spoil.
Churned the butter, baked a cake,
Then exclaimed, "For Heaven's Sake,
The calves have gotten out of the pen."
Went out and chased them in again;
Gathered the eggs and locked the stable,
Back to the house and set the table;
Cooked a supper that was delicious
And afterwards washed up all the dishes;
Fed the cat and sprinkled the clothes,
Mended a basketful of old hose;
Then opened the organ and began to play
"When you come to the end of a Perfect Day."

Seven School Doors Smashed

A thief or thieves broke into Patterson school some time last Thursday night and, apparently looking for money, smashed seven doors.

Doors in the principal's office and Mr. Greene's private office were smashed as well as a closet door and doors to the kindergarten, third, fourth and fifth grade rooms. The doors were smashed so they could be opened from the inside by turning the door knobs.

Desks and filing cabinets were rifled. Tecumseh and State Police beleive the thief or thieves might have been looking for March of Dimes money. A small quantity of money was taken from one of the rooms.

Two bottles of milk from the milk room were drunk. There was also evidence that the unlocked boiler room, teachers' lounge, the sixth grade room, the milk room and the gym had been entered.

Harold Warren, maintenance engineer and Hank Young, janitor, discovered the shambles when they began work early Friday morning.

Allan Seager Elected Chairman of Library Board

The library board, recently appointed by the Tecumseh Board of Education met at the public library Thursday evening and elected Allan Seager, chairman and Mrs. Jens Touborg, secretary of the group.

At previous, unofficial meetings the board had studied the present situation of the library as regards building, equipment and books and had formed a tentative opinion of its present and future needs. An outline of objectives to meet those needs was drawn up for presentation to the school board.

A redecorating program was begun over the weekend and new exterior flood-type lights will be installed soon. Other improvements and innovations are planned for the near future and a long range program to keep pace with the ex-

New Speed Law Begins Friday

Michigan's new state speed limit law becomes effective this Friday, Feb. 3, and a few reminders in connection have been given by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs.

The law placed an absolute limit of 65 miles an hour on state and county roads during daylight and 55 miles at night. For enforcement purposes. State Police will regard nighttime hours as those during which headlights are normally used.

The state police commissioner points out these other provisions which the motorist should remember:

1. It is unlawful to drive faster than the absolute limit, regardless of how good or clear a highway may be.

Patterson PTA Sets Card Party

The Patterson PTA card party will be held Thursday, Feb. 9, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. The public is invited to attend.

There will be a table prize for each table and other prizes. Refreshments will be served.

Proceeds from the party will be used for curtains for darkening the gym so that movies may be shown for visual education for students.

Tickets are available from the following committee members: Mrs. Robert D. Moore, 681; Mrs. Phillip Colgrove, 836; Mrs. Robert Anderson, 974; Mrs. Gibbs Barber, 285-M; Mrs. Richard Dustin, 291-M; Mrs. William Davenport, 242; and Mrs. Carl Kennel, 465-W.

VIOLATES ORDINANCE

Harold A. Harris, 106 Muscody street, was brought before Justice Robert French last week on the charge of violating the city zoning ordinance.

He lives in a converted garage that, according to the ordinance, does not have enough living space.

Mr. Harris was fined $10 and assessed costs of $8.60 which were suspended. Justice French gave him until March 1 to have his landlord comply with the ordinance or to have Mr. Harris vacate the premises.

GIVE $85 TO MOD

The American Legion has turned over $85 to the March of Dimes drive. The money was made at a dance held Friday, Jan. 20.

ICE SKATING — Small fry and some not so small enjoy this ice skating rink made possible by the city north of the former East Branch school site.

THE HERALD Cited for Excellence

THE TECUMSEH HERALD has been cited for being one of the finest weekly newspapers in Michigan.

The citation reads: "Award of excellence. THE TECUMSEH HERALD has been chosen by Michigan weekly newspaper publishers and editors for the Michigan Press Association, Inc., award for outstanding general excellence."

The HERALD received third place in its circulation class at the annual Michigan Press Association convention held in East Lansing last Friday and Saturday. Miss Marjorie Wickwire, publisher, accepted the award at a luncheon Friday.

The circulation class entered by the HERALD was for papers with circulation between 2001 and 4000. Other classes in the contest included papers with circulation up to 1275; from 1276 to 2000; above 4001 and large urban weeklies.

The Romeo Observer Press won first in the 2001 to 4000 circulation class. The Zeeland Record was second and the HERALD was third. Honorable mention went to the Rochester Clarion.

According to the new directory of the Michigan Press Association, Inc., Michigan has 59 weeklies with circulation of 2001 to 4000, the circulation class in which the HERALD was entered.

This is the way the contest was conducted: late last Oct. the Michigan Press Association, Inc., asked newspapers to submit their Oct. 20 issue for contest consideration. Newspapers had no advance notice which issue would be judged.

The papers were sent in and a group of Illinois publishers and editors served as judges.

The "outstanding general excellence" judging was based on editorial, advertising and picture content; page layout; advertising composition; typography and press work.

GET NEW BUS

A large traveling bus that will seat 64 elementary students has been purchased by the Tecumseh Public Schools for special activities.

Supt. James McDowell said the schools "got a real deal" on the bus which was bought in Owosso.

The motor coach also will be used for students' field trips and for some athletic events. It also will be used as a school bus.

Boysville Gets Million Fund

A five-year expansion of facilities at Boysville at an estimated cost of $1,000,000 has been approved by Edward Cardinal Mooney, archbishop of Detroit.

The archbishop and the Michigan Knights of Columbus have approved a committee of 100 to spearhead the drive for funds. The fund raising campaign will not be publicized.

The Michigan Knights of Columbus now underwrite the maintenance of the Macon school.

The five-year expansion program includes a school building, landscaping, three new dormitories, a dining hall, new recreational facilities and new laundry.

In 1956 a $190,000 new school building will be constructed and $20,000 worth of landscaping will be done. The remainder of the expansion program will follow with part of the overall program being completed during each of the remaining four years.

POSTPONE MEETING

There will be no monthly meeting of the Welcome Class of the Friends church this week.

Glenn Driscoll Elected Head of Dad's Post

A Dad's Post of Hall-Slater Post No. 4187, Veterans of Foreign Wars was organized Sunday at the new Post home on Mill street and officers were elected for 1956. This new organization which is made up of fathers whose sons served overseas is a nation wide part of V.F.W. and this post is the 31st founded in Michigan and the first in Lenawee county.

$2437 Fights Polio; Benefit Meals Sunday

As of Tuesday Mrs. Wellington Wotring, treasurer for the local March of Dimes drive, had banked $2437.85. Of this amount $1047.31 was raised last Thursday night in the Tecumseh Mothers' March on Polio and $437.61 was raised in the Raisin Township March.

Next Sunday the March of Dimes committee hopes the total will be further swelled during two benefit meals which will be served in Don's Grill. Use of the restaurant has been donated by Don Smith, proprietor.

From 8 to 11 a.m. diners may have a breakfast menu of juice, hot cakes, Canadian bacon, scrambled eggs and sweet rolls and for dinner from 12 noon to 8 p.m. they may have a choice of ham or roast beef.

Serving on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eggleston, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Reister, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Easton.

There are no set prices for the meals. Diners may pay what they wish and all proceeds go to the March of Dimes.

The staff of Don's Grill has donated its time to help other volunteers serve the meals and volunteer contributions of both money and food have been made to make the meals possible.

Seitz Nabbed in Oklahoma

Charles Seitz, Jr., was apprehended Tuesday in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He walked away from Cassidy Lake prison farm last Sept. 6.

Seitz, using the name of Charles E. James, Jr., was arrested Jan. 18 for stealing $18 from a March of Dimes container.

He pleaded guilty to the theft and fingerprints sent to the FBI established his real identity.

Tulsa deputies said Seitz had been in Chicago and New Orleans before coming to Tulsa.

Band Uniform Drive Begins

A special project designed to seek contributions for buying new band uniforms for the Tecumseh high school band has been undertaken by the high school PTA.

A committee headed by Mrs. James Barton met Monday night to make plans for the solicitation of funds.

Mrs. Barton pointed out that present uniforms are eight years old and threadbare and at present the band, because of renewed interest, is shy 25 uniforms.

About $4000 is needed to buy the necessary number of uniforms.

A team will begin soliciting for the funds next Monday, Feb. 6. Members of the team expect to complete the job in three weeks. A free dance will be held in the high school gym Saturday, Feb. 25, for those who contribute to the band uniform fund.

The band will be featured in a downtown show Friday night as a kick-off to the fund drive.

Students in the high school also will be asked to contribute to the drive. Principal Neville Hart, band director Don Johnson and teacher Douglas Murdoch are serving on the committee in charge of this part of the drive.

Others serving on the overall committee are Lawrence Holdridge, Wilmer Kaiser, Mrs. Roy Titley, Mrs. Dwight Hodges, Don Nixon and E. J. Comfort.

Presbyterian Men Hear Dr. Dawson

Installation service of the Presbyterian Men's Club was held Wednesday evening in the Fellowship Center.

Dr. Robert Larsen of Detroit, who was in Chicago for the American Medical Association of Hand and Orthopedic Surgery also attended the wedding and reception.

Mrs. G. Isaacson Died in Florida

The death of Bernice Ives Isaacson, wife of George Isaacson, occurred Thursday in Miami, Fla., where they have a winter home. She had recently undergone surgery in a Miami hospital.

Mrs. Isaacson was born in Raisin township in 1899, the daughter of Fred and Minnie Westcott Ives, and attended the Lanning school and Adrian high school. After her marriage to Mr. Isaacson, they lived for many years in Tecumseh, building a new home on N. Democratic street. Recently they have maintained a winter home in Miami, spending their summers at Wamplers Lake.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Isaacson is survived by two daughters, Vivian and Dolores of Miami; a son, George Jr. of Chicago; two brothers, Charles of Glennie, Mich. and Kenneth Ives of Raisin township and three sisters, Mrs. Florence Halstead of Raisin, Mrs. Gertrude Mattis or Wamplers Lake and Mrs. Leora Kaiser of Adrian.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Collins Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. Alvin Brazee. Burial was in Brookside cemetery with Gilbert Ivse, Harold Mattis, Merlin Mattis, Don Heesen, Orville Laidlaw and Paul Keyser as bearers.

Services Held for Clarence Poley

Clarence Poley, who at one time lived in Tecumseh, died Friday evening at the Veterans' hospital in Dearborn. He was born Aug. 18, 1895, the son of Frank and Jennie Poley and had lived for many years in Monroe. He had been in the hospital for two weeks.

He served with the 42nd division in World War I. Mrs. Poley was the former Margaret Sproull of Clinton.

Besides his widow, Mr. Poley is survived by four sons, nine daughters and 20 grandchildren. Of his six surviving brothers, three live in Tecumseh, Dermont, Lawrence and Joseph Poley as does a sister, Blanch, Mrs. William Jewell. His parents, a son, a daughter and a brother, George preceded him in death.

Funeral services for Mr. Poley were held Monday afternoon in Monroe with the Rev. Edward Escolme in charge and military burial services were conducted in Brookside cemetery in Tecumseh.

Coeds Model Gowns in MSU Style Show

More than 50 Michigan State coeds had a chance to show off their accomplishments as they modeled original creations in the annual Farmers' Week style show on the East Lansing campus this week.

The Thursday afternoon event, a fitting climax for the week's women's programs, attracted more than 4,000 women. Events especially designed for the women were planned by Dean Marie Dye and her home economics staff members.

"We dressed our style revue with a new fashion this year by asking 15 foreign students to model gowns worn in their home lands," explained Carolyn Middleton, chairman of the style revue. In the narration of the show, it was pointed out how foreign styles and fabrics have influenced and been influenced by our "western" fashions.

Countries represented were Japan, Germany, Pakistan, the Philippines, Norway, Yugoslavia and Scotland. Narrator was Mrs. Fredrica Neville, also of the textiles, clothing and related arts department at M.S.U.

Fabrics, too, showed up as an important part of modern dress design. Imported fabrics which the coeds chose to use in their self-designed and self-created suits and dresses included ribbed black wool with a copper mohair thread, wool nylon blends, satins, winter cottons and cotton brocade, colorful linens, and silcotta, which is a silk and cotton mixture.

GROUP ATTENDS OFFICERS' TRAINING

A large group of officers of the Tecumseh Presbyterian church drove to Jackson Sunday afternoon for an officers' training school held at the First Presbyterian church of Jackson.

Those attending included Miss Geraldine French, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, Mrs. Charles Howe, Harry Spencer, Albert Merz, Gerald Baker, Otto Meiers, Mrs. John Saling, Mrs. Cora Pfaus, Mrs. James Barton, Robert Ries, Mrs. George Kidman, Mrs. Thomas Hamilton, Mrs. Erwin Marsh, Wilbur Boyce, Charles Cottle, George Rheinhart, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hodges.

The school was under the auspices of the Lansing Presbytery and included classes and round table discussions. Dinner was served at the church following the meeting.

HISTORY OF W.S.C.S. TOLD TO CIRCLE

Mrs. Herbert Dillon entertained the Mary Foster Circle of the Methodist church at her home Thursday evening with Mrs. Clifford Deaner as assistant hostess. Mrs. Andrew Woodward conducted the devotions and Mrs. Robert Bonner, who was in charge of the program spoke on the history and organization of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, its development and activities. The group found the talk very interesting and informative.

A report was made on the bake sale held recently by the circle at which a total of $44 was raised.

When it comes to Protection ..it pays to have the BEST

A good cushion is fine to have behind you — but don't forget you must strap it on before you take to the ice.

Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't get when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to buy better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory.

So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST — and buy it today.

Michigan Department of Conservation Official News Bulletin

A total of 17,845,574 persons entered Michigan's state park system during 1955, a new all-time record and a 10 per cent increase from the record year of 1954.

Camping, too, showed a sharp rise. Some 99,313 camp permits were issued compared with 80,604 in 1954, an increase of nearly 19 per cent.

All but three of the state's 58 parks and recreation areas showed attendance gains.

And for the first time in history, a total of four state parks entertained more than 1,000,000 visitors.

Hunters and trappers bountied 2503 predators during Nov. of last year for a total bounty payment of $15,655.

The bulk of the payment was for 2190 foxes bountied during the month. Hunters and trappers also bagged 242 coyotes, 66 bobcats and five timber wolves.

With bobcats removed from the predator list in the lower peninsula, total bounty payment fell below the $18,755 paid in Nov. 1953.

Thirty-one lakes in Michigan are open this winter to almost unlimited fishing.

Any type or size of fish can be taken from the lakes and the only restriction anglers must observe are daily creel limits.

These are special winter kill lakes where fish often drown in the winter. Ice and snow on the lakes cuts off oxygen supplies enough to cause the mortality.

To save the fish for human use, the Conservation Department each winter opens the lakes to the special angling.

The nearby waters are Batteese, Leeke, Merkle and Pond, Lily Lakes, Jackson county; and Cassidy, Green and West Lakes, Washtenaw county.

The antics of ice-fishermen are scheduled for presentation later this month on "Michigan Conservation," the Conservation Department's weekly television program.

Some timely "do's and don't" for winter anglers will be featured on the show which is beamed to an estimated 860,000 viewers each week.

At present, the filmed program is carried to viewers in Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin and Ontario on 11 television channels. One station, WSPD-TV, Toledo, O., presents the program twice each week.

Persons interested in the 15-minute show should check their newspaper or TV log for the program schedule.

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

WISE TEACHERS HAVE ALWAYS TAUGHT that to serve others well is one of the greatest rewards of life.

BECAUSE YOUR HEALTH is so important we continuously make every effort to renew our knowledge of everything we were taught at our College of Pharmacy. We are constantly studying the reports about the new discoveries and techniques that modern science is perfecting.

IN OUR PRESCRIPTION DEPARTMENT, carefully stored to preserve their maximum potency, are thousands of different medicines awaiting the opportunity to help you or your loved ones. Your physician can prescribe the one particular medicine that will help you most.

WE PHARMACISTS WILL ALWAYS value the opportunity to serve you by compounding your prescriptions exactly as the Code of Ethics of Pharmacy specifies.

There's more than one reason why Twentieth Century Welders are a favorite among farmers who know good welding.

First and foremost . . . they'll tackle, and turn out "to a T", any welding job. Just dial the right heat for the job, and put your Twentieth Century Welder and Carbon Arc Torch to work:

Cutting metal • Brazing
Drilling holes • Bending and shaping
Soldering • Hard Surfacing

AND . . . Twentieth Century Welders save you time and money.

NOW . . . You can quickly and easily repair or replace worn or broken parts on automobiles, tractors, trucks, on all farm machinery.

AND . . . with a Twentieth Century Welder, you can easily make pieces of new equipment.

NO BARGAIN AT ANY PRICE!

INCREDIBLE UPPER COLORADO RIVER PROJECT
U.S. TAXPAYER
BIG BARGAIN! ONLY $5,000.00 PER ACRE!
20,937,153 ACRES OF GOOD FARM LAND NOW IDLE IN 19 STATES

A RECENT SURVEY, conducted in 19 States in the Midwest, South and Southeast, reveals that there are nearly 21 million acres of rich, idle farmland available for crop production when more food is needed to feed the Nation. At the same time Government plans are under way to take additional acreage out of production because of the huge surpluses of food the Federal Government now has stored in bins around the country. Despite these facts Congress is being asked to approve the incredible Upper Colorado River Project to "irrigate" 583,000 acres of arid mountain land in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming at a cost to the Nation's taxpayers of $4 Billion in added taxes. Figures for the rich, idle land now available were obtained from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

The Diary of Thomas Wright

With this issue the HERALD introduces to its readers another traveler and the day by day story of another journey. That journey did not reach Europe or England or Africa but to Thomas Wright and his family of seven, in 1831 the trip from North Hampton, Mass., to Michigan Territory presented more hazards than would today's flight to the Belgian Congo.

Mr. Wright kept a scholarly and intimate account of that journey and of the difficult years that followed in the raw, wilderness settlement of Tecumseh. The little leather bound diary in which he wrote has come down through the family to his great-great grandson, William Wright, the fourth in line of the Wright Drug Co. which was established by Thomas' son, Moses.

Faint pencil marks indicate that originally it had been a "line a day" record of events and transactions. These have been carefully erased and only the more important items retained along with his fuller account of the things he evidently considered worth recording. The result is some shuffling of dates but produces a graphic picture of 1831 travel and of life in a seven year old settlement. Tecumseh had had a very favorable beginning but malaria, the "fever and ague" of Michigan swamps and mosquitoes, was to plague it for years and as the Wright family soon learned those mosquitoes were no respecters of persons.

Scattered entries on the first few pages of the diary, cover the period from July 27 to Aug. 30, 1831, and deal with financial preparations for the departure of the family. There are such items as —"Sold my wool to Samuel Graves for 62½ cents" — "Received of Samuel Hinkley the amount of his note, $1,010 and deposited in Hampshire Bank" and "Sold chaise to Thomas Lyman for $45, took his note". He also records that he "made box for bureau" and later "for desk and castor table" and on August 17 says, "Got my pork barreled up". Salt pork was an important item in transporting food in 1831.

There are other records of money collected including one which indicated how money was transferred before the days of universal checking accounts. On July 11 he wrote — "Recd. $700.00 of John Clark. Bought a draft of J. A. Whitney for 700 dollars at ½ percent, payable to my order by John Ward and Co. of N.Y. Endorsed it payable to the order of E. P. Hastings, president of the Bank of Michigan". Then on July 12 he adds — "Wrote letter to Mr. Hastings, enclosing the draft and put it in the post office."

He did not sever quite all his ties in Massachusetts, however,, for Aug. 4 he records — "Let out sheep to Capt. Dn. Allen Phelps Esq." and on Aug. 23 he counted them and gave the list as follows— "153, viz.; 102 old and 51 young, of which 100 are ewes, 50 weathers and 3 bucks", adding "Mr. Timothy Allen Phelps took them to Chesterfield."

The list of luggage, which was evidently loaded onto two wagons to be hauled to Albany, was as follows — 5 trunks, 3 barrels in addition to pork barrels, 1 keg of lard, 1 gun box, 1 desk box, 1 bureau box, candle-stand box, best table, other table, botany box, blue chest, traces (probably harness) double waggon and single waggon. (Does any reader know what a botany box is? If so we would be glad to pass the information on to our other readers who may be as ignorant as we are.)

The actual diary of the journey begins Aug. 31 and is transcribed as accurately as possible in view of the long "s" that is used throughout, the older spelling of some words and the odd formation of letters by a quill pen.

Aug. 31 — Having contracted for my passage to Buffalo we went on board a canal boat just before night and in the morning were at Schenectady.

Sept. 2 — Utica, lodging and stage to Chiteningo (present spelling Chittenango) $2.40, wine 33c.

Sept. 7 — Arrived at Rochester, paid Capt. Chase $59.46. Expenses to Buffalo $134.41.

(Here faint penciled notes indicate they went to see the falls and he records the observation," before one comes to Lockport there are 5 locks of 12 feet each in close succession, after which going west the canal is cut out.")

Sept. 8—Went with my family on board the steam boat, "Henry Clay" commanded by Capt. Norton about ½ past 9 a.m. Began our voyage in good spirits notwithstanding the wind was ahead from the S.W. Half past 10 Mrs. Wright was seasick and puking. We went across the lake behind Pointe Ebony and cast anchor. Here the waves run high enough and the boat rolls badly which has produced seasickness to perhaps half those on board. If we look out into the lake the appearance is terrific. Could our friends now see Lake Erie and know we was on it there might be anxiety but happily they know it not.

Sept. 9 — Still at anchor. Weather cloudy and wind high. About ¾ past 12 the stream boat Superior came under the same cover as ourselves and cast anchor about 10 rod from us, full of passengers. ½ past 2 we weighed anchor and steered out into the middle of the lake. Towards night it began to rain. We never-the-less continued our way against the winds and waves and at ½ past 2 a.m. arrived at Erie.

Earth Is Closest to Sun at This Time of Year

Shivering on a street corner waiting for the bus it's hard to believe that the Earth is closer to the Sun now than at any other time in the year. But it is!

So says University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh, who adds that the Sun is as much as one and a half million miles closer than the average of ninety-three million miles.

As the month progresses there will be a slight increase in the length of the day and by the end of Jan. we'll have an hour more of daylight. However, Professor Losh points out, along with the increasing hours of sunshine we'll have colder weather.

"Heat is being radiated away from the earth faster than it is being received. It's not till the rate of heating overtakes the rate of cooling that we may expect warmer weather," she explains. And this won't occur until the beginning of Feb.

SEE BRIGHTEST STAR

The brightest star in the sky, Sirius, will be out this month.

Appearing in the constellation Canis Major, The Great Dog, this star can be seen in the southeast below Orion just after dark. The three stars in Orion's belt point downward to Sirius, says the astronomer.

This star is of great interest to persons all over the world, she declares, because it is visible from almost every habitable part of the earth. It's one of our nearest neighbors. Its light takes less than nine years to reach us.

"Interesting as Sirius is, it has a telescopic companion which is even more so," Professor Losh states. "This companion is no ordinary star. It has the mass of a star but a diameter more appropriate for a planet," she describes.

IT'S HEAVY STUFF

If a pint of the material which composes it were put on the surface of the earth, it would weigh more than twenty-five tons.

DRIVER FINED

Felix Bak, 45, of Toledo, Ohio, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of liquor when he appeared before Justice Robert French last Thursday.

Arrested by Tecumseh police the same day, he was fined $50.30, assessed costs of $8.60.

New President

FRANK WORTHINGTON

New president of the Michigan Press Association is Frank Worthington, publisher of the Wyandotte Tribune.

He was elected at the newspaper publishers' 88th annual convention Jan. 27-28 at Kellogg Center on the MSU campus in East Lansing.

Other officers are Almon W. McCall, co-publisher of the Grand Haven Tribune, first vice president; Robert S. Marshall, publisher, Ogemaw County Herald, second vice president; Jack Sinclair, publisher, Hartford Day Spring, treasurer.

Elected to the Board of Directors are E. C. Hayhow, publisher, Hillsdale Daily News; George McCall, co-publisher, Gratiot County Herald, Ithaca; Vidian Roe, Fremont Times-Indicator; Dale Stafford, publisher, Greenville Daily News; James Tagg, publisher, Farmington Enterprise.

This year's meeting will honor all living Past Presidents of MPA. Each will be presented with a bronze plaque in recognition of his service.

The traditional "All-Michigan Dinner," co-sponsored for the fifteenth year by MPA and the Michigan Department of Agriculture, is the climaxing feature of the meeting.

The Silver Lining

CITY CLERK MRS. NAOMI SALLOWS tells a cute story about her granddaughter in Flushing, Ohio. There was an epidemic of chicken pox and the three-year-old gal told her mother "Mama, I can't get chicken pox because we haven't got any chickens."

IT'S REAL SOMETHING to have a private train on a private track. The men who run the diesel-powered trains through town "just drive the engine" over for lunch and park it across from the HERALD office during the noon hour. The engine puffs away, busily going nowhere.

DR. RALPH BUNCHE OF the United Nations who spoke at the Michigan Press Association convention in East Lansing last week end told this story on himself. His young son held his own press conference with reporters and told them that his father was a radiator with the UN and the boy added: "Why he can't even stop my seven-year-old sister and I from fighting."

WE KNOW A BOXER DOG that needs an alarm clock. Major, owned by Dr. M. R. Blanden on Monroe road, is slipping. Major visited the Bill Mackey home on Mill road and he made friends with two Mackey daughters—Dorothy and Janet, 12 and 10. For three days Major arrived at 7:15 a.m. But Wednesday morning he overslept and didn't get to the Mackeys until 7:20 a.m.

ELECTED SECRETARY

Alethia, a new local sorority at the University of Michigan, has been officially recognized by Panhellenic Association and the Student Government Council. One of 20 sororities on campus, Alethia has 23 members.

Hoping eventually to go national, the sorority is at present an associate member of Panhellenic Association. It will hold special formal rush parties next semester to pledge additional members.

Recording secretary for the new sorority is Mary Nixon, 513 Logan, Tecumseh, a sophomore in the Literary College.

Tecumseh Wins First and Second in Debate Tourney

The Tecumseh high school debate teams ended a successful season last Saturday when members participated in the annual debate tournament at Sylvania Burnham high school in Sylvania, Ohio.

Tecumseh debates took the first place trophy in the "B" division and tied for second place in the "C" division.

Those entering "B" division were first affirmative, Judy Whiting; second affirmative, Anne Rebottaro; first negative, Carol Finnegan; second negative, John Naser, all juniors.

Those entering "C" Division, in the same order, were Merene Boltz, Shirley Larned, Ray Puffer and Marilyn Manley, all seniors except Marilyn, who is a junior.

The proposition for the year is a timely one, since it appears in the news almost every day: resolved: that the federal government should guarantee higher education to qualified high school graduates through grants to colleges and universities.

Seven schools entered each of the eliminations in the tournament. Many of these schools have debate as a regular part of their curricula. Some students begin debate training as early as the seventh or eighth grades. The Tecumseh debaters have made an excellent record, since debate here is extra-curricular.

During the regular season, the Tecumseh teams won half of their contests. The affirmative boasts three out of four, and in the tournament, three out of three in the "B" Division. The schedule for the year included the following schools: Blissfield, Albion, Coldwater and Adrian.

Post-season plans include exhibition debates before several civic organizations. The debate and forensics coach, Mrs. Vaughn Whited, reports growing interest in speech activities in Tecumseh high school and a promising debate season in the coming year.

Crops Group Makes Plans

The 1956 fall crops committee met Monday evening at the 4-H office to plan the year's program.

The committee is set up to conduct the fall crops show each Nov. and also to promote projects with crops throughout the year with 4-H and FFA clubs.

The committee consists of FFA members, John Jackson, Rt. 4, Adrian; Roger Wolf, Rt. 3, Morenci; 4-H members—Merlin Wahl, Britton; Herbert Marks, Rt. 1, Clayton; Vo. Ag. Instructors — Russell Spaulding, Britton; Max Huff, Morenci; 4-H Leaders—Bill F. Marvin, Rt. 4, Adrian; Charles Bishop, Britton; seed corn dealers—Lawrence Setzler, Blissfield and Felix Witt, Jasper.

The committee decided this year to elect a chairman and a secretary. The chairman for 1956 is John Jackson and Merlin Wahl was elected secretary. The committee also decided to plan activities this year to promote small grains as projects and to get more exhibited at the fall crops show. They plan again to have the hybrid seed corn project and ask for donations from seed corn dealers. The only major change planned in this project it to have members pay their respective clubs $.20 per pound for the seed. This will be returned to the members after the project is completed.

Members of the committee have expressed desire to explain the work of the fall crops committee at meetings of farm organizations. For further information on this, contact Ray Peffers, County 4-H Club Agent at the Lenawee County Agricultural office, courthouse in Adrian.

SPEED LAW

2. The basic speed law still remains in effect. It is unlawful to drive at any speed too fast for conditions, such as weather, condition of road and traffic.

3. Many roads are posted with lower limits, and these remain in effect.

4. The speed limits applying to trucks, 45 miles per hour, busses, 0 to 50 miles per hour, and passenger cars with trailers, 50 miles per hour, are still in effect.

Actually, the absolute speed limits are just a new regulation that has been added to the basic speed law under which the state has operated for years. The new limits were approved at the first special session of the legislature early last Nov. as part of a safety package aimed at reducing accidents.

panding needs of the school district is the aim of the board.

Other members of the board are Jack Savage, Joseph Galazzi and Clara Waldron. Both Mr. Savage and Mr. Galazzi have had experience in other communities and bring a fresh approach to local problems.

Since 1895 the public library has been the responsibility and under the supervision of the school district but never, until now, has it had a board devoted to its special interests. Prior to 1895 it was supported by interested citizens who organized in 1883. It was housed in rooms on the second floor of the Sage Block until the present building was presented to the district by Andrew Carnegie in 1904.

Pellon Can Be Washed, Not Cleaned

To wash or not to wash Pellon; that's the question. Or, should this new non-woven interfacing be dry cleaned?

Lola Belle Green, extension clothing specialist at Michigan State University, answers this by citing some research studies using Pellon as interfacing in suit fronts, as lining in girl's gored cotton skirts and as separate slips for little girls. The studies were done at Cornell University.

Washed in both an automatic washer and by hand, the material laundered well. However, Miss Green explains, Pellon did shrink slightly. She suggests to home seamstresses that Pellon should be sewed loosely into seams to prevent puckering after washing. When Pellon is attached only at the waist such as in underskirts or dresses, it can be sewed more firmly.

Dry cleaning Pellon is a different story, the research studies point out. The samples became very yellow after a few cleanings. And when put away for a few weeks the dry cleaned samples became stiff and "boardy." They did not shrink, though. The yellowness of such inter-facing would be likely to show through in light weight white or light colored materials after a few dry cleanings. And, researchers conclude, the additional stiffness would be undesirable in some garments.

Youth Center Plans Begin

A plan by which Bill Sage will grant the use of the upstairs part of the Sage Building for a youth center was accepted by the Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting last Thursday night.

And a special committee headed by John Hamilton will work out details for the use of the facility.

Mr. Sage said he would equip part of the building for a youth center and he would be willing to donate a night of his time a week to the project.

LEGION MEMBERSHIP PARTY IS GIVEN

Ninety persons attended the membership drive party in the Tecumseh American Legion home last Friday night.

The party was sponsored by George Gould, Lenawee County Commander of the American Legion. It honored those Legionnaires who had signed up 10 or more new members during a period in Nov.

A band from Post No. 282 in Ypsilanti played for the dance.

Kroger Change

Packers' Fruit Mix is out of the Kroger ad this week. In its place is Pure Cane Sugar—5 lb. bag 50c. The change came in after the ad was already printed in the second section.

PTA Council Is Organized

Representatives of the four local Parent-Teachers Associations and the Brownville Mothers' Club met last week for organizing a town-wide council.

Central school was represented by Carson House and Stephan Hleck; West Branch by Mrs. Richard Eggleston and Keith Barron; Patterson by Mrs. Robert Anderson and Robert Wood; while Laine Holden attended for the high school and Mrs. Herbert Bagby and Mrs. Don Geringer for the Mothers' Club.

Various matters of over all policy were discussed and it was decided to hold a dancing party April 7, the proceeds from which would be the polio contribution of the five associations. So much enthusiasm was shown for the idea of a parent teacher polio dance that the group is considering making it an annual affair which will serve the double purpose of raising money and promoting better acquaintance between parents and teachers of the city.

Whiteds Will Go to England

The Rev. and Mrs. Vaughn Whited are announcing plans for 1956 which will take them away from their present work.

The Rev. Whited has completed work for his doctor of philosophy degree and he will spend a year in England, mainly at Oxford, gathering material for his dissertation on the subject of Martin Luther.

He will be accompanied by Mrs. Whited.

She has been teaching speech, English and Spanish in the Tecumseh schools for the past three years while the Rev. Whited has been pastor of the Methodist churches of Clinton and Macon and has taught in Adrian College.

The plan to leave about the first of August.

Upon its completion in 1957, the Mackinac Straits Bridge connecting Michigan's Upper and Lower Peninsulas will be the longest suspension span anywhere in the world.

New Jack Speeds Tire Changing

The most revolutionary change in the design of the automobile jack since the days of high pressure tires is featured as standard equipment on all 1956 Buicks. The jack is similar in design to those used in garages, featuring two bases instead of one, and can be operated with the foot. Jacking points have been marked on the frame to eliminate any doubt about where the new jack is to be placed.

FIFTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Uckele

The boys and girls in our room are beginning their duties on Safety Patrol and Service Squad.

This semester we are studying science.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The kindergarten was very happy to start their new workbooks. They are really getting to be first grade children now. Finding the left side and the right side of their large charts is fun. They have been learning many new folk dances and games, too, using their left and right hands and feet at the proper time.

The third grade is constructing the village of New Centerville for social studies. We have been reading the story of New Centerville and find it to be much like Tecumseh. We have brought houses, barns, trucks, etc., to make the village with.

Toni Herrick, Jeff Osburn, and Phillip Mobley had birthdays.

Mrs. William DePuy visited the fifth grade room last Wednesday morning.

We are studying about the Middle Atlantic States and collecting products made there. We were surprised at the number of things we use every day that came from that section.

The 4-H Club has organized again this year with Jane VanValkenburg as president. The other officers are: Nancy Nixon, vice-president; Annette Linger, secretary; Ann Metcalf, treasurer; and Mary Ann Mead, reporter. We chose the name of "Snappy Knitters" for our club. Penny Head and Gail Sisson have already finished their hot dish holder.

The fifth grade has taken over the duties of the Safety Patrol and Service Squad.

The sixth grade class has elected officers to serve the rest of the year. They are: Charles Osburn, president; Ronald O'Neill, vice-president; Jamey Gabler, secretary; and Mary Wing, treasurer.

Jamey Gabler is a new member of the class and as evidence she is welcome, was elected an officer.

We all miss Mr. Kaiser.

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Whiting

Time certainly flies! Our second semester has started; half of our school year has passed. We are adding geography and health classes, and the boys and girls are having gym together for the next six weeks.

We have only two birthdays in January. Last Monday, Charles Saling treated us to ice cream and delicious cup cakes which his mother had made. Tom Mattison also has a birthday this month.

The boys and girls are having an arithmetic contest with the multiplication tables. Right now the girls are ahead, but the boys aren't giving up. They are studying hard whenever they have spare time.

Mary Louise Dinse moved to Adrian this month so now we have just 30 in our room. We are all trying hard to do better than we did the first half of the year.

THIRD GRADE—WEST BRANCH

Here we are starting a new semester in our pretty yellow and green room.

We had a surprise last Monday morning. It was an aquarium. We are learning many new words in our study about fish. We have guppies, angel fish, yellow wags, some swordtails, and two paradise fish. We can see that our fish live together in a happy community. We won't let fighters live in our community.

We are learning to carry in arithmetic. We add three columns of figures now.

JoAnn Green brought us some narcissus bulbs and today the first one blossomed.

Two of our reading groups have finished our Streets and Roads reader and many stories from other books. Now we are starting More Streets and Roads. Many of us can figure out any words we see, by using our sounds and syllable rules or phonics.

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Miller

We started 1956 with 29 boys and girls in our room.

This has been a busy birthday month with Sharon Copley, Cathy Custard, Cheryl Maynard, John Oberlin, and Phyllis Brown all becoming ten years old.

In language we have been working on announcements and introductions. We made puppets to help us learn to make introductions more calmly. Some of them have become real personalities in our room. Come in and we'll introduce you to "Pee-wee," "Elbert I," "Elbert II," "Little War-Hoot," and "Doris."

The boys and girls are having gym together for this six-weeks period. Mrs. Hardcastle and Mr. Hale are teaching us singing games and folk dances.

In health we are doing well on the "Brush Your Teeth" chart. We made booklets about the seven basic foods and good health posters.

Inara Roberts
Sandra Petrovish

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Bailey

We have started on the last half of our fourth grade year. We are going to work hard so we will be ready for the fifth grade.

For the first six weeks in the second semester, we are going to have our physical education classes together. In this way, we will be able to learn different games and how to play them together.

We finished our sicence books last semester. Now we are studying geography — about how boys and girls live in other lands — different than ours.

In social studies we are studying important cities — why they started, where they started, what made them grow.

We have two birthdays in January. Deanna Owen and Jeanette Gill.

Christian Science Services Listed

Divine healing—healing through spiritual means alone—will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit."

Luke's account of Christ Jesus' healing of the "woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (Luke 13) will be included in the readings from the King James Verison of the Bible.

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (316:7): "Christ, Truth, was demonstrated through Jesus to prove the power of Spirit over the flesh,—to show that Truth is made manifest by its effects upon the human mind and body, healing sickness and destroying sin."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (143:10): "Teach me to do thy will; for thou are my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness."

HOSTESSES NAMED

The regular midweek luncheon and card party of the ladies of the Country Club will be held Wednesday, Feb. 8 at 1 p.m. Members are asked to make reservations by Tuesday noon with one of the hostesses, either Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, phone 82 or Mrs. Hal Kelso, number 14.

Blanchard Cited for Conservation

Annual meeting of the Lenawee Soil Conservation District was held Wednesday evening, Jan. 25, at Palmyra Community Hall. Mr. John G. Rulison, water conservationist with the Michigan State Department of Conservation, spoke on "Water Problems of Michigan and their Relation to Farmers" before a group of 75 district members.

Presentation of awards for outstanding achievement in soil and water conservation were made to the board of directors, Hal Benner, chairman; Lloyd Ruesink, secretary-treasurer; Clarence Kleidinst, Leland Brighton and Clarence Ehlert. Mr. George Blanchard, Tecumseh, Route 1 was presented a certificate of award for his achievements in applying conservation practices on the land. Awards were presented by Mr. George C. Crook, Grand Rapids, representing the Goodyear Rubber Co. which sponsors the award program throughout the U. S.

Color slides of Lenawee conservation problems were shown by Woodrow Barclay, U. S. Soil Conservation Service. A "Dollar-a-Minute" quiz for the ladies was conducted by Don Dean of Radio Station WABJ.

Clarence Kleidinst and Clarence Ehlert were re-elected on the board of directors for terms of three years.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Fixed Expense Figures in Family Budget

The use of incomes of modern-day families is becoming less and less flexible, with more money being set aside for fixed expenses.

Fixed expenses are described by Dr. Irma Gross, head of the home management department at Michigan State University, as those which are not quickly or easily changed, if at all. If within the control of the family they are based on long-time decisions.

Installment payments, insurance premiums and payments on a house are good examples of such fixed expenses. Taxes and social security are another type of fixed expenses set for the family by law. They must also be considered in planning the use of the family's money.

Dr. Gross claims a wise person, when planning the 1956 family budget, will take into account that one-third of the income of an average medium-income family may go into fixed expenses. Then only two-thirds will remain for such items as food, clothing, gifts, recreation and car operating expenses.

This trend of having more money go into channels which have been set for a long period of time, such as mortgage payments, should influence every family when they make their budgets. After all, Dr. Gross explains, "the most a budget can do is open your eyes to whether you are using your money as you really want to. When you take on a fixed expense you have committed yourself for a long time."

Program Fights Rheumatic Fever

Rheumatic fever, mysterious heart crippler of childhood, is now being fought by the Michigan Department of Health and Michigan Crippled Children Commission through a program designed to prevent the dangerous recurrence of the disease in those who have already had it.

In a joint statement, the agencies today described a program through which Michigan doctors can get free benzathine penicillin G to give on a monthly basis "to all patients who have had one or more attacks of rheumatic fever or who show clinical evidence of rheumatic heart disease."

Penicillin is provided by the Michigan Department of Health, through local health departments serving 70 of the state's counties, and through designated distribution centers in 13 counties without full-time local health departments. The Michigan Crippled Children Commission is using trust funds to pay for the administration of the penicillin to "any child under 21 years with a history of previous attacks of rheumatic fever or who show evidence of rheumatic heart disease who now has or has had a crippled or afflicted children's court order."

According to the health department, rheumatic fever, striking most often between the ages of 5 and 15, usually follows a nose and throat infection caused by germs of the streptococcus family. Although it remains a mystery just how the disease picks its victims, both Michigan doctors and American Heart Association specialists agree that for the person who has had rheumatic fever, regular doses of sulfa or penicillin help prevent another "strep" infection, which could bring on an even more serious attack of the disease. Repeated attacks, the health department said, are more likely to result in heart damage.

Home Can Be Killer

Household booby-traps and human carelessness add up to home accidents, "which caused over 800 Michigan deaths in 1954 and probably a similar number in 1955," the Michigan Department of Health warned today.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner, said the high death toll is one reason local and state health authorities put accident perevention on the agenda for this year's "Commissioner's Conference" on health scheduled in Lansing Feb. 8-9-10.

"You don't need a microscope to see the cause of home accidents," Dr. Heustis said. "Even the early symptoms — haste, carelessness or household booby-traps — can be seen with the unaided eye. We're hopeful that this year's Commissioner's Conference may point up some added ways to alert Michigan families to these symptoms, and to the corrections necessary."

Of the 800 home accident deaths in 1954, health department records show 300 were among persons 65 years of age and older, who died as a result of falls in the home.

Other causes, in order of their importance, were: mechanical suffocation, suffocation from food or objects, poison gas, poison solids or liquids and firearms.

The two "high danger" age brackets for accidents are five years of age and younger and sixty-five and over, Dr. Heustis reported.

He said more than one out of four of the home accident deaths in 1954 were in the age group five and under. And more than 40 per cent of the deaths were among persons 65 and older.

Plymouth Fury Breaks Speed Records

DAYTONA BEACH, FLORIDA—Breaking all U.S. stock car acceleration records for a measured mile, the new 240-horsepower Plymouth Fury crosses the finish line in Daytona Beach run supervised by The National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR). The Fury also set a new record of 124.01 mph in its displacement class for the "flying mile". In the acceleration run from a standing start, the car averaged a record 82.54 mph.

Road Program Totals $300,000,000

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has announced a construction program on state trunklines for the 1956-57 seasons totalling in excess of $300,000,000.

The total for the two-year period could conceivably be even greater, should the Congress this year pass a bill to expedite construction of the Federal Aid systems. Michigan would benefit appreciably from such legisation, perhaps by as much as an additional $50,000,000 per year.

LIST DIVIDED HIGHWAYS

Included in the construction program announced for Michigan are approximately 450 miles of four- and six-lane divided highways on the major trunkline system, to be completed and opened to traffic by the end of 1957. Nearly 200 additional miles of modern divided roads will be under contract next year, but are not expected to be opened to traffic until 1958.

The 1956-'57 program also includes 500 miles of construction, reconstruction, and re-surfacing of two-lane highways on the state trunkline system.

THEY'RE ALL OVER

Projects scheduled for construction are in all areas of the State, although emphasis will be placed on multi-lane roads specified in Act 87 of the 1955 legislature. So-called "Act 87 roads" include 985 miles on the Federal Interstate Highway System, and approximately 1,000 additional miles of major trunklines on the Federal Aid primary system.

Of the total committment for $300,000,000, estimated revenues from state fuel taxes and license fees, and Federal Aid at the present rate of distribution, will account for an estimated $170,000,000. The remaining $130,000,000 will be raised through bond issues permitted by existing legislation.

Commissioner Ziegler, in announcing the program, said that the two-year total would put Michigan in the forefront of the states in highway construction expenditures.

Wayne University Clinic Uses Million Dollar Speech Recorder

Dr. George A. Kopp, director of the Speech Clinic at Wayne University assists Ellen Zuckerman, 4, of Detroit as her speech is visibly tested by the million dollar Cathode Ray Translator. This is the world's only visible speech recorder and it was developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories in New York.

The world's only visible speech machine, a graph recorder of human speech, can be found at Wayne University's recently remodeled Speech and Hearing Clinic in Detroit.

Dr. George A. Kopp, director of the Speech Clinic, said that the million dollar visible speech machine is the result of years of research by the Bell Telephone Laboratory, New York and has been on loan from that company since 1952.

The machine flashes an instantaneous speech pattern that characterizes a phonetic sound or word on a green luminous screen. A sound spectograph produces the speech patterns on a permanent graph.

This machine makes it possible to combine vision with other sensory receptions in teaching oral use of language to the deaf and others who are handicapped in oral communications, according to Dr. Kopp.

Another "first" found at the Clinic is a master hearing aid, constructed after two years of research by staff members. This aid eliminates individual testing of the 117 different hearing aids on the market. The master testing device determines the nature of hearing loss and characteristic which should be included to properly prescribe one of the commercial hearing aids.

Detroit's only ear mold laboratory is located at the Clinic. The ear mold is a flexible plastic ear piece which is designed to hold the speaker part of a hearing aid in the ear. Staff member Millard M. Meador holds a Veteran's Association contract to make these molds.

Other activities of the speech-hearing clinic include treatment for adults and children.

Some 80 children receive treatments each week throughout the year until defects have been cured. Educational toys, tests and observations are used to diagnose treatment of these children who come from all parts of the state and country, according to Dr. Kopp. Graduate assistants in special education at Wayne work in the Children's Clinic.

The Speech and Hearing Clinic treats adults who have defective hearing or speech from accidents, cleft palate, cancer of the larynx, cerebral palsy, mongolidism and other conditions.

"Situated in a metropolitan area, the Clinic has a strong training program because of the great number of cases handled daily," stated Dr. Kopp. "There is a great need for more people in this field. The Clinic is associated with a national placement agency and could place 80 or 90 people today throughout the country," he said.

Ice Fishing Tips Given

You ice-fishermen can save yourselves some bait money and further the cause of conservation if you take a few tips from a University of Michigan professor of fisheries.

"One of the biggest concerns ice-fishermen and bait dealers have is the cost of natural bait," says Prof. Karl F. Lagler. There are two or three ways to ease the situation, he adds.

First, use natural bait to locate the fish, but when you've got them coming to the hole you're using, switch to artificial bait, or use a piece of the first fish you caught, he suggests.

GIVE IT PROPER CARE

Another money-saver is proper care of natural bait between fishing trips, says the professor. "The bold angler may try to slip his bait into his wife's refrigerator for safekeeping, but all the bait really needs is to be kept in a cellar, at about 60 degrees," he amplifies.

Be sure to keep the bait insulated when you get out in the field with it; if it freezes, that's the end. Store up some bait during the summer when it's more abundant, he suggests.

What are some of the types of natural bait you should be using? Professor Lagler names corn borers and "mousies"—a rat-tail maggot, larva of certain flies.

Artificial bait he recommends includes the "Russian Spoon" type or fly of feathers and hair, or rubber.

MORE ABOUT

"There are some other things to keep in mind," Professor Lagler points out. "In winter ever more than in summer it doesn't pay to be a one-spot fisherman; fish move about even less when it's cold," he says.

"Fish are probably stimulated by a combination of senses, and an ice-fisherman will do well to keep his bait in motion," he advises. You might try rubbing the bait in the juice of a fish you've already caught, he adds, but doesn't guarantee that this will work magic.

Start your line working near the bottom. If fish are feeding at all that's where they'll be, he states. And go after them near water plants.

"It's worth some of the time and trouble to catch a fish in the winter," he declares. "I've never had one with a muddy taste caught from a normal lake in winter."

For ice-fishermen who are year-round anglers here is a date to circle on your calendar: March 17. The University will hold its annual fishing clinic at this time, featuring informal sessions on all kinds of fish and ways to hook them.

There'll be a new topic included this year: skin diving.

Beware of covetousness, for a man's life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesses.—(St. Luke 12, 15.)

The greatest of all human possessions is within everyone's reach, the easiest to acquire, and the most lasting—for it is peace of soul and mind, gained through loving God with all one's heart, thus to receive His love, without which worldly wealth is ashes.

Indians Beat Hillsdale To Tie for League Lead

Spangler, Miller, Sisson Hit for Double Figures

For two weeks in a row Coach Vic Lawson's Indian cagers have used the man-to-man press defense to a good advantage in the second half. Last week it won the Bedford game and Friday night when the Indians clamped the press on the Hillsdale Horents the results made a lot of Tecumseh fans happy—in fact the Indians' 63-60 win over previously unbeaten in league play, Hillsdale made local fans laugh right out loud since the result gave the Indians a tie with the Hornets for the Southeastern League leadership. Each team has been beaten in the league only by each other and each team now has a 4-1 record.

Before the Indians put the clamps to the Hornets Hillsdale looked like it was going to win the big one easily. The Hornets marched out to a 19-12 first period lead and by intermission they had increased the lead to 11 points, making it 36 to 25.

SCORE IS TIED

But the full court press was so effective that the Hornets did not score during the first half of the third period. Meanwhile, the Indians cashed 11 points to knot the game at 36-all. And by the time the third period ended Tecumseh was leading by two points, 50-48.

How effective the press was can be seen in the scoring during the third period. Tecumseh, playing better as a whole team than it has all year, netted 25 points while the favored Hornets could chip in only 12.

In the final period it was nip and tuck but the Indians again had the edge, 13-12.

SPANGLER PUTS IT AWAY

At one time in the last quarter the Indians had a seven point lead but the Hornets fought back to narrow the edge to one point, 61-60 with 20 seconds to play. The Hornets, attempting to steal the ball to make a possible clinching two points, fouled Val Spangler. The rugged forward promptly and calmly sunk both shots to insure the Indians' fourth league win; and, more importantly, a tie for the league leadership.

As has been mentioned, Tecumseh played as a team to win the big game. Three players hit in double figures and another one only missed by one. Leading the pack was Mike Sisson with nine field goals and five free throws, good for 23 points. He was followed by Ken Miller, easily the best all-around player on the floor with his accurate play making, with 16 and Val Spangler with 12. Bill Hansen added an important nine.

BOHANNON STILL LEADS

Don Bohannon again led the Hornets with 22 and Jim Handy contributed 18.

Bohannon now has 96 points in league play and Tecumseh's Sisson has 85.

The Hornets won the prelim, 49-47.

Three More

Tecumseh and Hillsdale, currently leading the Southeastern League with 4-1 records have three more league games to play. Each of the leaders must face Monroe Catholic Central, Airport and Bedford.

In the first round of league play both the Indians and the Hornets beat these teams. Tecumseh's only league loss was to Hillsdale; Hillsdale's only league loss was to Tecumseh.

In previous games Tecumseh was beaten by Hillsdale 55 to 50 and defeated Monroe Catholic Central, 79 to 49; Airport 54 to 45; and Bedford 48 to 46.

Tecumseh plays Monroe Catholic Central Feb. 10; Airport Feb. 17 and Bedford Feb. 24.

The Monroe and Bedford games are at home.

The finish of league play should be exciting.

Boysville Loses to Dexter, 56-47

Boysville's Fighting Knights dropped another League of the Lakes basketball game to Dexter Friday night, 56-47. Boysville is now 1-5 in league play.

A poor showing in the second quarter proved the Knights' downfall. After Dexter got off to a 13-11 first quarter lead, the Knights could only muster eight points in the second quarter while Dexter added 15.

Dexter again had a two-point edge in the third quarter, 17 to 15 but Boysville had the two-point edge in the final quarter, 13 to 11.

John Murray had 19 points for the Knights and his brother Joe added 11. Dexter's Clark also hit 19.

In the prelim Boysville won, 38 to 35.

Britton Edged by Ida, 49-46

Britton-Macon dropped their fifth Little Six league cage game Friday night but they put a scare into league-leading Ida before giving in, 49 to 46.

The Blue Streaks actually had only a one-point margin at the end of the game but as the whistle sounded Tom Monoghan was fouled and he made both shots.

A scoring lapse in the second period proved too much for the Tories. Ida had a one point edge, 11 to 10 at the end of the first quarter; then Britton was able to pick up only eight points in the second period.

The 26-18 first half bulge could not be overcome, even though the Tories tried valiantly to do so.

In the third period Ida added 16 while Britton made 12; but in the final frame the Tories cashed 12 while holding the league leaders to seven. Smith led Ida with 18. Rhora hit 10 for Britton. Ida won the prelim, 50 to 31.

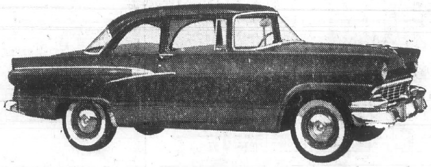
There's a '56 FORD to fit every pocketbook!

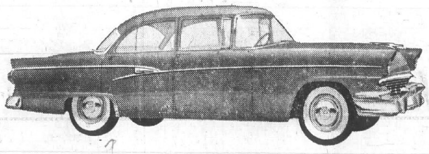
Prices start as low as $1533.05*



MAINLINE SERIES

powered by the mighty Ford V-8 or I-6 engine

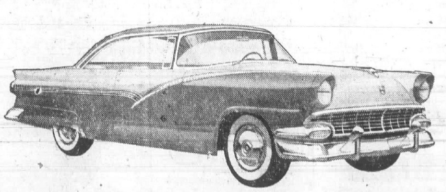
Ford Mainline models are favorites with buyers who prefer subtle beauty combined with dependable, economical transportation. Mainline Fords are priced right down with the lowest-priced cars. But they are built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence that you find in every Ford.



CUSTOMLINE SERIES

with your choice of Ford's big V-8 or I-6 engine

Ford Customline models have generous ornamentation and distinctive styling that set them apart from the many "look-alike" cars of the day. These cars are available in a wide choice of beautiful single and two-tone body finishes. There are many tasteful upholstery combinations and interior color schemes to harmonize with the various exterior color treatments. And Ford's modern power-assists are available to make the Ford Customline model of your choice as "automatic" as you want it—at reasonable cost.



FAIRLANE SERIES

with the terrific Thunderbird V-8 engine at no extra cost . . . or Ford's thrifty I-6 engine

The superb Ford Fairline models come to you for hundreds less than many other cars that they surpass in distinguished beauty and topnotch performance. They are truly fine cars in every sense of the word. Fairlane models are offered in an extra-large choice of handsome single and two-tone body colors . . . with luxurious upholstery materials to achieve complete harmony between exterior and interior beauty. And of course you can have Ford's wonderful power-assists for your added pleasure. As in all '56 Ford models, you get Ford's exclusive Lifeguard Design to give you and your family extra protection against the major causes of car-accident injuries.

Come in . . . Test Drive a '56 Ford of your choice . . . and you'll be convinced that you can go finer for less with a new Ford!

*Price for a '56 Ford Six Mainline Tudor Sedan. Prices may vary depending on individual dealer's pricing policies. State taxes extra. Whitewall tires and accessories optional at extra cost.

Happy Birthday, Boy Scouts

We salute the Boy Scouts of America on its 46th birthday, which will be observed during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12.

Scouting is a program for all boys everywhere. It is successful in the wildest rural areas and in the most congested cities. It possesses an inherent appeal for the healthy, vigorous, normal American youth and also offers fields of achievement for the handicapped.

It has often been said that a boy can always find something to do. It is when he finds something to do that does not measure up to reasonable standards that he may get in trouble. Scouting offers a steadying hand that often tips the scales away from delinquency.

Scouting has three program parts to meet the needs of boys of different age levels.

Over one million families, together with their eight-to-ten-year-old-sons participate in Cub Scouting, said to be America's largest and most dynamic parent-and-boy program. Today there are 1,430,000 Cub Scouts in 36,000 Cub packs.

Boy Scouting provides for 11 - 12 and 13-year-old boys an outdoor program that helps them grow in character and citizenship. Today 1,160,000 Boy Scouts are active in 54,000 troops.

Exploring serves the boy of 14 and over with a rich program filled with high adventure and opportunities to practice good citizenship. Today 440,000 Explorers are members of 14,000 Explorer Units or are Explorers in Boy Scout troops.

Many hands join to bring Scouting to these 3,030,000 boys and young men. In addition to the 1,070,000 adult volunteers who provide the leadership for them there are 68,000 sponsoring institutions that actually operate the 104,000 Scouting units. This roll of institutions sponsoring Scout units really represents democracy in action. They represent the religious, civic, educational, and veterans organizations of the nation.

Boy Scouts Mark 46th Birthday

Onward...For God and My Country

46TH ANNIVERSARY 1956
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,100,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 6 to 12, marking the 46th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Since 1910, Scouting has served over 24,500,000 boys and adult leaders.

The new Four-Year Program, "Onward for God and My Country," is launched in 1956 to help prepare America's boys to live in today's world and to prepare them to carry their full share in the years ahead.

Boy Scout Week observances will feature rededication ceremonies to be conducted by each of the nation's 104,000 units at their meeting places on February 8, the actual birthday of Scouting in America. Demonstrations and exhibits will dramatize the purposes of the Boy Scouts of America and its rich heritage.

Realty Views

Recently a business magazine observed: "Nowadays a man who is contented with his lot probably has a house on it."

Like most witty observations, this statement is based on the truth. For home-ownership often leads to contentment.

Why so? First, once you invest your money in a community, you become a real part of it. With "your roots down," you try to make your city a better place in which to live. You take more interest in civic affairs. You belong.

Also, as a home owner you realize your "moving days" are past. You settle down to enjoy life more fully. And, you can plan ahead knowing that any improvement will be to your benefit.

From a financial standpoint, you realize you are no longer pouring rent money down the drain. Instead, a portion of your housing cost is "saved" as your equity grows in your home.

So if you want CONTENTMENT, you know the general answer. For the specific house and lot, however, call on us to assist. We'll be glad to help you find it.

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

Feb. 26, 1955

Have been up since 4:30. We're breaking up camp and will travel 300 miles—two days—down by the Tana River into the elephant country near Italian Somaliland.

And last night Jens got his rhino with Andy! A good specimen, so everyone is happy.

In "Fly camp"—morning

The beacon of the African sun is coming up over the flat horizon. Drove 150 miles yesterday, from 11 o'clock until 7 o'clock over rocks and gullies, holes and mountains; made "fy camp" on the plain near the only trees on the landscape. Hot and dusty. Another long hard day ahead of us, another fly camp, and then next morning we should arrive at our permanent camp on the Tana River—our home for the remainder of our trip.

The boys pounded late last night on Jens' rhino head. He wants the whole head—mounted—make room — here we come! This morning they've been scraping and cleaning out the carcass—good for morning sickness!

Yesterday morning Jens and Andy had to go back into the woods to skin and pick up the rhino because it was too late last night after the shot to get him dressed out. To save time, the boys broke up camp while they were gone, and then the lorries and Chris and Clausens went on into the village to do some supply shopping, leaving me sitting on a log with Ngoro to wait for Andy's jeep.

NATIVES SWARM

The deserted camp site soon swarmed with the natives, like scavengers seeking the remains. I busied myself unearthing shiny bottle caps for the children, who at first ran when I made my offering. A few urchins forgot their timidity and followed at my heels until their tiny black hands were bulging with the shining metal, and no pockets in which to hoard them! Then inspired, I clapped my hands in time to the old rythmic ditty, "Oh, the dance they do is enough to kill a Jew. Step on a banana peeling, oh, what a funny feeling—dum, dum, dum, etc." (remember?), and they broke into big grins ,stamped their bare feet and wiggled their bodies happily. From then on we were pals. They admired themselves in my compact mirror, watched me put on fresh lipstick, fondled my white shoe laces, touched my arms curiously to see what white skin felt like; admired my red nail polish (even peeled some off for them), and begged me to take my glasses off again. I even read them, dramatically, a few lines in Swahili from my language book. They were startled for a minute; then got the joke and chuckled and nodded to each other. I hated to say goodbye to them and to the beauty of our first camp.

The long grasses were matted down and yellow where our tents had been. I could still follow the little paths around the tent stakes; the kitchen site was just a bare spot in a grove of bushes with the charcoal remains of the cook's fire. All deserted, but the yellow fever trees overhead were still spreading their yellow beauty in the sunshine, and across the gully the Masai cattle were still grazing and herding together around the waterhole; the black squirrels were still running up and down the big tree trunk. We were leaving, but probably soon another Safari group would be pitching their tents in our home, and maybe another inexperienced "Mama" who had followed her hunter into the bush would grow to love this glen as I had.

Garissa on the Tana River
March 1, 1955
Tuesday

I'm low this morning—as low as one of the sticky white ants I was bedded with last night. My bed has been sprayed this morning and I've shaken all my clothes, but I'm still crawling and have visions of the eggs hatching out on me during [illegible] day.

THINK OF HOME

We're about 50 miles from our permanent camp and if our last night's "fly camp" is a sample, I'm in for a miserable week. We rode for over 200 miles yesterday and unpacked last night by the brown Tana River. As we were eating our late supper, I could easily imagine us at home, deciding to pitch our camp in the Cheyenne, Wyoming, rodeo area right after a big show. The dust rose around us with every step, the sweat trickled down our faces and ended in little dabs of mud; beads of perspiration pebbled our foreheads and upper lips, all clothing stuck and then ripped away as one moved. We're down to sea level now, and I have no desire to stay here. Want to be back among the flies, the cow patties and the necessity for my hot water bottle!

I tried desperately during yesterday's ride to find things of interest, but the spans of sameness were so terribly long. We had left the hills and crossed the desert—red sand, limestone, lava rocks, grey scrub thornbushes, once in a while a brilliant green bush.

NATIVES CHANGE

The natives changed too — Arablike people swathed in white robes and white turbans driving their flocks of white goats and black faced white sheep with huge dabs of fat tails on their rears. The first sight of the camels was a thrill, then there were so many along the road that our interest waned —awkward looking creatures, and many with a goiter-like bell tied around their necks.

Am sitting under a big tree on the edge of the coffee-colored River; there is a little breeze, but the morning sun threatens another hot day. Three natives are cutting rice in a tiny patch along the side; two have been swimming, tossing their skirts to the bank just before submerging.

The giraffes were the most fascinating creatures we saw along the road, rich brown skin set like irregular blocks of tile, outlined with strips of white; long necks weaving over the small tree tops as they snatched a good bunch of leaves.

The native's burial grounds are placed next to the road, easier for their friends to pay their respect and also remember them. A high pile of rocks marks the grave and a large area is completely encircled [illegible] fence of dried thorn bushes.

Billy Graham Film To Be Shown Here

Exclusive full-color scenes of the Texas City disaster of 1947 highlight the climax scenes of "Oiltown, U.S.A." film release of Billy Graham Evangelistic Films to be shown here Wednesday, Feb. 8 in the Baptist Youth House.

The Texas City footage was filmed by a free-lance newsreel photographer in Houston, Texas, at the time of the disaster seven years ago. No use was made of the film until Director Dick Ross began to search for authentic scenes to highlight the story of "Oiltown, U.S.A." He located the film, unused and in storage, and made arrangements to incorporate it into the moving story of the Billy Graham picture.

The story centers around the life of a Houston oil millionaire who is brought to an abrupt realization of his need of a religious experience through danger to his daughter's life in the Texas City holocaust.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore in charge of local arrangements for the showing here, has announced that the doors to the Youth House will be opened at 7 p.m. with the film beginning at 8 p.m.

No admission is to be charged, and all seats will be on a "first come" basis.

HONOR MISS TITLEY

Marian Elizabeth Titley made the honor's list at Michigan State University for the fall term. To make the list, a student has to maintain a "B plus" average. The names of those honored are posted in the university union building as part of a display arranged by Mortar Board, campus honorary for senior women.

Dr. Britton Takes Post Grad Training

Dr. William S. Britton, 106 south Maumee, Tecumseh received advanced training at the 33rd annual Post Graduate Conference for Veterinarians held at Michigan State University, Jan. 18-19. More than 300 veterinarians from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and other midwestern states attended the conference which was sponsored by the M.S.U. College of Veterinary Medicine.

"Conferences like this one help veterinarians serve the public more effectively," declared Dr. C. F. Clark, dean of the College of Veterinary Medicine, in his speech to the conference.

"Veterinarians, like people in other medical fields, face constantly-changing problems," he said. "These changes result from variation in occurrence of different diseases from one year to another and the development of new means of diagnosis and treatment. The veterinanry profession is constantly working to guard the health of domestic livestock and pet animals as well as to limit the spread of these diseases transmissible from animals to man."

Hamaker Elected PRSA Treasurer

William B. Hall, vice-president of the Detroit Bank, has been elected 1956 president of the Detroit Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America.

Vice-president of PRSA's Detroit Chapter for 1956 will be James T. Maunders, director of public relations, Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corporation.

Other officers elected were Ambrose C. Hamaker of A. C. Hamaker and Company, Tecumseh, as treasurer; and John L. Rose, associate director of public relations, Burroughs Corporation, as secretary.

In adidtion to treasurer, Hamaker was also elected a director of the Detroit Chapter for a three-year term; Rose will serve as director for a two-year term.

Two other new directors elected for three-year terms are James A. Baubie, manager, public relations services, Chrysler Corporation; and Harry A. Williams, public relations director, Automobile Manufacturers' Association.

AUXILIARY PLANS YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

The Women's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Episcopal church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Thomas O'Hara. Officers and representatives from the three guilds of the church, St. Peter's Guild, the Daughters of St. Peter and the Lyster League were present and planned activities for the coming year.

The date of Feb. 15 was set for the first regular meeting of the auxiliary which will be held at 2 p.m. in the Parish House after the Ash Wednesday services and noon luncheon of the church.

Plans were also discussed for the kitchen tour which will be sponsored by the auxiliary sometime in May.

Local Topics

Mrs. A. H. Brown, Mrs. William Bly and Mrs. Thomas O'Hara were in Detroit Wednesday to attend the state convention of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Carl Panck spent Tuesday in Wayne calling on Mr. and Mrs. Robert Symans and family. Wednesday evening guests of the Pancks were Mr. and Mrs. Ted McCormick of Fenton.

Jerry Barron is spending the semester vacation from the University of Michigan with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Barron.

Mrs. Hilda Will and Miss Mary McWilliams in company with Mrs. Florence Harris of Adrian and Mrs. Ethel LeFevre of Fairfield spent Friday in Detroit where they attended a school of instruction. Mrs. Will, Mrs. Harris and Miss McWilliams each received sales awards for the month of Dec.

Mr. and Mrs. David Green of Ann Arbor were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Green Sr.

GUILD MEETS

Mrs. Charles Newell and Mrs. Harry Crosby were hostesses for the meeting of St. Peter's Guild Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Newell. Mrs. Newell conducted devotions and Mrs. E. C. Dick[illegible] president was in charge of the business meeting when plans were discussed for the serving of the Lenten luncheons.

The chair appointed Mrs. Clarence Brock to the housekeeping committee of the Women's Auxiliary and a contribution was made to the March of Dimes.

Mrs. E. Lavern Russell, program leader, spoke on "The Building of a Church and Its Symbols." She gave the subject a comprehensive historical background and explained the significance of many aspects which are often merely taken for granted.

There were 18 members present and two guests, Mrs. Joseph Wolf of Toledo and Mrs. James Hargreaves of Jackson. Mrs. Glenn Driscoll will entertain the Guild Feb. 9.

SENIORS SLIDE

A group of high school seniors took advantage of the crisp snow Sunday to enjoy some winter sport. Twelve of them gathered at the home of Merene Boltz and with two toboggans and five pairs of skis went to a hill near the Hugh Browne farm in Raisin. They have some bumps and sore muscles to testify to their good time but plan on conquering wider fields next Sunday in the Irish Hills.

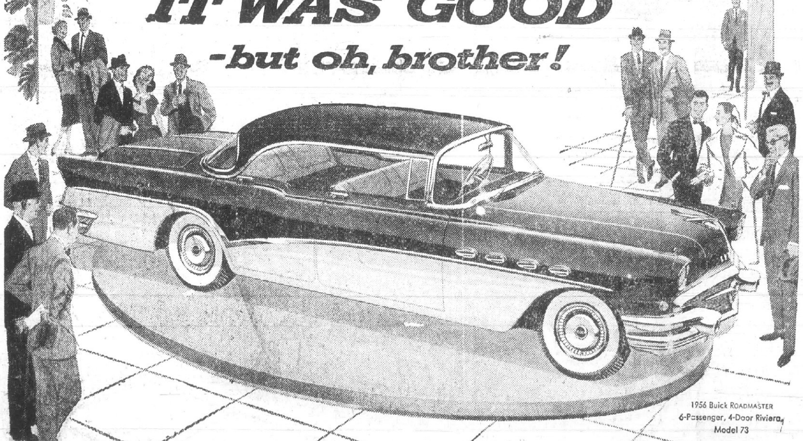
WE KNEW IT WAS GOOD
-but oh, brother!



1956 Buick ROADMASTER
6-Passenger, 4-Door Riviera,
Model 73

IT STARTED right on announcement day.

On that day, we made bold to call this the Best Buick Yet. (A pretty big statement, we're sure you'll agree.)

But, in the scant three months since then, we've had ample proof of how more-than-right we were—

Not just from the tremendous initial interest shown in the new 1956 Buicks—

Not alone from the way our sales have zoomed past all expectations—

But more especially and more clearly and more positively from the enthusiastic "play back" that's coming from happy new-Buick owners.

So, if you'd like the story firsthand—see if you can get a '56 Buick owner to stand still long enough to tell it to you.

For it's a real news story you'll hear about:

You'll hear about a walloping-big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that delivers its record-high power with the obedience of a bird dog.

You'll hear about a terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* that gives double-action take-off and instant acceleration right in the driving range—along with a thrifty boost in gas-saving mileage. Yet, when you do floor the pedal to switch the pitch—you get an extra abundance of safety-surge power to pull out of tight spots on the highway.

You'll hear about a new "sweetness" of ride made even more buoyant by deep-oil cushioning and all-coil springing—and about a new ease of handling and steering—and a new four-footed sureness when taking the turns.

So what's left to be told?

Except the news of brilliant new Buick styling inside and out—which you can see for yourself. And the question, "How much?"—which only you can answer.

For, you can go all the way from the bedrock-priced SPECIAL—to the high-stepping CENTURY—to the outstanding SUPER—and on to the custom-built ROADMASTER.

Why not come in—right soon? Learn how easy we'll make it for you to step into the '56 Buick circle—without busting out of your budget.

Grade School News

FIRST GRADE—WEST BRANCH
Miss Steinhoff

January
Now is here—
A fine new start
For a whole new year.

We started the new year with nice clean walls, which we appreciate very much. We shall do our best to keep them that way. We also have a new bulletin board.

In science we have been studying about the winter season. "Old Man Winter" makes us work as well as giving us interesting things to do. We helped make a scene showing children skiing for the front of our room.

We also are collecting colored winter pictures.

Nearly all of us can now use and understand the first ten numbers. Most of us can now write our last names as well as the first name.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

In place of report cards, the kindergarten is having Parent-Teacher conferences. We believe that this will be very profitable to both the parent and the teacher. Each parent has been notified of the time of his conference appointment.

We are happy to welcome Jeanette Mannino from Detroit to the first grade and Harry Hodge to the fourth grade. Harry left us for a month to attend school in Carrollton, Ohio.

The fifth grade Social Studies class is studying the New England states and making collections of products from there.

We have had replies from six states to which we wrote as part of our Language work. California was the only state from which we did not receive a reply. We plan to write to several other states in the future.

In third grade we are reading pioneer stories. We are making posters depicting the life in George Washington's time and modern time.

The P.T.A. atendance award went to the third grade for the January meeting.

We want to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Kenneth Herrick for the books which she presented to our library.

BROWNVILLE KINDERGARTEN
Miss Bugbee

Happy New Year to all of you from all of us at Brownville!

This month finds us celebrating many birthdays. Those who have them are Herbie Bagby, Donnie Andrews, Linda Baaske, Eunice Bunge, Kathryn Meade, Timmy Froelich, Jimmy Miller, and Dickie Rutherford.

We have been having a unit on the Eskimos. We found that they do many things different. Wouldn't it seem strange to always crawl into your house? That is the way they get into an igloo.

Our songs and rhymes are about winter time. We wish it would snow so we could make a snowman outdoors. So far we have just been able to make them out of paper and clay.

We have started our rhythm band. We think its lots of fun to play instruments. We are also learning to write our names in manuscript.

Visitors have been Mrs. Reese, Mrs. Boldon, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Glauser, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Bagby, Mrs. Geringre, Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. Rinehart, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Oberlin, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Baaske, Mrs. Meade, Mrs. Bunge, Mrs. Froelich, and Mrs. Miller.

Don't forget Mother's Club meeting January 24.

FIRST GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Neitling

We enjoyed our Christmas vacation but it is nice to be back at work. All of us had interesting things to show and tell when we returned.

Terry Bates is new in our room. He came from Patterson School. Brenda Kelley has moved to Harrison. We were sorry to have her leave. We still have thirty-seven in our room.

Many of us are reading "Fun With Dick and Jane." Some of us will soon begin reading "Guess Who."

We are having a regular spelling class now. We spell the words orally and write them, too.

We are working very hard trying to improve our manuscript. The whole class is doing better.

FIRST GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Munger

We feel that we have accomplished a great deal during the first half of our school year. We have read about half of our primer, "Fun With Dick and Jane." Last week we finished reading the book, "Happy Days." This is our second supplementary reading book. We expect to read the book "Peter's Family."

We have finished Book One of "We Talk, Spell, and Write" and are ready to start Book Two.

In numbers we are learning to read, write, and count many numbers.

We enjoyed having Mrs. Greene as our substitute teacher—when our teacher returned from her vacation in California, she showed us pictures and told us about visiting Disney Land and other interesting places.

Recent visitors in our room were Mrs. Williamson, Mrs. Packard, and Mr. Belcher.

"Caine Mutiny" To Be in Clinton Friday, Feb. 11

The appearance of the Michigan State University Players in the presentation of "The Caine Mutiny Courtmartial" for matinee and evening shows, Feb. 11 at Clinton High for the Community Center is a phase of the unique "Cap and Gown Series" of M.S.U.

The Players are presenting Herman Wouk's dynamic drama in many communities of Michigan this term. Last year, the dramatic group took the play "The Male Animal" off campus.

In its third year of operation, this "Cap and Gown Series" project is designed to provide Michigan communities with cultural entertainment. The Glee Club, college band, State Singers, symphony orchestra, ensemble groups, M.S.U. Players, Spartan Bell Ringers, and other groups are being offered throughout the state.

More than 100,000 attended concerts and programs offered throughout Michigan by nine Michigan State music, drama and dance groups during the 1955-56 school year. The attendance at 134 programs totaled 110,235, according to John McGoff, co-ordinator for the "Cap and Gown Series" for the Continuing Education Service.

Milton E. Muelder, dean of the School of Science and Arts, points out that, "The 'Cap and Gown Series' not only will provide entertainment, but also will give our students an opportunity to receive practical application of the theories they have been taught in the classroom."

Papooses Beat Clinton Cagers

Last Thursday the two junior high basketball teams of Tecumseh won two games from Clinton's junior high teams.

The seventh grade game was a rout with Tecumseh winning, 40-13. Bill Ross was Tecumseh's leading scorer with two baskets for four points.

The eighth grade won, 36-20, with Curth Tecumseh's leading scorer with seven baskets for 14 points. Aounell was Clinton's high scorer with nine points.

NEW CLASS FORMED

The newly formed young married peoples class of the Baptist church met Friday evening at the Youth House with 50 members present. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook and Mr. and Mrs. George Green Jr. were hosts for the evening and Mr and Mrs. Lee Prettyman were in charge of games. This group will meet the fourth Friday of each month. The next meeting, Feb. 24 will be the election of officers and a name will then be chosen.

Polio Drive Here May Hit $5000

It looks like the Tecumseh-Raisin Township March of Dimes will pass the $5000 mark in funds that will be used to fight polio.

To date $4691.10 has been contributed and there is still money to be turned in to the committee.

Last Sunday about 500 diners paid a total of $2085.31 to swell the March of Dimes drive, or better than $4 per meal. Of this total, 498 paid $1085.31. Two diners, however, paid $500 each for their meals.

The committee in charge of the benefit meals publicly thank the following individuals and business places who contributed to make the benefit a success:

Earl Bryan for painting signs, A & P, Kroger, McDonald Ice Cream Co., Driggs Dairy, Kleenmaid Bread, Silvercup Baking, Frank Csokasy; ladies' organizations for their pies, Mrs. Sally Pope for chairmaning the business solicitations, employees of Don's Grill who served the meals and Don Smith for the use of his restaurant.

ALSO ARE THANKED

The committee also thanked these merchants who contributed funds for the benefit: Lad & Lassie Shop, Elmer W. Eberhardt Insurance, Kohler Real Estate, Tecumseh Electric, C. A. ### LINCOLN

The United Savings Bank and the Tecumseh office of the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association will be closed all day Monday for Lincoln's birthday. The Great Emancipator's birthday falls on Sunday but the holiday for some will be observed Monday.

City offices and the post office will remain open.

John O'Brien To Speak at C of C Dinner

John O'Brien, executive-secretary of the Adrian Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker at the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting next Tuesday night.

The dinner will be held in the United Products Workers' Union Hall at 6:45 p.m. Professional caterers will serve the meal.

Jack Osburn, president of the chamber, reports that Mayor H. H. Hanna also will speak on some of Tecumseh's future goals.

And extemporaneous remarks will be made by those who have had retail experiences in other towns before coming to Tecumseh.

Tickets for the banquet may be purchased at the M. and M. Show today, Friday, Saturday and Sunday or they may be purchased from Mr. Osburn or from the secretary's office.

President Osburn reported that the chamber has 66 members signed since Jan. 1 Sixteen of these were not members last year.

ATTEND YOUR CHURCH

The world wide church attendance movement begins Sunday and will continue through Easter Sunday.

The Tecumseh Ministerial Association, in cooperation with the HERALD, is publishing special messages on this church movement. Theme of the movement is "The Answer Is God."

Need 16 Couples for Square Dancing

"Calling All Couples! We need 16 couples to make a square dancing class," announces Delmar Crisp, director of adult education.

Registration will be Wednesday, Feb. 15 at 7 p.m. in room 14 of the high school. The usual fee of $10 per couple includes classes each Wednesday evening from 8:30 to 10:30 beginning Feb. 22 and continuing for eight weeks.

Dermont Poley, assisted by Mrs. Betty Dillon at the piano, will direct the course. While at Michigan State Normal College, Mr. Poley was a member of the college dancing troupe which traveled to various cities entertaining and aiding in the instruction of dancing. Square dance calling was part of Mr. Poley's training and experience with the troupe. As a member of the Tecumseh high school faculty, Mr. Poley is now directing youth groups in square dancing.

"REGISTER EARLY! Have fun while learning. THINK! Only $1.25 per couple per week — how else can you have more fun?", Mr. Crisp asks.

Need 67 More Band Uniforms

BY MRS. JAMES BARTON

Do you remember last year at the band festival how you turned to your neighbor and said rather remorsefully, "My, our uniforms look dull, why can't we have something snappy like those outfits?"

Well we can if you will help and will "talk it up" to all your neighbors and make this town band conscious for just two and one-half weeks. We know this is a mighty ambitious goal, to speak plainly "a big fat idea" but this committee feels it can be done just as well in a short time as over a two or three-year period. The need is now. If we order now we can have new uniforms ready for the festival in the fall. Then think how proud we will all be when we see that Tecumseh band march onto the field!

The workers have all received their material and will soon be calling on you in your home to do what you can.

Merchants will not be canvassed in stores as merchants but in their homes as individuals, just as you and I.

"If you are missed and care to contribute, get in touch with any one of the workers listed. They are all parents and members of the high school P.T.A. and realize that it is up to them to get out and get this job done. If you care to send a check it can be sent to Mrs. James Elliott and made payable to "T.H.S. Band Uniform Fund."

Feb. 25 a dance will be held in the high school gym as the close of our uniform campaign and as a community party. Your ticket will be the piece of uniform you bought. There will be cards in other rooms for those who do not care to dance.

We are happy to announce that the first whole uniform was purchased last Thursday by Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Blanden. Former band parents have contributed a balance that was left in the treasury and other contributions to date make it—three down and 67 to go.

The list of workers follows: Herrick Park: Mrs. John Tomorsky, Mrs. Frank Owen, Mrs. Clarence Champanois, Mrs. Donald LaBounty, Mrs. William Hanna and Mrs. Stanley Kruse.

River Acres: Mrs. Herman Koelbel, Mrs. Ted Rundell, Mrs. Earl Kruger.

Tecumseh Acres: Mrs. Robert Williamson, Mrs. George Rhinehart, Mrs. Kenneth Ross, Mrs. Melvin Smith and Mrs. Mahlon Lord.

Indian Acres: Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Wotring, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Francouer and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Vincze.

Northeast section of town: Mrs. Oakley Baxter, Mrs. A. Jeschke, Mrs. Ronald Johnston, Mrs. Anna Grigg, Mrs. Ray Puffer, Jr., Mrs. Irwin Richardson and Mrs. Paul Hadsell.

Southwest section of town: Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mrs. Donald Beevers, Mrs. Harold Butler, Mrs. Harold Hicks, Mrs. Ronald VanValkenburg, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, Mrs. Curtis Wright, Mrs. Harry Graham, Mrs. Charles Pearson, Mrs. Dave Dick, Mrs. Francis Packard, Mrs. Rolland Reister and Mrs. John Curth.

Northwest section of town: Mrs. LeRoy Titley, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Mrs. Herbert Hoag, Mrs. Kenneth Ringman, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mrs. Harold Morey, Mrs. John Surratt, Mrs. Jack Hanna, Mrs. Eleanor Eddy and Mrs. Oscar Bryan.

West end: Wilmer Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Purkey, Mrs. Charles Irelan, Murray Day and Mrs. Russell Mitzner.

Ridgeway: Mrs. Nilwen Bishop and Mrs. Russell Schultz.

Macon highway: Mrs. Clarence Damon.

Milwaukee Road: Mrs. George Kimerer.

oton: Mrs. Morris Cornell.

Industrial: Don Nixon, Kenneth Herrick and E. J. Crawford.

MOTORIST FOUND GUILTY OF LEAVING ACCIDENT SCENE

James H. McGuire, 46 years old, of Tecumseh, was found guilty of leaving the scene of a personal injury accident by Judge Rex Martin in circuit court Thursday.

McGuire waived a jury trial.

McGuire, who was remanded to the county jail to await a pre-sentence investigation, was charged with driving away after his automobile was involved in a four-car accident Nov. 1, 1955, about two miles west of Tecumseh.

Mrs. Diane Dinse of 2825 Division Highway, and her four-year-old daughter, Vickie, suffered face cuts. They were passengers in one of the cars driven by William Dinse.

The other drivers were George Daggit of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. Ruth Stuart of Tecumseh.

---

CARD PARTY SET

The Patterson PTA card party will be held Thursday, Feb. 9, at 8 p.m. in the school gym. The public is invited to attend.

M.&M. Show Expects 5000

The committee in charge of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Merchants' and Manufacturers' Show scheduled for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday in the United Products Workers' Union Hall expect a crowd of 5000 to attend. They report that this year's show will surpass the show last year. Thirty-four merchants will have 38 displays.

This will mark the first time that the newly remodeled union hall has been open to the public.

The show, as it was last year, is a benefit for the VFW's building fund.

Prizes will be awarded each night of the show and a live radio show from WABJ will be a highlight Saturday and Sunday when Keith Roper, disc jockey, will spin some platters and interview persons attending and merchants.

The following merchants will display:

Des Ermia's Home Furnishings, Tecumseh Camera Shop, Clinton Woolen Mills, Wolf's Appliances, Wes Haeussler, Cabinet Maker, Delbert E. King Insurance, Williamson Home Improvement, John Shutt Real Estate, Tecumseh Farm Equipment, WABJ, VFW, Baldwin Hardware, Custom Wrought Iron, Harold H. Every Stran-Steel Buildings, Servisoft, Blanks Appliances & Bottled Gas, Tecumseh Lumber Co., Butler Motor Sales.

Break into Police Station in Search of Their Bottle

A search for a bottle of cognac taken away from them by Tecumseh policemen prompted three men early Sunday morning to break into the local police station to find their bottle.

But they never found the bottle which was locked in the gun cabinet.

This is what happened:

About 3 a.m. police found four men drinking from a bottle and meanwhile their car blocked an alley. Police told them to go home and the bottle was taken away by the officers.

A few minutes later Filipe Vallez, 22, of Tecumseh, returned to the police station and demanded that the bottle be returned to him.

He was arrested on a drunk and disorderly charge and officers left the station to take Valdez to Adrian to be booked at the jail.

When the patrolmen returned to Tecumseh they saw the same car that had blocked the alley in front of the station and a man had a clock calendar and a police radio.

The man, Joseph Valdez, 25, of

ROTARIANS WILL FETE THEIR LADIES

The Tecumseh Rotary Club will entertain their ladies Tuesday, March 6, at a dinner in the high school gym.

Dave Slayton, Boston humorist, will be the speaker.

Tickets will be available from Rotarians after next Tuesday. Heading the ticket committee are Glenn Kohler, John Surratt, B. O. Bashore, Yale Kerby and Chuck Butler. The dinner is open to the public.

STEALS FROM CARS

John McMillan, 25, of Monroe waived examination on the charge of larceny from an automobile when he was arraigned before Justice L. J. VanDeusen of Clinton Wednesday, Feb. 1.

He was bound over to circuit court trial on a $200 bond.

McMillan is accused of stealing from automobiles in the parking lot at Tecumseh Products Co. Tecumseh police made the arrest Wednesday, Feb. 1.

Nine Men Seek Four Council Posts

Interest in the coming city council election Monday, April 2, is increasing. Mrs. Naomi Sallows reports that so far 13 nominating petitions have been taken out. Persons wishing to try for the four vacant seats on the council have until Monday, Feb. 20, to get nominating petitions circulating.

Thirty-five signatures of registered electors are required on the petitions which may have as many as 60 signatures of registered electors. Individuals may sign only four petitions, the number of vacant council posts.

Six nominating petitions have been taken out by Paul Snyder, manager of the Fraternal Order of Eagles here. But since there are only four posts open, only four of the petitions are circulating. Names on these petitions include Mr. Snyder's and M. H. Thielan, Tecumseh contractor; Marvin Rumpf, of the Rumpf Truck Lines; and Gilbert Nighswander of the General Phone Co. who works in central office equipment department.

TAKES OUT FOUR

Jack Osburn took out four nominating petitions. Names on these petitions include Don Purkey, incumbent, and Don Brazee, Tecumseh high school teacher. Mr. Osburn said: "I still have to get two more." He has two or three men in mind but as yet they have not consented to run.

R. H. Moore, one of the four present councilmen whose term expires, has declined to seek re-election. But he took out a nominating petition for Hal Kelso, former city councilman.

Mr. Moore said: "I spent a year on the city charter commission and two years on the council. I think I have served long enough."

HAVEN'T DECIDED

So far there are nine men seeking the four vacant council posts and so far Mayor H. H. Hanna and councilman LeRoy H. Titley, incumbents, have not said whether they will seek re-election.

Chances are good that a field of at least 11 men, perhaps even some women, may seek the four empty council seats this spring.

PAYROLL

The total payroll at the Tecumseh Products Co. in 1955 was $19,338,000, according to the recent "T P. Broadcast," company news magazine.

The article pointed out that 10 years ago the total annual payroll was $2,343,000.

It also reported that in 1955 the peak employment was about 4830. And on Jan. 27 4300 were on the payroll.

The article also stated that top management believes 1956 will be as good or better than 1955.

Local Civil Suits Go to Court

Several civil law suits are now in process in circuit court.

H. W. and Glee Elizabeth Dillon have filed answer to a complaint brought by William B. and Iva G. Hotrum for back payment of rent on leased property. The Dillons claim a recoupment of loss of rental to sub-tenants and for repair of the building which, they say, they paid for.

Milton Wagner of Adrian claims that C. A. and Luella Seitz of Tecumseh failed to execute a marketable title for a lot in Tecumseh which they agreed to sell to him.

E. E. Shirey of Tecumseh asks for payment of rent on premises in Tecumseh from D. L. Green of Tecumseh. Mr. Green in answer claims that rent had been reduced when part of the premises became a parking lot.

Meanwhile, a suit for damages brought by Roy Carr of Adrian against the city of Tecumseh and the city's consulting engineers McNamee, Porter and Seeley of Ann Arbor has been dismissed by an agreement among the attorneys.

The dispute developed from damage to an underground phone cable.

DIRECTORY DELAYED

Inquiries have been received by the executive board of the Business and Professional Woman's Club regarding the date of publication of the city directory for which they gathered the data.

There has been a delay due to the renumbering and renaming of a few streets for which council approval is necessary.

Later announcement will be made of the publication date. Meanwhile, orders will still be taken by club members.

DANCE SET SAT.

A "Sadie Hawkins" dance for teenagers is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce this Saturday evening. Dancing will be in the gymnasium of Central building from 9 to 12 p.m. and there will be a "live orchestra." While this is a teen club activity, any teenager will be welcome and dancing is free. The evening will be chaperoned.

PLAN COFFEE HOUR

Following the "Caine Mutiny Court Martial" in Clinton Saturday night, there will be a coffee hour at the Community House with Mrs. Joseph Lane and Mrs. Don Thomas as hostesses. General chairman of the event will be Mrs. Henry P. Vaughn, who has been director of the Clinton Players for several years.

---

GETS PROBATION

Walter Conklin, 17, of Battle Creek, was put on two years probation by Judge Rex Martin in circuit court Friday.

Conklin, who had pleaded guilty to cashing a check for which he had no funds in the bank, was also ordered to make restitution of $120.50 and to pay $50 costs.

Conklin was arrested in Tecumseh after he cashed the check here Oct. 29.

Men Will Be Women in Jaycee Play

Do not be alarmed if you see a male acquaintance tripping down the street clinging to an imaginary skirt with one hand and powdering his nose with the other — chances are the poor guy's a member of the "Womanless Wedding" cast and is merely practicing his role for the big show, scheduled for Friday and Saturday nights of next week, Feb. 17 and 18 in the United Products Workers' Union Hall at 8:30 p.m.

Approximately 50 well-known men of the community will be featured in the show, many of the them appearing in feminine garb. By the magic touch of rouge, lipstick and powder, mere males will be transformed into charming matrons and "glamour gals."

Part of the fun will be an opportunity for the audience to participate in the antics, as the men troop through the aisles on the way to the stage.

R. H. Moore has been chosen for the role of the "blushing bride." The groom's identity will remain a secret until the first performance.

The performance satirizes a society wedding and rambles merrily along through the gathering of families and friends. Many burst into songs and dances. Unexpected guests arrive. The weeping mother, the small-fry brother and sister who get into all kinds of mischief, celebrites of radio, screen and television all mingle with the country cousin, the old maid aunt and many others.

This all culminates in a spectacular bridal procession.

Mrs. Robert Bonner Elected President of Monday Club

Thirty-five members of the Monday Club braved the icy streets to attend the regular meeting at the Methodist church Monday afternoon. A silver offering was taken as the club's contribution to the March of Dimes and the secretary was requested to send a note of thanks to the Music Club for the part their chorus took in making the recent dinner meeting a success.

One dollar was voted to the Penny Art Fund and it was announced that this year the club might sponsor four candidates for the Interlocken scholarship in the categories of piano, vocal, instrumental and band.

It was reported that the club was represented at the Feb. 2 meeting of the county federation by the president, Mrs. Herbert Murphy, Mrs. Truman Rentschler, Mrs. Guy Pocklington, Miss Edith Ingersoll, Mrs. E. H. McConnell and Mrs. Floyd Bryan.

Announcement was made of the drama night to be presented by the county federation at the Adrian Public Library the evening of March 23 and also of the production of "Caine Mutiny Court Scene" by the M.S.U. players in the high school gymnasium in Clinton, Saturday, Feb. 11. There will be a special student matinee and the evening performance will be followed by a coffee hour at the new community center.

Members were urged to write their legislators favoring passage of the bill of Rep. Emil Peltz regarding conservation measures especially forbidding roadside hunting.

The nominating committee's report was given and accepted, resulting in the election of the following officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Robert Bonner; first vice president, Mrs. Paul Hadsell; second vice president, Mrs. J. Quigley; recording secretary, Mrs. Ted LaBounty; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Clarence Brock; treasurer, Mrs. Carlos Jones; board members, Mrs. Fred Marsh and Mrs. Mel Partridge.

Mrs. Perry Hayden was in charge of the program, the topic of which was "Music of My Country." She divided the subject in various phases giving an outline of each. The first was music of the home and it was illustrated by Mrs. Harley McConnell singing, "The House I Live In". She was accompanied by Mrs. E. H. McConnell. This was followed by hymns and colored spirituals with Mrs. McConnell singing, "Deep River." The third category was the songs of Stephen Foster and Mrs. William Hayden played a medley of his compositions as a piano solo.

With Mrs. W. G. Waldron at the piano the club then whistled or hummed the patriotic songs, "Yankee Doodle," "Johnny Comes Marching Home," and "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean" and the program came to an end with Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. McConnell playing "The Stars and Stripes Forever" as a piano duet.

The drama department will be in charge of the next meeting, Feb. 20 which will also be held at the Methodist church.

The hostesses served heart shaped cookies and tea from a table with Valentine decorations highlighted by a centerpiece of red carnations and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. Bonner and Mrs. Jones presided at the tea services.

Wholesalers Lead Drivers

Wholesalers are still displaying their outstanding safe driving record, holding onto the top spot in the new survey completed by the State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company of Bloomington, Illinois, according to Delbert E. King, local agent for the firm, at Tecumseh.

Periodically, State Farm Mutual, the biggest auto insurance company in the world, takes a statistical look at the accident experience of its own policyholders — now at the 4,000,000 mark — and ranks the passenger car drivers according to their occupations.

Among the 64 occupational groups classified, proprietors and managers of wholesale establishments held onto first place — indicating that they consider themselves and their cars as valuable merchandise and recognize the profit in careful driving.

LADIES DON'T BUDGE

In the previous survey in 1953, housewives were complimented for their standing in twenty-eighth place, ahead of many male groups. Since then the ladies, smugly or not, have settled down in a rut and haven't budged from the spot.

Law enforcement officials have moved up toward the front of the line. Though they're not leading the safe driving parade, they're well up in seventh place. And this shows progress, for the watchdogs of the law ranked fourteenth in the insurance company's last previous survey.

Also rising substantially from their own previous standings are doctors, barbers and beauticians, rural mail carriers, and federal and state officials.

Farmers continue to cultivate safe driving habits. They're rolling along in fifth place, showing their taillights to many city slickers and leading all other major occupational groups as safe drivers. But their hired help plowed from thirty-fifth down ot the forty-seventh row in the standings.

With a sharp eye, perhaps, on the fact that fewer accidents help bring lower insurance rates, policyholders in the financial field proceeded cautiously from a previous eighth up to a sound number three position.

TEACHERS SET MARK

Teachers are setting a good example with a number six mark to their credit. But the students are still down near the foot of the class with a flunking 62. Likewise, commissioned military officers advanced 10 steps to position 30 — but enlisted military personnel still bring up the rear in sixty-fourth place as passenger car drivers.

Editors, reporters and photographers followed a middle-of-the-road policy, seemingly, in their own driving experience. A look at the current State Farm survey discloses the gentlemen of the fourth estate in twenty-sixth place, stuck in the middle of the column right where they were before.

And lawyers have to work up a defense case for their driving, with the evidence showing a slight drop from fiftieth to fifty-second.

STRUGGLE TAKES PLACE

Quite a dramatic struggle takes the spotlight in the back part of the field — where the people in the liquor industry fifty-seventh are breathing down the necks of the motoring clergy, fifty-sixth.

On the downhill side, auto salesmen skidded from thirty-second to a low, low forty-fifth. The figures kicked veterinarians from twenty-second down to thirty-third. And undertakers buried their record 43-deep, after a previous dignified eighteenth.

Mr. King points out that this study is based solely on accident claim losses related to premiums among State Farm Mutual's own policyholders. The results are meant to show an interesting comparison of the accident experience of occupational groups as passenger car drivers, without reflecting local situations or any individual's driving habits

And people in many occupations can find some comfort when they look down the list and discover: "Insurance agents and brokers — forty-ninth."

Scout Assoc. Will Present Musical Program in March

Forty members of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association including leaders, assistant leaders, committee members and officers met at the Scout cabin last Wednesday morning from 9:15 until 11 discussing the activities of the scouting program.

The president, Mrs. Howard Truesdale, opened the meeting with a flag ceremony by Mrs. Victor Peterson, Mrs. Frank Robinette, Mrs. Julius Vincze, and Mrs. Melvin Purple.

The following new leaders were presented Girl Scout pins by the president assisted by Mrs. Julius Vincze during an appropriate ceremony: Mesdames Orville Bishop, Russell Cooper, Don Creger, Kenneth Herrick, Ralph Hodges, Stanley Miller, Jack Nichols, Charles Sinkey and Arthur Woodward.

Mrs. Truman Rentschler, chairman of the Thinking Day plans, announced that troop 11 of senior scouts have arranged a program of movies depicting world friendship to be shown Tuesday evening, Feb. 21 to the intermediate and senior scouts and again on Wednesday afternoon after school to the Brownies at places to be announced later.

Another leaders' training course is expected to begin this month with Mrs. Arthur Bowser as the volunteer leader trainer.

The association voted to produce a musical and variety program which will be presented to the public sometime during Girl Scout Week in March. Mrs. LeRoy Tilley was appointed general chairman of this affair. There will also be Brownie Scout and Girl Scout jamborees during that week.

During the meeting Mrs. George Derby, Mrs. Kenneth McKenroe and Mrs. J. F. Dennis were hostesses for the coffee hour. There will be an election of officers at the next meeting which will be in April.

Field and Stream

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

Michigan's ring-necked pheasants started the winter in excellent condition and a recently-completed census shows populations of the state's most popular game bird to be the highest in a number of years.

Some 535 southern Michigan mail carriers, burdened under the Christmas rush, took time to count ringnecks for the Conservation Department, Dec. 5-17. The carriers drove 324,000 rural miles on their mail routes in the two-week period and counted more than 21,000 pheasants, an average of more than six per 100 miles, the highest average of recent record.

Another happy factor was the high ratio of hens to male birds, an average of more than four to one for the whole pheasant range. Such a ratio indicates both that hunting was good and that the wintering flock is in healthy proportions for the coming year. Hunters took an estimated 1,250,000 ringnecks in 1955.

The best areas, as in past years, were the Thumb counties and Ottawa county, where carriers counted an average of 18 birds per 100 miles.

The Dec. count is a post-hunting season summary to indicate both what happened during the season and to take an early check on pre-winter conditions.

---

Ice fishing, an enjoyable wintertime activity on many Michigan lakes, can be marred by accidents due to carelessness.

Wise ice fishermen say the popular sport needn't be dangerous if a few safety rules are observed:

1. Stay off the ice during thawing spells. Prolonged freezing temperatures are necessary for ice to freeze solidly.
2. Don't build fires on the ice.
3. Don't gather on the ice in large groups unless the ice is at least four inches thick.
4. Warn ice fishermen of dangerous ice conditions when you are familiar with such conditions.
5. Should you accidentally break through the ice, don't try to climb out. Instead, extend both arms along the surface of the ice, then kick vigorously. This will help to lift the body forward and then — roll to safety.
6. When attempting to help someone wo has broken through the ice, lie down flat and push some object (stick, plank, pole, etc.) to him. Don't stand up near the edge of a broken ice field and never attempt a swimming rescue.

Hunters have returned 5200 post cards — 50 per cent of the total — in the Conservation Department's annual information poll of the firearm deer season.

Some 3000 cards are still unreturned and the Department plans to mail 2200 more before the statistical survey of the 1955 season is completed.

Also, 4500 cards will be mailed on the small game season, 2300 on archery deer, 200 on camp deer and 1200 in a special opinion poll. These mailings will probably all get under way in Feb., depending on how quickly license dealers return license information.

Three sets of campers braved ice, snow and freezing temperatures to camp in three state parks in Jan.

Camping permits were issued in Pontiac Lake and East Tawas state parks during the month and two youngsters set up a tent at Island Lake recreation area under permission of manager Roy Russell, who didn't have any permits available.

The trio of hardy tenters are the vanguard of 110,000 campers who will spend overnight stays in state parks this year.

Loans of Conservation Department films to schools, sportsmen's clubs and other groups reached a record high of 5044 last year.

During the record-setting year, some 728,000 persons attended showings of department films. The previous high total was achieved in 1954, when 3877 motion picture loans were made.

Under a new policy, groups may borrow films covering 37 subjects without charge, except for return postage. In the past, persons borrowing films were required to pay all postage.

Complete listings of films, most of which are in sound and color, are available from Conservation Department film loan offices in Lansing.

Painting Is Indoor Play for Tiny Tots

Potato printing is an interesting indoor activity that will keep your active pre-school child busy for several hours during these cold winter days.

Grace Harrison, child development instructor at Michigan State University, explains that the only supplies necessary are a large potato, a saucer, a small sponge, some tempera paint and paper.

First, cut the potato in half. With a paring knife, cut a circle, a square or just a few slashes in the flat side of the potato. Then, thin some tempera paint to the consistency of coffee cream and put it in the saucer. Set in the sponge and let it absorb the paint. The sponge eliminates splashing that occurs when just a saucer is used, but it is not absolutely necessary.

Before letting your tiny tot go to work with the paints, put an apron on him to protect his clothing. Seat him at a table with the equipment in the basement or the kitchen where any accident can be easily wiped up.

For paper, you can use brown wrapping paper, newsprint or whatever is available. Show your child how to dip the potato into the dish containing the sponge and paint and place it on the paper. Then let him do it alone. He will be thrilled with the pattern that appears on his paper.

Specialist Harrison points out that the process of making something by himself is very enjoyable to a child. So, encourage him by hanging his finished pattern up for the whole family to see.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

from The Bible

Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. —(Romans 5, 1.)

We have faith that the sun will rise tomorrow; that when we turn them on, the electric light, the TV and the radio will work . . . belief in the operation of powers we cannot see or comprehend. Why, then, does our faith in God often falter? Without it, we can have no peace.

U-M Astronomer Tells Reason For Leap Year

Everyone knows 1956 is a "leap" year, but how many know why?

Part of the answer is that 1956 is evenly divisible by four, says University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

The earth's rotation and revolution cycles are not evenly coordinated, which complicated ancient calendar making. The Romans tried to straighten things out by adding an extra day to every year whose number was evenly divisible by four. By 1582 they had allowed three too many leap years for every four centuries, Professor Losh notes.

Pope Gregory XIII then took a hand to correct the situation. He decided that this division by four system should be kept but that century years should only be leap years when divisible by 400. This cut down the number of extra days being added every several years.

"There's still inaccuracy in the Gregorian system which we use today, but it only amounts to about 26 seconds a year. It will be 3000 years before our calendar and the Sun will be out of step by as much as one day," Professor Losh says. If we had continued to use the Roman calendar we'd now be about 16 days out of step.

Two bright evening planets will make their appearances this month. Venus will shine in the southwest twilight, and Jupiter will rise a little north of east soon after sunset, Professor Losh points out.

The constellation Leo the Lion is also climbing over the horizon a little north of east after sunset. It can be recognized by its sickle-shaped group of stars. And if you prolong a line through the bowl stars next to the handle in the Big Dipper it will guide you to Regulus, the brightest star in Leo.

Regulus is 100 times as luminous as our Sun and about 84 light years distant from us, says the astronomer. If this star were suddenly bl[illegible] it would be just that many years before we would know about it.

Valentines Made Hearts Flutter in 1856 Too

Valentines made hearts beat faster 100 years ago just as they do today, according to a diary in the possession of the University of Michigan Historical Collections.

"This morning I wrote and copied a valentine to George Talbot," Elizabeth Gurney, a 15-year-old girl, living in St. Joseph County near Constantine and Three Rivers, writes in her journal on Feb. 14, 1856.

She continues, "About three o'clock I took it over to have Newland (a boy-friend but not THE boy-friend) mail it so George would not know where it came from."

"This week in the paper," Lizzie comments, "there was a valentine verse headed "Consolation" and directed 'to Lizzie' with seven stars after. I though that it fit me exactly. I spoke to Newland about it, and he said it was intended for me but he would not tell me the author's name. I have cut it out for safe-keeping.

"I received one comic valentine today and one that I can not read by candle-light but I will try and make it out tomorrow morn," she concluded.

Run, Don't Count!

"Some folks running around counting calories really might be better off if they did more running and less counting," says Mrs. Alice Smith, Michigan Department of Health nutritionist.

Mrs. Smith reports some people asking for health department help in fighting off fat worry about calorie-counting, but shrug-off exercise and by-pass needed proteins, minerals and vitamins.

"Too many people," she says, "eat sparingly, then loll about and wonder why the waistline keeps expanding. Weight control depends on balancing food intake with energy output."

The health department nutritionist also says that even a good calorie-regulated meal falls short of nutrition if it lacks needed proteins, minerals and vitamins.

"Calories [illegible] yardstick to measure energy in food," Mrs. Smith explains. "But you can regulate calories and short yourself on protein which you need for all body tissues and good muscle tone, or minerals which you need for bones and teeth."

Warning that, "A homemade reduction diet may be worse than a few added pounds," Mrs. Smith said the health department is glad to assist with weight control, "but serious dieting to lose weight is a matter you should take up with your own doctor."

Deerfield, was arrested for larceny from a building. He told patrolmen that two others in his party teased him into breaking into the station to find the bottle of cognac.

Police found a jacket inside the station. They also found two men in a car in the parking lot behind the station. They were Richard L. Henkel, 26, of Tecumseh and Edward Swensen, 23, of Tipton.

Henkel picked up the jacket and wore it when he came into the station, officers said.

The station had been entered from a rear window and desks and cabinets had been ransacked. A number of keys, a stapling machine and a cartridge also were missing.

Monday Filipe Valdez pleaded guilty before Justice Robert French. He was fined $20 and $8.60 costs.

Appearing before Justice John Lowe Monday, charged with breaking and entering, Joe Valdez, waived examination and was bound over to circuit court. Bail was set at $1,000. Edward M. Swensen, and Richard L. Henkel stood mute and an examination was demanded for them by Justice Lowe. Bail was set at $1,000 each. An examination for Henkel was scheduled Feb. 16, and an examination for Swensen was scheduled next Tuesday.

Agriculture Program at Tecumseh High Is One of Finest in State

By Paul Burns, Agriculture Department

No doubt many people in primary districts considering annexation to Tecumseh are wondering about the opportunities for their children in vocational agriculture and F.F.A. activities in Tecumseh high school.

Tecumseh high school is offering an outstanding program for its agriculture students. It also offers an adult farmer class open to any adult in the school district who is interested in furthering his education in this field.

The high school programs for the pupils are as follows: the ninth grade instruction consists mainly of livestock and introduction to F.F.A. activities both local and state. In the tenth grade major emphasis is placed on crops, in the eleventh farm mechanics and soils, and in the twelfth grade farm management and farm mechanics are the main subjects of instruction.

However, since an integrated system of teaching is used a student may receive a little of each subject every year. The students receive six credits for a complete program of vocational agriculture.

GETS PRACTICAL WORK

Since Tecumseh high school has an agriculture lab, one of the few in the state, the students in all classes receive practical experience in such things as mixing sprays, castrating pigs, dressing broilers and mixing feed. The lab is also used for demonstrations when classroom use would be impractical.

F.F.A. work is required of all male students, and offers much practical experience to the boys. Last year the F.F.A. boys bought and paid for a new Super C. Farmall tractor, plow, cultivators, and side dressing attachment. This year they plan to buy a disk. The tractor is used to give the boys practical experience in its safe operation and maintenance. It is used on the 20 acres which the school has provided for the boys' practical experience.

Through the courtesy of the Schneider Brothers' Garage the chapter has a 1955 one-half ton pick-up truck which is used on all of the chapters group projects.

GET CROP EXPERIENCE

On 10 acres of land a crop rotation of two acres each of corn, soybeans, oats, wheat and alfalfa is maintained. This rotation gives boys experience in the most important crops in this area. On the remaining 10 acres the boys grow one or two of the above crops for additional experience and profit. The profit is used for educational trips, awards and furthering other chapter activities.

In addition to the 20 acres of crops they feed off six feeder pigs a year, raise 500 broilers and have a registered Duroc pib chain consisting of three gilts placed on boys' farms. These gilts are given to the boys to help them become established in farming.

On all of these projects the boys keep accurate records of cost and efficiency so that it will help them understand the business side of farming. Last year the boys handled $4,300 in their F.F.A. activities.

BOYS ARE AWARDED

Every year the boys are given awards for their participation in F.F.A. activites based on a point system. Awards amount to about $250 for 45 students. Every other year the students in Agriculture III take a trip to the Livestock International Show in Chicago. The chapter pays about two-thirds of the way and the boy one-third depending on the total points he has earned on the point system.

Last year the chapter was voted one of the top 15 chapters in the state by the state department of vocational education.

The instructor in agriculture and farm mechanics has both a bachelor's and a master's degree from Michigan State University.

It is hoped that this article will give you some idea of the quality and scope of the agricultural department of Tecumseh high school.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

FOR YEARS RESIDENTS on Burt street had no city water. Now they have. And the water pressure there is so great, one of the residents reports, that pans are knocked right out of hands.

A FINE BUNCH OF hungry slate-colored Juncos have joined other beauties at the smorgasbord on the bird feeding station in the back yard.

A WOE-BEGONE, HUNGRY and cold man who called himself Al Merz was wandering and wondering around the city Tuesday night in search of the meeting place of the chamber of commerce dinner. He looked even more woe-begone when he was told that his club members, Rotarians, while he was wandering around, were enjoying a fine, hot meal in the Methodist church and that the chamber dinner is not until next Tuesday night.

MR. AND MRS. CLYDE BAILEY whose home is beside Evans creek west of the city were surprised by a flock of robins Saturday. They counted at least nine and there were more that would not stand still long enough to be counted. The Baileys have been hosts to a flicker all winter also, a bird that is not a common winter resident here.

WOULD YOU PAY a buck to see big Bob Moore as a blushing and gushing bride? It would be well worth it.

WHEN THE TECUMSEH five-year-old came home from school, his mother asked:

"And what did mama's little darling learn at school today?"

The five-year-old "darling" who had recently been emulating Roy Rogers, Gene Autry, Superman and Davy Crockett, blurted:

"I learned two guys not to call me mama's little darling."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK—He that does good for good's sake, seeks neither praise nor reward, but he is sure of both in the end. — William Penn

. . Council Proceedings . .

CITY OF TECUMSEH
COUNCIL MEETING
February 6, 1956

Present: Mayor Hanna; Councilmen Hamilton, Moore, Powell, Purkey, Schwartz, Titley.

Absent: None.

Meeting opened with the invocation by Clerk Sallows.

Minutes of the meeting held January 16, 1956 were read and approved and ordered placed on file in the clerk's office.

Motion Purkey and seconded Powell the bills amounting to $16,979.39 be allowed and orders drawn up for the same. Motion carried unanimously.

The following ordinance was read for the third reading.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS it is deemed in the best interest of the safety of the populace that some restrictions be placed upon the use of firearms within the city limits.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS: (Eff. 1 March 1956)

1 It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt or trap wild game within the City of Tecumseh.

2. It shall be unlawful for any person to intentionally fire or discharge a gun within the City of Tecumseh. PROVIDED THAT this provision shall not apply to any peace officer of the State or any subdivision thereof who is regularly employed and paid by the State or such subdivision, or to any member of the army, navy or marine corps of the United States or of organizations authorized by law to purchase or receive weapons from the United States or from this State, nor to the National Guard, or other duly authorized military organization when on duty or drill, nor to the members thereof in going to or returning from their customary places of assembly or practice.

3. These provisions shall not apply to persons engaged in extermination of pests with the City, who have first obtained a permit therefor from the Chief of Police. Nor to those persons shooting rats at the City Dump. Nor do these provisions apply to a land owner engaged in hunting or in target practice upon his own land; nor to those persons accompaning him; nor to those bearing written permission from him.

4. Those persons found guilty of a violation of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED:

Mayor: H. H. Hanna
Clerk: Naomi Sallows

Dated: 5 December 1955

Motion Moore and seconded Schwartz to adopt the foregoing ordinance. Motion carried unanimously.

The following ordinance was presented for the first reading.

ORDINANCE

WHEREAS divers complaints have been received in connection with the parking of motor vehicles between the curb and the sidewalk in certain areas of the City; and

WHEREAS such parking is unsightly and is a danger [illegible] as visibility is affected.

NOW THEREFORE THE CITY OF TECUMSEH ORDAINS:

1. Effective 1 March 1956, there shall be added to Section 3.520 of the Codified Ordinances of the City of Tecumseh the following:

g. Parking prohibited between curb line and sidewalk. No person shall park any vehicle between the near margin of the street and the sidewalk; nor may any person park any vehicle between the near line of the street and a position of ten feet to the interior of such near line, if there be no sidewalk.

Motion Moore and seconded Powell to accept the City Manager's Report as read and the same be placed on file in the City Office. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hamilton and seconded to adjourn the meeting.

Mayor: H. H. Hanna
Clerk: Naomi Sallows

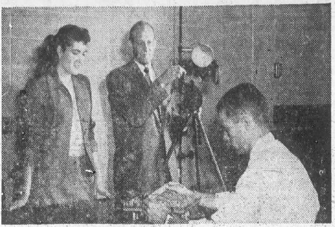
Student Engineers Solve Big Problems With Wayne U.'s Little Chronocyclegraph



Gerald Clark of Wayne University's Industrial Engineering department, demonstrates his simplified Chronocyclegraph to Diana Hayes, Dearborn mechanical engineering senior. The camera records on film the light patterns made by tiny bulbs placed on the fingers of William Johnson, industrial engineering senior from Grosse Pointe Woods. Johnson is using an industrial time-saving device.

A simple little gadget with a big name—Chronocyclegraph — is helping to eliminate "waste motion" for many Detroit companies.

This camera device, used by engineering students at Wayne University in Detroit, was adapted by Gerald Clark, assistant professor of industrial engineering.

How many motions does it take for a man to get a fountain pen from his pocket?

Putting his machine to work, Clark found that it takes 15 movements to get the pen from pocket into writing position. In contrast, only three movements are needed to get a pen from a desk holder ready for writing.

Frank Gilbreth, whose life was made into the movie, "Cheaper by the Dozen," was the father of motion study. He invented the idea of using a camera which recorded on film the trace made by light on a subject's finger. The time element was not present in his first device, so Gilbreth continued his experimentation until his cyclegraph film showed a series of dots, each representing an interval of time.

Clark began working with the Chronocyclegraph in November, 1952. He wanted to "freeze" a motion path so that people not skilled in motion analysis could understand the study. But, Gilbreth's machine was too expensive and had limitation's for Clark's purposes. So after many experiments, he devised Wayne's simplified Chronocyclegraph

Clark's machine interrupts the light by a fast opening and closing shutter affixed to a Polaroid land camera. This is in contrast to Gilbreth's device which caused the light to turn on and off on the subject's finger.

The person to be studied wears a small container strapped to his wrists. This container has two pencil flashlight batteries and a switch. The batteries are connected to a miniature bulb and placed on a finger. As the subject moves, the light bulbs on his finger trace a continuous path of movement. A revolving shutter on the camera lens breaks this continuous trace into a series of dots. Movements are then interpreted in terms of time.

One of the problems solved by students in the College of Engineering laboratory was for a paper products manufacturer who wanted a quicker method for assembling carton dividers.

Students devised a new-type divider and used the Chronocyclegraph to analyse and demonstrate the new method.

"Students using the improved method were able to get 33 per cent more production than an expert using the old method without any additional effort," Clark explained.

The Chronocyclegraph has been used by companies with only a dozen employees as well as some of the largest firms in the country. It is used primarily as a teaching tool for studying motion patterns

Boysville's Knights Lose Six'h Court Game, 62-47

Boysville's Fighting Knights lost their sixth League of the Lakes basketball game to Manchester Friday night, losing 62 to 47. Boysville now has a 1-5 league record.

Manchester romped to a 23 to 11 first quarter lead and at the half the score was 34 to 21. The Dutchmen added a pair of 13-point quarters after intermission while the Knights, unable to overcome a big early lead by the Dutchmen, added 15 and 11.

Center John Murray with four field goals and nine charity tosses was high scorer for the Knights with 17 points. Bob Temerowski added 14.

Lead

Hillsdale, playing without the services of their high scoring guard Don Bohannon backed into the lead of the Southeastern League Friday night with an easy 63 to 43 win over Bedford.

Tecumseh was idle so the Indians could not keep pace with the Hornets who now lead with a 5-1 record. Tecumseh has a 4-1 league record.

Dave Granger, a six foot, five bean pole was leading Hornet scorer with 19 points.

In other Southeastern League action Airport measured Monroe Catholic Central with a 77 to 51 win.

Britton Rally Falls Short, Loses to SC

A spirited rally in the final period fell short for the Britton-Macon Tories Friday night as they dropped a thriller to Sand Creek, second place team in the Little Six. The score was 56-53.

The teams were even at the end of the first period with 10 all but the Aggies gained six points on the Tories in the second period, 12-6 to lead 22-16 at intermission. In the third period the Aggies added four more points to their lead, outscoring Britton-Macon 22-18.

At the beginning of the final period the Aggies were enjoying a 10-point lead. Here Britton utilized a full court press and overcame the lead to tie the score with only two minutes of time left.

But victory was denied when Sand Creek added a free throw and field goal to gain the win.

Knisel led the Aggies with 22 points. Munk added 11 and Ferrier 10.

Hitting double figures for the Tories were Bruce with 12, Rhora with 11, and Croll and Patterson with 10 each.

Britton won the prelim, 59 to 46.

Baby Indians Continue Streaks

Last Thursday Tecumseh high's two junior high teams won two games from Manchester, the seventh grade winning 22 to 4 and the eighth grade team winning, 29 to 7.

The seventh graders were off balance in the first half and no one was breaking for the basket.

Bill Ross scored all of Tecumseh's four points in the first half while the Indians were holding the Dutchmen to two points.

Tecumseh really began to roll in the second half, scoring 18 points while holding Manchester to two more points.

Creech, a little guard, was an outstanding dribbler and play maker for Manchester.

The eighth grade won easily, too, but it had some trouble in the first period, leading by one point, 3 to 2.

After the low-scoring first quarter Tecumseh really began to roll, hitting for 10 points in the second frame. They built up a 13-4 first half score.

During this time Johnny Cook, Jim Poley and Bob Dick intercepted several Dutchmen passes to set up Tecumseh scores.

In the third quarter Tecumseh scored five points while Manchester added three.

In the last period Tecumseh used the "weave" with the players just passing the ball around but they were able to score 11 points while holding the Dutchmen scoreless.

Jim Curth and Steve Kruger were high for Tecumseh with 10 and eight points. Rheinhart was high for Manchester with five.

To date the seventh grade has a 3-1 record. The team has scored 124 points to their opponents' 76.

The eighth grade is undefeated with a 4-0 record. The eighth graders have scored 140 points while holding their opponents to 55.

Local Topics

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bailey spent last Thursday in Detroit on business and pleasure.

Gary Hall, the 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, broke bones in his forearm Friday afternoon while playing basketball at the home of John Naser. He was taken to Herrick Memorial hospital where surgery was necessary to repair the shattered bone, but he was able to return to his home Monday.

Sgt. and Mrs. Daniel Dermyer, who have been guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Dermyer for the past 10 days left Wednesday to return to his base at Mineral Wells, Texas. They were married Jan. 28 at Weatherford, Texas the same day that the groom's parents celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary in Tecumseh. Mrs. Dermyer is the former Norena Cummins, daughter of Mrs. Lena Cummins of Weatherford.

Mrs. Russell Carey has been a patient in Herrick Memorial hospital for the last 10 days as the result of a fall on the ice at her home. Her right wrist was broken and the pelvic bone cracked in more than one place. Her condition is reported as satisfactory at present.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Charles DesErmia were in Toledo, Sunday where they attended the Sport and Home Show.

Mrs. Bessie Pace of Clinton, who had been a patient at Herrick Memorial hospital for nearly two weeks returned home the last of the week.

Miss Carolyn Comfort returned last week to her studies at Wheaton, Ill., after spending the semester recess with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Comfort.

SPORTS

REC PROGRAM—This is just one small part of the entire group of youngsters who are taking part in the Saturday morning recreation program in Tecumseh high school gym. Vic Lawson and Don Brazee put the kids through their paces with basketball capturing a large share of their attention. They also have a chance to play volley ball, to box and wrestle and to work out on tumbling.

Saturday afternoons are taken over by girls and women. Those in charge of the morning and afternoon programs are thinking about splitting up the time to a better advantage so each age group will have a chance to use the facilities alone. For example, the eight to 10-year-olds might use the gym from 9 to 10; the 10 to 12-year-olds from 10 to 11; and those over 12 from 11 to 12. So far, though, this schedule has not been worked out.

They Performed a Service

The 85 persons, both men and women, who rang doorbells for the Mothers' March on polio in Tecumseh and the 38 who did the fine job in Raisin Township deserve a rousing vote of thanks for their splendid community service.

Realizing fully the meaning of the slogan of this year's March of Dimes drive "Polio Isn't Licked Yet," they saw the need and turned out to complete a monumental task.

In addition to these volunteers, several others, (some were the same folks who solicited during the Mothers' March), contributed their time, money and facilities to make the benefit meals last Sunday in Don's Grill a rousing success.

The HERALD commends these minute men and women for their performance of a real community service.

Buy a Uniform . . . At Least a Part

The high school PTA has a very worthwhile project for the year. Members, including a special committee, are selling "parts of band uniforms" to raise funds for purchasing new uniforms for the Tecumseh high school band.

The present uniforms are in a sad state of repair. They are eight years old and tacky looking. And with increased interest in the band under the capable direction of Don Johnson, 25 more musicians need uniforms.

These uniforms cost about $70 each. All totalled the committee hopes to raise about $4000. And this goal, they hope, will be covered in only three weeks of soliciting.

When members come to see you remember the cause. You will be helping a group that plays each year for several community functions. And remember, too, the band plays out of town on several occasions. Let us show other towns that Tecumseh is as interested in its fine band as it is in its athletic teams. Remember the cause and give as much as you can.

NORTHEAST EXTENSION

The Northeast Extension club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Ellsworth Robison, Mrs. E. L. Wight and Mrs. Elmer Wilt at the Robison home. Mrs. Robison and Mrs. Wight, who are the club leaders were in charge of the month's project "Improving Your Storage Space"

During the business meeting it was announced that members were requested by the Lenawee Extension Department to save Betty Crockett coupons to obtain silverware for a school in Okinawa. It was also suggested that members make scrapbooks to be sent to the children's wards at the University hospital.

Refreshments served by the hostesses followed the meeting.

Realty Views

When Art Myers gave us a listing on his home, we learned he had bought it on contract nine years ago. After a few weeks, we produced a buyer. Only then did we discover that Mr. Myers was in a much worse position than any of us knew: The title to his property was not merchantable.

At the time he bought the home from a widow, she was required to furnish title insurance. However, a policy couldn't be issued, free and clear, because she was in a wrangle with the Federal Government on the size of her late husband's estate tax. The government filed a lien on the property. Many minor defects were also present and the clearing of these was postponed needlessly.

Mr. Myers, who desperately needed to sell, was put in a precarious position because the previous seller had not made good on furnishing merchantable title. We advised Mr. Myers to employ an attorney to straighten out the title, and we cooperated fully.

As we were concluding the deal, Mr. Myers said, "I'm satisfied I'd have lost everything if I hadn't listed my home with your office. I'm extremely grateful for all the help."

May we help YOU to SELL too?

Christian Science Services Listed

The availability of true joy and harmony in spite of seeming discord will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

"Soul" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon, a word which when capitalized is used in Christian Science as one of the synonyms for God.

Scriptural selections will include the following from Romans (8:5,6) "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (390:7): "It is our ignorance of God, the divine Principle, which produces apparent discord, and the right understanding of Him restores harmony. Truth will at length compel us all to exchange the pleasures and pains of sense for the joys of Soul."

Why Continue To Guess About Health....

Refusal to make use of the care of a Doctor — even when very sick — is a matter of pride to some people. They are being "strong" — they think, but actually are somewhat stupid.

A smart person makes use of expert advice — and the guidance of your Doctor is in that class. It is both smart and helpful to consult your Doctor promptly whenever sickness strikes.

The Diary of Thomas Wright

Sept. 10,

Left Erie about 4 a.m. In the morning it was pleasant and all seemed rejoiced at it. The passengers were mostly on deck. Our boat plowed through the waves with speed. At 12 o'clock passed through a shower exactly against Astabula. Although the waves were not by any means so bad as I have seen them, still the wind was so high that we could not come to port and passed, carrying on with us a number of passengers who wished to stop there.

We have this morning had a prayer meeting on board in the ladies cabin. It was a sweet season and we determined to have another this evening after tea. Half past one another shower. Mrs. W., whose seasiekness has been very severe and who has almost the whole time kept to her berth is today comfortable and has been on deck but is very weak. Frances, Peter, Harriett, and Augusta have all been sick but are recovered.

But to go on deck needs a Shakespeare to describe. There are, it is said, 250 passengers on this boat of every age and condition. Here is the described old man (76 years of age as previously noted in faint pencil) bending under more than three score and ten and the infant smiling at the breast, mothers and fathers, parents and children of every age, some traveling for pleasure, some to see the world and many like myself removing to new habitations in the West. Here are the rich and the poor, the sickly and the healthy, the vicious and the virtuous; people of piety and people apparently sold under sin; in a word a sample of all the earth produces of human beings.

In the middle of the deck stands the pride of modern improvements, the incomparably useful but equally terrific steam engine. On either side piles of furniture, intermingled with every variety of mechanical and farming utensils. On every side a congregation motley as the world produces and like Nebuchanezar's image, inconnectible as clay and iron. We feel that it is of no use to form any new connection when they are soon to part and see each other's faces no more forever. For the same reason none are disposed to quarrel and all around is peaceful.

Wherever a bed or a bunk can be placed there you see two or three children covered with a filthy blanket, some fast asleep, some crying. If we look at the floor it is covered with the contents of someone's stomach. And yet it is frequently washed. Can it be wondered that so many are sick. If we go on the lower deck there are boxes on boxes, trunks on trunks, valices, handboxes and over them perhaps a human being fast asleep. If we walk along near the forecastle there we see as our fellow passengers, three natives of the forest in their own costume. These shunning all intercourse with the whites have all the voyage kept together and in the same place.

The effluvia that constantly proceeds from the steam engine is very disagreeable to our smell.

We preceded on our way safely and went into Fairport. About 10 p.m. went into Cleveland. Here part of the cargo was taken off and many passengers left. After having finished our business the boat was turned about and we proceed on our voyage. Just outside of the piers met the steam boat Superior and from some bad management or other in one or both boats, the Henry Clay ran against the Superior. Our boat struck in her stern and was but little damaged and being disengaged proceeded on her way. How much the Superior was damaged I know not. She appeared to go eastward and while in sight did not go into port. (I have since been informed she did not get to Detroit until 10 days after the Henry Clay)

Sept. 11—

Sabbath. About 9 a.m. went into Sandusky Bay and stopped at Portland. The morning is stormy, wind still ahead. About 10 left port and as we changed our course the wind changed to N.W. directly ahead.

God rules. As we continued our passage the wind continued to rise until it blew a gale. Our Captain shook his head as he looked forward and I soon found he doubted our getting into Detroit River today. In passing by a small island I was satisfied we did not get along so fast as a man could walk. About 2 o'clock we turned about and came to anchor in Put-in-Bay. Here we lie secure from wind and waves while we can look around and see the waves roll and dash in wild commotion while the wind sweeps with resistless fury over the foaming billows.

We lay quietly until some time in the night when I found by the noise we were getting under weigh; and soon after I found we were in the rough seas. The vessel rolled so as to tumble down and put out our cabin light, twice. At daylight I left my berth, looked out and found we were west of the Middle Sisters. Here the waves run beyond anything I have ever seen before. I looked through the cabin window and reflected on the description of a sea storm in the 107th psalm. Afterwards went on deck where I could not stand but by holding on something. About 7 the Canadian shore appeared in sight and about 8 the long desired Michigan.

THE 860 TWO-DOOR CATALINA

The car says GO and the price won't stop you!

Easy way to break the small car habit!

It's the hardtop buy of the year—the most power and size per dollar of any car in this style.

If you're accustomed to buying in the low-priced-three range, chances are you're paying for Pontiac's size, performance and distinction—but you're not getting it! As a matter of fact, you're not even coming close!

Actually, the big, handsome Pontiac 860 Catalina you see here is priced within the reach of just about any new-car buyer!

Its king-size 122-inch wheelbase gives you up to seven inches more road-leveling length. This extra-long wheelbase—size where it counts—is what gives Pontiac its genuine big-car comfort and stability. And certainly it follows that this size extends as well to its rich, luxurious interior!

But behind the wheel is where you really feel your dollars doing double duty!

Where else at a price so low can you enjoy the thrilling sensation of bossing the most modern, most advanced power plant in the industry—the mighty Strato-Streak V-8?

Where else at a price so low can you get the luxury of Pontiac's optional Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic—America's newest, smoothest automatic transmission?

Where else at a price so low can you find all the other fine-car features that put you so squarely on even terms with buyers of far costlier cars?

Come in this week and see how easily this heart-lifting Strato-Streak beauty can be yours. Once you do, you'll be out of the small-car class forever!

You can actually buy a big, glamorous Pontiac 860 for less than you would pay for 44 models of the low-priced three!

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

Bura on Tana River
March 2, 1955
Wednesday

Our new camp is pleasant except for the heat and the dust. Our tents are right on the edge of a steep cliff that goes down to the river. Huge strange trees overhead. About 500 feet across the river all is green—banana groves, vegetable gardens, rice paddies and a few native huts. With our binnoculars we watch the people come down for water, the children building in the mud, Mama pounding something with a big stick in a huge bowl. We have three houses at our site and one we use for our mess tent—bamboo poles set like pickets to let the breeze in, the roof made from palm leaves.

We were a dejected looking group yesterday as we gathered in the mess hall for a late lunch. Had just arrived at high noon, no water ready to wash in, but the river water which I rejected. Since then it has been filtered and isn't too bad. Smells like mud and feels a little sticky. No — it really isn't filtered. The boys swish the root of some plant around in a big tub of the water and most of the mud settles to the bottom, then the water looks grey instead of brown.

IT'S REALLY HOT

Anyway, we were miserable as we ate. Temperature at two p.m. inside our darkened mess hall was 98 degrees (92 degrees at eight-thirty p.m.). The water ran down our faces, our legs — the thankful breeze was cooling, but brought swirls of dust to settle on us and everything. The salty sweat seeped into my mouth and one glass of lemon squash did not satisfy. After lunch Jens and I sprawled out on our cots and dozed. I'd awaken with a shock that something was crawling on me — no just a sweat trickle taking a different course.

I was in a daze from my nap when Jens and Andy pushed me into the jeep to go hunting with them, and I was so happy to go because I soon forgot my discomfort. Jens shot an ostrich! We had given up getting one because the rhino hunt in the mountains had taken too much of Jens' time, and good ostriches are supposed to be too scarce in this area. But there he was, plunk, 300 pounds of gorgeous fluffy feathers. He lost his dignity completely as the men and boys carelessly hoisted him into the jeep, his naked grey thighs and long legs were so human, it disturbed me to see him so exposed.

GUINEA HENS SHOT

An then Jens shot 18 guinea hens. You shoot into a group settled on the ground with your .22, always get a couple, and then try for a few in the air; keep your gun ready as we drive along and sight another group. Jens eases himself out of the slowly moving car and we continue driving until we hear the bang, bang.

At all times we were alerted for good specimens, but late yesterday all the Gerenuks or Hunter's antelope were cows which we do not shoot. No sign of an oryx or lesser kudu.

In the jeep. Ten a.m. — have ants. Sun is getting hot, the wind splashes into the car, breaks over me with a hot wave bearing a white cap of stinging grey dust. Have my manicure implements along and have allotted myself five minutes on each nail — am tired of that.

How about another chapter from "African Bush Adventures?" The flying insects are now having a field day — the air is filled with their buzzes and I'm so-o-o sleepy. A huge "dust devil" is swirling and twirling itself down through the thorn bushes. Hope it misses me. Now it's like a smoke signal on the horizon.

Have selfishly eaten two stale pieces of chocolate that I purchased in a can from the last Somali Village. Do I want a drink of tepid water from the canvas bag hanging on the front of the car — a bag smeared with dried blood and dirt and dust?

Break: Men came back at 11 a.m. — no luck. Home.

LOSES HIS HEAD

Five o'clock When I get home my experiences, the living conditions, the stenches will all seem improbable for me to have existed in and called a holiday. We are now dragging yesterdays "ripe" ostrich carcass behind the car, "whoops, stop. His head pulled off."

Jens and Andy saw this morning where the lions had devoured two donkeys, so now we're putting out bait. Started the ostrich down by the water pool where the tracks show they drink. The blind will evidently be a huge red ant hill about 150 feet away. The ostrich is now dangling in the tree.

Somehow the hours pass. It was 100 degrees at two p.m. in the mess hall — we ate with the water running down our bare legs, all of us stripped as much as possible. My hair is actually grey with dust and so brittle it crackles when I put on my hat.

"Caine Mutiny" Plays Saturday

A carefully-selected Michigan State University cast, hailed for their recent three-night stand on campus, will present "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" for the Smith-Kimball Community Center finance committee at Clinton high at 2 and 8:15 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 11.

Directed by Ralph W. Duckwall, of the M.S.U. speech department, the all-male cast will take the thrilling play to communities in Michigan during Feb. and March as part of the "Cap and Gown" program service.

Using a theatre-in-the-round presentation, the entire action, except for a brief scene at the end, will take place in a room where a Naval court is sitting to determine whether Lt. Maryk is to be punished for taking over the command of the U.S.S. Caine from its Comm. Queeg at the height of a typhoon.

Starring in the cast will be Dennis Marquardt, of Lansing, as Lt. Maryk; John Jacobson, Port Huron, as Comm. Queeg; and George Latchford, Wyandotte, as Lt. Greenwald, Maryk's defense counsel.

Henry Wawrznyiak, Hamtramck, will play the part of Comm. Challee; John Birtwell, Detroit, Lt. Keefer; William Buchanan, Grand Ledge, Lt. Keith; Dave Church, Spring Lake, Dr. Lundeen; Charles Bock, Livonia, Dr. Bird; James Renkiewicz, Detroit, Capt. Southard; Joseph Oberle, Genesee, Ill., Signalman Urban; Howard Rubin, Rockford, Ill., Capt. Blakely; John Goetz, Fenton, stenographer; Irv Beron, Detroit, orderly, and Edwin Earl, Lansing, and Claude Watson, Elk Rapids, members of the court.

The appearance of the Michigan State Players in the Herman Woulk's "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" is a phase of the unique "Cap and Gown Series" of M.S.U. The Players, last year took the play "The Male Animal" off campus.

The "Cap and Gown Series" pro vides Michigan Communities with cultural entertainment programs by the Glee Club, college band, State Singers, symphony orchestra, ensemble groups, M.S.U. Players, Spartan Bell Ringers, and other groups. More than 100,000 attended concerts and programs offered throughout Michigan by nine Michigan State music, drama and dance groups during the 1955-56 school year. The attendance at 134 programs totaled 110,235, according to John McGoff, co-ordinator for the "Cap and Gown Series" for the Continuing Education Service.

Catherine Ann O'Reilly Is Bride of Harry L. Miller

The marriage of Catherine Ann O'Reilly of Clinton and Harry Louis Miller of Saline was solemnized Saturday morning with Nuptial High Mass by the Rev. Fr. Lewis Ellis in St. Dominic's Catholic church in Clinton. Catherine is the daughter of Mrs. Alice O'Reilly, who lives in Clinton while the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller live in Florida.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 10:30 and the bride was given in marriage by Dr. Harold Miller of Saline. Mrs. Ben Hammack played the nuptial music and Mrs. Michael Houlihan of Detroit was the soloist. White gladioli and chrysanthemums filled the altar vases and satin bows were combined with gladioli to mark the family pews.

Pure white satin was used in the gown of the lovely bride. Made on princess lines over crinoline, it was floor length and had a yoke of illusion outlined by Pointe Venice lace. The same lace formed a Queen Anne collar and the pearl trimmed crown from which fell the double veil in finger-tip length. Eucharist lilies combined with florets of hyacinths formed the cascade bouquet she carried.

Both the maid of honor, Florence Marie O'Reilly, the bride's sister and the bridesmaid, Mrs. Bruce Riffel, of Saginaw were in forget-me-not blue. Their gowns were ballerina length, made on princess lines and they also carried cascade bouquets. Miss O'Reilly's was of clear pink carnations and Mrs. Riffel's of a rich maroon.

Gary Ames of Wyandotte assisted Mr. Miller as best man and the ushers were Donald Krzyzaniak and Merlin Graff.

Mrs. O'Reilly wore gray lace over pink for her daughter's wedding, her corsage was of pink rosettes and her accessories were black. Because of the illness of his father, an aunt represented the groom's parents. She wore slate gray crepe with a corsage of gardenias.

A breakfast for 35 members of the wedding party and guests was held, following the ceremony at Holiday Inn at Evans lake. In the afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. there was a reception at the Tecumseh V.F.W. Post Home with Ruth Kuder and Mrs. William Service as hostesses and Mrs. Susie Miller registering the guests. A five-tiered wedding cake and a groom's cake were served.

The bride wore a sheath dress of pink wool when they left on their wedding trip. She is a teacher in the Clinton schools and is a graduate of Siena Heights College. Mr. Miller, who has his master's degree from Michigan State Normal College teaches in junior high at Garden City, Mich. They will make their home in Saline.

FFA Attends Farmers' Week

Tecumseh FFA Boys attended the opening day of Farmers' Week at Michigan State University.

There were many exhibits on campus which the boys enjoyed but the horse pulling contests, and riding demonstrations seemed to attract most of their attention. Other exhibits which the FFA boys enjoyed were the new tractors, the self propelled combines and the new machinery for the coming year.

Many of the boys enjoyed looking through the plastic fistulas into the cow's paunch. These cows are on rumen experiments at the college.

The boys also enjoyed touring the dairy barns and the artificial breeding association bull barns. Some of the bulls weighed as much as 2700 pounds. Several of the boys talked to former Tecumseh FFA members who are attending Michigan State at present.

Transportation for the trip was furnished by Herbert Quigley, Herbert Long, Mrs. Medford Palmer, Mrs. Percy Cadmus, Archie Scheffler and Paul Burns, agricultural instructor.

Two new members were welcomed at the regular meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary Wednesday evening. They were Mrs. Robert Aten and Mrs. William Randolph. Thirteen members from the auxiliary in Morenci were also guests

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Warren Filter the members voted $40 for the March of Dimes. It was reported that the auxiliary had served a wedding reception Saturday afternoon and that they were to conduct a refreshment stand at the M. and M. show which will run from Feb. 9 to 12 at the Union Hall.

The group will go to Mason Feb. 26 to act as the installing team for instituting a new auxiliary of their post, and it was announced that the post and auxiliary would hold a family night Feb. 29 with a potluck dinner at 6 p.m. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Meade and Mrs. Ted Sisson. The next meeting will be a social one Feb. 15.

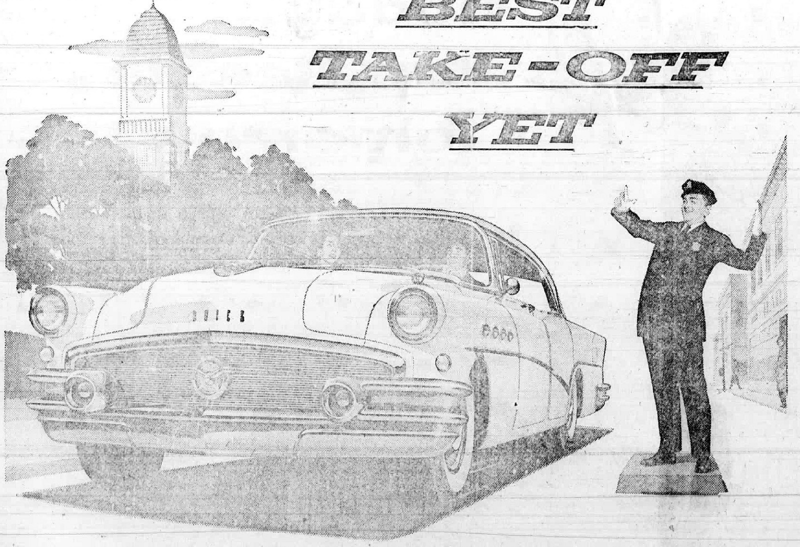
They Torqued it up for the BEST TAKE-OFF YET



First thing you need in a car, of course, is power to spark performance.

And you get that in a 1956 Buick in plenty—from big 322-cubic-inch V8 engines that hit new highs in horsepower and compression.

But the power under the hood must be carried to the rear driving wheels in the form of twisting force on the drive shaft.

That's torque – the end-product of your transmission.

And the higher the torque build-up—the greater the "torque multiplication" in starting and accelerating—the better the getaway and response.

So if you want to feel take-off that leaves your breath behind you, come try a '56 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

For in this airplane-principled transmission, Buick engineers raised the ceiling on torque to give you the best getaway yet.

They did it with something they call "double regeneration"—a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity.

Come see for yourself what that means in new thrills and new safety.

You'll find brilliant new getaway response in the first inch of pedal travel—plus greater gas mileage to boot.

You'll find an electrifying new safety-surge of full-power acceleration when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

And you'll find this spectacular performance blended into the smoothest-traveling, the sweetest-riding, the highest-powered and the easiest-handling Buicks yet built. Drop in on us this week–today, if you can–and judge things firsthand.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

Grade School News

SIXTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Miss Engle

We have elected our class officers for the second semester. They are: Allen Hizer, president; Donald Schmidt, vice president; Linda Sue Dicks, secretary; Bonnie Buchheimer, treasurer.

The boys are enjoying their basketball games they have after school on Wednesday nights. They are playing the fifth grade boys.

We have joined the Teen Age Book Club. There are some very interesting books to choose from.

Norma Jean Shaw is our new girl from Ridgeway. We are very pleased to have her in our room.

KINDERGARTEN—CENTRAL
Mrs. Preston

We were happy that our parents could come to school for conferences with our teachers and see all the fine work which we have been doing.

We like our kindergarten work books which help us to get ready for First Grade.

The January "Happy Birthday" children were, Barton, Mary Helen, Pamela, Miriam, and Anita.

We miss Bertha who has been in the hospital and Carlton who is home with chicken-pox.

We are making a surprise for the showcase and hope you will come and see it.

PATTERSON NEWS

The kindergarten children have changed their lollipop tree into a valentine tree. Many lollipops are still hanging for the birthday, however.

All of us in the first grade are very proud of Frankie Kruger because he noticed that the county jail in Adrian needed a new flag. He told his dad and Mr. Kruger told the commander of the V.F.W. and in the end, Frankie got to present a new flag to the Sheriff Wade Willett.

We all think our room looks very pretty decorated in gay red and white hearts. We now even have our words on flash card hearts. Most of have pretty valentine mail boxes in our desks.

In second grade we have been learning about the birds and animals which stay around Tecumseh in the winter time. We are making papier mache models of them and will put them in the case in our room.

Each of us has made a valentine box and put our valentines into the proper box when we bring them to school.

In aritmetic we are measuring in feet and inches and quarts and pints.

The village of New Centerville is about completed in third grade. We had fun putting it together and now playing with it.

We are making envelopes for our valentines, the girls furnish our party because the boys took care of our last one.

In arithmetic we are learning to borrow.

We have started a spelling baseball game. We have four teams. The winning team receives a treat.

The fourth grade girls and boys are working hard on spelling. We are trying to learn to spell all the words that we use often in our written work. Some of the little words cause us trouble when we aren't careful.

We have been reading about New York City in social studies class. Some of the boys are making the New York skyline on our bulletin board.

The fifth grade have started studying South America. We are very interested in our "Sister Continent."

We have started our square dancing lessons and are having a lot of fun.

We are usually all out of breath when we get back to our room.

We are learning to add and subtract fractions.

We are gradually getting used to Mrs. Crawford's way of doing things and finding it not too difficult. We are expected to do each assignment as neatly as possible and this extra care eliminates mistakes.

For Winter Breakfasts—Hot Soup!

Looking for a good way to say "Good Morning?" Serve your family steaming bowls of their favorite soup for breakfast—see what a difference it makes these crisp mornings! Soup is ideal for breakfast—quick and easy to prepare, stimulating (without being a stimulant) and a good mixer for serving with all popular breakfast foods. Choose from the great variety of canned soups, and serve new ones from day to day to make breakfasts more interesting.

Here are some good ways to make breakfast soups even more special:

Serve croutons with cream soups. Cut bread into squares, oblongs or triangles, then toast and add to soup.

Combine two kinds of soup. You'll discover many good combinations—so different-tasting, they seem almost like new soups!

Add a pat of butter to bowls or cups of soup just before serving—an easy way to make this tempting breakfast treat even better.

ORDINANCE

Meeting of the Village Council of the Village of Britton, County of Lenawee, and State of Michigan, held on the sixth day of February 1956.

Absent: None.

The following preamble and Ordinance was offered by Councilman Lewis and supported by Councilman Charles Fairbanks.

WHEREAS the increasing complexity of affairs of Municipal government has necessitated the codification of the Ordinances of this Village; and

WHEREAS the orderly arrangement of such is deemed necessary to promote the proper administration of justice within the corporate limits.

NOW THEREFORE THE VILLAGE OF BRITTON ORDAINS:

1. Effective 28 February 1956, Sections 0.000 to 9.999 of the Codified Ordinances of the Village of Britton are hereby declared to be in full force and effect and all Ordinances previously enacted are expressly repealed.

2. Effective 28 February 1956 persons violating any of the provisions of the Codified Ordinances shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, the same to be punished, upon conviction thereof, by a fine of not more than $100.00 or by imprisonment not exceeding 60 days, or both in the discretion of the Court, together with the costs of the prosecution, for each violation of any of said Ordinances and any offender, on failing to pay such fine, penalty or forfeiture and the cost of prosecution, may be imprisoned for any time not exceeding 60 days unless payment thereof be sooner made, and that the offender may be kept at labor during such imprisonment; the entire codification being considered as one Ordinance, of which this provision is a part. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that if a particular Ordinance prescribes a particular penalty, then the foregoing shall not apply.

3. As the length of such codification is such as to prevent its due publication, the clerk is directed to have posted in three of the most public places of the Village a copy thereof.

4. The Clerk is further directed to publish a copy of this Ordinance in The Tecumseh Herald within one week after the passage thereof.

5. The Clerk is further directed to maintain a sufficient number of copies of the Codified Ordinances so that any interested person applying therefor may receive a copy thereof.

Ayes: Unanimous.
Nays: None.
ORDINANCE DECLARED ADOPTED.

Blue-Gold Banquet Set for Feb. 20

At a meeting of the committee of Cub Scout pack 73 Monday evening it was decided to hold a sledding party for the boys of the pack Saturday, Feb. 11 at the grounds of the Tecumseh Conservation League. The boys are to bring their sleds and meet at the Scout cabin at 1 p.m. where transportation will be furnished. A swimming party was also discussed with the date to be decided later.

Each of the cubs has been enrolled in the American Auaubon Society in preparation for the April program, the theme of which will be birds. The pack has also given each of the boys a subscription to "Boy's Life" the Scout magazine.

Announcement was made and plans begun for the annual Blue and Gold banquet which will be held at the Products Workers' Union Hall at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 20. This will take place of the regular monthly meeting.

Work for Community Welfare

Members Hear What Makes Chamber of Commerce

A chamber of commerce tries to bring more business and money into a community and it uses this wealth to make a community a better place to live and to make a living, stated John O'Brien, executive-secretary of the Adrian Chamber of Commerce, who spoke at the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting Tuesday night.

Speaking to 135 in the United Products Workers' Union Hall, Mr. O'Brien added that a chamber of commerce is a vehicle which brings people together to work together to get a job done for their community.

Introduced by Jack Osburn, president of the local chamber of commerce, Mr. O'Brien listed these three purposes of a community; to sell goods and services, to buy goods and services; and to provide a place in which to work and to live.

It is the responsibility of every business and professional man to put these purposes into action, he said, because they have a stake in the community. They have sunk their roots and they are to make a living for themselves and for their families.

The executive-secretary also described these three types of persons: those who live off a community who are parasites that contribute nothing; those who live in the community but who do nothing for the community; and those who live for a community.

These latter persons, he continued, realize their civic, social, political and moral responsibility to their community. And they are responsible for the growth and the continued progress of the community. Members of the chamber of commerce are in this latter group.

A live-wire chamber of commerce needs these ideal citizens who are proud of their community.

Mr. O'Brien also said:

There are those who always gripe. But ask them to do something and they'll let you down.

A chamber of commerce should try to dispel stupidity because motives are too often misunderstood. It should be aware of good public relations, particularly in retailing.

Chamber of commerce people are dreamers—they have to be visionaries who reach for the stars. But when they do, their community prospers and grows. Quoting Daniel Webster, Mr. O'Brien said: 'Perform something worthy to be remembered."

President Osburn again reminded members that the chamber will have a newsletter each month.

We'll have no secrets. I've never seen such a town for rumors."

In other remarks he said:

The first retail division meeting will be held Thursday, March 1, at 1 p.m. The chamber also wants a profesional division. Both divisions will be geared to promote Tecumseh.

Some future ideas "thrown out" by the president include a turkey shoot for archers, a water fight between Tecumseh and Clinton firemen, a street dance, the planting of evergreens, greased pig contests, chicken races and a street auction.

He also said the chamber has advertised the Palman building in the Detroit News and so far the empty building on the corner has been shown six times.

He asked those who had suggestions for the chamber of commerce to drop these suggestions in a box as they left the hall.

President Osburn said the chamber now has 76 members. It has a potential of 243. "This shows a lack of cooperation," he said, "but we hope we can reach the rest of the potential."

The Rev. Horace James pronounced the invocation.

John O'Brien and Jack Osburn

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

RICHARD COBB REPORTS that a flock of robins has been living in an orchard west of his home all winter. He thinks that we may have an early spring since the birds have been seen flying nearer the house recently. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cobb of 402 Outer Court.

AT LAST THEY got around to a "Do Nothing Week." A mayor in a southern town probably will go down in history as the one who proclaimed this wonderful week of sitting and thinking.

THE JUNIOR HIGH CAGE teams that ride in the new overstuffed bus have been heard to stick their heads out of the windows and yell: "Wait until you see the varsity bus."

JACK OSBURN THINKS the wind has crossed him up. Just when he began to commend folks on the north side of the street for sweeping their sidewalks, he looked over on the south side and saw the rubbish on sidewalks on that side. He told those at the chamber of commerce dinner: "I guess the wind changed direction."

THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: I shall pass through this world but once. Any good, therefore, that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it now. Let me not defer it or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again. —A Quaker Prayer

Proclamation for World Day of Prayer

WHEREAS, it is the conviction of the United Council of Church Women, in fellowship with all those who seek the divine guidance of our Creator, that the many problems confronting us today can be solved only with the help of Almighty God; and

WHEREAS, World Day of Prayer has been designated on an international, interdenominational, interracial basis to join the people of the world together in furtherance of the doctrine, "The Lord Is Thy Keeper", and

WHEREAS, in order that the Church may fulfill the important role of exerting practical witness to the fact of God's purpose in human affairs, thereby advancing the international cause of peace on earth, it is necessary that we be ever mindful of the vast power of prayer in furthering his word and his work and in combating the forces of evil that surround us;

NOW THEREFORE, I, mayor of the city of Tecumseh, do hereby proclaim Friday, Feb. 17, 1956 as WORLD DAY OF PRAYER in the city of Tecumseh, and call upon the people of our city to observe this day an individual invitation to attend a specific World Day of Prayer meeting: and if the duties of some are such as to make this impossible, I urge the people to pause in their work for one minute of prayer at 2 o'clock, to ask that God give us light to guide us; courage to support us, and love to reunite us.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the city of Tecumseh, this 13th day of Feb. A.D. 1956
H. H. Hanna, Mayor

Seitz Gets 7 Years in Okla.

Charles E. Seitz, Jr., has been sentenced to seven years in prison by a Tulsa, Oklahoma judge.

Seitz, arrested by Tulsa police Jan. 18, took $18 from a March of Dimes container.

He pleaded guilty to second degree robbery.

Seitz also must face a charge of escaping from a Cassidy Lake prison camp where he was serving part of his sentence for murder.

C. O. Butler Reports on NADA Convention

C. O. Butler, acting president of the Michigan Automobile Dealers' Association, sees better situations developing between factories and dealers. He reports that these better factory-dealer relations will be passed on to the car-buying public in finer services.

Summarized, this is what he believes came out of the National Automobile Dealers' Association's convention which he and Mrs. Butler attended recently in Washington, D. C.

Prior to the Washington convention, factory-dealer relations were studied by special governmental committees. Some of the committee members spoke to the dealers at the convention on current and future legislation that will improve factory-dealer relations.

Dealers and their wives attending the 39th annual convention numbered 14,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler were host and hostess for the Michigan dealers, in his capacity as acting president of M.A.D.A.

In addition to speeches of senators and other governmental officials, those attending heard experts in business and industry, religious leaders, and their own members' panels; and they saw exhibits of new equipment.

They also were entertained by a musicale of the National Symphony Orchestra and they danced at the convention ball.

Delegates also had an opportunity to visit with their representatives in Congress.

Britton Caucus Nominates Slate

At the Britton caucus last week the following candidates were nominated on the citizens' ticket: president, Fred Bryan; clerk, Edmund Millyard; treasurer, Opal Benedict; trustees for two years, Douglas Fairbanks, August Maska and Keith Bottorff; and assessor, William Kuster.

Hanna, Nelson Cite Progress Made by City

A report on city progress was made by Mayor H. H. Hanna and Ed Nelson, city manager, at the dinner meeting of the Tecumseh chamber of commerce Tuesday night.

Mayor Hanna commended the commissions and boards that are now serving the city. He called those serving on these boards "public spirited citizens." And he added: "I hope more will follow their examples."

The mayor also commended the work of volunteer firemen.

And he said "All of us can point with pride at the many civic improvements that have been made in our hospital, our cemetery and our schools, some of which have been made by public donations."

Commenting on the re-appraisers now working in the city, the mayor said: "These men have nothing to do with taxation. They are seeing that all valuations are equalized so that everybody will be treated alike."

NO CITY TAX RAISE

"The city," he said, "has no intention of increasing taxes."

Introducing Mr. Nelson, Mayor Hanna said: "The success of our city so far is due to the untiring efforts of our city manager."

The city manager said:

"In less than four years we have seen a new sewage disposal plant, hospital additions, a swimming pool, a new high school and a new elementary school.

"The city inherited a lot of problems. It now is four square miles. It was one square mile.

"People now in the city want services and our objective is to help these people but these services, such as sewer and water for Tecumseh Acres, cannot be provided overnight.

"More than 30,000 feet of curb and gutter have been laid in the past two years. We jumped around because this is the way the petitions came in.

CITES PROGRESS

"The city is showing progress in its street maintenance.

"So far this year about 10,000 feet of curb and gutter have been petitioned for.

"A new bridge on M-52 at Red Pond is scheduled by the state highway department this year.

NEED NEW CITY HALL

"We need a new city hall but we have a financing problem. We might have to lay some away little by little until we have enough to build. We hope to have one some day that we all can be proud of.

"The state has approved a $220,000 water department expansion program this year and water rates will have to be raised some.

"Years ago we were pumping 3,000,000 to 4,000,000 gallons of water a month. Now we pump this much daily."

A 1/c R. O. Hall Died in Calif.

Airman 1/c Richard Orley Hall, age 27, died of a heart attack at 5 p.m. Pacific Standard Time Monday, Feb. 13 while on the way to the hospital at Travis Air Force Base in Calif.

He was born Oct. 28, 1928, in Adrian, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell D. Hall of Tecumseh. He had been a resident of Tecumseh all his life.

He married Barbara Finley of Mt. Clemens, July 30, 1951. Mr. Hall was a member of the Eagles Lodge of Tecumseh.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Ricky and Randy; his parents; four sisters, Mrs. Elwyn May, Twin Lake, Mich., Mrs. Kenneth Ernst of Tipton, Mrs. Mervin Pilbeam of Britton and Mrs. Douglas Daykin of Britton and one brother, Douglas Hall of Tecumseh.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

o

The Rev. Dickin Is Hospitalized

The Rev. E. C. Dickin is a patient at Herrick Memorial hospital for treatment for a heart condition.

He was taken ill Monday evening with what has been diagnosed as angina but did not suffer a "heart attack."

His present condition is reported as satisfactory.

o

Special Prayer Day Set Friday

"One Flock, One Shepherd" is the theme for the World Day of Prayer, Friday, Feb. 17.

In Tecumseh it will be observed at the Presbyterian church at 2 p.m.

All who join in the service will help to form a link in the great chain of prayer for missions which will at that time be encircling the globe.

A nursery will be provided at the church to care for children.

o

FURNACE EXPLODES

An oil furnace in a house at 737 south Union exploded Monday about 7 p.m. New tenants were just moving in. There were no damages.

Dog Warden Is Under Fire

County dog warden Rellie Baughey, Jr., is under fire from a group of Tecumseh area persons.

Petitions to the county board of supervisors, his employer, are circulating here and in Adrian and Onsted.

The petitions read: "We, the undersigned, wish to petition your honorable body to take measures regarding the method being used recently in extinguishing dogs in Tecumseh. The dog warden is picking up dogs and destroying them without notifying the dog owners. We feel that the owner should have the privilege to redeem dogs up to a certain amount of time before they are destroyed."

A petition is at Purkey's garage. It has 42 names. Others are being circulated by Erwin Richardson and by Jim Sloan, Jr.

Lee Purkey says he lost his registered beagle when the dog warden picked up the dog. Mr. Purkey claims that the warden killed the dog on the way to Adrian by piping carbon monoxide gas from the motor to the trailer.

The dog warden denies that he picked up the dog.

Jim Sloan, 7936 Occidental road, Tecumseh, reports that the dog warden shot his dog in the leg Jan. 28 and left the dog to suffer on the Sloan's front porch.

Sloan will seek a warrant for the dog warden's arrest for the careless use of firearms and for cruelty to animals.

He said the warrant would have been served by now but the dog warden is recuperating from an operation and the Sloans' baby was seriously ill.

The Sloans say, however, that they have not forgotten, nor have witnesses, some of whom have signed the petitions.

Jim Freckelton Honored by Insurance Co.

James Freckelton was honored at a dinner held in the Jackson Country Club Feb. 10 for his completion of 20 years with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

All his 20 years with the company have been spent in Tecumseh. He now is a member of the company's Veterans' Association which is comprised of 20-year men.

At the dinner he received the honor club award pin for business written in all departments and the "ordinary leader's" pin award for life insurance written. The home office made the awards for work done in 1955.

Need 59 Band Uniforms

Reports are coming in slowly on the Tecumseh high school band uniform drive but to date the committee has funds for almost 11 uniforms in and 59 to go.

The weather has kept a lot of workers from getting out, but they hope this week-end will really raise the fund figures.

Captains are asked to check with their workers and report as often as possible their progress to Mrs. James Barton, chairman.

Mrs. Barton said "Watch the line running across Evans street from the police station to Garno's Barbershop. You will see small uniforms begin to appear.

"Let's fill the line before Feb. 25 which is the end of the drive.

"Remember," she continued, if no one calls on you, you call on one of us."

The following names should be added to last week's list of workers: Mrs. Joseph Poley, Mrs. Paul Hohenstein, Mrs. Laine Holden, Mrs. Ted Brooks, Mrs. David Dick, Mrs. Ben Bartenslager, Mrs. Robert Ries, Mrs. Marvin Johnson, Mrs. W. W. Ring and Mrs. Phillip Colgrove.

Captain of the southwest section is Mrs. Chester Beach and not Mrs. Clarence Beach as was reported last week.

The junior and senior band members are selling buttons for the drive in school.

Girl Scouts Will Observe Thinking Day

The Tecumseh Girl Scout Association announces that "Thinking Day" or the specific time set aside for thinking about and discussing the scouting program throughout the world will be observed next week.

Chairman Mrs. Truman Rentschler, assisted by senior scouts in Troop No. 11 has arranged a program of movies depicting scout work and customs in other countries. These movies will be shown to the intermediate and senior scouts Tuesday, Feb. 21 from 7:15 Until 8:30 p.m. in the St. Elizabeth's school auditorium on north Union street and to the Brownies Wednesday, Feb. 22, at the Friends church in the Escolme parlors from 4 until 5 p.m.

The girls will bring their Juliette Low birthday money for world friendship to their respective meetings on these dates. Leaders, assistant leaders, committee members, officers and parents are invited.

Besides the movies there will be assembly singing of Brownie and Girl Scout songs. About 250 girls are eligible to attend these movies which will show them how to be a "friend to all" which is a part of their promise.

According to Mrs. Howard Truesdale, president, March 16 is the date set for the Girl Scouts' benefit program which will be held in the Products Union Hall. Mrs. LeRoy Titley has been named general chairman of this affair which will take the place of the Girl Scout cookie sales of other years.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS SCHEDULE DINNER

Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 190 will entertain Saturday evening with a potluck dinner at 6 30. Friends also are invited. This is a founder's program. The Knights of Pythias is celebrating its 92nd year nationally. Robert L. Wood is chancellor commander.

2 Councilmen Are Undecided

Two incumbent councilmen have not made up their minds about running for the city election Monday, April 2.

Mayor H. H. Hanna and LeRoy Titley have not decided if they will run again. They have until next Monday to decide.

So far there are nine men in the race for the four vacant council posts. And only one of these, so far, is an incumbent. Don Purkey is the only one of the four incumbents who definitely is in the nine-man race.

Two more nominating petitions were taken out this week. Verdi Skinner took one out for Paul Snyder and Jack Osburn took one out for a woman.

Mrs. Hilda Will Accepts Position in New Jersey

Mrs. Hilda Will R. N., who for several years has operated a private rehabilitation service in her home on south Union street will leave for New Jersey about the first of March. There she will be Director of Rehabilitation Nursing at the Pine Haven Nursing Home at Pinewald, New Jersey.

Operated by Dr. Joseph O. Smigel, a retired New York physician, the Pine Haven home is a new departure in the care of the chronically ill and handicapped. Two hundred and sixty patients are now cared for in a former hotel club house situated in beautiful grounds on the ocean shore. During 1956 accomodations are to be increased to 350. There are 180 employees.

Whirlpool therapy is an important item in treatments given and many patients, she explained, even among the aged chronics are discharged to lives of comparative independence and usefulness. Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the institution is the fact that housing, care and treatments are given at a flat rate of $5 per day per patient.

Mrs. Will is most enthusiastic about her new opportunity for she says it is what she has hoped to see and "Now I know it can be done".

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Will are moving to Mrs. Will's apartment and she will continue to maintain her house here for the time being.

o

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED

The Tecumseh post office will be closed next Wednesday for Washington's birthday. But the lobby will be open from 2 to 4 p.m. for the convenience of boxholders. And a pick-up of mail in the downtown section will be made at 3 p.m.

The United Savings Bank and the Tecumseh office of the Adrian Federal Savings & Loan Association also will be closed.

City offices will be open.

'Womanless Wedding' Provokes Laughter

Dolled up in evening gowns, high-heeled shoes and picture hats, 50 prominent Tecumseh area men will present the rollicking comedy — farce "Womanless Wedding" Friday and Saturday nights of this week in the Tecumseh Products Company Workers' Union Hall.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. each night.

At rehearsals "coy bride" Bob Moore has had members of "her" family and bridal party gathered about her, but the bride-groom has been missing. His identity still remains a secret. But he is scheduled to make his bow at the first performance.

Preston Caswell, as a dignified English butler, will usher in the many wedding guests. Merlyn Downing and Bill Pace as the "bride's girl friends" will preside at the punch table.

Dr. Robert Murray is the bride's weeping mother with Clarence Champanois as the comforting father.

Among the guests attending the wedding will be a number of "celebrities", including the "come-hither" Mae West, played by Chuck Cottle; Perry Como, Bill Hayden; Tony Martin, Gene Mackey; Ezio Pinza, Wallace Whiting; the captivating lady in red, Dunc Oliphant; and the sophisticated Duke of Windsor, Lewis Greenman; with his lovely duchess, Don Aebersold.

Don Purkey and Chuck Newell will portray the groom's haughty parents. They will be off-set by the rustic comedy of Tim Neill and Leo Bishop as the "relatives from Prattville".

Del King as the hen-pecked husband will keep his "devoted wife" Bob Williamson, in a dither, and Jack Osburn crashes the wedding as a peddler.

Rod Brown appears as a laugh-provoking Sis Hopkins with Art Schwartz as the country cousin. Don Brazee and Dermont Poley have the roles of a loving Irish couple and Ed Harper will be the groom's Uncle Zeke.

The bride's baby sister, Walt Wonderly, will be accompanied by "her" jolly Negro mammy played by Pete Dermyer, Sr.; and the jitterbugging college chum and sorority sister will be Milt Appel and Tom Corkery. Bob Beevers has the role of the bride's long-lost brother.

Members of the "bridal party" include "bridesmaids" Wynne Matteson, Don Withrow, Ray Shelton and Marvin Rumpf.

Ringbearer, J. H. Robinson; best man, H. C. Parker; bishop, John Hamilton; flower girl, Roger Williams; bride, R. H. Moore; trainbearer, Karl Schneider and the bride-groom — guess who ? ? ?

Opening music will be presented by Jack Puffer who also will act as accompanist for the entire show.

The Tecumseh Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the production. Proceeds will be used for the bleacher fund. Tickets may be obtained from all Jaycees and cast members and also at McCoy's Real Estate, Green's Clothing Store, John's Gulf Service; and at the door either night of the show.

BY EDWARD D. EDDY, JR.

Vice President and Provost, University of New Hampshire

We raise our hearts and voices, our Father, in grateful praise for all that we have received from Thee. We thank Thee for the gift of life, for the opportunity to live with meaning and not merely to exist. We ask for the vision and strength to put this meaning into daily acts. Teach us to live in such a manner that we shall never think to count the cost to us, to give of our best and never to begrudge the giving. We thank Thee for the opportunity to rise from our failures and to bring order to our confusion. Grant, our Father, that we may be worthy of the freedom Thou has bestowed upon us.

Church Circles Elect Officers and Plan Year

The newly reorganized circles of the women of the Presbyterian church all met last Tuesday evening, elected officers and made future plans.

Group two of which Mrs. John Hamilton is president met at the home of Mrs. Lee Purkey on Occidental road and elected Mrs. Harlan Dicks as vice president; Mrs. Bartlett Aiuto, secretary and Mrs. Stanley Kruse, treasurer.

They voted to include Marda Gene Duncan and Miss Bel Plummer as honorary members and to sponsor the Brownie Troop of Mrs. Robert Anderson. Geraldine French and Lucile Hawley were appointed to the program committee for the year and it was decided to meet on the first Tuesday of each month at least for the time being.

The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gerald Baker on Ternes road and all members are requested to submit suggestions for a name for the group.

Group three with Mrs. Charles Clark as president held its first meeting with Mrs. Frederick Dickinson. The new vice president chosen is Mrs. Douglas Hall, Mrs. Albert Merz is the new treasurer and Mrs. Ben Gillies is secretary.

The evening's devotions were given by Mrs. Hilda Will and Mrs. Earl Baldwin and Mrs. Douglas Murdoch assisted Mrs. Clark. This circle also will meet on the first Tuesday of each month. The officers request that any member having suggestions for a group name call either Mrs. Junior Gabe French, 873-W or Mrs. Douglas Hall, 779-J.

Mrs. Dwight Hodges, president of circle one, entertained that group at her home and officers were elected as follows: vice president, Mrs. Ralph Helzerman; recording secretary, Mrs. Erwin Marsh and treasurer, Mrs. Lawrence Price.

The evening was spent socially and the matter of a name was discussed [illegible] the decision left for the March meeting the location of which will be announced. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Schwartz and Mrs. F. C. Dickinson in serving a dessert.

Circle four, whose president is Mrs. Jo Williams, met at the home of Mrs. Al Helzerman with election of other officers the main order of business. Mrs. Dale Bowen was chosen vice president, Miss Elizabeth Marsh, secretary and Mrs. Wade Hendershot, treasurer.

Committees for the year were appointed and the group discussed a name for the circle. Several suggestions were made which will be presented at the next meeting of the Woman's Association. It was decided to hold future meetings on the first Monday of each month so the next will be March 5 at the home of the president, Mrs. Williams. It will call at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Lynn Harris, president of circle six entertained her group and officers elected were: vice president, Mrs. Lois Rhinehart; secretary, Mrs. Kathryn Colson and treasurer, Mrs. Harold Naser. The matter of a name was discussed but no decision was reached.

Mrs. E. J. Nelson was hostess to the members of circle seven of which Mrs. LeRoy Titley is president. Miss Ann Carson was in charge of the devotional period. Mrs. Roger Linger was chosen vice president for the coming year; Mrs. Harold Kempf, the secretary and Mrs. Clair Rozelle, treasurer.

Committees for the year were appointed including a name committee made up of Mrs. Ted LaBounty, Mrs. E. J. Aebersold and Mrs. Albert Bagshaw. Refreshments were served by the hostess with the assistance of Mrs. Linger, Mrs. Rozelle and Mrs. Otto Meiers.

Circle five met in the home of its president, Mrs. Ray Sluyter with Miss Alice Hopkins as co-hostess. Supplementary officers chosen were first vice president, Mrs. Jack Hanna; second vice president, Mrs. Don Smith; secretary, Mrs. Charles Cottle and treasurer, Mrs. Fay Whelan.

The group decided to hold a cherry pie sale Saturday, Feb. 18 when pies will be made to order and delivered. Orders may be given to either Mrs. Raymond Kempf, chairman or Mrs. James Gabler. Pies may be either baked or ready for freezing.

Mrs. Jack Hanna and Mrs. Don Smith were appointed as the membership committee; Mrs. Charles Cottle and Mrs. John Snyder are the floral committee and Mrs. Lillard Brown and Mrs. Fay Whelan, the kitchen committee. Mrs. H. L. Spencer is in charge of maintenance.

The next meeting of the circle will be at the home of Mrs. Laine Holden.

But Falcons Scare Them

Indians Again Are Tied For League Lead

Tecumseh high school Indians had the whoop scared out of them Friday night before they were able to overpower the Monroe Catholic Central Falcons, 68-60, and tie Hillsdale again for the leadership of the Southeastern League. Both teams now have 5-1 league records.

It was apparent from the beginning that the Indians missed Val Spangler who could not play because he was ill. And the Lawson men might have had a tinge of overconfidence, thinking that the Falcons, tied for the league cellar, would be a push over like they were the first time the teams played each other this year when Tecumseh won by 30 points.

But the Indians were in for a surprise and they had to work hard to win the game in the last minutes of the last quarter.

After a dull first quarter the Indians were leading 12-7; then faded badly in the second period, scoring 14 points while Monroe gathered 22. At intermission the Falcons had a three point, 29-26, bulge and local fans were beginning to believe that the Indians had a good chance to be knocked out of league title consideration.

And by the end of the third period this point of view had not changed much. Tecumseh gained only one point on the Falcons in this period, outscoring the visitors 14-13, to make the score 42-40 Monroe.

Kenny Miller who played his best game of the year, on defense as well as on offense, came to life early in the third period to keep the Indians in contention by banging three beauties from out center. Mike Sisson added a pair of goals to help the Indian attack.

Meanwhile Dick Vigliotti, Monroe's one-man team and leading league scorer, added seven points on a pair of goals and three one-pointers. Incidentally, if Monroe had one more player half as good as Vigliotti it would have been curtains for the Indians.

The Indians tied it up in the opening seconds of the final period when Miller swished another long one. The two teams then began to fade under the pressure and the Indians were able to pull the game out of the fire.

Curiously, it was about the same time that both Mike Sisson, one of the Indians' big guns, and Bill Hansen, another good point getter, fouled out.

Before going, however, Mike had added eight points to the Indians' total on three goals and a pair of one-pointers. And Bill had added four on one goal and a brace of charity tosses.

Others who added to Tecumseh's most productive period were Miller who contributed three goals for six points; John Elliott who cashed to free throws; Ray Larned who bagged two goals; Bob Manley who added two free throws; and Hal Weakly who sunk a goal.

The Indians chipped in 10 field goals and eight charity tosses for 28 points in the final frame twice as many points as they had been able to collect in any other quarter. Meanwhile, the Falcons, with Vigoliotti obviously tired, could add only five field goals and eight charity tosses for 18 points.

Between them, Miller and Sisson accounted for 46 of the Indians' 68 points. Ken had 11 goals and three foul shots for 25 points and Mike had nine goals and three foul shots for 21 points.

Vigliotti was the leading Falcon with eight baskets and eight free throws for 24 points.

In the prelim the junior varsity measured the Falcons 58-35. Larry Yoakum had 14 points and Bruce McDowell added 11 to lead Coach Murdoch's Papoose.

Britton Loses to Deerfield

Britton-Macon Tories lost another close game to Deerfield Friday night, 61 to 55.

The Minute Men grabbed a one-point first quarter lead, then hung on to lead 31 to 27 at the half and 43 to 42 at the end of the third period.

Deerfield turned on the gas again in the final period to outscore the Tories 18 to 13 and clinch the win.

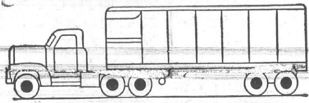
It was the seventh league loss for Britton which now has a 1-7 league record.

Deerfield has a 4-3 Little Six league record.

Larry Patterson scored 21 points for the Tories before fouling out in the last period with five minutes left to play.

Tiede scored 18 points for Deerfield.

In the prelim Deerfield won 50 to 45.



CAN YOU GUESS?

THE MOTOR VEHICLE TAXES—ON THE AVERAGE—PAID TO THE STATE OF MICHIGAN BY THE OPERATOR OF THIS TRACTOR-TRAILER IN ONE YEAR EQUAL THE TOTAL MOTOR VEHICLE TAXES PAID BY THE OWNERS OF HOW MANY AVERAGE PASSENGER CARS?
(Check one, then see correct answer below.) *

☐ 7 ☐ 3 ☐ 40 ☐ 18

* If you checked the third box, you're right, for it takes the motor vehicle taxes paid by 40 Michigan passenger car owners to equal those paid by the operator of the tractor-trailer shown.

Boysville Wins 2nd League Game

Boysville's Fighting Knights won their second league game Friday night by turning back Hartland, 46 to 37.

After a dull first period in which they were behind 8 to 4, the Knights turned on steam to outscore Hartland 12 to 5 to lead 16 to 13 at the half.

The Knights actually won the game in the third quarter when they outscored Hartland 17 to 9. In the final period Hartland edged Boysville 15 to 13.

John Murray and Bob Temerowski shared scoring honors for the Knights with 14 points each. Ling scored 10 for Hartland.

Boysville also won the reserve game 42 to 31.

Lock-Up Is Planned

If and when the new city hall is built, it will include a two-cell lock-up as part of the police station.

This should put at ease those who were momentarily upset recently when the two officers on duty had to take a drunken prisoner to Adrian and left the station here unmanned while they were gone. In their absence, the station was broken into by other drunks.

Those worried about the absence of both duty patrolmen wondered why both men had to leave to make the trip to Adrian and they have wondered why the lock-up here was not used to house overnight "guests" of the local police.

Answering the first question first, it is a matter of safety. Have you ever tried to drive a car and try to keep a drunk out of your hair at the same time? Try it sometime, particularly an abusive drunk.

The local lock-up cannot be used to house prisoners, not even over night. The state department of prisons condemned the lock-up quite some time ago. This is why prisoners arrested here have to be jailed in Adrian.

Actually, too, those who fear that something very serious might happen while the police are away in Adrian need not have such fears.

In case of an emergency, the chief can be reached by an extension phone in his home and he can call in other officers not on duty at the time. In addition, he can call state policemen if the case warrants.

But of course a local lock-up woull be better all around than to have to use the county jail. The lock-up is in the city hall plans. Specifications for it must meet with the approval of the state.

Could We Use Y.M.C.A.?

An interesting possibility for the need of a Y.M.C.A. for Tecumseh has been raised. Those who for years have worked with volunteer aids are becoming more and more convinced that folks here either have too much to do or they just don't care about our youth.

The question again was raised recently when Bill Sage offered the use of part of his building for a youth center. Garland Holmes, who for many months has been Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 4, thinks volunteer help just doesn't work in his Scouts. He says he has tried all sorts of things to get parents to help on projects and at meetings.

The troop is sponsored by the Jaycees and the committee members who volunteered to help with the program do not turn out.

Then the Sage offer was announced at the last meeting of the Jaycees and almost everybody had something to do that precluded helping with chaperoning at the youth center.

Johnny Hamilton, chairman of the Jaycees' youth committee, had to give his own members a pep talk to get a half dozen guys to offer to help. He said he had the same trouble when he tried to get volunteers to chaperone for teen-club dances.

Garland thinks a paid worker like a Y.M.C.A. director is the answer. Of course the matter of picking up funds to pay such a man immediately must be raised. It might, like in other towns, be incorporated into the Community Fund.

Two questions can be raised: is Tecumseh ready and big enough for a paid "Y" worker; and secondly, and this is not a popular point of view, are we trying to regulate our youth programs too much?

What Do You Want Out of Life ?

Do you want to be a success? Are you set on getting rich? Do you want to be famous?

Even if you attain these goals, it is practically a sure thing that you still will not be satisfied. It has been demonstrated time after time. So why break your back and your heart in the rat-race to secure them?

Perhaps it would be well for you to do some rethinking about your goals. Do you have a worthwhile purpose in life?

Religion gives purpose to life—eternal purpose. Knowing God gives the only lasting satisfaction. "Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace; thereby good shall come unto thee." (Job 22:21.)

There are many ways to get acquainted with God, but the most direct is through the church. Worship God in Church Every Week.

Realty Views

For several weeks a young married couple, Jack and Helen, debated whether to buy or rent. Like most women, Helen wanted her own home. Jack was receptive, but he liked to be sure he was right before making a move.

"Here's another article on the comparative cost of renting or buying," Jack said, one night to his beloved. "It is full of facts and figures."

"That's the trouble with men," Helen exploded. "All you can think of are facts and figures. You've got to realize there is a lot more than money involved."

"What do you mean?" Jack replied.

"I mean its time to give top rank to something more important. We've got to choose the way of life that will prove most satisfying to our family. A home will bring that about. In other words, lets buy with our hearts not just our heads."

Jack nodded, "It adds up both ways. A house is a good investment from the money standpoint, and also from the view of family happiness. Let's look up Kohler Real Estate tomorrow."

The Diary of Thomas Wright

Sep. 12—

Two p.m. we can see the Detroit river and I find everyone looks on the land with the same emotions of interest as myself. The sea is no comparison so rough as at day break and we now plow the waves swiftly. Forty minutes past nine entered Detroit river with feeling better conceived than described. The wind is cold and chilly.

Half past 12 arrived at Detroit. Sent the family to Mrs. McMellon's while self and boys attended to landing our furniture. Expense of passage, 65½ dollars. I providentially found a couple of teamsters who took my furniture from the wharf as soon as it was landed and brought it to Tecumseh for which I paid 46 dollars.

The children were totally dissatisfied with Mrs. McMellon and chose to go immediately to Tecumseh and started by the next stage without waiting until I was ready which was not until the next day.

Sept. 13—

Had some business to do at the bank. Bought a box of candles and one of soap and the next day (14) with Mrs. Wright and Augusta took stage and came to Tecumseh. My furniture came the next day. The expense of getting my family here has amounted to 273 dollars.

Sept. 15—

My family are now at Mr. Evan's boarding house. (Editor's note — Musgrove and Abi Evans then operated as an inn the house which is known as Michigan's oldest dwelling house. It now stands at 409 E. Logan St. but was then located on the corner of Ottawa and Chicago streets.) Began to look around and find much to discourage. Most everybody looks like ghosts, pale as death and I find it is very sickly throughout the place. Found the house I expected to go into wholly unfinished and no other to be got and that I have got none of my land plowed, although I had contracted to have 20 acres plowed. I expected to go to sowing wheat immediately on my arrival here. I farther learned that I have not got a deed of any land I had bargained for.

Something must be done. We must needs go to keeping house but where should we go!

After much inquiry I found the only place where we could go was into a building which was or had been ocupied by a Robt. Hicks, who with his family were all sick and had just at that time been removed by the town and put out as town's poor. This house had a bad name for it was said that all who had ever lived there had been taken sick. I went and viewed the place and found it filthy in the extreme, but one room and only clapboarded. Mrs. W., myself and friends thought that if it was cleaned up and whitewashed we could stay there until a better place could be provided. And accordingly set ourselves about it.

We put the few things Hicks had had into the chamber and Sept. 17 moved into the place. To keep out the air we nailed up blankets upon the walls, laid beds upon the floor; got in so much furniture as we could; our neighbors sent us in a loaf of bread; we had brought pork with us; Sister Cleaveland lent us a spider, pot and kettle and we again became a family. At night we found it was something new to sleep on the floor, myself and wife and daughters all in one room. Moses and Peter and B. Snickney refused to sleep in the building and went over to the Court House, in which Salter Cleaveland and his family then lived, to sleep and continued to do so until we moved.

Reflecting on our condition I saw that I must buy another farm on which was a house at all events and began to make inquiry and to look around. After some hesitation whether to keep the lots for which I had contracted last June, I sent Moses with General Brown to Dexter after the deeds to the land.

(Editor's note—The land in question was evidently a part of the tract purchased in 1824 by Judge Dexter, who later founded the town of that name. It was north of the village limits and included land along Newburg road and what is now known as River Acres. General Joseph Brown, who accompanied Moses was a sort of one man Chamber of Commerce, on whom everyone relied for help and advice.)

In the meantime I had to look around and buy potatoes, butter, beef and wheat. I get it ground at a poor worthless mill which returned me but little flour at one dollar a bushel. My own health was precarious and I was necessitated to make frequent use of medicine, pukes and physics to keep about. And son Augusta and Roswell were in one day taken sick of the billious fever but Mrs. W. and Frances were still well. I went down to Adrian to see Mr. Warner's farm and came back satisfied that there was no place for me.

Christian Science Services Listed

How greater intelligence and wisdom can be gained through scientific understanding of God, divine Mind, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" will include the following selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (128:4-11): "The term Science, properly understood, refers only to the laws of God and to His government of the universe, inclusive of man. From this it follows that business men and cultured scholars have found that Christian Science enhances their endurance and mental powers, enlarges their perception of character, gives them acuteness and comprehensiveness and an ability to exceed their ordinary capacity."

Also emphasizing the divine source of wisdom is the Golden Text from the King James Version of the Bible (Proverbs 2:6): "The Lord giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding."

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh
She Knew It All The Time
Chances are, long ago your grandma knew how to keep you from catching cold. Mine did. "Stay out of drafts," she'd warn. "Bundle up. Don't get wet."
Then, maybe, when you grew up you found that the old lady's theories were considered old fashioned. Germs were the thing —and the way to avoid a cold was to avoid infection by somebody who already had one.
Now I read where scientists aren't so sure. Germs carry a cold, of course, but they now believe something else "sets it off" —something like drafts, wet feet or going without your muffler. Grandma, take a bow!
From where I sit, there's liable to be sound reasoning behind the old customs people believe in. "Early to bed, early to rise," for instance — or the practice of drinking hot milk or a glass of beer at bedtime. I'm not saying you ought to hold with these beliefs yourself . . . but you'd better get the facts before giving them the "chill."

"2-Door, 6-Passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Any state and local taxes, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. A wide variety of extra-cost equipment and accessories available at your option.
WHY hold back from the fun and thrill and pride of bossing a Buick — when you can boss such a big and strapping beauty for the price of a smaller car?
Hard to believe? Listen . . .
If you can afford any new car, you can afford this brawny Buick SPECIAL Sedan — for a very simple reason.
This Buick is priced within a few dollars of the well-known smaller cars—and actually costs less than some models of those very same cars. (The price we show here proves that.)
Want more proof? For two years in a row now, Buick has outsold every other car in America except two of those well-known smaller cars. And you can bet your bottom dollar that it takes bedrock prices to stay in the Top 3 of the nation's best sellers.
But even that isn't the whole story—not by a long shot.
Folks are buying Buicks in record numbers because they find in these big beauties a lot more automobile for the money.
They find here more styling freshness and distinction — more snap and ginger and power thrill — more comfort and luxury — more ride stability and steadiness—and more structural solidity and pure automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.
So if you want to move into the big-car travel world at a small-car price — if you want to have the time of your motoring life with the lift and lilt and pride and prestige of a beautiful new Buick as your very own —what's holding you back?

Tana River
Evening

Kadi is starting his nightly preparations for our dinner. The eight water glasses have been sloshed with a little water, smeared dry with a sweep of Kadi's towel, a disreputable rag, and turned over on the cocktail table in a neat group. But one cannot look at his honest faceand feel any resentment —to him they are clean. A varied selection of bottles taken from their tepid water tubs, a frantic gesture towards cooling, is also lined up. All is ready for the Bwanas when they come in from the hunt, tired and thirsty. The canvas water bags are hung on a nearby branch. The jeeps trundle in and then there is great speculation and anticipation over the evening's drink — nothing will be cool enough to taste good, but we pretend it does. Jens' refrigeration experience has been put to good use. Kleenex is wrapped around the beer bottle, drenched with gin, and the bottle is then placed in the crotch of a tree where the draft is strong. It was my first lesson in refrigeration and was surprised at how cool the warm bottle became due to the evaporation process.

NEEDLE OR NAIL?

Andy gave Jens and me our third Tetanus shot this afternoon. (Lack of time had prevented us from having our last Tetanus shot in the States before we left). He daintily swabbed my arm with gin and then boldly jabbed in the needle. It stuck, had to be withdrawn, then he jabbed in again. Andy was sweating. Found out later his "shot giving" had been limited to the cattle on his farm, and that our needle had been broken, the end of it looking more like a nail.

March 2, 1955
Wednesday

The elephane hunt has started.

The elephants make many trips down to the river to drink and sometimes they hang around in the jungle for a couple of days, drinking water and eating the green luscious leaves of the trees and bushes growing near the river, but soon they tire of that diet and start out for the dry thornbush country again. It is when they make these trips back and forth that they make the foot prints we are looking for. An elephant will walk 30 miles during the night to get to water so when you want to follow him, you better be prepared for quite a walk.

In the dry sand it is difficult to tell whether the elephant was here two hours ago or half an hour ago, therefore, when you start out following his tracks you never know if you are in for an hour of fast walking or an all days' walk. When the elephant walks around among the dry thornbushes, he may decide that he does not want to go to the river or water hole for a drink that day, but satisfies his thirst on the sansevieria. Sansevieria is a sword leafed kind of plant—something like our palmetto — which grows all over the countryside. He picks a few plants and chews the juicy leaves which consist of very tough fibre plus a lot of water or juice. After he has chewed on the plant for awhile, it becomes a spongy ball of fibre which he then spits out and starts making another one.

When following an elephant you see the fiber balls which have turned brown in the sunlight lying beside the path which he has traveled, but the closer you catch up with him, the greener the balls become because the sun has not had time to turn them brown. When the sansevieria balls become real green in appearance, you better look out because "tembo" is now close at hand.

BULL TRACK IS HUGE

Out at six o'clock, light enough to track before the wide sandy road is messed up with sheep and goat and cattle hoofs. The boys and Andy watch the roadside as we drive slowly along. "Cow elephants and babies, one bull but too young. Ah, a bunch of bull tracks and one set of old ones." We let two of the boys off the track down the bull whose tracks lead down to the forest by the river. Then we drive on a couple of miles (always wonder how the boys can possibly find us again). A good bull elephant track is about two feet in diameter and worn smooth—doesn't show the pads that the younger elephants have. Now we have spied lion tracks, one male, female and cubs. A conference whether to track or go back to camp after the ostrich bait. They are tracking and I'm not so happy about it. Would much rather they'd sit in a blind.

The sandy road is a maze of tracks and it amazes me at their ability to decipher each one. (Something has stirred up the birds. Wish the driver would get his head out of the car engine and be prepared for action). Nothing around me but sand and blue sky; sand dotted with scattered Fitzer-like bushes, grey thorn bushes, a few umbrella trees raising their spokes about the horizon. The ground is also spotted with elephant manure. The birds do more chattering down here — many magpies — and we miss the anvil bird.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The first grade like February because there are so many days to celebrate. They have had lots of fun making valentines and of course everyone likes the valentine party. They have been busy studying about Washington and Lincoln. Each one is working on his own book of great Americans. When it is finished at the end of the month they plan to take it home and keep it until later.

Keith Kilbourn had a birthday in third grade. We all liked his treat of cookies.

The girls planned our valentine party. There were many valentines and we all enjoyed the refreshments.

The fourth grade has been learning about stars and planets. We are all very interested in these, and have learned many new things.

Our language class has been fun, too. We used toy telephones and made calls to our friends, calls for help, and many others. We want to know the correct way to use our telephones.

The girls are planning our valentine party.

The fifth grade have made four posters about Brazil. They are about the occupants of that country.

Today we started subtraction of fractions with different denominators.

The sixth grade's study of Europe is much more interesting, because of the many souvenirs from different countries brought in by the students.

Our last unit in science is about the earth long, long ago. We think we will have fun studying about prehistoric plants and animals.

FIRST GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Munger

We are having two treats this week. One is vacation day for us on Friday, while the teachers meet in Adrian. The second is our Valentine party. We have our Valentine socks decorated and put up ready for the party. The girls are furnishing the refreshments this time.

The Star Class is enjoying reading an extra book, The Little White House. We have learned to count by 2's to 10, by 5's to 100, and by 10's to 100. Our new books "We Talk, Spell, and Write" are very interesting. We are learning to spell many words.

Lynnette Miller's mother surprised us. She treated us to a beautiful birthday cake.

Mrs. Barritt visited us one morning. We are always glad to have our mothers visit us.

Since Christmas we have had four new pupils. They are: Melvin Lewis from Raisin Center, Larry Pate from Alabama, Venus Cole from Kentucky, Royelia Torres from Texas. Now we have thirty-eight pupils in our room.

FIRST GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Neitling

We have started reading "Happy Days." This book teaches us many things about health and safety.

We will finish our first "Talk, Spell, and Write" book this week. Most of us can spell the fifteen spelling words included in this book and many others.

Gale Murdock has gone to Ann Arbor for a check-up. We hope she will be back with us soon.

We had some nice treats this month. Valerie brought cakes with our names on and Patty brought valentine cookies which she decorated.

We were very proud to have our work displayed in the showcase last week.

Kindergarten visited us last week and listened to some of our records.

Bonnie fell on the ice and cut her knee. We hope she will be back at school today.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. VanWinkle

February has so very many important and happy holidays in it, that we are kept busy studying about and remembering each, as they come along. Right now we are reading together, a book called, "Abe Lincoln, Frontier Boy." We are making a model of his boyhood home, trying hard to follow the description given in our book which reads, a little cabin, on a little farm, in a little clearing, on a little creek.

We are looking forward to our valentine party which will take place on valentine day. This will be our last classroom party of the year.

We have started our "Cursive Writing." This is always a happy experience for second graders and one that we all anxiously await. So far, we have made the letters i, u, t, and n. Also the words, in and it.

SECOND GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Puffer

The second semester is almost as exciting as the beginning of a new school year, because we start new workbooks and new reading books. We are usrprised when we think how many books some of us have read already this year.

We have begun our window garden. Narcissus bulbs are sprouting in a dark cupboard and are almost ready to be put in the light. Several different kinds of seeds are planted, including some sunflower seeds which David brought which we are growing in water-soaked cotton so that we may observe their sprouts and roots. Most interesting of all, though, is our pineapple. We planted the top and ate the rest of it!

One day we noticed something strange happening to the cocoon Billy had brought to school 'way last fall. The moth inside thought spring was here and came out right before our eyes. We hurriedly looked in our science books and discovered that he had a Polyphemous moth. It lived in our room for several days and laid many eggs.

Our room has looked cheerful these wintry days with a big, puffy cotton snow man and snow lady on one bulletin board and a clothesline the entire width of the schoolroom pinned full of our very best handmade valentines.

Baby Indians Split With Addison

The Tecumseh junior high cage teams split with Addison last week. The seventh graders lost 19-11 and the eighth graders won 23-18.

Tucker led the seventh grade scoring with four. Frayer scored 10 points to lead the Panthers' scoring.

The loss left the seventh grade record at 3-2.

The eighth graders scored their lowest total of the season. Tecumseh was ahead 11 to 8 at the half. The Indians just couldn't hit on their long shots.

Jim Curth led the local scoring with eight points. Roher was top Panther with eight. The win kept intact the eighth grade's perfect season. The team has won five and it has not lost any.

200 Attended Teen Club Dance

Nearly 200 teenagers attended the Teen Club dance in the Central school gymnasium Saturday evening. In spite of the fact that the committee was disappointed in an orchestra, the boys and girls had a good time to the music of a record player. The affair was sponsored by the Jaycees and was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cottel, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport.

ALTAR SOCIETY GIVES $25 TO POLIO FUND

St. Elizabeth Altar Society met last Wednesday evening in the school auditorium with 42 members present. Mrs. Roy Whiting presided at the business meeting.

One new member was welcomed by the group, Mrs. Leila R. May. The society voted to give $25 to polio and it was reported that proceeds from the cook book recently sold by the group purchased four new tables for the school auditorium.

Mrs. Carl Gruber, Mrs. Harry Weakly, Mrs. Joseph Dziachan and Mrs. Herbert Bagby were appointed to care for the altar and sacristy for the month.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe, Mrs. Robert McCrate, Mrs. Tim Neill, Mrs. Jack Osburn, Mrs. Karl Schneider, Mrs. Ford Mudgett and Mrs. John McVay served refreshments.

12 File for 4 Council Posts

Twelve candidates are seeking four council posts in the city election which will be held Monday, April 2.

Candidates for the council in the order in which their nominating petitions were filed with city clerk Mrs. Naomi Sallows are:

STEPHAN R. ILLECK
HAROLD M. KELSO
MERTON H. THIELAN
PAUL C. SNYDER
MARVIN G. RUMPF
GILBERT J. NIGHSWANDER
JAMES FRECKELTON
HUGH H. HANNA
DONALD F. PURKEY
MARY A. BOWERS
LOWELL J. EDWARDS
DONALD B. BRAZEE

Only two of the candidates—H. H. Hanna and Donald Purkey—are incumbents. The other two councilmen whose terms expire this year are R. H. Moore and LeRoy Titley. Neither councilman Moore nor councilman Titley sought reelection.

This year there are three more candidates than there were in the nine-man race last year. Like last year, there is a woman in the race this year.

Harold (Hal) Kelso is service manager at the Tecumseh Products Company. A former councilman, he lives at 125 Maple street.

Paul Synder is manager of the Eagles Lodge. He lives at 602 north Union street.

Marvin Rumpf works at the Rumpf Truck Lines. He lives at 501 Inner Drive.

Gilbert Nighswander works for the General Telephone Company in central office. He lives at 3112 Russell road.

H. H. Hanna, present mayor of Tecumseh, is manager of the offices at Tecumseh Products Company. He lives at 203 south Adrian road.

Donald Purkey is service manager at Schneider Brothers' Garage, Inc. He lives on north Occidental road.

Mrs. Mary Bowers is a teller in the United Savings Bank. She lives at 710 west Chicago boulevard.

Donald Brazee is a Tecumseh senior high school teacher. He lives at 206 west Kilbuck.

LORNA DICKS — HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Lorna Dicks Named Star Homemaker

Lorna Dicks, of Route 1, Britton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dicks, has been named Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow at Tecumseh high school.

Taking the prepared written test with nine other high school seniors here, Miss Dicks has earned the honor of representing Tecumseh high school in state-wide judging for $1,500 and $500 scholarships, it was announced today by General Mills, sponsor of this home appreciation program. A quarter million young women throughout the nation participated.

Miss Dicks will also be eligible to compete for a $5,000 national scholarship award to be made to the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

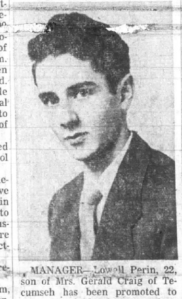
Her test paper will be entered in competition with 361 school winners in this state.

The girl selected state Homemaker of Tomorrow will receive a $1,500 scholarship and a trip in April with her school advisor to Washington, colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Philadelphia where the national winner will be selected from the state winners.

Each state runner-up will receive a $500 scholarship.

"The purpose of this program, now in its second year, is to encourage young women to think seriously and realistically about the responsibility of the home and family as a career," said Harry A. Bullis, chairman of the board of General Mills.

Each school winner was awarded a golden pin designed by Trifari and her school will receive a cook book.



MANAGER—Lowell Perin, 22, son of Mrs. Gerald Craig of Tecumseh has been promoted to manager of the large, modern Wauseon, Ohio, Kroger store.

A graduate of Adrian high school, he went to work in the local Kroger store as a part time stock boy. He worked here for six years. Recently he was promoted to head produce merchandiser after serving two years as head grocery clerk.

He and Mrs. Perin moved last weekend to their home at 619 east Chestnut street in Wauseon.

ROBBERY CHARGED

Larry Hatt, 24, of Fenton waived examination when arraigned before Justice L. J. VanDeusen of Clinton Monday.

He was bound over to the circuit court on a charge of unarmed robbery and he's in jail in lieu of a $2000 bond.

Arrested by state police in Mason Saturday, he is charged with beating and robbing Bruce Osburn of Tecumseh Feb. 14.

Charles A. Bumpus, 21, of Tecumseh was arrested by state police Monday for investigation in connection with the Osburn robbery.

WALKER INJURED

Mrs. Eva Ann Rentschler, 64, of Tecumseh received shoulder and hip injuries when she was struck by a car driven by Ronnie Finkbeiner of Saline Friday.

Finkbeiner was given a summons for failing to yield the right of way to a pedestrian.

Ridgeway Calls School Meeting on Annexation

A special meeting of the residents of Ridgeway School District No. 12 (formerly No. 1 fractional) has been called for 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27 at the schoolhouse to discuss annexation with Tecumseh. Supt. James McDowell, of Tecumseh will be present to outline plans for the enlarged Tecumseh district and answer questions regarding annexation.

Following the discussion a vote will be taken on the question, "Shall the voters of Ridgeway School District No. 12 request approval of the State Department of Public Instruction to conduct a legal election on the question of annexation with Tecumseh School District No. 11?"

Crash Kills Irelan Brothers

Two former Tecumseh residents, Lee G. Irelan, 42, of Dundee, and his brother Vernon G. Irelan, 26, of Saline were killed instantly Sunday at 12:45 p.m. when their car left the road three and one-half miles west of Saline and struck a tree.

State police reported the car was going east on U.S. 112 and as it approached a curve it skidded, went over the center line into the west bound lane and crashed into a tree on the other side of the road.

The right rear of the car hit a hickory tree with such force that the top of the car was sheered off. The car was demolished.

Lee was driving the new car. Police assumed that the car was traveling at a high rate of speed because of the length of the skid marks and the manner in which the car was smashed up. The car traveled 470 feet before it struck the tree. The skid marks showed that the driver applied his brakes many times before his car left the highway.

Police said the highway was dry and no other cars were near. The car was owned by the Lee Irelan Sales of Dundee. Vernon worked for his brother.

The brothers were returning from Clinton to Lee's farm. He had a string of horses. At one time he owned quarter horses here.

Both men were thrown from the car.

The bodies were taken to the Lockwood Funeral Home in Saline where private funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. Allan Ramsay, former rector of St. Peter's church of Tecumseh, and now assistant executive secretary of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan conducted the services.

Burial was in Deerfield cemetery.

Lee G. Irelan was born in Deerfield Dec. 31, 1913. He married the former Alice Crane Nov. 10, 1939. She died June 27, 1954.

He is survived by his daughter Karlene, 12.

Vernon G. Irelan was born June 27, 1929, in Deerfield.

June 27, 1948, he married the former Jeannine Clark. In addition to Mrs. Irelan, he is survived by two sons Thomas James, 6; Timothy LaMar, 5; and a daughter Hollis Jane, 4.

The brothers also are survived by their parents Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Irelan of Saline; their brothers Charles of Tecumseh and George of Britton; their sisters Mrs. Wanda Wegner of Adrian and Mrs. Harry Cogar of Saline; and their maternal grandmother Mrs. Minnie Boyd of Saline.

New Corporations Are Formed

Several new corporations and businesses have been formed in the Tecumseh area.

Tecumseh Homes, Inc., 401 west Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, was incorporated by A. L. Baker and G. V. C. Baker of Toledo, and Lucy B. Shutt of Granville, Ohio.

Incorporators with Jack Shutt of Granville, make up the board of directors. J. C. Beardsley of Tecumseh is the resident agent. There are 300 common shares of stock authorized at $100 per share.

Harvey J. Wilson and Juanita K. Wilson of Tecumseh incorporated the Wilson Motor Sales, Inc., 123 South Oneida Street, Tecumseh.

Incorporators and Helen E. French of Tecumseh are on the board of directors. Robert L. French of Tecumseh is the first resident agent. The authorized capital stock is 420 common shares at $100 per share.

C. C. Richard of Tecumseh is one of the incorporators of the Adrian Blissfield Concrete Co.

Another new partnership certificate was filed for the G. L. Gripton Hardware, 124 east Chicago Boulevard, Britton, by George L. Gripton and Glen M. Gripton of Britton.

The assumed name business is Harold H. Every Company, 9345 Tecumseh-Clinton Road, Tecumseh township, by Harold H. Every and Dorothy C. Every of Tecumseh.

The Independent Telephone Co., 4011 Monroe road, Tipton, filed notice of the appointment of Glenn A. Fisher as resident agent.

Services Held for Richard O. Hall

Military services for Richard O. Hall who died suddenly Feb. 13 in California were held Monday in Brookside cemetery.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore conducted the services. Services at the grave were conducted by Harold Warren, commander; Warren Filter, senior vice-commander; Clifford Curran, junior vice-commander; Gaza Kish, chaplain; and Lloyd Stites, officer of the day.

The funeral was conducted by the Green Funeral Home.

Retail Sales Hit $10,703,000 in '54

Retail sales in 1954 of 81 Tecumseh stores totalled $10,703,000, according to a preliminary 1954 census of business figures announced by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Stores with payroll in 1954 numbered 69 with 406 employees in Nov., 1954, 329 of which worked a full week. They earned $952,000. These stores had a business of $10,399,000.

Proprietors of unincorporated businesses totalled 89.

The number of stores and their 1954 sales, grouped by major kinds of business, were:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Food stores | 13 | $1,957,000 |
| Eating, Drinking | 15 | 990,000 |
| Gen. merchandise | 3 | 284,000 |
| Apparel, Accessories | 5 | 268,000 |
| Furniture, Appliances | 5 | 399,000 |
| Automotive | 6 | 2,463,000 |
| Gas service | 9 | 830,000 |
| Lumber, bldg. hardware, farm equip. | 9 | 2,526,000 |
| Drug stores | 3 | 426,000 |
| Other retail | 15 | 560,000 |

Retail stores in the county numbered 827. They did a retail business of $78,924,000.

Little Men

Sixteen little men are standing out in the cold strung up on a wire across Evans street between the police station and Garno's barbershop.

The little men represent 16 new band uniforms for the Tecumseh high school band. They also represent $1120, or the total cost of buying 16 new band uniforms.

Mrs. James Barton, chairman of the high school PTA committee which is soliciting for funds for new band uniforms, says she expects a lot more money will be turned in by Saturday, the day the drive ends. Money for 70 uniforms is needed.

The total amount collected in the drive will be announced at a public dance which will be held in the high school gym Saturday night from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Price of admission is the cardboard tag given to those who have contributed to the band uniform drive.

The Chieftains will play for dancing and the band will play at intermission.

GET DOG LICENSES

Dog licenses may now be bought at the city clerk's office. Dog owners have until March 1 to buy the licenses. After next Thursday they will have to go to Adrian to buy the licenses and the fees will be double.

ANSWER TWO ALARMS

Tecumseh firemen answered two calls during the week.

Thursday they were called to the Richard Sherman place on Billmyer road. A house trailer was destroyed and a small shed was partially burned.

Saturday they were called to the Lee Robison home on Tecumseh-Clinton road when a brush and rubbish pile ignited. There were no damages.

Pirate Theme Used at Cub Pack 73 Banquet

When Cub Scout Pack 73 held its annual Blue and Gold banquet at the Union Hall Monday evening 250 cubs and their families "walked the plank" to enter the pirate's den. Fathers wore eye patches and the mothers large gold earrings. The children all had pirates hats. The same theme was carried out in the table decorations with the addition of blue and gold birthday cakes as centerpieces.

The invocation was given by the Rev. George Walworth and Maurice Persing, field executive of the Wolverine council presented the pack charter to committee chairman, Carson House Jr.

Awards were given as follows: Den 1, Gerald Sniffen, wolf badge; Richard Graham, bear badge; Norman Grigg, lion badge and gold arrow; Donald Sniffen, bear and lion badges; Barry Hall, lion badge and gold arrow; Michael Osburn, lion badge; Jay Osburn, bear badge; Douglas Beasley, wolf badge; Marvin Gregg, wolf badge and gold arrow; Tom Dickinson, silver arrow.

Den 2, Walter Zarnach, wolf badge and gold arrow; John Oberlin, bear badge and gold arrow and two year service star.

Den 3, David Day, wolf badge; Ronald Jones, bear badge and one year service star; William Bishop, bear badge and two year service star; David Loar, wolf badge; Gregg King, one year service star; Gene Manwaring, two year service star.

Den 4, Philip Miller, bear badge, gold arrow and three silver arrows.

Den 8, Dennis Richardson, wolf badge, gold and silver arrows; Murray Richardson, bear badge and silver arrow; Richard Milosh, bear badge and silver arrow.

One year service stars were given to Paul Kruse, Richard Hadsell, Ned Rosacrans and Larry Harper.

Den 10, Robert Van Vleet, bear badge and gold arrow; Steve Freckelton, silver arrow and two year service star; Robert Glenn, gold arrow and two silver arrows; James Osburn, silver arrow and two year service star; Charles Squires, silver arrow and two year service star; Charles Saling, two year service star.

Six Webelos were presented with boy scout manuals; seven den mothers and three committee men received one year service stars.

An interesting archery demonstration was then given by Harold Doan and his son of Adrian, who have held many national championships.

Ridgeway Twp. March of Dimes Drive Nets $800

Mrs. Elizabeth Spohr, chairman of the March of Dimes Drive for Ridgeway Township, reports that collections from the polio cards totalled $90 and school contributions were about $75. The total amount from Ridgeway Township collected to fight polio was $800.

She publicly thanked all of those who helped with the drive.

Letters Answer 'Youth' Editorial

Erwin Richardson, Tecumseh Boy Scout organizer, and Garland Holmes, Scoutmaster, answered the HERALD'S editorial last week with the following letters:

"In answer to your editorial of Feb. 16, I wish to make a few comments regarding youth programs and adult participation in Tecumseh.

"We in Tecumseh have become aware of a lack of parent-interest in youth programs. It may be realized at the same time that other near-by communities are also experiencing a very similar circumstance.

"The membership of the Boy Scouts of America totals well over 4,000,000 and the boy membership in the Wolverine Council increased from 2200 to 2835 during 1955. While other areas have shown a steady increase, Tecumseh has barely managed to keep the name of Scouting alive. Are we so different from other communities, who like our own, show a lack of parent-interest that we cannot extend the necessary effort to revive scouting to a healthy existence?

"Two elements of extreme importance to any youth organization regardless of their title, are finances and adult cooperation. A Y.M.C.A. would also depend upon these two factors, as do the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, or Youth Center.

"We have two Cub Packs in Tecumseh numbering more than 150 boys in the ages from 8 to 11 and the parent-interest is quite commendable. Boy interest in Cubbing is high and they are eagerly looking forward to the day when they will become Boy Scouts. Who are we to turn our backs on 150 Cubs and tell them that they cannot become Boy Scouts because we don't have time or just don't care.

"During the past two years our troops have shown very little, if any, participation in our District Scout Shows, Jamborees, and Camporees. It is not due to a lack of boy interest, but rather adult guidance.

"There are enough boys in our community that we should have upward of 250 Cubs, Scouts and Explorers and be outstanding units in our Council.

"We have a job to do and an opportunity due our youngsters which involves better parent-son relationships which cannot be brought about by a hired hand to carry on a program for them.

"One point that must remain clear is that the Boy Scouts do not intend their program to compete with any other. Their objectives are to supplement their education through physical fitness, citizenship training and character development.

"There are without question many men who would give of their time if they knew what their job was and how fun and easy it could be.

Sincerely yours,
Erwin Richardson
District organization and Extension"

"In my opinion, Tecumseh does not need a Y.M.C.A. because it cannot afford a Y.M.C.A., too.

"But Tecumseh does need a paid recreation director to plan and promote youth programs. The recreation board does a commendable job throughout the summer months, but this is not enough. It must be a year-around program.

"A program, such as I have in mind, cannot be run on volunteer

Register

There are 2800 registered electors for the city election which will be held Monday, April 2.

Friday, March 2, at 8 p.m. is the deadline for registering for the city election.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, urges those who are not sure if they are registered to call the city office or drop in.

She also would like those who have moved since the last election to notify her of their change of address. This, she said, will speed the election because election workers will be able to "pull" registration slips faster if they are in the proper precincts.

This year voters will vote in three precincts instead of two.

C of C Asks Councilmen about Lights, Parking

Three suggestions and requests from the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce membership were outlined in a letter to the council Monday night.

The letter also stated: "We would appreciate action on all three of these."

The following letter was submitted by Jack Osburn, president:

1. Merchants west of the boulevard on Monroe road would like to request the city to put street lighting out to Occidental road.

They feel that with their investment in their property along with the fact there is much machinery, automobiles, etc. that this would help them in protecting against petty theft.

2. A parking meter to be installed in front of the Chicago boulevard entrance to the Ford building.

3. That 12-minute parking meters be installed on each of the four corners of Chicago and Evans streets.

City manager Ed Nelson reported that the lights are on order.

He said that the 12-minute parking meters could be placed at the desired spots.

Manager Tells of Holes in Streets

A report on city street conditions was given to councilmen Monday night by Ed Nelson, city manager, who said:

"The highway department has spent most of its time in the past two weeks with ice and snow removal. The water condition is quite bad in some parts of town and we have done all we can to try to correct it.

"Due to the ice, the water can't get into the catch basins and in a few spots the streets develop some bad holes. We have used more salt and chloride this year so far than in the past four years and we hope winter will soon be over."

The city manager again asked for a program of "a block or two of bituminous concrete" each year in the budget.

Better Roads Will Cost More Money

Better roads will cost money but this does not mean that Michigan will necessarily have to have a general increase in user taxes, Gerald W. Graves said at a Rotary Club meeting in Tecumseh Tuesday night.

Graves, executive director of the Michigan Good Roads Federation, reviewed Michigan's first comprehensive state-wide needs and deficiency study made by his organization in 1946 and 1947 of all trunklines, county roads and city streets.

To bring this study up to date, he said, the Michigan legislature early in 1954, set up another study. This consisted of a state-wide engineering needs and deficiency study, a fiscal study to determine how to meet these needs and deficiences and a codification of all highway laws.

The engineering needs and deficiency study involved 300 engineers for approximately 15 months, and for the first time in the history of Michigan there was a traffic count on all county roads at the same time.

"According to the completed engineering report, 'Modern Highways for Michigan', a total of $5.7 billion should be spent in this state for highway, road and street construction during the next 20 years," he pointed out. "Of this amount $4.5 billion is necessary for state trunklines, primary county roads, and major city streets, and $1.2 billion is needed for local county roads, and local city streets."

He said one of the bad features we are faced with is that the number of registered motor vehicles in this state increased 74 per cent since 1948, and travel 70 per cent. In the twenty-year period ahead, it is estimated that motor vehicle registration will increase by another 62 per cent, and travel by 78 per cent.

"Light on our needs and deficiencies can be shown by the fact that 70 to 95 per cent of the improvements needed on various systems, except local roads and streets, should be completed in the next 10 years," Graves said.

According to the fiscal report, "Financing Modern Highways for Michigan," Graves said, Michigan's $5.7 billion dollars worth of needs can be met — in 10 years on trunklines, 15 years on county roads and city streets — without any general increase in user tax:

IF the federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of all work on the Interstate highway system;

IF Federal Aid is continued on present levels for the other systems:

IF the state issues $500 million in bonds, at the rate of $50 million a year for 10 years;

IF the Dykstra Act is repealed and the State Highway Department asumes 100 per cent of the cost of constructing trunklines in municipalities;

IF 50 per cent of the cost of local rural roads is paid for locally, and not from user taxes; and

IF the present rate of local participation is maintained in the municipalities for local streets.

"If the National government fails to act, a twenty per cent increase in user tax revenues will be necessary on the state level to complete the program in 20 years," he said. "If not, we will lack sufficient revenues to meet the problems and, therefore, we will continue to fall behind."

Graves declared that the need for codification of highway laws has already been determined and the report is in its final printing now.

For example, he said, the codification study shows that of the sixty sections of the law dealing with state trunklines, 32 are in direct conflict with each other, or are unnecessary. The codification must be presented to the legislature for passage.

C. O. Butler was in charge of the program.

THREE RIVERS HOSPITAL

Hospital administrator Erickson sees examples daily of patients who have inadequate hospitalization coverage. "Because Blue Cross benefits are service benefits—with no dollar limits—they always keep abreast of the times," he says.

"Doing my job, I find more and more reasons each day…

Why your community hospitals sponsor Blue Cross"

—says Mr. W. E. Erickson, Administrator, Three Rivers Hospital, Three Rivers, Michigan

"Yes, as a hospital administrator, it is my job to see to it that each patient gets the services prescribed by his doctor as well as the kind of modern general hospital care that will get him well in the shortest possible time.

"Day after day, I have to deal with patients whose insurance policies do not provide for this kind of modern hospital care. They have insurance policies with fixed dollar limits. Too often these dollar limits are pathetically low.

"Neither I nor any other hospital administrator can tell you in advance how much your hospital care, when you need it, will cost you. Since you are dealing with an unpredictable cost, why should you buy hospitalization coverages with prefixed dollar limits on any of the services?

"This is why your community hospitals in Michigan and throughout the country sponsor Blue Cross. Blue Cross gives you service benefits. This assures you the services you will need to get modern hospital care. And Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract benefits have no dollar limits. Moreover, these benefits always keep abreast of the times. They do the job for you. Blue Cross is your answer to the problem."

Christian Science Services Listed

The power of Christian healing in all ages will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus."

Selections from the King James Version of the Bible will include the account of Christ Jesus' healing of the "man whose right hand was withered" as recorded in Luke's Gospel (6:6-12).

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (347:14-17): "Christ, as the spiritual or true idea of God, comes now as of old, preaching the gospel to the poor, healing the sick, and casting out evils."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (45:2): "Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever."

Bible College Plans Move to Canton, Ohio

The Rev. Edward Escolme spent last Tuesday in Cleveland where he attended a meeting of the board of trustees of Cleveland Bible College. At that time plans and decisions were made regarding the moving of that institution to a new location at Canton, Ohio.

Sponsored by the Ohio Yearly Meeting of the Friends church, the college is the official educational arm of the church and it is now planned to greatly enlarge its facilities.

The immediate cause of the move is the condemning of part of the present property for the new Cleveland free-way. This in connection with the St. Lawrence seaway's effect on Cleveland has raised the valuation of the land so that the building of a larger college elsewhere is now possible.

Fifty-four acres of land within the city of Canton have been purchased and ground will be broken this spring for a combined administration, library and classroom building and another which will house kitchens, dining room and storage space, connecting with a students' lounge, a gymnasium and chapel. The latter will seat 400 and when combined with the gym will have a capacity of 2,000.

Dormitories for men and women and for married couples will also be constructed. An interesting feature is a broadcasting and recording room in connection with the chapel. A construction program of nearly a million and a half is now in sight.

It is planned to move to the new location in the fall of 1957. The new school will be called Malone College after Walter and Emma Malone, the original founders and will give a four year, liberal arts course with a B.A. degree and an additional year leading to a Bachelor of Theology.

The Rev. Escolme has been a member of the board of trustees for several years.

Records

General Telephone Company of Michigan reported new records established in long distance calls in Coldwater, Dundee, and Tecumseh. Contributing factor was the heavy snowfall.

Coldwater's new record is 2,503 messages placed on Feb. 3. Previous high was 2,414 recorded on Jan. 30.

Dundee exchange reported 510 calls on the same Feb. date with a previous high of 500 recorded in Aug. of 1955.

Tecumseh exchange reported a Feb. 3 record of 1,283 toll calls, shattering the Jan. 30 high of 1,276.

Tecumseh Grange Meets Thursday

Tecumseh Grange will meet Thursday night (tonight) with a potluck supper at 7 p.m. The committee in charge is Mr. and Mrs. Clare Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gillespie.

The program will be presented by the health committee. Members have chosen the subject of cancer and their speaker will be Mrs. W. A. Friedrick.

The district meeting held at the hall last evening was very well attended in spite of bad weather. About 140 were present from our district counties besides a couple each from Calhoun and Berrien Counties.

State master William Brake of Lansing and Mrs. Brake also attended, as did Mr. M. Eady, state grange lecturer; Mr. A. Berg, a member of the executive office; Mrs. J. Tritten, state health commission chairman; Mrs. Helen Peck of the home economics department; Mr. Poling from the youth department and Mrs. Olive Nesbitt from the juvenile department.

After each guest gave a short talk, members were divided into working groups where the contests and all phases of that particular office were discussed.

Knights of Pythias Observes Founder's Day

Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 190 held a potluck dinner Saturday night in partial observance of the founder's program. The lodge nationally observed its 92nd birthday.

The following material was submitted about the national lodge by Robert L. Wood, chancillor commander here:

Justus H. Rathbone was a dreamer. He envisioned a great Fraternal Organization that would not only afford fellowship to its members, but would be an instrument in propagating the brotherhood of man not only among his contemporaries but for posterity. As a result of this dream, the Fraternal Order Knights of Pythias was born, February 19, 1864, in the city of Washington.

It was the first fraternal organization to be incorporated and given legal life and existence by an Act of the Congress of the United States.

Through its useful efforts and sincere exemplification of true fellowship and genuine brotherhood for all the people, irrespective of whether they lived in the North or the South, its national conventions wielded tremendous influence in closing the breach that war had wrought, and in establishing tranquility and brotherly love among an enraged and embittered people who had felt all too sorely the greatest fratricide ever recorded upon the pages of human history. For this alone, the Knights of Pythias richly deserves a high place in the history of the United States and in the esteem of the American people.

Beginning with one lodge in Washington, D. C., the Knights of Pythias rapidly spread to all of the states of the Union and soon established the Supreme Lodge, composed of duly elected representatives from the several states. Each state became a Grand Domain, of which all the lodges in that state are component parts.

Confined at first to the United States alone, its fame and luster soon gained prestige, and its influence possessed such appeal as to cause petitions to come from areas outside of the United States requesting that they be permitted to join in the work of spreading the message of the brotherhood of man, and the fatherhood of God, and participate in the fellowship afforded by this great organization. Thus, the Knights of Pythias became an international fraternal organization with lodges scattered throughout the provinces of the Dominion of Canada, Alaska, Hawaii and also including the famous Knights of Pythias lodge of Jonathan and David in the eternal city of Jerusalem.

So, today the Knights of Pythias with nearly 3,000 lodges continues its efforts to appeal to the good in mankind, to lift up the fallen, to minister to the distressed, to heal the broken, to bless the orphaned, to give help to the helpless, to offer hope to the hopeless, to bring friendship to the friendless, to afford companionship to the lonely, in short, to declare the precepts and exemplify the practices of brotherly love among mankind.

There are 14 institutions for orphaned children and aged and infirmed people maintained and operated by the Knights of Pythias, and it is a tribute to the membership of the Order that in most instances, membership is not a requisite to admission to these institutions.

In recent years, the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias has sponsored an international effort to bring some measure of safety to the highways of the United States and Canada in the promotion of its well-known and widespread "HIGHWAY COURTESY CAMPAIGN." Such an outstanding job in the overall effort was done by the Knights of Pythias that it has been signally cited and commended by the National Safety Council, by the President's Committee on Traffic Safety, the American Automobile Association and other national and international organizations especially interested in safety.

Ten Candidates

A group of 10 candidates of Tecumseh Grange were taken into membership Thursday evening when a degree team exemplified the third and fourth degrees. Those taking the degrees were from North Adrian, Gorman and Tecumseh granges. Others who were prevented by illness from being present will join later.

The visitors numbered 29, among whom were the master of Pomona Grange, Bertram Stout and Mrs. Stout from Rome Grange.

The county master announced that the fifth degree will be given at Rome Grange the evening of March 14. He extended an invitation to the new members as well as any other fourth degree members wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity to become members of Pomona.

Phyllis Patterson gave a report on Pomona held recently at Four Towns Grange. Charles Patterson, chairman of the dance committee announced that the polio dance had realized $120 for the March of Dimes.

Sunday evening, Feb. 5, the third and fourth degree team with the former captain, Charles Patterson plus the first and second degree team entertained the degree teams from other granges of the county, including that of Pittsfield Grange in Washtenaw county. The district deputy and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wright from Lime Creek Grange were also present.

A potluck supper was served at 7:30 after which there was a joint program put on by Tecumseh and the other granges present. Mr. Patterson announced the participants from Lenawee while Mrs. Andy Campbell, a state officer and member of the Pittsfield degree team introduced those from their county.

The program began with group singing of "We Are Here for Fun" and "Home on the Range" and included humorous readings by Mrs. William Grigg, stories by Herman Kohnn and Roy Benedict, piano selections by Joyce Bryan and a solo by Walter Gutekunst, accompanied by Mrs. Andy Campbell.

The group was then further entertained by the showing of the beautiful colored pictures taken by Mr. and Mrs. Ted McConnell on their recent trip to Mexico. Their word picture of the events of the trip added much to the interest and closed a most enjoyable evening.

MISSIONARY WILL SPEAK TO METHODISTS

The Reliable Class of the Methodist church will sponsor a lecture and potluck supper at the church Wednesday evening, Feb. 29. Supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. and will be followed by a talk by the Rev. Sam Burns, a returned missionary from Africa, who will tell of the work done there, illustrating his lecture with pictures taken in Sudan region. The Rev. Burns' work has been interdenominational and the public as well as all church members is urged to attend.

for Monday Club

"The Room Upstairs," a play dealing with the old problem of in-laws living in one home was ably presented by the drama department of the Monday Club at their meeting this week.

Mrs. Edward Harper was program leader and Mrs. LeRoy Titley directed the play. The frustrated daughter-in-law was played by Mrs. Carlos Jones while Mrs. Perry Hayden was the mother who lived with her daughter and son-in-law, parts taken by Mrs. Lynn Hubbard and Mrs. Lillian Hoagland. The latter group reveal their own problems while counceling her in regard to her situation.

In the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Herbert Murphy before the program, letters were read and signed by those present to be sent to Rep. Amil Peltz, Rep. Rollo Conlin and State Senator Elmer Porter. They voiced the club's approval of the bill which would give the conservation commission power to set hunting seasons and to forbid roadside hunting.

A letter was also read which had been received from Goodwill Industries, Inc. confirming the date of March 19 for a possible visit of the club to their facilities in Detroit.

The hostess committee served refreshments with Mrs. E. H. McConnell and Mrs. James Quigley at the tea services. The table was decorated in patriotic colors with a centerpiece of red carnations, white chrysanthemums and small American flags.

CHILD STUDY CLUB HAS FAMILY NIGHT

The annual family night of the Child Study Club was held at the Episcopal parish house Monday evening. There was a potluck supper at 6:30 with Mrs. Stanley Kruse, Mrs. Lee Prettyman and Mrs. W. N. Winfield as hostesses.

Mrs. Douglas Murdock and Mrs. Proctor Pace were in charge of the evening's entertainment which included games for both children and adults. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Titley.

FATHER-SON BANQUET DATE SET FOR FEB. 29

CITY OF TECUMSEH COUNCIL MEETING
February 20, 1956

Present: Mayor Hanna; Councilmen Hamilton, Moore, Powell, Purkey, Schwartz.

Absent: Titley.

Meeting opened with the invocation by Councilman Schwartz.

Minutes of meeting held February 6th, 1956 were read and approved.

Motion Purkey and seconded Schwartz the bills amounting to $5,341.39 be allowed and orders drawn up for the same. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hamilton and seconded Powell, E. J. Nelson, City Manager be appointed to act as administrator for the City of Tecumseh and shall represent the municipality in all transactions with the State Highway Commissioner. Motion carried unanimously.

A communication from the city attorney regarding Bills that are pending before the State Legislature or Senate which are matters of general municipal or civic interest was read.

The following resolution was presented:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of this Municipality that House Bill 14 and Senate Bill 1014 provide for increased tax exemptions upon a discriminatory basis; and

WHEREAS this Municipality is opposed to discrimination in tax matters and is further opposed to the removal of the taxing power from the control of the local unit of self government.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Municipality indicate its firm opposition to House Bill 14 and Senate Bill 1014 on the grounds that said bills are discriminatory in nature and an improper invasion of the powers of local government.

2. That the City Clerk transmit a copy of this Resolution to Representative Rollo Conlin and Senator Elmer Porter and to any other State Personnel whom the Clerk deems a proper recipient of said Resolution.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest: Noami Sallows, Clerk
Dated: 20 February 1956

Motion Powell and seconded Purkey to adopt the foregoing resolution. Motion carried unanimously.

The following resolution was presented

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of this Municipality that House Bill 7 is a measure designed to prohibit the City from leasing any concession in any of its buildings to other than a blind person; and

WHEREAS, although this City has no concessions at this time, such a measure is deemed pernicious in that concessions may be sometime available in which no blind person would be interested, and

WHEREAS such a measure would tend to limit the powers of local government in the transaction of its own affairs.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Municipality register its firm opposition to House Bill 7 on the grounds that it is discriminatory in nature, monopolistic in character, and is an invasion of the proper rights of local government.

2. That the City Clerk transmit a copy of this Resolution to Representative Rollo Conlin and Senator Elmer Porter and to any other State personnel whom the Clerk deems a proper recipient of said Resolution.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest:
Naomi Sallows, Clerk
Dated: 20 February 1956

Motion Hamilton and seconded Schwartz the foregoing resolution be adopted. Motion carried unanimously.

The following resolution was presented

WHEREAS House Bill 6 provides a criminal offense for any Councilman to hire a policeman for over 40 hours per week; and

WHEREAS it has come to the attention of this Municipality that said measure is supported by an organized lobby at our State Capitol; and

WHEREAS this Municipality is firmly opposed to the dictation of its affairs by either a lobby, or lobby sponsored legislation, and it is further opposed to the invasion of powers of local government.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That this Municipality register its firm disapproval of House Bill 6 on the grounds that it is a featherbedding measure, a measure sponsored by a self-seeking lobby, as an improper and expensive restriction on the hours of work, and is an improper invasion of the powers of local government.

2. That the City Clerk transmit a copy of this Resolution to Representative Rollo Conlin and Senator Elmer Porter and to any other State personnel whom the Clerk deems a proper recipient of said Resolution.

RESOLUTION DECLARED ADOPTED.

Attest:
Naomi Sallows, Clerk
Dated: 20 February 1956

Motion Purkey and seconded Powell the foregoing resolution be

Scouts Plans Benefit Show for March 16

"Scoutorama" is the name chosen by the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association for its benefit show to be given Friday evening, March 16 in the Products Union Hall.

Twenty troops of Brownies and Girl Scouts will produce a program of interest for all ages. A musical skit, "The Bachelor Takes a Wife", is one of the many features of entertainment.

Mrs. LeRoy Titley is the general chairman and several committees are all ready at work on the plans to make the affair a success.

---

Guessed Pennies

Mrs. S. J. MacDonald of Saline won the penny guessing contest at the Adrian Federal Savings and Loan Association's booth at the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Show. The bowl held $63.12 in pennies. She guessed $63.03. Mrs. MacDonald won $10.

Carl Kempf of Tecumseh won the second prize of $5 with a guess of $63.50.

Grant Judgements in Circuit Court

Five former employees of Time Laboratories, Inc. were granted judgements against the company in circuit court last week. The suits were for back wages.

Amounts of the judgements were $3,181.50 to Lee Kelley; $1,185.95 to Anna Bryan; $445.34 to Burlin Brees; $326.56 to Lowell Kelley; and $214.02 to Agnes Kelley. The plaintiffs were represented by John Ziegler.

A default judgement of $625 and $25 costs was granted to Joe O'Pravil of Tecumseh against H. W. Dillon of Tecumseh. Mr. O'Pravil was represented by John Ziegler in action to collect a promissory note.

In other circuit court action Charles A. and Luella J. Seitz of Tecumseh, represented by James C. Beardsley, filed an answer in a suit brought against them by Milton A. Wagner of Adrian.

Mr. Wagner is represented by Moran & Mack in the dispute over a real estate transaction.

Mr. and Mrs. Seitz deny that they accepted an offer by Mr. Wagner to purchase a lot they own in Tecumseh. They claim that Mr. Wagner suffered no damage in the negotiation.

EXTENSION CLUB MEETS

Twelve members and one guest of the Raisin Green Bees met at the home of Mrs. Willard Zwick Monday [illegible] 20. The meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Edwin Gove.

Roll call was responded to by a favorite book. A report was given by Mrs. Robert Beevers and Mrs. Edwin Gove on the recent program planning meeting. It was suggested at that meeting that all members of extension clubs save coupons for silverware to be sent to the extension sponsored schools in Okinawa, where there is a shortage of silverware.

Mrs. Gove announced that the district tea would be held March 20 at 2 p.m. at the Holloway Presbyterian church. Each club is to bring two dozen cookies and a donation for expenses.

Mrs. Gove then gave a report of the book, "Last of Summer" which was followed by a short lesson on civil defense given by Mrs. Edward Osburn. The evening ended with a social hour.

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

MRS. LOUIS CATERINA called to report that her son Joey, 7, was saved from possible drowning by neighbor Paul Rogers. Joey fell into a pond on the Caterina place on Newburg road a week ago yesterday. Mr. Rogers, passing by, saw him floundering and jumped into the waist-high, chilly water, to pull the boy out.

JACK OSBURN SAYS Robins seen are not really signs of spring. But women in shorts are, he adds. Jack saw a woman go into the Kroger store in shorts Monday.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO if somebody told you to put the goldfish in the refrigerator and put salt on them? This happened recently when we cleaned the aquarium. The two youngest made this strange request. It was quite logical, too. They had seen bluegills, bass and perch meet this cold fate last summer and they thought the goldies would end up the same stiff way.

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

A four-year study of black bears in the upper peninsula indicates the black bear, tough and wily as he is, can still be live-trapped.

Game workers at the Conservation Department's Cusino wildlife experiment station have live-trapped 44 bears since 1952; of the duped animals, 27 were males.

The trapping experiment was designed to gain more information about the bear's travels and habits. After being trapped, the bear was put under anesthetic, weighed, measured, tagged, had a claw clipped and was released before he regained consciousness.

Hunters are urged to check venison and other game meat in their frozen food lockers.

The law requires that special permits be obtained if game meat is kept more than 60 days after the close of the season. This 60-day period has elapsed on most game species.

Game meat may be stored indefinitely under permits which are issued by conservation officers.

Michigan state forests produced a record $596,545 in timber products during 1955.

The 23 public forests in northern Michigan have produced increasing amounts of pulp, sawlogs and posts in recent years to provide more revenue for the state.

In 1952, public timber lands produced $280,000; in 1953 this jumped to $392,000 and in 1954 a total of $507,000 was turned back to the state.

Onsted Defeats Britton, 63 to 47

Britton-Macon Tories lost a Little Six League game to Onsted Friday night, 63 to 47.

Leading all the way, Onsted jumped off to a 19 to 9 first quarter lead and was ahead 31 to 22 at intermission.

The Wildcats outscored the Tories 16 to 8 in the third period, but the Tories had a 17 to 16 edge in the final period.

Eddie Hadden produced 18 points for the winners to cop scoring honors with Larry Patterson of Britton who also had 18.

Britton's reserves won the prelim 47 to 42.

Boysville Loses to Pinckney, 43 - 36

Boysville's Fighting Knights, playing without three regulars who were disciplined for breaking training rules, fought for three quarters before being downed by Pinckney 43 to 36 in a League of the Lakes basketball game Friday night.

Pinckney took a slender 8 to 6 first quarter lead and held a 15 to 14 first half edge.

The Knights were able to gain only eight points in the third period while the Pirates added 14. The two teams tied 14 all in the final period.

Tom Wylie was leading Pirate trouble maker with 19. Bob Temerowski led the Knights with 12.

Junior High Cops One of 4 Games

Tecumseh junior high teams last week were able to salvage only one of four cage games played. The eighth grade team, previously undefeated, lost its first game of the season to Saline, 31-22. The team came back later in the week, however, to trounce Blissfield, 31 to 11.

The seventh grade team lost to Saline 36 to 20 and lost to Blissfield 21 to 16.

Bruce led Tecumseh against the Saline seventh graders with six points. Ross was top baby Indian in the Blissfield game with five.

Tracy led the Saliners with 10. Hassen led Blissfield seventh graders with 11.

Results last week cut the seventh graders down to three wins and four losses.

Against Saline the eighth graders were led in a losing cause by Jim Curth with three and two for eight points. Taylor and Fuberman led the winners with 10 each.

Jim Beach led the eighth grade team against the Sugar Boys with seven points. Bangater led Blissfield with six.

Results of the week's play gave the eighth grade team a record of six wins and a single loss.

Indians Again Tie for League Lead

Tecumseh high school kept doggedly in the Southeastern League title chase by dumping Airport Community Friday night, 63 to 42. The win gave the Indians a 6-1 league record and a tie for the league leadership with the Hillsdale Hornets who also have a 6-1 record.

After a dull first period during which each team felt out the other, the Indians took a 9-4 lead which was never relinquished. With each team scoring 15 points in the second period, the Indians went ahead of the Jets 24 to 19 at intermission.

And pouring it on, the Lawson men outscored the Jets 18 to 12 in the third period to increase their lead by 11 points. In the final quarter again finishing strong, the Indians did even better, gaining another 10 point bulge by outpointing the Shadford team 21 to 11.

The Indian players contributed 46 points of the 63 total registered. Ken Miller with seven and three had 17; Mike Sisson with six and three had 16; and Bill Hansen with five and four had 14.

Two Airport players scored 29 of their team's 42 points. With five and three Ron Hatcher, Jet star, totalled 13; and Ron Breitner with eight and 0 had 16.

In the preliminary the Jets mauled Doug Murdoch's Papoose team, 65 to 46. Dave Elliott was top Indian with 12 and Yoakum and McDowell added 10 each.

IF

IF—Tecumseh high school gets past Bedford Friday night in the ball game at the local gym . . .

IF—Airport Community can upset Hillsdale . . .

Then Tecumseh would have a 7-1 record with Hillsdale's record 6-2 and Tecumseh would win the Southeastern League cage title.

IF—Bedford beats Tecumseh and Airport beats Hillsdale . . . Tecumseh and Hillsdale would tier for the league title.

IF—Hillsdale should beat Airport and Bedford should beat Tecumseh . . .

Well, why bring that up?

Commenting on the Passing Scene

A report in the "Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record" for Feb. again shows that the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh is the largest bank in Lenawee County.

Based on assets, the local bank with assets in excess of $16,000,000 is rated 50th among the 204 banks in the state listed in the new ranking.

The bank ranked nearest to United Savings is the Commercial Savings Bank of Adrian in 64th place with assets in excess of $12,000,000: then comes the Lenawee County Savings Bank of Adrian in 72nd place with assets in excess of $11,000,000; it is followed by the Adrian State Savings Bank of Adrian in 141st place with assets in excess of $5,000,000.

Based on assets, the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh not only is the largest bank in the county, it is the largest "small town" bank in the state. The 49 banks ahead of the local bank are located in the state's largest and medium-sized cities.

All of us should be mighty proud of this fine banking record.

THE BLISSFIELD BOARD of Education last week gave $1000 to help support the Blissfield Band uniform drive. The $1000 was turned over to the Blissfield Band Booster's fund which now has more than $3000 for the project.

The Morenci Board of Education gave $190 to its band uniform drive.

It would be a fine gesture on the part of the Tecumseh Board of Education if it could see its way clear to help support the current band uniform drive here.

THAT GETTING AN industry for a town is a competitive venture can be cited in figures from an article in "Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record." The article reported that manufacturers wishing to expand or to move currently have 234 plants in Michigan from which to choose. And the article further stated: "These buildings are located in 119 communities, many of which are also willing and able to assist in financing industrial construction or in purchasing sites for plant locations."

The fact that there are so many towns in the state seeking new industries and the fact that many of the towns are offering real help in acquiring industries clearly points out that the acquisition of a new industry is a highly competitive business.

But it can be done. City after city in the state today, working in close cooperation with the Michigan Economic Development Department, are reporting new industries.

What Others Say

Sen. Elmer Porter (R) of Blissfield thinks Gov. Williams is too wordy.

Sen. Porter commented recently: "In seven messages to the legislature there was a total of 25,095 words. The paper on which they were typed ran 60½ feet. That's a lot of words. The Ten Commandments say a lot in 70 words. I counted them."

Realty Views

As I was walking down the street in Lansing recently, I spotted a "familiar face" about to enter a store. I spoke and John Jordan whirled to greet me.

"You're just the fellow I've been thinking about," he said with a believe-it-or-not attitude.

"How come?" I replied, "It's been about two years since I've seen you."

"Yes," he said, "it has. I moved here on a temporary assignment that long ago. Now the job has proved to be permanent. So instead of continuing to rent out our house in Tecumseh we've decided to sell it and use the money to buy a home here. My wife and I just agreed last night that we'd write to you and ask you to sell it."

"This saves you the trouble," I said, then added with a grin, "Saving sellers' trouble is the basis of our business."

Before long, we sold John Jordan's home.

But here's what is worrying me: We may not happen to meet YOU on the street when you plan to sell your house. So why not call or write when the need arises. We'll take over from there!

She Can Be A Beautiful Grandmother, Too!

She is beautiful now. But will she be beautiful at 60? That depends largely on her. Oh, the bloom of youth will fade, but the beauty that lasts comes from within.

"There is no cosmetic for beauty like happiness," a lady once said. Millions say that there is no happiness like that which comes from worship.

Will you be a soured ugly person at 60? Or will people say you're beautiful? What is the answer?

The Answer Is God. Worship Him in Church Every Week—At Home Every Day.

PLACED ON PROBATION FOR LEAVING ACCIDENT

James H. McGuire, 46, of Tecumseh, was put on one year probation by Judge Rex Martin in circuit court.

McGuire, who had been found guilty by a jury of leaving the scene of a personal injury accident, was also sentenced to spend 90 days in jail with credit being given for the time served since his arrest Nov. 1. He must pay $50 costs.

McGuire drove away after his automobile was involved in a four-car accident Nov. 1 near Tecumseh. Two persons were hurt.

SECOND GRADE— WEST BRANCH
Miss LaPointe

We are glad to welcome two new pupils to our group. They are Judy Hicks who came from Hudson, and Junior Gomez of Loredo, Texas.

Our progress in doing cursive writing seems to be satisfactory. Every member of the class was eagerly waiting for an opportunity to begin this type of writing.

The "social event" of this semester was the Valentine party. Everyone had a happy time and all received many pretty valentines.

In the recent Weekly Reader achievement test three pupils made perfect scores, and seven missed only one or two questions.

February birthdays are Alanzo Sanchez the 9th, Barbara Wood and Ricky Brighton on Washington's birthday.

We are enjoying the book entitled "Abe Lincoln" the frontier boy, by Augusta Stevenson. We are grateful to Michael Robison for loaning us the book.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Thomas

"Dem Bones, dem bones, dem dry bones." "Dry Bones," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "Sixteen Tons," and "Little White Duck" are among the songs that we have been singing during our music class with Mrs. Smith. Many of us saw Mrs. Olson, a teacher, on television when she won a great deal of money and made "Little White Duck" popular. We love to sing.

Valentine day has come and gone. We decorated our bulletin board with valentine pictures and pictures of Lincoln and Washington whose birthdays are in February. Three of our mothers baked cakes for us. We also had a soft drink and candy hearts. It was fun to read the words and the hearts. Everything tasted so good!

We have now table partners once again. We wrote on a piece of paper three people whom we would work well with and like to sit next to. As far as it was possible, we are sitting next to one of our choices. It's fun to change table partners. We learn how to work with different people.

Kay Southwell and Barbara Poskarbiewicz celebrate their birthdays this month. Happy birthday girls!

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Whiting

The girls were hostesses for our Valentine party, as the boys had been hosts for our Hallowe'en party. Corky Squires and Karen Heberlein brought gayly decorated Valentine boxes to hold our many valentines.

Carol McClure and Mary Louise Dinse have had birthdays this month, along with George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

The girls won our arithmetic contest two weeks ago, and the boys won last week. So far this week the boys are ahead so the girls are studying the flash cards in their spare time, hoping to win next time. We've been pretty evenly divided, with Eldon Miller, Dennis Linden, Christine Solarski and Mike Wilson being high scorers most often, but everyone is improving.

We have had our bulletin boards decorated with pictures of life in Bunga's land and in Baffin Island, which we have been reading about in geography this month. We all like our geography very much, and find it interesting to read about children of other lands.

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Miller

We had lots of fun at our Valentine party. The boys gave the party and furnished the refreshments. The refreshments were popcorn balls, cupcakes or cookies, and kool-aid. Cathy Custard gave each child a valentine cookie, with their own name on it, instead of valentines.

We have had several visitors this month. Mrs. Lard came and brought baby Kelly for us to enjoy. Mrs. Oberlin came one afternoon and stayed to watch our gym period. She had made cookies and brought us each one. YUM!

This semester we are studying Children in Other Lands instead of science. It is interesting to see why other children live differently.

John Oberlin
Murray Richardson

FOURTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Bailey

We had a lovely Valentine party Tuesday. No one was absent and each one of us received many Valentines. For our refreshments we had brownies, candy, and pop.

We have just one birthday in February. Michael Hannah was ten years old on Ground Hog's Day.

In memory of Arbaham Lincoln, Mrs. Bailey read us the story "Martin and Abraham Lincoln." For our story every morning we are enjoying "Rin Tin Tin's Rinty."

In arithmetic we are learning our eights and nines and use them in our games with the cards now. In social studies we have just finished studying about New Orleans. We have learned a lot about this city also New York City. Next we are going to learn about Seattle. In geography we are studying about Eskimos. We are making a model of their summer homes and drawing a picture of a trading post on the blackboard.

At the P.T.A. meeting we had largest percentage of parents present and received two dollars. We are very proud of our mothers and daddies.

Guernsey Group Holds Banquet

The Lenawee County Guernsey Breeders Association held their annual meeting and banquet Tuesday, Feb. 14 at the Methodist church in Adrian.

Myron Jacob, Riga; Don Fatchett, Blissfield; Dorman Goodlock, Adrian; and August Schmidt, Clayton, were elected to serve three year terms on the board of directors.

President Clyde Goodlock of Clayton, presided over the business meeting. The state spring Guernsey sale will be held March 31, at the sales pavilion in East Lansing.

Eldon Dudley, chairman of the 4-H Club committee, announced that Marilee Jacob had been chosen as the most outstanding boy or girl in club work in Lenawee County for the year of 1955.

Famous Track Star G. Cunningham Will Speak Here

Dr. Glenn Cunningham, famous track star of the 1930's, is returning to Michigan for another series of public appearances, under the auspices of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, Inc.

GLENN CUNNINGHAM

He will appear at Tecumseh high school Friday, March 2, at 8:15 a.m. His topic is, "I Want Youth to Have The Right Start!"

Glenn Cunningham is known to millions of Americans as the greatest American miler of our time, but his life story is almost legendary—how he out-lived burns on his legs and body in a boyhood fire and started running to gain back his strength and health. His deep determination to succeed carried him on to Kansas University, where he once held the world mile record of 4:06.7 (1934) and added the two-mile and other standards in subsequent competition.

He has a national reputation in the field of physical education. He served in the Navy in World War II as Physical Training Officer in San Diego and at the Great Lakes Naval Training Base.

In 1938 he was chosen by 600 of the nation's top sports writers to receive the Sullivan Award as outstanding athlete of the year. He was captain of the American track team touring Europe and the Orient in 1933 and in 1936 his fellow athletes named him the most popular member of the U. S. Olympic team.

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOJBORG

March 3, 1955
Thursday

The searing sun is finally going down behind the banana trees. Six-thirty and it still reads 94 degrees in the dark mess tent. Across the river a Mama and her singing boy have come down to fill the teakettle; down stream a group of natives are happily swiming in the muddy water; our boys are plunking on the guitar; and I'm miserably wiping the drops of water from my glasses, swatting the sweat flies who stick to my legs, and shudder with the thought that we have another week of this torture. Have fixed myself a fresh lime drink, limes we unconsciously had cooned from the District Commissioner's lime orchard next to our camp.

March 4, 1955
Friday

Another day has started. Seven o'clock in the morning and I'm sitting in the same jeep, same surroundings, but under a different tree. Up at five o'clock, have investigated the two lion baits. Our ostrich has been partly torn down.

Two elephants dashed across the road in front of the car this morning, evidently in a hurry for their morning bath. Jens and Andy are now stalking down toward the river. Had a long day yesterday. We drove 67 miles out in the plains —67 miles over sand roads—67 miles to drive back. When we stopped for lunch, not a breeze was stirring. I ate two sweet crackers and a forkful of corned beef and crawled back in the jeep to get away from the ants. Even Jens couldn't take it and came with me. Andy stretched out under the tree and slept. The boys cut huge chunks of meat (about five pounds each) from the gerenuk Jens had shot and roasted in on sticks over a fire.

RHINOS GIVE SHOW

It was also an exciting day. We caught up with two rhinos chugging down the middle of the road; later I spied one sleeping under a tree. We tried to get it to charge, the boys making grotesque sounds at it from the top of the car. It stamped its feet, pawed the ground, and snorted, put on a little show for our camera, but then walked away.

Two cheetahs also came out on the road, but ducked back too quickly into the bush to give Jens a shot. He did get a bull gerenuk and a hunter's antelope which is quite scarce. These two trophies took one whole day and its work, but Jens loves it. If they can possibly get an elephane each, quickly, we can head for Nairobi—the sooner the better.

Nairobi's elevation is 5,000 feet; hot during the day, but a dry heat, and cool at night. Here it is hot and humid all the time. Lizards run over everything. Must shake boots first, look into your bag with a flashlight; Jens found a scorpion on his gun barrel. Must wear mosquito boots and long trousers in the evening, also a long sleeved shirt, against the malaria mosquitos. Last night we had our cots moved outside under the stars. Was too weak to even feel nervous about the lion the boys had heard grunting around camp, nor did the wretching call of the hyena keep me awake.

I want a ship that's westward bound
To cross the rolling sea.
To the blessed land of room enough
Across the ocean bars
Where the air is full of sunshine,
And the flag is full of stars!

ELEPHANTS EXCITE

Eight-thirty—never a dull moment. My native boy clambered in behind the wheel, drove a little, and we watched two elephants and two babies march by down to the river. Looked like big tusks to me, but I get so excited everything is out of proportion. Now we've just heard one "bang" and it must be Papa down in the forest. Sohi is scanning the landscape and I'm shaking. Oh—if Jens could get a good one!

An hour later—did he get one? A huge lion! Came across four of the beasts sleeping under a tree. Three slunk off in the thick bush, but the bull made the mistake of looking Papa in the eye. One of the boys came back the two miles for me (I had waited tensely for an hour after hearing the shot). We took the jeep into the forest as far as it would go, and then I scurried nervously along, single file between the two boys. We picked our way among [illegible] vines, hopped over fallen tree trunks, brushed through the thorny brambles—exotic trees and palm leaves overhead, making it a shadowy, mysterious glen, and I didn't know whether to make lots of noise to scare the wild beasts away, or if I should go quietly so not to disturb them.

Oh, dear me, said the white rabbit. But with relief we came to a little opening and there was Papa —a long yellow beast stretched out on the ground—and Jens grinning from ear to ear. The boys cleared branches to let in more light for picture taking; Daddy twisted the lion's tail for Frank Smith as he had promised to do, and the beast was skinned. Mohamed took the lion fat which to them is the same as goose grease to us at home. The car rolled into camp, the white flag flying again. Jens was borne high and enthusiastically congratulated. We drank champagne with our dinner that night!

NEW MONTCLAIR PHAETON 4-DOOR HARDTOP—Newest, most beautiful 4-door hardtop of them all. No center pillars, of course. But more important, no view-cramping curve to the roof. Rear-seat passengers enjoy full visibility. Dramatic styling touches distinguish the Phaeton from all other 4-door hardtops.

Here's why so many small car owners are moving up to the Big M!

1. PROVABLE VALUE You get far more car for your money. Big-car size, weight, and power. Big-car luxury and prestige. Remember, too, that Mercury's low starting price, low operating cost and consistently high resale value make Mercury the top value in its field.

2. REFLEX-ACTION PERFORMANCE You not only get high horsepower in THE BIG M, you get a car with the reflexes of a champion athlete. Go, stop, climb, pass—THE BIG M responds instantly to your every command. On rough roads and curves—THE BIG M adjusts instantly for ease and comfort.

3. LOW COST Prices start low for THE BIG M. For example, the beautiful and powerful Mercury Medalist is priced below many models in the "low-price 3."* And you have a wide choice of body styles and color options in Mercury's newest, lowest-priced Medalist series.

4. BIG M BEAUTY Mercury has a look of distinction all its own. You see it in the sleek, road-hugging profile. In the fresh, youthful lines. In the sparkling new colors—rich solid-tones, radiant two-tones, and new Flo-Tone color styling.

5. SAFETY-FIRST DESIGN There's a whole new family of safety advances. At no extra cost, you get an impact-absorbing safety steering wheel and triple-strength door locks. And, as options, there are seat belts and a padded instrument panel.

The Diary of Thomas Wright

Sept. 25—

Sabbath. Attended worship and Bible class. (Editor's note. Mr. Wright worshipped with the small group of Episcopalians who at that time were meeting in homes, in the Court House or the school. St. Peter's church was built a few years later.)

I was by vote of all chosen teacher of the class during Mr. Darwin's sickness. Mr. Darwin, our minister, as well as almost everyone else is sick, also the two deacons so that there are no church officers to carry on public worship. Mr. T. Finch and myself for the past two Sabbaths have had to conduct it or else not have any. This state of things continued all winter; indeed until the middle of May 1832 perhaps no one Sabbath passed but I was called on to take a part in the exercises.

Concluded to buy and bargained for Eliphalet Clark's farm for 600 dollars. This joined my land and had a shell of a house on it and 10 acres broke up, sown to wheat and fenced. (Note—This farm evidently was situated along the Newburg road). There were two families in it (the house) all unfurnished as it was. And it was not until the 12th of Nov. that I got a deed. We now went to work to get in lumber, but being wholly unpracticed in cutting down large trees, myself and the boys made hard work of it and hard work to load them to go to the mill. For a few days I hired a team and then bought 2 yoke of cattle for 110 dollars Nov. 7th. Some seasoned boards I had to buy where I could find them and bring them home. White wood cost $8 per M.

Oct. 3—

Today the family removed to Mr. Hall's house, occupying the south half of it. (Note—This was probably the original large house on the Roscoe Hewlett farm which burned ten years ago.) Here we felt as if we had made some change for the better but it was small. We had a chamber where the boys slept. We had to ceil up the room with blankets. Tho it was not much better the family were more satisfied. I had now got bedsteads for three beds and the fourth on the floor. Mrs. W. and I occupied one bed, Frances and Harriett another, Augusta and Roswell on the floor, all in one room which filled it. The beds were separated by curtains made of sheets. Moses and Peter upstairs. Here we slept and ate and then went a mile and a half to the farm to work.

Oct. 6—

This lasted only three days when both Mrs. W. and Frances were taken sick. To get a nurse was impossible for almost everybody were sick and either myself, Moses or Peter must be left at the house to take care of four sick ones. In the good Providence of God, Harriett retained her health otherwise I know not how we should have done. All that a girl of her age could do she did. We once got a woman to do our washing, one week the boys washed but for many weeks I had to do it with Harriett's help.

Oct. 17—

It was not until now that we were able to begin work on the house by laying a floor and not until the 25th that I could get a joiner to work on my house.

Oct. 26—

Snow storm. We have had many storms this fall and much high wind and several severe storms of thunder and lightning. High winds, particularly south winds affect us where we now live very much.

Nov. 1—

Got oven made.

Nov. 3—

Women rode out. In the course of this month I began to experience evil. I had indeed anticipated how I could winter my cattle. I had made a bargain with J. McRay to take and keep one pair for their use. The other I wanted and must keep. I had no barn or shelter for them. We however made a shelter for the cattle but a shelter for fodder was needed. I found straw very difficult to be bought and could get none but of one man. When here in summer I had supposed I had provided for this difficulty as I had engaged brother Cleaveland to furnish me as much hay as I should want. But he was sick and I was disappointed in this as in other things. My only alternative was to get potatoes and corn, and here the ill luck attended me. I had engaged 70 or 80 bushels but before I could get them home winter set in. They were not sufficiently covered to be secure from the frost and a great portion of them froze. These we boiled and gave to the cattle and hogs so that in the whole we really lost but few. I bought a stack of prairie hay of Dn. Hall for 9 dollars but it proved very much damaged and was not worth more than half what I paid for it. But by means of straw, sedge hay, corn and potatoes we succeeded to winter a pair of cattle and two sows; one of which on the 24th of December brought us ten pigs all of which we saved.

About the first of December we had got our house fixed so as to be comfortable and on the 5th of Dec. the family removed to a house of our own. I was then absent, my business having called me to Detroit. The winter set in on the 21st of Nov. and was severe. I had bought beef sufficient for the family and had brought pork with me; wheat I sent to Adrian to be floured and wood was plenty at home. So that the family wintered comfortably. We had indeed to bring all our water from Evans Creek and keep it in the house in barrels.

Two Tons Big
(It's the Buick SPECIAL— and you really ought to try it!)

This is the one that's going to town in a BIG way. And you'll know what we mean when you take its measure—by any yardstick you choose.

By the pound and inch, it's the biggest bundle of high-powered action and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

By the dollar sign, it's a value so big that Buick outsells every other car in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

But not till you've put this 1956 Buick SPECIAL to the road can you know what a big-time performer it truly is.

You'll know it by the instant response and purring might of a 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that's been lofted to new peaks of power and compression.

You'll know it by the flash-away action of a new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* that steps up getaway and gas-mileage in normal situations—and zooms to full-power acceleration for a needed safety-surge when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

You'll know it by your complete mastery of a big car that handles like a dream—steers like a wish—and rides like a cloud in the blue.

BIG—that's the word for this Buick SPECIAL . . .

BIG—coming, going, or standing still . . .

BIG—in its stretch-out roominess—in its sweeping beauty—in its solid steadiness . . .

BIG, most of all, in the way it makes your money talk . . .

Come in — soon — and let this Buick speak for itself. We think you'll find it sweet listening.

of the council during the past year.

The council, formed in 1949, is a cooperative organization of 19 state governmental agencies and associate members. Gerald E. Eddy, director of the Conservation Department, is chairman of the council's executive committee.

Recreational information and assistance are available to communities that contact the Inter-Agency Council's office at Lansing, 26.

More than 1,500,000 fishermen tested their skill in Michigan's lakes and streams last year and made record catches in at least one region.

A check of records at Traverse City showed people caught more big fish in the Grand Traverse area in 1955 than in any previous year.

The Traverse City chamber of commerce awarded 260 Che-Ge-Gon plaques to fishermen who landed exceptionally big fish in the area. The plaques get their name from the Indian term for "big fish."

Heading the list of big fish awards were 129 brown trout, including 116 from Lake Leelanau in Leelanau county. The largest brown trout recorded in the area was an 11-pounder taken from the lower Boardman River.

Other record catches included a 27-inch rainbow trout which weighed nine pounds, 11½ ounces; a 22½-inch largemouth bass which topped six pounds; and a 19¾-inch smallmouth bass, weighing five pounds, 10 ounces.

Violations of conservation laws can have expensive and time-consuming consequences.

During a single week in late Jan., 85 violators paid $1513 in fines and court costs and absorbed a total of 120 days in jail sentences.

The convictions list covered a variety of violations, including leaving rubbish on a state park site, shining deer and fishing without license.

Money from fines goes into the state library fund.

Grapplers

A new sport at Tecumseh high school was exhibited to the public between halves of the basketball game Friday night when wrestlers, under the direction of Coach Bob Breniff, went through their paces.

In the 115 pound class Carl Schmidt outpointed Bill Conklin, 17 to 7.

In the 135 pound class Ron Roe and Bill Underwood drew with 10 points each.

And the big boys wrestled in the 165 pound class. Gordon Barth pinned Tony Kasik at 1:58 in the third.

Points are scored in the following manner: taken down, two points; reversal, two points; predicament, one point (putting opponent in place of jeopardy); near fall, two or three points; escape, (neutral position, one point); for one minute or more of accumulated "time advantage," one point.

The Silver Lining

Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

DON MARTIN CLIPPED this reprint of an 1849 farm auction sale from the "Archbold Buckeye" (Ohio): "Having sold my farm and as I am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox team, will offer on March 1, 1849, all my personal property, to-wit: All ox teams except two teams, Buck, Ben, Tom and Jerry; two milk cows; two ox carts; one iron plow with wood mold board; 1500 10-foot fence rails; 60-gallon soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs; 60 gallons maple syrup; two spinning wheels; 30 pound mutton tallow; one big loom made by Jerry Neilson; 300 hoop pines; 100 split hoops; 100 empty barrels; one 32-gallon barrel of Miller whisky, seven years old; 202 gallons of apple brandy; one dozen reel books; three scythes and cradles; two handle hoops; one dozen wooden pitchforks; one-half interest in tan yard; one 32 calibre rifle made by Ben Miller; 50 gallons soft soap; hams, bacon and lard; 40 gallons sorghum molasses; six head fox hounds, all smooth-mouthed but one.

"At the same time I will sell my six Negro slaves, two men 35 and 50; two boys; the mulatto wenches 40 and 39 years old; will sell all to same party as will not separate them.

"Terms of sale: Cash on hand on day of sale or note to draw four per cent interest with Bob McMousel as security. My home is two miles south of Versailles, Ky., on McCarnes Ferry dike. Plenty to eat and drink.—J. L. Moss"

DID YOU KNOW THAT what was once known as University of Michigan is now the University or Michigan? The indefinite article is now being placed in front of the Ann Arbor institution's name. An artist is doing the job on all published material that did not have "the" in front of the name. Do you suppose the "the" has anything to do with the East Lansing school's becoming a university?

WRITING OF EAST LANSING reminds me of the statement made by D. B. Varner, MSU veep, who addressed a farm machinery workshop last week. Speaking to E. D. Colthurst, A. W. Merz, Dick and Fay Whelan and others at the workshop, he said: "More and more, farm people realize that you men are one of the best sources of help in agriculture. Michigan State wants you men to serve as 'unofficial' deputy county agents—without pay."

HERE'S A QUESTION that eludes me, its answer is my goal—how'd they get the toothpaste in through such a little hole?

JIM GOODRICH of Onsted sent clippings from the LaFayette, Indiana, daily newspaper that showed what is thought to be an artist's conception of Chief Tecumseh. It will be recalled that Leon Williamson gave the HERALD similar material some months ago. The new material sent by Jim, however, also describes Chief Tecumseh: "The personal appearance of this remarkable man was uncommonly fine. His height was about five feet, nine inches; his face oval, rather than angular; his nose handsome and straight; his mouth beautifully formed like that of Napoleon I, as represented in his portraits; his eyes clear transparent, hazel with a mild, pleasant expression when in repose or conversation, but when excited in his orations, or by the enthusiasm of conflict, they appeared like balls of fire; his complexion was more a light brown or tan than red. His hands and arms were finely formed; his limbs straight; he always stood erect; and walked with a brisk, elastic and vigorous step; he was invariably dressed in tanned buckskins."

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Another thing that isn't worth what it costs is telling a man what you think of him!"

BULLY TO SMALL Tecumseh boy—"Why run away? I thought you said you could lick me with one hand tied behind your back?"

Small Boy—"I'm just going home to get some string."

KEN DAWSON, CITY MANAGER, formerly of Tecumseh, and other residents of Yuba City, Calif., are observing a late Christmas. The city was flooded in the great Calif. floods and only recently was able to hold Christmas activities.

NEXT WEEK IS BETTER Vision Week. The most interesting publicity concerning this special week is a little piece about Benjamin Franklin, inventor of bifocal and trifocal glasses. Franklin had two pair of glasses—one for seeing and one for reading beyond arm's length. He cut the lenses in half and had half of each inserted in the same frame. The great American invented bifocals at 78 when he was ambassador to France. One of the advantages of bifocals, he said, was to understand French better, because he could see facial expressions of those who talked to him from across the dinner table.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK: A successful man keeps looking for work after he has found a job.—Raymond Duncan

Ridgeway School Polls on Annexing

Folks in Ridgeway School District No. 12 Monday night voted 70 to 19 to ask the state's permission to hold an election concerning the possible annexation of their district to Tecumseh School District No. 11.

After a discussion in which Supt. James McDowell of Tecumseh took part this vote was taken: "Shall the voters of Ridgeway School District No. 12 request approval of the State Department of Public Instruction to conduct a legal election on the question of annexation with Tecumseh School District No. 11?"

Stand Mute on Robbery

Two men stood mute Monday in circuit court on the charge of unarmed robbery.

Larry Hatt, 24, of Fenton, and Charles Bumpus, 21, of Tecumseh, were remanded to the county jail under bonds of $2000 each after the court entered not guilty pleas.

The men are charged with beating and robbing Bruce Osburn of Tecumseh near Tipton Feb. 14.

Clinton state police report the men robbed Osburn of about $50.

CAP Honors Ray Puffer

Civil Air Patrol Cadet Sgt. Raymond Puffer of the Tecumseh C.A.P. squadron has been selected by the Group 17 screening board to represent that entire group at the Wayne screening board of the Civil Air Patrol International cadet exchange program. He was chosen from among cadets sent by squadrons from Ann Arbor, Adrian, Monroe, Flat Rock and Tecumseh.

RAY PUFFER

Wing screening will take place in Detroit March 10. Then six cadets and three alternates will be nominated to represent the Michigan Wing in the C.A.P. Cadet International Exchange program. This year C.A.P. cadets will be exchanged with cadets from Great Britain, Canada, Europe and South American and Latin countries.

Tax Expert Will Give Help on Intangible Taxes

Wednesday, March 21, Douglas Kraner, representing the Michigan Department of Revenue, will be at the United Savings Bank, Tecumseh, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. for the purpose of assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their intangibles tax returns due not later than March 31.

Intangible personal property subject to the tax includes all mortgages, land contracts, bank accounts, cash, postal savings accounts, accounts and notes receivable, corporate stocks, corporate bonds and other similar types of property. However, all United States bonds, are exempt from the tax, and the tax on deposits in Michigan banks and building and loan associations, as well as stocks in Michigan banks, will be paid to the Department of Revenue directly by the banks or building and loan associations.

Under the present law as amended by the Legislature in 1945, all Corporate Stocks are 100 per cent taxable including Michigan Corporations.

The Department has issued a warning to all owners of property, such as is outlined above, to file the necessary return forms prior to March 31. The Revenue Department is constantly engaged in checking stockholders lists, mortgage records, income tax returns and other data for the purpose of discovering evasions of the Intangibles Tax Act. Failure to file a return when a tax is due subjects the taxpayer to severe penalties.

In addition to assisting taxpayers in the preparation of their returns, Mr. Kraner will also be glad to advise any person concerning his liability, if any, under the Intangibles Tax Act.

Those desiring this advice or assistance are requested to bring with them full information concerning their holdings, including the face or par value, and income received therefrom during the year, and copy of the previous year's return filed with the Department.

Special C of C Groups Meet

A retail division of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce will be organized today (Thursday, March 1) at the Tecumseh Country Club.

The luncheon meeting will begin at 1:15 p.m.

A professional division of the chamber of commerce will be started at a dinner meeting at the Tecumseh Country Club Thursday, March 1, at 6:30 p.m.

Officers of each division will be elected by those present. A chairman, vice-chairman and secretary will be elected.

Members of the industrial division will be contacted later in the year.

"Cross Roads"

A Friday evening television program called "Cross Roads" held especial interest for many in Tecumseh. It features a series of life stories of clergymen and dealt last week with a former Tecumseh boy, the Rev. Don Benedict.

An individual thinker even as a school boy, Don Benedict was a conscientious objector and refused to register for the draft even though his cloth would have protected him from active service. Sent to federal prison, he was a model prisoner and aroused the interest of the warden who kept him so well supplied with news regarding the war effort that he came to feel his country was worth fighting for after all.

He enlisted, saw active service and received an honorable discharge. But his interest was still with the under-dog and his life work has been the organizing of "sidewalk churches." It has taken him to New York, Chicago and finally to Cleveland, where he is becoming famous for his work on skid row.

260 Attend Girl Scouts Thinking Day

About 260 Brownies and Girl Scouts, besides adults, saw the films on World Friendship last week which were used as their Thinking Day program.

The Girl Scouts held their program in the auditorium of St. Elizabeth's School Tuesday evening and the Brownies had theirs in the Friends Church Wednesday afternoon after school.

The films included "Assignment Children" with Danny Kaye, "World Friendship, Fiesta," "It's All in Knowing How," and "How to Catch a Cold" and were shown by John Saling on both programs.

Chairman Mrs. Truman Rentschler was assisted by the senior Scouts of Troop No. 11. Jackie Rucker helped with the selection of the films; Barbara Crowell arranged for the meeting places; Joan Johnson led the assembly singing; Joyce Wilbar made replicas of the Girl Scout International houses, Our Chalet in Switzerland and Our Cabana in Mexico and these were used as containers for the Juliette Low Birthday money which is used for World Friendship.

Norma Jewell assisted with the birthday money.

James McDowell Leads Rotary

James McDowell is the new president of the Tecumseh Rotary Club. He was elected at a board of directors' meeting Tuesday night. July 1 he will succeed Herbert Dillon, present president.

Other officers elected include Virgil Tucker, vice-president; Lester Rogers, secretary; and George Green Sr., treasurer.

Mr. Rogers and Mr. Green were re-elected.

New directors are Jim McDowell, Glenn Kohler and Al Merz. Holdover directors are President Dillon, Bob French, Carlos Jones, John Surratt, Virgil Tucker and Howard Truesdale.

In other action the board reinstated the membership of Miles Runk.

Gilbert To Speak at Patterson PTA

Patterson PTA will meet tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. in the gym. Mr. Orrie Gilbert, superintendent of Herrick Memorial hospital, will speak on "The Hospital in Our Community."

A nominating committee also will be elected from the membership to work on the slate for the election of officers which will take place at the April meeting.

Refreshments will be served.

---

ROTARY CLUB WILL HONOR THE LADIES

The Tecumseh Rotary Club will honor their Rotary Anns at a ladies' night dinner next Tuesday in the high school.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Dave Clayton, Boston humorist, will speak.

The public is invited. Tickets may be bought from Rotarians.

MAKE INSPECTION

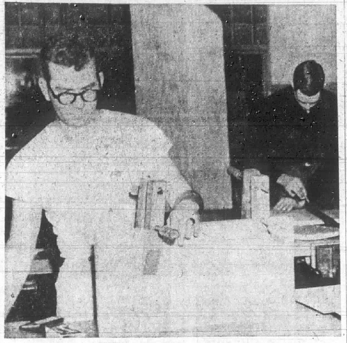
An inspection of all fire prevention equipment of all school buildings in the city was made last Friday by Chief Cecil Alderdyce and his assistant John Hamilton. They found that everything was in good working order.



Ray Shelton and Walt Davenport are two of the 11 students in woodworking. Ray currently is making a night stand and Walt is repairing his daughter's small rocking chair.

Adults Like School

One hundred seventy-seven persons are participating in nine adult evening classes this year. A new record in both the number of class offerings and number of enrollments has been set, according to Delmar Crisp, director.

Most popular in the schedule of classes are men's and women's recreation with 36 and 35 enrollees, respectively.

Commercial classes are running close to capacity with two full sessions of office machines having 12 enrolled, typing with 26, and bookkeeping with 14.

Enthusiastic are the 16 students in oil painting.

The making of picnic tables, clothes closets, and lawn chairs are typical of the projects of the 11 woodworking class members.

Every Wednesday evening melodious selections are to be heard from the newly organized String Quartette.

"With this increased enrollment and continued attendance, we feel that the school is helping to meet the needs of the community," director Crisp said.

(Other pictures are on page two)

Mrs. Maxine Kidd is one of 16 in the oil painting class. She was doing a still life when this picture was taken.

Net $3010 for Band

The drive for the band uniform fund ended Saturday night. Mrs. James Barton, chairman, at a dance attended by 200, reported that $3010 was cleared. Based on $70 a uniform, this means 43 uniforms. The committee sought funds for 70 or $4900.

The committee, Mrs. Barton said, is very pleased with the response of the whole community and wishes to thank all who contributed both money and time as workers. There are no further plans for completing the fund at present, she said, but no doubt something will be announced soon.

It would be impossible to name all the contributors, she said, but there were 10 complete uniforms bought, eight by individual

F.F.A. Present Program for Tecumseh Grange

Tecumseh Grange met Thursday evening following a 7 o'clock potluck supper. The time immediately after the supper was turned over to several F.F.A. boys and their advisor and agricultural instructor, Russell Spaulding from the Britton-Macon school. The boys very capably gave a short presentation of one phase of farming on their farm forum. The Grange membership is anticipating a return visit when the entire program will be placed at their disposal and other aspects of farming will be presented.

It was voted during the business meeting to make a donation to the school for retarded children and it was announced that a member had made a donation of a pint of blood at Parkview hospital for a patient from Adrian.

The health committee, composed of Mrs. Edna Bortel, Blanch Everette and Carrie Murphy then presented Mrs. W. A. Frederick, who showed a film on the subject of cancer, its detection and treatment, which was most capably explained. She also answered questions.

Bridge

Just off M-50 on north Occidental road is a sign that warns that the bridge on the road is unsafe for trucks.

High water during the severe storm last Friday night and early Saturday morning also proved that the bridge is unsafe for homes in the area.

The concrete core of the bridge has dropped down, damming the flow of water in Evans Creek. And the water overflowed the banks with a lot of it ending up in the basement of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Purkey's comparatively new home.

Lee had a service call about 3 a.m. Saturday morning and it was lucky he did. When he got up he saw the water in the kitchen. A sand bagging job was in order and the Purkeys worked desperately to stem the onrushing tide. Then they ran out of sand and about 6:30 Lee called Ed Nelson, city manager, and more sand was brought out.

Saturday at 1 p.m. traces of the water could still be seen on the kitchen floor.

Before the city annexed the area a little more than two years ago the bridge was a Tecumseh Township problem.

But now it is a city problem. Councilmen and the city manager recognize the problem. At the last council meeting the city manager told councilmen that something would have to be done about [illegible]. He said it would cost about $1400.

Red Cross Drive Begins

The biggest American Red Cross fund campaign in 10 years is under way with the National chapter facing a financial crisis. The worst disaster year in American history has all but exhausted American Red Cross disaster emergency funds.

Mrs. L. W. Larsen, local chairman, said the severe floods in the east and in the west and tornadoes and hurricanes made necessary a tremendous increase in the national goal. This years goal, she said, is 15 per cent higher than last year's contributions.

Although there will be no Red Cross solicitation in Tecumseh because the Red Cross is included in the Community Fund drive, Mrs. Larsen said that because the need is so great contributions may be sent directly to her.

The Community Fund pledge here was $2,500.

The Lenawee County Chapter's goal is $13,000, or about $2,400 over last year's goal.

The Red Cross drive begins today, Thursday, March 1, and continues through March 31.

Conservation Club Sets Banquet

The Tecumseh Conservation Club banquet will be held Wednesday, March 14.

It will be held in the Tecumseh Products Workers' Union Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Lou Klewer, outdoor editor of the Toledo Blade, will speak.

Tickets may be purchased from Mike Hite, Jim Spooner and Karl Schneider.

City and Britton Get Road Funds

Net receipts of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the fourth quarter of the calendar year 1955 amounted to $31,631,826.04, and this money is now being distributed to the State Highway Department, the counties, and the cities and incorporated villages of the state.

Net receipts of the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the fourth quarter of 1954 were $29,700,924,55, representing an increase of $1,931,901.49 for the fourth quarter of 1955, compared to the same period in 1954.

Gross collections for the fourth quarter of 1955 amounted to $32,640,247.04, from which was deducted the Secretary of State's collection costs amounting to $1,008,421.

Tecumseh will get $7,527.39 and Britton will get $844.19.

The current distribution does not include any funds collected under Act 87, Public Acts of 1955, which increased the gas tax from four and one-half to six, and provided 75 per cent of this money go to the State Highway Department for use on certain designated trunklines, and other 25 per cent to cities, counties and incorporated villages.

Of this amount Tecumseh will get [illegible] and Brit[illegible] get $100.99.

Girl Scouts Set Scoutorama for March 16

Mrs. LeRoy Titley is general chairman of the Scoutorama which will be held in the Tecumseh Products Workers' Hall Friday evening, March 16, at 7:30 p.m.

This will be a benefit program for the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association and will take the place of the Girl Scout Cooky Sales of former years.

The program will consist of a skit by the band members, choral readings, vocal music, and novelty acts in which the Brownies and Girl Scouts will participate.

The following committees are at work on this project: musical skit — Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. Robert Warren, and Mrs. Kenton Hunt; choral reading — Mrs. John Cameron, Mrs. George Nichols, and Mrs. Murray Day; vocal music — Mrs. Ralph Helzerman, Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Mrs. Victor Peterson, Mrs. John Hartley, and Mrs. Jay Callihan; novelty acts — Mrs. Wellington Wotring, Mrs. E. J. Crawford, and Mrs. J. F. Dennis; tickets — Mrs. John Saling; posters — Mrs. Junior Fouts, Mrs. Ruby Robinson, Mrs. Aden Mead, Miss Myrna Bugbee, and Mrs. Arthur Woodward; publicity — Mrs. Truman Rentschler; place — Mrs. Richard Preston, Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, and Mrs. Phillip Colegrove; staging make-up — Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Donald Creger, Mrs. George Derby, and Mrs. Medford Palmer.

All committees were appointed by Mrs. Howard Truesdale, president of the Tecumseh Girl Scout Association.

Tickets will be on sale soon by the Brownies and Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Ralph Helzerman asks that all Brownies, their leaders, and assistant leaders meet in the sanctuary of the Friends Church Monday, March 5, after school for the first rehearsal of their songs.

DRUNK FINED

Robert Cooper, 21, of Tecumseh was arrested by Tecumseh police Saturday night on a drunk and disorderly charge.

Arraigned before justice Robert French Monday, he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to pay a $20 fine and $8.60 costs.

Tecumseh Planners Had Common Sense

Most Michigan towns are the result of careful, intelligent forethought on the part of their founders, according to Harlow O. Whittemore, professor of landscape architecture at the University of Michigan.

Many U. S. towns, like Topsy, "just growed," and are still merely a by-product of man's desire and attempt to make a living, the architect says.

"Fortunately," he points out, "the first rush of settlement to Michigan in the early part of the 19th century brought in an unusual number of intelligent and public-spirited men and women from New York and England. Their city plans are still good today insofar as they were originally planned."

TECUMSEH MENTIONED

Professor Whittemore cites the famous Governor's judges plan for Detroit in 1807, designed for the capitol of Michigan territory by Judge Woodward in 1805 and the plans for Tecumseh, Coldwater and Marshall — all done in the early 1830's. "These," he says, "showed a common-sense attitude toward the needs of the present."

"The first settlements," he continues, "were forts built by the French at such places as Michilimackinac, Sault Ste. Marie, Detroit, and Fort St. Joseph, now Niles. The largest, Detroit, founded by Cadillac in 1701, employed the French system of land subdivision, with property lines extending at right angles to the water front."

"The English," he points out, "founded no important town except that of the fort and the town on Mackinac Island in 1783, where the French method of street planning was apparently used."

NATURE MODIFIES

"The older waterfront towns usually had their plans modified by the shape of the shoreline of lakes and of the then navigable rivers, and by the concentration of highways at bridges and docks. Such are St. Ignace, Battle Creek, Saginaw and Port Huron," the University architect points out.

He explains that some cities in the southern part developed slowly at first, yet were important trade centers so that a strong system of radial highways led into and out of town.

"These were fortunately retained and thus we find a convenient radial pattern of thoroughfares, not only in Detroit, but also in Battle Creek, Pontiac, and others. Ann Arbor has acquired thus a system of fourteen radial thoroughfares," the professor says.

Learning by Doing

Office Machines and typing are two of the several classes in adult education at Tecumseh high school.

Delmar Crisp, director of the program here, reports: "There has been more interest in adult classes this year than we have ever had."

Receiving instruction in office machines work are Elizabeth Marsh, Emma Harrison, Donna Dahlke, Pearl Pocklington and Marion Cornell. Mr. Crisp is standing at the right of Mrs. Dahlke.

With Mrs. Betty Crisp, typing instructor, (standing) are Lillian Buttolph, Charles Hendershot, Charles Cottle, Judy Murphy, Alice Socks and Clinton Fisk.

WOMEN'S CLUB MEETS

The Britton Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. Melva Kanous last week with Mrs. Frances Dartt as co-hostess. The program was in charge of Mrs. Minnie Gittus with Mrs. Doris Exelby leading group singing. Mrs. Lilah Cadmus spoke on "International Relations." During the business meeting it was voted to give three dollars to the Interlochen scholarship fund and the group also voted to help sponsor a Britton high school girl to Girls' State. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Delta Croll and her committee.

Plans have been completed for the annual father and son banquet of the Methodist church which will be held at 6:30 p.m. Friday, March 2. The Rev. A. D. Johns, former pastor of the church will speak and show pictures of his recent trip to Europe and the Holy Land. Edward Kanous is in charge of the program and Mrs. Robert Gibson is dinner chairman. Tickets may be secured from Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar.

Mrs. Roy Bracey entertained recently at a pink and blue shower at her home in Dundee for her sister Mrs. Richard Rumler. Games were played and prizes awarded. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The honored guest received many lovely gifts. Guests were present from Milan, Dundee and Britton.

Recent guests of Mrs. Maude Davis were Mrs. Harold Davis of Pontiac and Mrs. William Stamm of Cleveland.

Mrs. Virginia Crutchfield and Mrs. Marie Dunbar entertained in the Dunbar home recently a group of ladies at a benefit for the Methodist church building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunbar have received word of the birth of a son, Jack Grover Bruce II, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bruce, Feb. 19. The Bruces are former residents of Britton and are now living in Charlotte, N. C. Mr. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bruce of Britton.

Kroger Employees Share Profits

A total of $2,355,050 has been credited to the profit-sharing accounts of 19,234 Kroger employees in 1955, it has been announced by Carl Fuller, branch manager of the retail food firm's Toledo branch which operates the local store.

This represents credits to members' accounts from company profits and earnings on previous deposits, totaling more than 60 cents on each dollar saved by employees under the Kroger Employees' Savings and Profit Sharing Plan, Fuller said. Individual employee savings for the year totaled $3,304,174.

More than $58,988 in profit sharing was credited to the accounts of 517 Kroger employees in the Toledo branch area during 1955. In addition, their savings during the year totaled approximately $82,908. Under the plan, a part of company profits is credited to the accounts of employees in proportion to the amount each has saved during the year.

Total of the fund, begun in 1951, is now $18,480,501, including employees' savings of $10,728,790 and company contributions of $7,751,711.

Kroger employees, as members of the plan, now own 40,800 shares of Kroger stock, making them one of the company's largest shareowners. Other investments include the stocks and bonds of 59 additional companies. The Employees' Savings and Profit Sharing Fund also is the "landlord" or owner of five new Kroger stores.

Planned to encourage individual thrift and to give employees an opportunity to share in the results of their own efforts, the plan is available to all regular Kroger employees, 21 years of age or older, who have had two or more years of continuous service. More than 95 per cent of those eligible now participate.

Supt. McDowell Attends National Administrators' Convention

Superintendent James McDowell returned Saturday from the National Convention of the American Association of School Administrators held in Atlantic City, N. J. The theme of the convention was: "Education, a Key to Lasting Peace."

The convention was the largest administrators' gathering ever held with more than 25,000 in attendance.

Lenawee County was one of the few counties in the nation to have 100 per cent representation.

Among the top speakers at the convention were Carlos P. Romolo, Philippine Ambassador to the U.S., Williah J. Grede, President, Crede Foundries, Inc., and past president, National Association of Manufacturers, and Charles Collingwood, news correspondent, CBS.

Wednesday evening, the Associated Exhibitors entertained the administrators by providing Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians in the Broadway Hit "Hear! Hear!"

One of the most outstanding programs was "The World We Want" by the New York Herald Tribune Forum for high schools. After listening to a discussion by the panel of 33 students from 33 nations now attending U. S. high schools, each administrator felt that truly "Education is the Key to Lasting Peace."

Mr. Hart, secondary school principal, is attending the National Convention of Secondary School Principals in Chicago this week and Mr. Greene and Mr. Kaiser, elementary principals, attended a reading clinic in Lansing Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday.

A flame-resistant finish for cotton cloth has been developed by the Department of Agriculture Research laboratory in Louisiana. It will be some time before the materials finished with the process will be available for homemakers' use. When they are, it will mean cotton cloth that is more fire-resistant and lighter in weight. The fire resistant material will be used for work garments, military uniforms, camp outfits and upholstery and curtain fabric.

Business Women Hear of Life in Germany

An audience of more than 50 members and guests of the Business and Professional Woman's Club was present Monday evening to hear a program describing life in modern Germany. Mrs. Stephan Illeck, a teacher who had gone to that country in 1948 under the United States educational program following the end of the war, told of her experiences and impressions and Robert Smith, who was in military service there until about a year ago brought the picture down to date.

Mrs. Illeck described the devastation of the cities, the hardships of the people and the disrupted communication systems she encountered as a teacher in a rural community. She concluded her talk by showing a set of costumed dolls that had been made by a German girl from scraps of salvaged material and which depicted the dress and peasant types of various Germanic countries.

Mr. Smith's talk covered contacts made during his 18 months of duty, most of which was band work. He also showed colored pictures taken in Stuttgart and on vacation tours especially in the Bavarian Alps.

Hostesses for the evening were Alice Randall, Ethel Keyser and Louise Mikesell, who had provided appropriate table decorations of colorful steins, candles and flowers. The period of devotions was in charge of Naomi Sallows.

Mrs. Ray Sluyter conducted the business meeting during which it was voted to buy one band uniform and to pledge $500 for the bleacher fund from money raised by club members by taking the city directory census. It was also voted to pay $3.50 through the county federation to send a student to Interlochen music camp.

Two new members, Mrs. Helen Sisson and Patricia Monigan were welcomed into the club.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB

The Fellowship Club of Immanuel Lutheran church held its regular monthly meeting last Tuesday evening in the home of Herman and Lillian Miller. The Rev. Vernon H. Schwartz conducted a discussion on the topic of "Evolution."

After a brief business meeting, during which it was decided to purchase a display cabinet for the Concordia book and cards display, members played charades and joined in community singing.

The highlight of the evening was a box lunch with Otto Miller auctioning the ladies' boxes to the men.

BANQUET HELD

The Macon church father and son banquet was held last Wednesday evening in the church dining room. Dinner was served by the W.S.C.S. and the Rev. H. Vaughn Whited was master of ceremony for the program that followed.

James Rhoades gave the toast to the fathers, which was responded to by Melvin Travis. Wallace Whiting of Tecumseh, accompanied by Mrs. H. W. Dillon, sang. Dr. Robert Laidlaw also of Tecumseh, showed colored pictures of Japan, where he and his family lived while he was in the navy.

Guy Collins was honored as the oldest father present and George Osborne as the youngest. Mr. Betzoldt was the father with the most sons and Max Skinner's son was the youngest present.

Five ladies of Immanuel Lutheran church attended the Lutheran Women's Missionary League "Living for Christ" Institute last Thursday at Sandy Creek. They were Mrs. J. V. Ferman, Mrs. Wm. Wonderly, Mrs. Viola Daisher, Mrs. Joseph Schafer and Mrs. Vernon Schwartz.

Christian Workers Elect Officers

The Christian Workers, a new group of "under forty" parents of the Baptist church held their second meeting Friday evening in the Baptist Youth House. A 6:30 potluck supper preceded the business meeting during which officers were chosen for the new organization.

J. D. Cook is president; Lee Prettyman, vice president; Mrs. Jesse Gray, secretary and Mrs. George Van Camp, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Bailey were hosts of the evening and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gray were in charge of games which entertained both parents and children of the 18 families present.

The next meeting will be March 23 with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook as hosts and Mr. and Mrs. George Green Jr. planning the entertainment.

Local Topics

Mrs. Harold Wilson, who has been a surgical patient at St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor was able to leave the hospital a week ago and has been at the home of her son and family, Dr. and Mrs. George Wilson in Clinton. She is making an excellent recovery and expects to be home very soon. Her daughter, Mrs. David Faling also returned home from Herrick Memorial last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gray and family spent the weekend in Detroit, where they visited Mr. Gray's mother, Mrs. Della Gray and his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Meffich.

Mrs. Fred Hadley and son Billy accompanied by her father Charles Montau of Monroe and Mrs. Jean Lees returned Saturday from Largo, Florida. They had been in Florida for a month.

Mrs. Roscoe Hewlett is visiting friends in Los Angeles, Calif.

Mrs. Joseph O'Pravil spent three days last week in Detroit caring for her daughter, Mrs. George Henahask, who was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick are spending two weeks in Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mains and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rensch of Findlay, Ohio, visited their aunt Mrs. Anna McClure and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McClure, Sunday.

Diane Winsor of Hollywood, English and American actress, will be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Butler next week. Miss Winsor is a friend of Mr. Butler's cousin Melbourn Kinyon of Salt Lake City, Utah. She always had wanted to see the Ford Museum and other Detroit points of interest and Mr. Kinyon thought Mr. and Mrs. Butler would be able to guide Miss Winsor about Detroit and to show her the Ford highlights.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobs entertained Sunday evening at an informal family party for eight honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jacob's sister, Mrs. Durell Dressler of Adrian.

Card of Thanks

Miss Mary Whitelock takes this opportunity to thank the many kind friends who have called and sent flowers, cards and gifts during her illness. 3-1

I wish to thank my friends for the lovely cards and gifts I received. My thanks also to Dr. Helzerman and the wonderful staff of the Herrick Memorial hospital who were so nice to me during my stay there. Clara Moore 3-1

Indians Repeat as League Champs

Airport Upsets Dales; Miller Gets 29 Points

Three out of four!

This is the record of Tecumseh high school basketball teams under the coaching of Vic Lawson. The Indians have won the Southeastern League basketball title three out of the four years Coach Lawson has been mentor.

And Friday night, thanks to the 60-44 upset win over Hillsdale by Airport Community, coupled with the Indians' 77-63 victory over Bedford, Tecumseh high school again won the league title.

Prior to games Friday night Tecumseh and Hillsdale were tied for league leadership with 6-1 records. And as a result of play Friday night Tecumseh ended its league season with a 7-1 record for first place and Hillsdale copped second place with a 6-2 league record.

IMPROVE RECORD

Coach Lawson's cagers won the league title in 1953 and in 1955, too. Last year they took the title with a 6-2 record; but this year their only league loss was to Hillsdale in the first league game of the season, 55 to 50.

After an exciting first quarter during which time Bedford almost kept pace with the Indians, the Mules lost their kick and Tecumseh had things pretty much their own way.

Bedford was first to score when center Ken Kubitz cashed a foul shot, but Kenny Miller, whose scoring output for the night totalled 29, got the first of his famous and hard-to-stop push shots from out center to put the Indians in the lead. The two teams traded basket and free throw for most of the quarter until, with a little more than a minute to go, Tecumseh took a two-goal lead and held on to edge the Mules 17 to 13 at the end of the first period.

TOOK COMMAND

The Indians really took command in the second period with Ken Miller cashing 12 points and Mike Sisson adding eight. Val Spangler contributed four more and Ray Larned two to bring the total Indian output to 26 in the quarter. Meanwhile the Mules were adding 17. At intermission the Indians held a 13-point, 43 to 30 lead.

They added a five-point spread over the Mules in the third, made with nine goals and three gift shots while the Mules were collecting 16 points on seven goals and a brace of free throws. At the end of play in the third period the Indians increased the lead to 18 points, outscoring Bedford 21 to 16.

With this 18-point bulge the local five could afford a lapse. The Indians could even afford to be tired which they apparently were.

SUBS GET IN

Coach Lawson also substituted in the final quarter and the Indians were outscored for the first time all night by a 17 to 13 margin. The Mules were able to gain several "cheap" baskets when their players were left unguarded under the basket.

Ken Miller with 12 goals and five free throws was leading Tecumseh point getter with 29. Others who broke into double figures were Mike Sisson with 17 and Val Spangler with 10.

John Warren was leading Mule with 19 points made on eight goals and three free throws. Others to break double figures were Wood with 11 and Roman with 12.

In the prelim Bedford won 49 to 44. The Murdoch men were leading 23 to 10 at one time. Yoakum had 12 to lead the Papoose.

FORMER RESIDENT RECEIVES DEGREE

Friends of Howard McClain, who attended school in Tecumseh until 1940 will be interested to learn that he received a doctor's degree in chemical engineering in Jan. from Purdue University and is now doing research work in the field of atomic energy with the Union Carbon and Carbide Corp. at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Howard was born in Tecumseh, the son of Lillis Howard McClain and the late Leigh McClain. He received his Bachelor of Science at Wayne University, his master's degree at the University of Minnesota and is a member of two honorary fraternities, Sigma Xi and Tau Beta Pi.

His mother, who will be remembered by many here, is a teacher in East Detroit.

Tourney Begins Wednesday

Class "B" and "C" district basketball tournament games will be held in Tecumseh high school gym next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 7, 8, 9 and 10.

Principal Neville Hart, tourney manager, reports that Milan, Tecumseh, Airport Community, and Willow Run will compete in class "B" and Brooklyn, Boysville, Dundee, Manchester and Saline will compete in class "C."

The tourney begins with one class "C" game Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Thursday night two games of class "C" will be held, beginning at 7 p.m.

Friday two class "B" games will be played, beginning at 7 p.m.

And Saturday the finals will be played with a class "C" and a class "B" game, beginning at 7 p.m.

Britton Loses to Adrian C.C.; Tories Land Firmly in Cellar

Britton-Macon Torries dropped their ninth Little Six League cage game Friday night when Adrian Catholic Central downed them, 50 to 43. The Tories have one league win. They have cinched the league cellar.

Britton took a 14 to 8 first quarter lead, then faded and was behind 23 to 19 at the half and never recovered.

The Irish outscored the Tories 14 to 7 in the third quarter but the Tories had a 17 to 13 last quarter margin.

Tom Hirons paced the Irish with 25 points made on eight goals and nine free throws.

Patterson hit 13 points for the losers.

In the prelim Britton defeated the Irish 44 to 40 with Dick VanValkenburg registering 13 points.

HIM AN' ALL HIS INVENTIONS! DRILLS! WHEELS! HE'LL PUT MEN OUT OF WORK!!

From Flint to Atom

Generations ago, at the outset of the "industrial revolution," factory workers in England tried to destroy the newly invented machines which, they feared, would replace them.

They did not foresee, of course, that the machines which could do the work of many men would, in reality, create many more new jobs.

Groundless fears of today's automatic machinery goes even further back, perhaps to when man took a pointed piece of flint to make a wheel. "Automation" actually is just a new tag for all the progress man has made, from the flint to the atom.

It Just Ain't So

Don't kid yourself. You never get something for nothing, whether you're buying a pair of shoes, a car or a multi-million dollar road program.

But why is it that every time a federal aid program is mentioned folks who should know better think benevolent Uncle Sam is giving them something. A good roads program, like federal aid to education and federal aid for community hospital buildings—just to mention two other areas in which the federal government has dabbled—has recently focused attention again on this problem.

According to the Michigan Good Roads Federation, it will cost $1,800,000,000 to build the county roads of Michigan up to acceptable standards within the next 20 years.

The county road system now totals 85,111 miles.

The engineers estimate that $980 million will be required to improve the county primary road system, of which $862 would be expended on rural portions, and $118 million on municipal extensions of the system. Improvements recommended include 215 miles of gravel surface; 1,215 miles of bituminous surface treatment; 18,599 miles of intermediate type; 1,427 miles of two-lane high type; and 753 miles of multi-lane high type surface.

On local county roads the cost estimate is $806 million to improve 18 per cent of the total mileage with dustless surface, and the remainder with gravel surface adequate for year-around travel.

In the fiscal study supplementing the engineering report, it is pointed out that the money will be available for the recommended county road improvements IF the Federal government makes sufficient additional money available to the states for early reconstruction of the Interstate highway system, the principal highway network in Michigan.

In a recent dispatch the Michigan State Highway Department implied that Congress would pass increasing Federal participation on the Interstate system on a 90-10 matching basis. Where in the world do you think this 90 is coming from?

In a dispatch on the same day the highway department "wish" was received the Michigan Press Association wrote that federal gas and diesel oil tax will go from two to three cents on a gallon; taxes on tires from three cents to eight cents and "other highway using commodities will receive similar tax increases."

Let's not kid ourselves. You never get something for nothing, least of all good roads.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES
Library

A new community service was instituted this week by the library staff. Wednesday morning Mrs. Conrad Fosbender, Tecumseh librarian and an assortment of the newer books visited Herrick Memorial hospital. Using the hospital book cart, she visited all the convalescent patients to offer them reading matter to pass the slow hours.

The object of the new project is to keep the selection of books available at the hospital up to date. Cards are not issued. The patient merely leaves the book in his room on departure. Nurses and aides will bring books from the cart on request.

This will be a regular program each Wednesday morning and Mrs. Fosbender plans to keep the books in continual rotation.

Boy, Is He Puny!

Wow! Muscles of iron! 185 pounds of power! Does 100 push-ups before breakfast!

But he's so very weak—so dependent. Without air to breathe, water to drink, food to eat, where would the "strong" man be?

On whom is the "strong" man dependent?

The Answer Is God.

We all depend upon God for everything we have. Let us worship God—In Church Every Week—At Home Every Day.

Vice-president, Thomas J. Lipton, Inc., Hoboken, N. J.

Lord, lead Thou the way! Lord, I would be Thy messenger and as Thy messenger I will obey Thy words. I will be true, I will be the one with Thee, I will not surrender to the negative forces, I will not be fearful of the sea of entangling angry emotions. I will step forward following Thee, for in so doing I will gather immortal strength. Lord, here I am.

"This is the first time we've ever considered buying our own home," said Jim Lockey, "and my folks told me it would be a good idea if I came in and talked with you."

Jim and his wife looked quite young, but even at that they had been married several years.

"I'm glad they sent you" I replied. "Buying a home is a big venture. I think you'll find we can be of real service."

"Well, I'm plenty green," Jim admitted, "we'll need all the good guidance we can get. What's the first step?"

"Let's discuss the kind of home you want and the income and down payment required. We'll figure out the price range you can comfortably afford and then find a home within that range that meets your needs."

Jim volunteered, "That sounds logical. Let's begin."

Before long he owned a nice home, carefully selected.

If you are planning to buy a home, plan to secure our expert counsel.

We'll be glad to help you find the proper home!

Mama Goes on Safari

BY PEG TOUBORG

March 5, 1955
Saturday

Sitting in the jeep in the semi desert, all alone except for my black protector who is high up in a tree watching for rushing elephants (and they can travel fast). Papa and I have been up since 4:30 and he has just come back to the jeep with Andy and two gun bearers after a six hour hike in the scorching sun spying on elephants. It's a tedious job but he still was grinning and looked fresh as a daisy, (didn't smell like one in spite of the sweat rolling down his face.

Native scouts who traveled with us this morning have come in from their various posts with information and now they have all left again to follow up a lead. For miles around the ground looks like a cow pasture of elephant manure, but it all seems to have come from cow and baby elephants. Old bulls are very scarce now. Jens will be satisfied with an average pair of tusks, but Andy wants him to have a weighty pair. They are not only looking for an old bull, but want one who travels alone. It's pretty impossible to get a shot at a bull who is shadowed by a bunch of females; also, a charging herd might prove too much to handle.

GIVEN NAMES

It seems to be the nature of the native boys to give the clients a name indicating the thing they think he stands for, or the impression they have of him. They soon attached Bwana M'Kubwa to Clausen—"a fat man—," and Jens was called Bwana N'gini, "The other master." Now because of his brusque behavior Clausen has become Bwana Dimu, "lemon," and Jens is Master Eland due to his extraordinary perseverance in following the wounded animal.

March 6, 1955
Sunday

A larger group of trackers in the back of the jeep this morning. Andy watched the sandy road intently for tracks as we drove along. The boys even tested the fresh looking manure for warmth with their hands. They are off on the trail of one now. Jens doesn't mind the day after day grind of incessant hunting, but I'd like to see him have a few days of relaxation before we leave, and getting an elephant today could do that.

It has been impossible for us to get the pictures we'd like because you can't successfully combine picture taking with hunting. Early in the morning we're dashing hurriedly to a certain destination and keep it up all day—no time to stop along the road to film a beautiful group of giraffs or the unusual sight of the ministerial looking Marabo stork with his red gullet puffed up like a balloon after his long drink at the river; the endless herds of white cattle creating their own dust bowl, over 1,000 heads in a herd; (the young boys in their white tunics and staff in hand drive them 15 miles or more every three days to water); the Somali women, some really beautiful with their Arabesque features, plodding patiently over the sand with their donkeys whose backs are heavily ladened with water jugs; the nomads of the desert leading their camels.

WATERBUCK SHOT

Yesterday's hunt was unsuccessful except for the waterbuck Jens shot late in the afternoon, an antelope with a white circle around his rump. We didn't get back to camp until 7:30. The pleasure of the day is to ease ones dirty self down into the brown water in the canvas tub.

Break: It's 9:15. A volley of shots from the direction where the men went—another shot and another shot. "Tembo!" yes, but how many shots for one elephant? Is Papa safe? I'm weak all over and my heart pounds. One boy is up in the tree excitedly shouting to one in the back of the car. Don't think he can see a thing. A runner will soon come back for us in the car.

Break: Papa got his elephant—tusks weigh about 80 pounds each and it's considered a good one! Aquavit for lunch.

Services Held for Former Resident

Corun Jack Crowley, brother of Wendell Crowley and Mrs. Ruth Poucher of Tecumseh and a former resident of this vicinity, died Friday morning in Detroit following a heart attack. He had lived for some time on a farm near Sand Lake.

Mr. Crowley, who was 48 years of age, is survived by his wife Joyce; his mother, Dellia Crowley; five sisters, Mrs. Marie Wiley, Mrs. Flo Bowles and Mrs. Eva Staples, all of Detroit and Mrs. Poucher and Miss Betty Crowley of New York; and one brother, Wendell. He was preceded in death by his father and one sister.

Funeral services were held Monday morning in Detroit and burial was in Tipton cemetery at 2 p.m.

LENTEN THEME USED BY EPISCOPAL WOMEN

Both program and devotions had a Lenten theme at the Feb. 21 meeting of the Daughters of St. Peter's held at the Episcopal Parish House. Mrs. W. E. Bly conducted the devotional period and Mrs. E. C. Dickin was in charge of the program Lenten study.

Her talk included a very timely bit of information regarding the religious life of George Washington. She related that he was a vestryman of his local church for 10 years and that in all that time he missed but two meetings.

Mrs. Earl Lindsley and Mrs. Harry Schuch reported on the meeting of St. Peter's Auxiliary which they had attended. Mrs. Lindsley represents the Daughters on the kitchen tour committee of the auxiliary. Mrs. John McCaughn was appointed chairman of the Lenten luncheon March 1 and Mrs. O. W. Laidlaw for that of March 8.

The evening's social hour was closed by refreshments served by Mrs. McCaughn and Mrs. Schuch.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Schwartz

We now have 38 in our room. Evangelina Torres came to us from Texas.

Many of us are in the second unit of our new reading books. The stories are historical fiction concerning Ben and Betsy Chase and their parents. Their exciting adventures transport us into the early days of our country just after George Washington had been chosen president.

We listened to several stories from our library about George Washington. He is one of the famous Americans whose pictures we have on our bulletin board this month.

More than half us have written and mailed letters to friends and relatives.

We are beginning to work subtraction problems which require us to change ten's to one's before we can get our answer. Sometimes this is called "borrowing." It seems confusing now, but so did "carrying" when we started it.

Connie Rumpf brought a sea shell collection to show us. One of the most interesting things was the skeleton of a sea horse. Most of us were surprised that these little animals are no longer than they are.

We wish to thank the mothers who furnished the refreshments for our Valentine party. We were very pleased with them.

THIRD GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Weitenhagen

We have a new boy from Buenos Aires, his name is Reynaldo Torres. We have 38 boys and girls in our room now.

Our science class has been very interesting. We are having a unit on animals' mouths and feet. We have studies how these aid the animal on moving and eating.

We had a Valentine party which everyone enjoyed.

FIFTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mr. Kelty

Dwight McPherson brought to school and displayed a number of things he collected while visiting the South. Included were blow fish, bamboo, shells, coconuts, and of course an orange for each of the 38 boys and girls.

FIFTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mrs. Uckele

We had a very good time at our Valentine party.

Last Friday we had a test over South America. In Art class we are making poppy posters.

We have a new pupil in our room. Her name is Zulema Sanchez. She came from Texas.

Mrs. Uckele is reading a new book to us. It is "Ojibway Drums" by Marion W. Magoon.

PATTERSON SCHOOL

The kindergarten children have 37 names on the "I Can Tie" chart We will be glad when we can have everyone's name on the charts. We made some very nice flags for Washington's birthday. Nearly all of us could write, in manuscript, "Our Flag." We are glad to welcome Timmy Shutt to our afternoon group. He comes from Granville, Ohio.

Yesterday we received a new girl in our first grade. Her name is Sue Illeck. Many of us know her because she was in Patterson kindergarten last year. We hope she enjoys being with us for the rest of the year.

Recently Ricky Horten celebrated his seventh birthday. To help him celebrate his special day his mother brought ice cream and cake for all in the first grade to enjoy.

In science we are learning how work is done. We have collected pictures to show our muscles pushing and pulling in doing our work. We are learning, too, about machines which help us to do our work better and more easily.

Marie Kohler celebrated her birthday in third grade. Mary Jo Mensing has gone to Florida for a few days with her familly.

Miss Baker brought her Sacred Lily of Africa bulb. It weighs nine pounds. When she brought it, it was nine inches tall. It grows rapidly, once it really starts—eight to ten inches a day. It should be about five feet tall when it stops growing. We are all watching it closely to see it grow.

Peggy Morris and Phyllis Brooks celebrated birthdays together last week. The fourth grade girls and boys enjoyed the treats and wish them many more happy birthdays.

Jack Deck is in the hospital to have an appendectomy.

Mary Kay Gauss is a new pupil in our room. She came to us from Manchester.

We are drawing pictures of birds for our science class.

What!! A three year old in the sixth grade? No. Patterson does not claim to educate quite that fast—Nancy Beland only has a birthday every four years.

We had an interesting quiz covering the entire science book. One word started our memories on the right track and we recalled more than we thought possible.

Man's God-given strength, assurance, and ability will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" is the Golden Text from Daniel (10:19): "O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong."

Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (203:13): "Spiritual perception brings out the possibilities of being, destroys reliance on aught but God, and so makes man the image of his Maker in deed and in truth."

Scriptural selections will include the following from II Corinthians (3:4,5): "And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God."

The Diary of Thomas Wright

1832—

Jan. 4—I got an ox sled made and on that we harnessed our cattle and sometimes rode to meeting. On the 25 of Sept. I began to instruct the Bible class which was the very place I wished to get and in which I hoped to be useful. The poor keeping I had for my cattle occasioned them to be sick some of the time and this hindered our work of getting logs to mill preparatory to building a barn.

Jan. 15—Mr. Darwin had died and we were left without any preaching or probability of having any until perhaps May or June. Meetings on the Sabbath were constantly attended and I found it was not for nothing I had brought out some good sermon books for they were a good many of them read at the meetings. I believe all of Dr. Worchester's.

Jan. 10—Sent $10 by J. T. Shepperd to Detroit for molasses.

Jan. 11—Began getting logs to mill.

Jan. 16—Rec'd from Detroit a keg of 15 gallons of malasses via J. T. Sheppherd, $8.43. When I wanted a tool I went and bought it for I laid it down as a first principal that I would neither borrow or lend tools for carrying on my business. But in every case I found they were not to be bought and I was contrary to my rule compelled to borrow. From information I had expected to find mild winters here but find I was deceived.

Jan, 22—Sabbath. Today Mr. Weed of Ypsilanti preached here and it was good again to hear a preached gospel. This is the first Sabbath that we have had what I call preaching all day here.

Jan. 25—Cold day. Mercury below zero all day.

Jan. 16—Colder yet. Merc. 15 below. The influenza this winter has spread throughout the country and myself as well as most everyone else here have got it. I had last fall contacted with Wm. Nesbitt to dig me a well and he worked on it occasionally this winter.

Feb. 4—Snow all gone and we were glad to see the ground. This past winter has been one of unusual severity not only here but throughout the United States and in our new condition, destitute of many of the comforts to which we were accustomed we felt it very sensibly besides being very much disappointed with it.

Feb. 15—Girls went to Adrian.

Feb. 16—Bought a gallon of oil, $1.25. Two lamps .37½. Also a straw cutter knife for $2.00.

Feb. 18—Storm of thunder and lightning. The first of the season. Had a visit from Wm. Bryant who formerly lectured on Chymistry in Northhampton.

Feb. 27—Frances began a school for young ladies in Gen. Brown's office having about a dozen scholars. Price of tuition $3.00 a quarter.

Feb. 28—Today the workmen at our well came to water. We were all gratified to get a draugh of it to drink. All the family drank of it.

One pair of cattle bought Nov. 7 I let out to winter to Benj. James McRay and return in good working order in the spring for their work. But he kept them so poorly that they had the horn distemper. One of them became so low that we had great difficulty to keep him alive. Several times he got into the mire and had to be drawn out of it. I had made a written contract with him (McRay) to winter them for their work but being unpracticed in writing such instruments I made a mistake which Mr. McRay took advantage of and in the spring brought a charge against me of $15 for keeping the cattle. This unjust charge I found was left with a lawyer and I had no choice but to pay it or have a lawsuit. Being a stranger to the people, their customs and laws, I preferred, perhaps injudiciously, to pay him.

March 6—Today Mrs. Evans, the first white woman who came to the town and county, wife of Musgrove Evans died.*

Today we tapped some maple trees and from the sap made a little sugar, a little molasses and some vinegar.

*Note—This laconic line records the death of the woman who has been called the "Mother of Tecumseh." Abi Evans, as wife of the first settler and later as landlady of the inn her husband had built on the Chicago road, had fed and housed most of the town's inhabitants and had mothered them all. She had shared all the pioneer hardships, losing a young daughter by the plague of malaria and a little son by drowning in the Raisin near her first home. She was a sister of General Joseph Brown and had been reared in a home of comfort if not wealth. The town was stunned by her death at 43.

ENGAGED—A summer wedding is being planned by Margaret Ann Lunn and Max Minnich. The bride-elect, who attended Albion and Adrian Colleges, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lunn of Rt. 3, Adrian. Mr. Minnich's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Minnich of Bowling Green, Ohio. He is a graduate of Bowling Green University, where he was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

TUESDAY EVENING

Mrs. Perry Hayden entertained 15 members of the Music Club at her home Tuesday evening. Miss Kay Monigan of Ridgeway was a guest.

"Little Used Orchestral Instruments" was the program topic discussed by Mrs. John MsColl in a very interesting and informative talk. She listed them as the celesta, the French horn, the oboe, the bassoon and the English horn. Describing their use and development she played recordings to illustrate each instrument and its place in music.

The Adrian concert series was discussed during the business meeting and it was decided to buy tickets for the season. Mrs. Hayden was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Harley McConnell and Mrs. Kennard Wise. The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Warren.

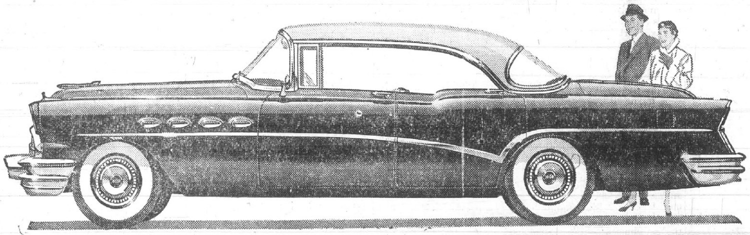
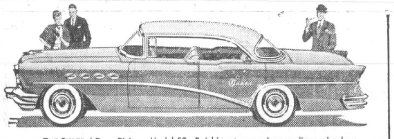
4-Door Hardtops?

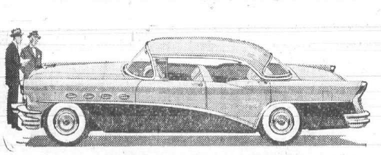


ROADMASTER 4-Door Riviera—custom-built by Buick

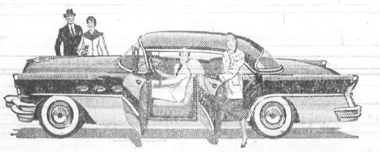
BEST CHOICE YET



THE SUPER 4-Door Riviera, Model 53—Buick's extra-spacious medium-price buy



THE CENTURY 4-Door Riviera, Model 63—Buick's top power buy



THE SPECIAL 4-Door Riviera, Model 43—Buick's biggest buy in the low-price field

Big news in hardtops these days is the 4-door model.

And the biggest news of all is Buick's 4-Door Riviera. Ever since its introduction, this Buick hardtop has taken the country by storm.

But the newest note about this newest of models is the price choice Buick offers you. Now you can have this much-wanted model in four different price series—and that's a choice you'll get nowhere else.

Now you can have the 4-Door Riviera in the custom-built ROADMASTER, the extra-spacious SUPER, the supremely-powered CENTURY, or the bedrock-priced SPECIAL.

What follows from there? Plenty—really plenty.

For in every 1956 Buick there's a wealth of thrills—a spirited gait—a trim maneuverability—a sheer enchantment in styling.

In power, it's a pistol. Every Buick packs a 322-cubic-inch V8 engine—with Buick's highest horsepower and compression ratios yet.

In take-off, it's trigger quick. A new Variable Pitch Dynaflow* betters the best Buick getaway on record—with instantaneous response at the very first inch of pedal pressure.

In emergency, it's double-barreled—with that new Dynaflow changing to full-power safety-surge acceleration the instant you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

And in roominess, in luxury, in handling ease, in ride steadiness, in directional sense—you'll discover a literal truth:

This is the best Buick yet.

Can you come in tomorrow to see and sample the greatest Buick ever—and to note the prices that make this the best buy yet?

ONE NIGHT STANDS IN SUTTON'S OPERA HOUSE

What an architect's paradise those new towns must be! Those built-from-scratch new towns that have sprung up, full blown in the wake of the earth-mover and the bulldozer. The final results may seem a little stark and angularly monotonous to those, who are not entirely committed to the newer building styles but at least they are uniform. The planners can go joyfully ahead with their glass and steel without having to compromise with any existing architecture.

Certainly none of our older towns afford such opportunities. They do offer a challenge that could result in something beautiful and interesting but in most cases the "new look" has been achieved at the expense of the best of the old.

Have you looked at Tecumseh's "Main Street" lately with a really comprehensive and dispassionate eye? With a few notable exceptions, it resembles nothing so much as a double file of prim, Victorian ladies, complete above with whale bone and ruchings, whose petticoat rufles have been sheared off and whose high buttoned shoes have been replaced with nylons and loafers. No one disputes that loafers are prettier and more comfortable than high button shoes but, as in every compromise, a certain something has been lost. One can almost hear the ladies peering over their high-boned collars to murmur, "Deary me, can this be I?"

One especially demure lady is nearly hidden behind the four-square marquee of the Strand theater and its flanking shops. She belongs to a somewhat later and even more "fussy" period than many of the other buildings but even so she is "getting on." Her date-stone says 1878 for him who runs to read (from the other side of the street). The "Opera House" was quite a gal in her time and like all ageing belles she still clings to souvenirs of her past glory.

A trip behind the scenes—in this case behind the movie screen—takes one into a world still peopled by the personalities of an almost forgotten theatrical age. Tattered and fading posters still picture the great and the near great who trod the boards of the big echoing stage when here was the entertainment and social center of the town.

Agitation for the building of a "Social Hall" began in 1877. Before that all entertainments had been held in "Union," "Merchants" or "Bidwell" halls located on the third floors of respectively the Sage building, the Chieftain hotel and the Palman block. But growing audiences and the fire hazard demanded something better. A subscription list for $5000, at $100 per share, was offered and was filled within two weeks. Later an additional $3,500 was added and the stock was consolidated among a few men, principal stock holders being Nemiah Sutton, J. J. Adam, Peter R. Adams and J. B. Swan. The project was called "Tecumseh Hall Association Ltd." but when the building was begun in May of 1878 it was known as Sutton's Opera House.

Construction was watched with keen interest all spring and summer and almost weekly bulletins of progress were printed in The Tecumseh Herald. By Nov. the scaffolding was removed from what was described as "the most beautiful facade in the village." Time and changing taste probably soon qualified that statement but certainly the face now hidden behind the uncompromising red brick was an interesting one.

Broad wooden steps led up to three arched doorways which, in turn, were topped by a group of three arched windows and flanked by two very long and narow ones. Two corner towers, which carried out the design of the "flying buttresses" along the sides had miniature gabled steeples and the whole was topped by a shuttered cupola or belfry. This completely meaningless piece of gingerbread was obviously considered the crowning glory of the design and served as the home for uncounted generations of sparrows, bats and pigeons.

The completed effect fas pseudo-Gothic and faintly ecclesiastical but the latter suggestion was soon dissipated by the erection of big sign boards on either side of the steps which heralded the coming of everything from "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to "Charlie's Aunt."

Arlene Henson Is Bride of Ronald Dean Swain

Hampers of white snapdragons and bebe chrysanthemums combined with palms and lighted candelabra to bank the altar of the First Methodist church of Tecumseh, Saturday evening when at 7 o'clock, Arlene Henson became the bride of Ronald Dean Swain. Lighted tapers were in each of the church windows and the family pews were marked by white satin bows.

MRS. RONALD D. SWAIN

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mamie Henson of 25 Mill street and the late Robert Henson while the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Swain of 215 S. Maumee.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Horace James and the bride's brother-in-law, Edwin A. Marine gave her in marriage. With Mrs. Kenton Hunt at the organ, Miss Diane Woodward sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Frances as her maid of honor and Mrs. James Henson and Miss Irene Coichus as bridesmaids. Ralph H. Swain was best man and Charles Wallace and Edward Strand were ushers.

The petite bride was radiant in a floor length gown of white nylon net and lace over satin. Double layers of net over satin formed the hooped skirt with a wide lace insert trimming the front and the lace bodice was made with a Queen Anne collar and long sleeves pointed at the wrists. Tiny net covered buttons closed the sleeves and the back of the bodice.

Her veil of finger tip length was held by a half bonnet of pearls and sequins. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings which were the groom's gift, and carried a cascade bouquet of white Frenched carnations combined with stephanotis and maline to frame a white orchid.

The nylon net dresses of the three attendants were made in identical style, strapless with net stoles and waltz length, hooped skirts. They all wore contrasting floral hats and pearl earrings and necklaces which were the gift of the bride. Miss Frances Henson was in blue and her cascade bouquet was of shell pink carnations and red sweetheart roses backed by matching maline. Mrs. James Henson, the bride's sister-in-law, wore pink and Miss Coichus, yellow and both carried cascades of blue and green tinted carnations combined with tiny floretts and maline of the same shades.

The bride's little niece, Sheryl Anne Marine was flower girl. Her waltz length dress was of green nylon net over satin and she wore lace mits and a pearl necklace and bracelet given her by her aunt. Her flowers were miniature yellow carnations. David Wegner, nephew of the bride acted as ring bearer, carrying the rings on satin and lace pillow.

Mrs. Henson's dress was of dusty rose crepe with a lace jacket and Mrs. Swain's aqua crepe. Both mothers had white orchid corsages.

Immediately after the ceremony 250 guests were entertained at a reception at the Tecumseh Products Union Hall where music was furnished by Busch's orchestra of Macon. Mrs. Norman Henson and Mrs. Willard Snead, sister of the bride and groom, received the gifts and Mrs. Mahlon Bishop, another sister of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Other sisters, Mrs. Melvin Wegner, Mrs. James Loar, Mrs. Wayne Dunbar, Mrs. Edwin Marine and Mrs. Bud Stetten assisted with the serving.

The four-tiered wedding cake, baked and frosted to represent the facade of a church with miniature bridal attendants on the steps was baked by Mrs. Franklin Fergus of Tecumseh and was cut by Mrs. Fergus. Garlands of ivy and the bouquets of the attendants decorated the bridal table where a groom's cake was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Swain left at once for a short weekend trip, the bride wearing a white suit and black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet. Next summer a more extended honeymoon is planned to the southwest.

Mrs. Swain, a graduate of Tecumseh high school in 1953, is employed at the Ford factory in Manchester and the groom, who also attended high school here works for Bohn Aluminum in Adrian. They will live at 1028 east Butler street, Adrian.

A message from Ralph Hodges, 'Your Pharmacist'

IN ANCIENT DAYS, Pharmacy was practiced only by priests. All forms of the healing arts were connected with religious rites.

DURING THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY, Pharmacy, the science of compounding, dispensing, and protecting medicines, became separate from the practice of medicine, which is the science of treating disease and the preservation of health.

NOWADAYS, A PHARMACIST must study four years in a College of Pharmacy, and pass a state examination before he can receive a license to practice pharmacy. Modern pharmacy is becoming so technical, that it has already been ruled that in 1960 it will be necessary to increase the College of Pharmacy requirements to five years of study.

PHYSICIANS, PHARMACISTS, AND RESEARCH SCIENTISTS are the health team that work together to keep you healthier longer. As your pharmacist, we will always cooperate by observing the strict requirements of our profession, and keeping informed of all new progress.

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

Conservation Department director Gerald E. Eddy has commended Leo B. Pospichal, Pointe Mouillee state game area biologist, for action that saved a youngster from drowning last week.

Pospichal, a Department waterfowl specialist at the popular Lake Erie hunting marsh, dove in and pulled two boys from Silver Creek, a tributary of the marsh, after they had broken through the ice into water over their heads. A third boy was able to scramble out without help.

One of the boys, Rufus Riser, 6, East Rockwood, succumbed despite artificial respiration and the work of the Rockwood pulmotor squad, but his brother Ronald, 7, lived.

"We were all very proud here at the home office in Lansing to hear of your recent quick action that saved a youngster from an icy death," Eddy wrote. "It took a sudden, courageous decision to dive in at the point of trouble, and I want to commend you for this on behalf of the Conservation Department."

Pospichal has been a Department employee since 1952 and is a native of Minnesota.

---

The Abitibi Power and Paper Company of Toronto, Ontario, paid Michigan $20,000 this week for 53 acres of land on Thunder Bay at Alpena to be used for construction of a pulpwood processing plant.

Michigan's Conservation Commission approved the sale at a recent meeting.

The acreage, technically considered submerged, or lake bottom land, was filled in several years ago.

The Canadian company says the plant will manufacture pulpwood products.

---

Michigan game workers want to study the feeding habits of the otter, but the animal's reluctance to take part in civilization is making the game a tough one.

Conservation Department biologists want to place otters in a fenced section of stream with known numbers of trout, suckers, crayfish and other otter foods to learn what the busy little water-dwellers prefer for their dinners and how much of each type.

But otters much prefer freedom and capturing study animals for the experiment is going to be difficult.

Otters weigh 15-20 pounds, but are extremely powerful and wary. They have been known to tear their way out of beaver live traps, a trap made of heavy metal mesh and built to hold the 40-70 pound beaver.

---

A growing public interest in wise use of natural resources is indicated by the rapid expansion of conservation organizations in Michigan.

One illustration of this trend is the membership increase in Michigan United Conservation Clubs last year.

Harry R. Gaines, Grand Rapids, executive-secretary of MUCC, recently announced 1955 membership in the organization totaled 60,694 in 306 clubs throughout the state. Gaines called the present MUCC enrollment, "the largest ever."

Similar expansion is evident in Audubon groups, nature study, farm and garden clubs and other conservation organizations.

Officials of the National Audubon Society estimate that some 5,000,000 persons in the nation are bird-watchers and nature hobbyists. At present, there are 10,000 Audubon Junior Clubs in North America.

---

Outdoor recreation is essentially a family affair—even at some areas designed primarily for hunting and fishing.

While Mr. Sportsman tests his hunting or fishing ability, Mrs. Sportsman and the children also are enjoying outdoor activities as campers, picnickers, hikers and sightseers.

An example of this trend is shown in a 10-year study of public use of the Rifle River area near Rose City, Ogemaw county.

During the 1945-54 decade, more than 121,000 tourists visited the area—almost 63 per cent of the 195,000 total attendance. In 1954, sightseer attendance was a record 15,346.

In the same 10 years, fishing permits were issued to some 44,000 anglers—about 22 per cent of the total attendance—while 28,000 hunters represented 14 per cent of the total use.

Hunters and trappers bountied 48 coyotes, 21 bobcats and 1549 foxes during Jan. for $8665 in bounty fees.

Bounty payments showed an increase over Jan., 1955 when the total was $7475. Most of the increase was due to a larger fox kill this year. In Jan. of last year, 1349 foxes were bountied.

The bobcat bounty total does not include 'cats presented to county sheriffs for certification.

Knights Defeat Sacred Heart

Sunday Boysville defeated Sacred Heart Seminary of Detroit, 49 to 31. Sacred Heart had won 15 of 17 games played.

Paul Carry with 14, Tony Mata with 13 and Bob Temerowski with 12 hit double figures for the Knights.

John Cusmano led Secred Heart with 20 points.

The Knights' game with South Lyon was postponed Friday night because of bad road conditions. This game will be played tonight (Thursday).

Manchester copped the League of the Lakes Crown with a 9-1 record.

Damon, Hanna Head C of C Retail, Professional Groups

The retail and professional divisions of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce held their organizational meetings at the Tecumseh Country Club last Thursday.

Twenty-five persons turned out for the retail luncheon.

Cal Damon of Cal's Tog Shop was elected chairman of this group. Gene Shoemaker, manager of Kroger's, was elected vice-chairman. Claron "Skip" Rex of Western Auto was elected secretary.

The group, after discussing possible promotions, decided to hold its next meeting at the same place and at the same time Thursday, April 5.

Seventeen persons turned out for the professional dinner.

Bill Hanna of F. C. Hanna Insurance was elected chairman of this group. Russ Garno of Garno's Barbershop was elected vice-chairman. Del King of Delbert E. King Insurance Agency was elected secretary.

This group, after discussing whether it should continue as a special division of the chamber, decided to hold its next meeting at the same time and place Thursday, April 5.

Jack Osburn, president of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce, who presided at each meeting, said the chamber now has 82 paid members and he told members: "You shouldn't think of just promoting your own group. But you should think of how your group can promote Tecumseh and how you, as members of the chamber of commerce, can promote the town."

2865 Registered To Vote

Twenty-eight hundred sixty-five persons are registered to vote in the city council election which will be held Monday, April 2.

Mrs. Naomi Sallows, city clerk, said the sound truck used by Jaycees which reminded folks to register before the deadline was instrumental in bringing in a number of new registrations.

There are 12 in the race for the four council posts.

Meanwhile, four of the candidates, Paul Snyder, Pete Thielan, Marvin Rumpf and Gilbert Nighswander are campaigning under the title "Independent Voters' League." Their platform is a "crusade for right."

The platform has been placed up in the Eagles, the Legion, the VFW and the IOOF here.

Question Charges of Fluoride Test

City manager Ed Nelson Monday night in a report to the council questioned bills submitted by two men who made fluoride tests for the city in connection with the charges made by the anti-fluoridation committee which are now pending in circuit court.

The city manager told councilmen that city attorney J. C. Beardsley recommended paying a Mr. Charnox $610 for testings made on the water which were ordered by Judge Rex Martin. A Mr. Niggerman who also made tests charged $100.

"In my judgment there is too much difference in their bills and they should be checked before paying," he said.

It was suggested that Mr. Charnox might have done his own laboratory work which might have accounted for the higher fee.

The city attorney was out of the city Monday and was not present to answer questions on the fees.

Councilmen, however, want an explanation at the next council meeting.

Meanwhile, Judge Martin Wednesday told the HERALD that the fluoridation case might not be heard until the May calendar.

He said the next calendar will be made up March 12 and all jury cases must be heard first. The fluoridation case when it does come up will be heard without a jury.

Polio Benefit Dance Scheduled

S. R. Illeck, chairman, reminds residents that the combined PTA's will hold a polio benefit dance in the high school Saturday night, April 7.

Members of the committee are, in addition to Mr. Illeck, Keith Barron, Carson House, Bob Wood and Bob Anderson.

The Tecumseh Products Chieftains will provide music for the dancing.

TROOP 4 REORGANIZES

Dr. Robert Laidlaw is new chairman of the committee of Boy Scout Troop No. 4.

He was elected at an organizational meeting Saturday.

Others elected include Dr. R. J. Murray as secretary and treasurer; John Twist as institutional representative; Dr. William Britton as camping advisor and Charles Cottle as advancement director.

Re-Appraisal Report Shows City Is Worth 3 Times More Than Last Year's Valuation

According to figures submitted to city officials by re-appraisers of the J. M. Cleminshaw Co. the city is worth more than three times what it was valued at last year.

Re-appraisers, after checking all real and personal property in the city, said the total valuation of Tecumseh today is $31,786,000.

Last year the city was valued at $9,700,017.

What happens to the figures submitted by the re-appraisal company depends on action by city assessor John Saling and the city's board of review who meet together next Monday to determine the percentage of valuation which will be used for tax purposes.

Official thinking, reports Ed Nelson, city manager, is that the percentage will be about 50 per cent of the total.

This would mean that the city's value for tax purposes would be about $15,000,000.

The city manager also said officials are considering dropping the tax millage rate from the current 15 mills to 10 mills.

In other words, taxpayers would be paying on a higher valuation but their taxes would be governed by a reduced millage rate.

Two Districts Vote on Annexation Sat.

Culbertson and Holloway school districts will vote Saturday on whether they want to annex to the Tecumseh Public Schools, District No. 11.

Polls will be open from 12 noon to 8 p.m.

There will be three ballots. The first will be on annexation and all registered persons 21 or over may vote on this. The other ballots are concerned with whether the smaller districts want to assume Tecumseh's debt retirement and whether Culbertson and Holloway want to increase their millage. Only taxpayers may vote on this last proposition.

EXCHANGE CLUB BUYS TWO BAND UNIFORMS

The Exchange Club at their Wednesday night meeting last week voted to donate two uniforms to the band uniform project. Mrs. James Barton, chairman of the drive, announces that this makes a total of 45 suits.

Conservation Club Banquet Set for Next Wednesday

The Tecumseh Conservation Club banquet will be held in the Tecumseh Products' Workers Union Hall next Wednesday, March 14, at 6:30 p.m.

Lou Klewer, outdoor editor of the Toledo Blade, will show movies and he also will speak.

Mr. Klewer has been with the Blade 30 years as sports writer, sports editor and outdoor editor. He has hunted and fished all over the United States and in several famous spots abroad. He is chairman and president of the Ohio Outdoor Writers' Association.

An ardent conservationist all his life, he was awarded the William T. Hornaday Gold Conservation award by the Boy Scouts of America and the New York Zoological Society in 1943. He has been active in outdoor Scouting since 1913.

Tickets for the dinner, which will be served by the O.E.S., may be purchased at Hite's Hardware, Butler Motor Sales, Tecumseh Finance Co. and also from Jack Curtiss, Stan Rentschler, Don Creger and Lynn Harris, members of the club.

A .35 calibre rifle, bow, rod and reel, toaster, fry pan and radio will be awarded as prizes.

Dog Warden Fires Back

In regards to the piece that was printed in THE TECUMSEH HERALD for a group of Tecumseh area people Feb. 16.

The state laws of Michigan require all dogs over the age of three months shall have a license fastened to a collar on the dog and confined to the owner's premises. Seventy per cent of dog owners disregard the laws.

Any dog that I pick up with a license is returned to its owner. The day Lee Purkey's dog disappeared I picked up three other dogs in the Tecumseh area, two of which were not licensed.

These dogs were claimed by their owners one to two days later. Why weren't these dogs gased as Lee Purkey claims his dog was? But this is not true. The dogs that are disposed of are not gased on the highway as Purkey claims.

If Mr. Purkey is such a law-abiding citizen why didn't he have a tag on his dog like the law requires? And why have his neighbors complained to him to keep his dog at home? If it was such a valuable dog and pet why did he allow it to run at large?

Regarding Jim Sloan's dog:

It had been staying at a resident's a block from home for a week to 10 days, sleeping on their porch and making viscious attacks at a three-year-old boy and also at the boy's mother.

She called Tecumseh police and the dog made viscious attacks at the officer. Then the officer called me. I made several inquiries to find the dog's owner and I was told it was a stray dog.

I took a shot at it and missed. We then followed the dog to the Sloan's residence. One pellet from the shot had hit the dog in the leg. Two other officers and I didn't think it was injured enough to be disposed of.

The dog was in a fenced-in back yard. I cleaned the snow from the gate and tied it shut with a rope and asked the Sloans' next door neighbor to tell them when they arrived home to take the dog to a vet and have it taken care of.

If Mr. Sloan had had his dog confined as the law requires this wouldn't have happened. I acted on this for the welfare and safety of the people.

I have had numerous complaints in the Tecumseh area of dog owners allowing their dogs to run at large destroying property and attacking people.

I am operating this warden's job by the state law of Michigan, not by the way some people think or want it operated.

You dog owners do your part and I'll do mine.

Thanking you kindly,
Rellie Baughey, Jr.
Lenawee County Dog Warden

Administrator Reports

Herrick Memorial Hospital Will Reorganize Its Bookkeeping System

"The most imperative need of the hospital is a reorganization of the bookkeeping system," stated Orrie Gilbert, administrator of Herrick Memorial hospital, speaking at the March meeting of the Patterson PTA.

"As soon as the auditors come to check the books we will set up a new system. Business has doubled since the hospital was established in 1938 but there has been no change in the bookkeeping system."

In speaking of other changes needed, Mr. Gilbert said that the lab is to be brought up to the first floor. Also, the kitchen needs remodeling. At present the Hospital Auxiliary is in the process of buying a dishwasher, garbage disposal unit and a coffee maker. He praised the work of these women in aiding the growth and maintenance of the hospital.

"In the X-ray department the hospital for its size is the best equipped in the country. The equipment is being used more and more all the time."

The administrator said the rooms are well equipped except for specialized surgery.

The hospital is city owned, governed by a seven-man board appointed by the council. Serving on this board are Clarence Gilman, president, Kenneth Herrick, Perry Satterthwaite, Glenn Kohler, Dr. R. G. B. Marsh, Paul Hohenstein and Lester Rogers.

Twelve doctors from Tecumseh, Manchester and Clinton use the hospital.

"Operating expenses in the 62 bed hospital come directly from income from patients," stated Mr. Gilbert. "Our income over expenses was seven per cent last year. Most hospitals plan on five per cent to 10 per cent. Much of the equipment and building costs are donated.

"About one per cent of hospital bills will never be collected," he continued. "The greatest loss is in the emergency room. These are small bills but added together over the period of a year, the amount accumulates."

"Expense per year per patient day was $20.40 in 1955 not allowing for depreciation which is $5 to $6 below most other hospitals in the state. The percentage of occupancy makes the difference in the cost. Our occupancy is 70 per cent which is average."

"Total operating cost in 1955 was $322,000. Payroll takes two-thirds of expenses. Dietary expense was $41,000. In 1955 there were 2,356 patients; this was a 23 per cent increase over 1954. This figure does not include new-born babies. There were 576 babies born at the hospital.

"To illustrate the growth of the hospital," Mr. Gilbert said, "the 1953 cash charges were $187,000; in 1954 $274,000; and in 1955 $362,000."

The county pays the full cost of charity patients which are referred by the doctor to the welfare department.

"There is a tendency in hospitals to have each department pay for itself," he explained. "Therefore, laboratory expenses are less than they have been in the past."

"I have had many patients comment favorably on the good food and good care at the hospital," the administrator concluded.

CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

AN INTERESTING LETTER from Jim Martin, way out in Kaysville, Utah, subscribing to the HERALD, has this address: "Leading Newspaper, Tecumseh, Michigan." Naturally, we received the letter.

FRANK A. OSBORN, former Tecumseh boy, now of Detroit, sent us a clipping of Fred Merkle's death and the following note: "Just thought you might be interested in the attached clipping. Fred Merkle used to play on the Tecumseh ball team until the New York Giants of the National League discovered him. At that time the Tecumseh ball club was known throughout the state. Some of your readers may remember this outstanding ball player. I am still interested in Tecumseh, but it has changed somewhat since I was a boy and have grown up."

QUOTING A DR. BOTT, Frank Osborn also enclosed this: "Red tape is that part of the other fellow's business which nobody understands."

IT WAS INDEED A shame that Dave Clayton couldn't make the Rotary Club Ladies' Night program Tuesday. The talented Boston humorist was in a minor accident near Cleveland. But Miss Dianne Winsor, house guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Butler (THE HERALD reported her coming in a local item last week) held those present spellbound with her description of her experiences with the Nazi in World War II. Miss Winsor, talented—very talented—English actress, also held Bob Moore who sat beside her spellbound. It was a shame talented Dave Clayton could not have heard Miss Winsor's exciting description. Bob, Chuck and the rest of us will want to see her movie "The Old Mansion" when it comes here.

THE OLDTIMER SAYS: "Oftentimes opportunity is missed because we are broadcasting when we should be tuning in."

A TECUMSEH FATHER was furious because his shaving brush was missing. "Doesn't anybody know where my shaving brush is?" he thundered. "N-n-no," answered his five-year-old son, "but Donnie's horse has grown a new tail."

IT DOESN'T PAY to kick a cow as a farmer of Pinckneyville, Illinois, found out the hard way. A cow kicked him and he kicked the cow right back. He snapped a bone in his leg. The cow felt fine.

SALLY POPE READ the marquee at the Strand rather fast and it came out this way. Count Three and Pray Fast and Furious. Of course, she later read the "also."

7 Service Days Will Highlight Girl Scout Week

About 250 Brownies and Girl Scouts in Tecumseh will join the thousands of Girl Scouts across the nation in observing Girl Scout Week from March 11 through March 17. The days are called the Seven Service Days. They begin with Girl Scout Sunday when the girls will attend their respective church services, followed by Homemaking Day (Monday), Citizenship Day (Tuesday), Health and Safety Day (Wednesday), International Friendship Day (Thursday), Arts and Crafts Day (Friday), Out-of-Doors Day (Saturday). March 12 is the forty-fourth birthday anniversary of the Girl Scout program founded by Juliette Low. The local troops are asked to emphasize the day on which they meet by building a program around the significance of that day. Brown and green uniforms will be very much in evidence that week as the scouts may wear them any day or every day. Displays depicting troop activities will be in the windows of the Palman store all week for the public to enjoy. Mrs. Robert Warren is in charge of the window displays.

Scouterama, previously scheduled for March 16, has been cancelled because of too many conflicting activities. Replacing Scouterama will be an Easter egg hunt Saturday, March 31, on the recreation field.

In case of rain the egg hunt will be held Monday, April 2.

Prizes will be given for the most eggs found, eggs rolled the farthest and for finding special eggs.

Live rabbits will be given for prizes. All children are welcome to take part.

A small donation from each child will be solicited.

Onsted Driver Injured in Crash

Emerson Bolster of Onsted is in a serious condition in Herrick Memorial hospital as the result of an auto accident near Tipton Saturday afternoon.

His car rammed the rear of an oil truck belonging to James Barton and driven by Merle Hendricks.

Mr. Hendricks was making a left turn into a driveway. Bolster stated following the crash that he saw the blinker signal and did not know why he struck the truck. The 1955 car he was driving was demolished and the rear of the truck badly damaged but the tank was not broken.

Because of Mr. Bolster's condition, the extent of his injuries has not yet been determined.

Fred Merkle Was Hero Here

The death of Fred Merkle, famous major league ball player, which occurred March 2 in Daytona, Florida, is a sports page item to most of the nation.

To many residents of Tecumseh, however, it holds deeper interest. To them he was more than "Bone head" Merkle.

He was one of those almost legendary heroes who brought baseball fame to Tecumseh. For three years, 1905, 1906 and 1907, he and his teammates brought the championship of Southern Michigan League to the little town which was pitted against the much larger cities of Jackson, Battle Creek, Mt. Clemens, Flint, Bay City and Kalamazoo.

It was while he was playing for Tecumseh that he was scouted by the New York Giants. They paid the club $2500 for his release.

Tecumseh had another claim on Fred Merkle. While here he met and married a local girl, Ethel Bronson who, with their three daughters, survives him.

City Finances Are in Good Shape

City manager Ed Nelson Monday night told councilmen that city finances are in good shape and that the city "will come out all right to the end of the budget year."

"In figuring the money we will have coming in the four months left in this fiscal year I believe we will come out O.K.", he said.

He told councilmen that the city financial picture looks like this now:

George Kempf has leased the Dairy Queen from Ed Clark. Mr. Kempf will re-open the store next Thursday, March 15.

Foreign Students Entertain Wit and Wisdom Club

Four most attractive young women from four different countries, all students at Siena Heights College in Adrian entertained the members of the Wit and Wisdom Club Monday evening.

Mrs. Hoyt Whelan was hostess to the club at her home on West Chicago Blvd. and Miss Marjorie Wickwire made the arrangements for the visit of the students. As she was unable to be present, one of their number, Miss Joan Klusnick of Hawaii introduced her fellow students.

Miss Klusnick, although born in Hawaii, was of European parentage and spoke English more fluently than did Miss Celia Kung of Formosa, Miss Marjorie Tulloch of Jamaica or Miss Sedalia Batres, who came from Honduras. All gave word pictures of the scenery, customs and life in their native lands and Miss Kung exhibited art objects and hand work from Formosa. Miss Kung and Miss Klusnick were in native costume which added much to the interest of their talks. The audience found their varied personalities very charming and in the social hour which followed the program they were the center of interested groups.

W.S.C.S. MEETS

Mrs. Herman Mehler was hostess for the March meeting of the W.S.C.S. Mrs. Ellen Collins led devotions and Mrs. Bessie Travis was program chairman assisted by Mrs. Donna Scudder. During the business meeting it was reported that over $100 was netted from the church calendars and $78 from the father and son banquet. The W.S.C.S. has donated $1500 toward the remodeling of the church dining room and kitchen and the new well.

Mrs. Clarence Hall was appointed to the nominating committee. The annual mother and daughter bainquet will be held Friday, May 11 with the Sunday school classes of Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Kuder making decorations and programs.

The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Mehler and Mrs. Morden were observed and a dessert luncheon was served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Ellsworth Collins of Tecumseh and Mrs. Louis Kovach were guests.

The Macon Homemakers Extension Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Carrie Betzoldt with Mrs. Harold Ruhl as co-hostess March 15 at 10:30 a.m. There will be a short business meeting preceding the luncheon and in the afternoon the group will visit the Girls' Training School in Adrian.

The Macon church rated tenth in the Ann Arbor district attendance contest last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth VanValkenburg of Deerfield were the recently married couple honored.

William Camburn is a patient in Veterans' hospital, Ann Arbor. He will undergo surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gilmore and daughter have moved to one of the apartments owned by Charles Ricicia on the Ridge highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vershum moved Friday to a farm on McCrone road north of Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Switzenberg were hosts to a youth party Friday evening. Sixteen attended and games were played followed by refreshments. The group planned a hay ride for a later date.

The fourth quarterly conference for the Clinton-Macon Methodist churches will be held in Clinton Sunday, March 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Sandra Cook of Dexter and Max Rogers of Ann Arbor were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and family, Merl Sanch and Richard Moore attended the travel show in Detroit Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Switzenberg entertained ladies from Detroit, Clinton, Tecumseh and Macon Sunday afternoon at a cradle shower in honor of Mrs. Harold Green, the former Inez Mickle. The afternoon was spent socially and a four-tiered cake was served. Mrs. Greer opened many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Hamilton Moore spent Tuesday in Ann Arbor attending the Ann Arbor district executive board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vershum and family have moved to the Noble Gregg farm west of Tecumseh. Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne and daughter of Saline have moved into the house vacated by the Vershums.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gorton entertained a group of friends Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas. The couple was presented with a baby stroller and baby silverware.

Mr. and Mrs. Verl Sanch entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of the tenth birthday of their son Verl Jr. (Chippy). Those present were Mrs. Dora Ruhl and sons, Lester, Larry, Wayne and Steven, David Bird, Bill Bailey, Bobby Knudson. Roger Bortel, Philip Benedict and James Conrad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moore and son Richard were Sunday afternoon and evening callers on Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straub and children of Belleville.

FATHER-SON BANQUET ATTENDED BY 135

The father-son banquet of the Baptist church last Wednesday evening was a most enjoyable occasion for the 135 men and boys who were present. Mrs. Hal Kelso and Mrs. Harold Kempf, who were in charge of decorations used an Indian-cowboy theme to make the tables attractive and a bountiful ham supper was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Floyd Barr, Mrs. Mills Swick and Mrs. Dow Bilby with Mrs. Charles Stevenson in charge of the dining room.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore gave the invocation and acted as toastmaster, introducing Gene Manwaring, who toasted the fathers and his father, Vern Manwaring who responded with a tribute to sons. Recognition was given to William R. "Dad" Montgomery as the oldest father present, to Don Morley as the father of the most sons and to three-year-old Craig VanCamp as the youngest son.

Group singing was led by George Green Jr. with Mrs. Harley McConnell at the piano. Donald Dean, farm editor of WABJ was then introduced and interested the fathers while two movie cartoons entertained the sons.

Ford Wins at Stock Car Racing "Olympics"

HERE'S FORD'S RECORD AT NASCAR'S DAYTONA BEACH NATIONAL SPEED WEEKS

FIRST in Sports Car Acceleration
A Ford Thunderbird set a new record for American production sports cars.

FIRST in top speed—class 4
A Ford "Six" took top honors in the Flying Mile for Class 4 American production passenger cars!

FIRST in 160-mile Convertible race
Ford V-8's took 1st and 2nd place in the National Convertible Championship Race.

FIRST in over-all performance
Ford won the Pure Oil Manufacturer's Award for the most consistent performance.

The Ford V-8 again showed its taillight to all competitors in the "Olympics" of stock car racing at Daytona Beach, Florida.

In blazing across the finish line Ford demonstrated once more the sizzling performance that keeps it the largest-selling V-8 in the world. No other car in the field could match Ford for getaway "git" . . . for straightaway acceleration . . . for all-around roadability. To see exactly how the other cars trailed behind Ford, see the chart at the top of this page.

One of the secrets of Ford's performance is the tremendous torque (wheel turning power) developed by Ford engines. For example, Ford's new 225-h.p. Thunderbird engine develops more torque than any other engine in the low-price field. This means quicker response, smoother running in the kind of driving you do! Just nudge Ford's accelerator and whoosh! You pass in instants when instants count!

Ford now offers this mighty 225-h.p. engine with any Ford Fairlane or Station Wagon model with Fordomatic. What's more, these engines are coming off the assembly lines right now! So why wait? Come in today for a Test Drive. Find out for yourself about Ford performance. Find out why Ford is the V-8 with the biggest following!

FORD World's largest-selling V-8

W.S.C.S. MEETS

Mrs. Herman Mehler was hostess for the March meeting of the W.S.C.S. Mrs. Ellen Collins led devotions and Mrs. Bessie Travis was program chairman assisted by Mrs. Donna Scudder. During the business meeting it was reported that over $100 was netted from the church calendars and $78 from the father and son banquet. The W.S.C.S. has donated $1500 toward the remodeling of the church dining room and kitchen and the new well.

Mrs. Clarence Hall was appointed to the nominating committee. The annual mother and daughter bainquet will be held Friday, May 11 with the Sunday school classes of Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Kuder making decorations and programs.

The birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Mehler and Mrs. Morden were observed and a dessert luncheon was served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Ellsworth Collins of Tecumseh and Mrs. Louis Kovach were guests.

The Macon Homemakers Extension Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Carrie Betzoldt with Mrs. Harold Ruhl as co-hostess March 15 at 10:30 a.m. There will be a short business meeting preceding the luncheon and in the afternoon the group will visit the Girls' Training School in Adrian.

The Macon church rated tenth in the Ann Arbor district attendance contest last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth VanValkenburg of Deerfield were the recently married couple honored.

William Camburn is a patient in Veterans' hospital, Ann Arbor. He will undergo surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Gilmere and daughter have moved to one of the apartments owned by Charles Ricicia on the Ridge highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vershum moved Friday to a farm on McCrone road north of Milan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Switzenberg were hosts to a youth party Friday evening. Sixteen attended and games were played followed by refreshments. The group planned a hay ride for a later date.

The fourth quarterly conference for the Clinton-Macon Methodist churches will be held in Clinton Sunday, March 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Sandra Cook of Dexter and Max Rogers of Ann Arbor were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Travis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigelow and family, Merl Sanch and Richard Moore attended the travel show in Detroit Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Switzenberg entertained ladies from Detroit, Clinton, Tecumseh and Macon Sunday afternoon at a cradle shower in honor of Mrs. Harold Green, the former Inez Mickle. The afternoon was spent socially and a four-tiered cake was served. Mrs. Greer opened many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Hamilton Moore spent Tuesday in Ann Arbor attending the Ann Arbor district executive board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vershum and family have moved to the Noble Gregg farm west of Tecumseh. Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne and daughter of Saline have moved into the house vacated by the Vershums.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Gorton entertained a group of friends Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas. The couple was presented with a baby stroller and baby silverware.

Mr. and Mrs. Verl Sanch entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of the tenth birthday of their son Verl Jr. (Chippy). Those present were Mrs. Dora Ruhl and sons, Lester, Larry, Wayne and Steven, David Bird, Bill Bailey, Bobby Knudson. Roger Bortel, Philip Benedict and James Conrad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Moore of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Moore and son Richard were Sunday afternoon and evening callers on Mr. and Mrs. Albert Straub and children of Belleville.

FATHER-SON BANQUET ATTENDED BY 135

The father-son banquet of the Baptist church last Wednesday evening was a most enjoyable occasion for the 135 men and boys who were present. Mrs. Hal Kelso and Mrs. Harold Kempf, who were in charge of decorations used an Indian-cowboy theme to make the tables attractive and a bountiful ham supper was served by a committee headed by Mrs. Floyd Barr, Mrs. Mills Swick and Mrs. Dow Bilby with Mrs. Charles Stevenson in charge of the dining room.

The Rev. B. O. Bashore gave the invocation and acted as toastmaster, introducing Gene Manwaring, who toasted the fathers and his father, Vern Manwaring who responded with a tribute to sons. Recognition was given to William R. "Dad" Montgomery as the oldest father present, to Don Morley as the father of the most sons and to three-year-old Craig VanCamp as the youngest son.

Group singing was led by George Green Jr. with Mrs. Harley McConnell at the piano. Donald Dean, farm editor of WABJ was then introduced and interested the fathers while two movie cartoons entertained the sons.

Ford Wins at Stock Car Racing "Olympics"

HERE'S FORD'S RECORD AT NASCAR'S DAYTONA BEACH NATIONAL SPEED WEEKS

FIRST
In Sports Car Acceleration
A Ford Thunderbird set a new record for American production sports cars.

FIRST
In top speed—class 4
A Ford "Six" took top honors in the Flying Mile for Class 4 American production passenger cars!

FIRST in
160-mile Convertible race
Ford V-8's took 1st and 2nd place in the National Convertible Championship Race.

FIRST
In over-all performance
Ford won the Pure Oil Manufacturer's Award for the most consistent performance.

The Ford V-8 again showed its taillight to all competitors in the "Olympics" of stock car racing at Daytona Beach, Florida.

In blazing across the finish line Ford demonstrated once more the sizzling performance that keeps it the largest-selling V-8 in the world. No other car in the field could match Ford for getaway "git" . . . for straightaway acceleration . . . for all-around roadability. To see exactly how the other cars trailed behind Ford, see the chart at the top of this page.

One of the secrets of Ford's performance is the tremendous torque (wheel turning power) developed by Ford engines. For example, Ford's new 225-h.p. Thunderbird engine develops more torque than any other engine in the low-price field. This means quicker response, smoother running in the kind of driving you do! Just nudge Ford's accelerator and whoosh! You pass in instants when instants count!

Ford now offers this mighty 225-h.p. engine with any Ford Fairlane or Station Wagon model with Fordomatic. What's more, these engines are coming off the assembly lines right now! So why wait? Come in today for a Test Drive. Find out for yourself about Ford performance. Find out why Ford is the V-8 with the biggest following!

FORD World's largest-selling V-8

Monday Club Hears Child Speech Specialist

"Your Child and Its Speech" was the title of a most informative talk by Mrs. Bonnie Berkley before 35 members of the Monday Club this week at their regular meeting at the Methodist church.

Mrs. Berkley is one of the two specialists in speech correction who are employed by the county to give special instruction to school children in need of assistance in this field. She visits the schools in the northeast section of the county and meets the children in groups of ten.

She stressed the importance of correction saying that defects resulted in the child being either rejected, ridiculed or pitied. She said speech difficulties might come from poor hearing which is often not detected or from physical defects, imitation or "baby talk."

Mrs. Herbert Murphy, the president announced during the business meeting that the annual adult education courses would be given in Ann Arbor May 8 and 9 and urged members to attend if possible. She also asked for the names of those planning to go to Detroit, March 19 when the club will tour the buildings of the Goodwill Industries. Mrs. L. W. Larsen spoke briefly regarding the special appeal for funds being made by the American Red Cross for disaster relief. Mrs. Larsen is the local Red Cross chairman.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee headed by Mrs. LeRoy Titley with Mrs. Delmar Finch and Mrs. Lynn Hubbard pouring coffee and tea. A pot of shamrocks decorated the table and other appointments were in the theme of St. Patrick's Day.

Legion Auxiliary Initiates Eight

Initiation was the most important order of business at the Monday evening meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary when the local ritual team initiated Mrs. Roger Williams, Mrs. Paul Yoder, Mrs. Elmer Beuhrer, Mrs. Franklin Rumler, Mrs. Mary Drake, Mrs. Donald Aebersold, Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks and Miss Judy Murphy into membership.

During the business meeting conducted by Mrs. Robert Lowe, it was voted to donate $5 to the project of the national president which is the education of Korean children. It was announced that instead of the regular meeting on April 2, the auxiliary will meet with the legion on their meeting night of April 5 for a joint session. The members were also reminded of the Legion's birthday dinner March 17. Tickets for the 6:30 dinner may be purchased at the Legion Home.

Hostesses who served refreshments were Mrs. Patricia Maynard, Mrs. John Zarnock, Mrs. Richard Graff and Mrs. John Schuyler.

Indians Beat Hudson in Final Game

Tecumseh high school Friday night concluded a successful basketball season by downing the Hudson Tigers, winner of fourth place in the Lenawee County Athletic Association League, 68 to 61.

The score is no indication of the lack of supremacy of the Indians over the Tigers. They could have won by almost any score; but Coach Vic Lawson showed mercy and had his second five in for most of the final quarter during which time Hudson outscored Tecumseh 30 to 12.

The win gave the Indians an 11-5 overall record. They had a 7-1 Southeastern League record which was good for the title.

Tecumseh never presented such a well-balanced attack. Four of the five starters hit for double figures with Bill Hansen leading the quartet with 19. He was followed by Ken Miller with 18, Mike Sisson with 13 and Val Spangler with 12. Spangler also did an outstanding job on the boards.

Chuck Redding was leading Tiger point maker with 18.

Tecumseh's balance and its accuracy from the free throw line decided the game. Hudson with 25 field goals had three more baskets than Tecumseh's 22. But the Indians hit 24 from the free throw line while the Tigers were gaining 11.

Indian balance was evident from the beginning with every one of the five starters bagging a goal each to give the local five a 17-10 first quarter advantage.

Tecumseh increased its lead to 10 points at intermission by outscoring the Tigers 18 to 15 in the second period.

But the game was actually decided in the third quarter. Tecumseh outscored Hudson 21 to 6 to enjoy a 25-point lead as the final quarter began.

With this kind of bulge the Indians could afford to let up and become a bit lax and they did. Several times they threw the ball away and left Tigers unguarded. Then the second five came in and the Indians could hit only two field goals in the whole period while the Tigers swished 11. As a result Hudson outscored the Lawson men 30 to 12 and cut 18 points off the 25-point Tecumseh lead. But by then it was too late and the Indians had their last game in the victory bag.

In the prelim Coach Doug Murdoch's five won 45 to 28 with Bruce McDowell bagging 15 points and Larry Yoakum hitting 12.

Saturday at 7 p.m. the class "C" district championship game will be played.

In class "B" Willow Run plays Milan at 7 p.m. Friday night and Airport Community faces Tecumseh at 8:45 p.m.

The winners of these two games will play for the championship Saturday night at 8:45.

Tecumseh during regular season play faced Airport twice and won both games but Airport, it will be remembered, knocked off a good Hillsdale team in Southeastern League play.

On paper the Willow Run Club is supposed to have the best chance to give Tecumseh a run for the district title.

GRAPPLERS

Tecumseh's grapplers last week lost to Ann Arbor 33 to 18.

Dave Merrilat and Gordon Barth, both with pins, scored Tecumseh's points along with Carly Bailey who won on a 6-3 decision.

Coached by Bob Breniff, the team is comprised of freshmen and sophomores for the most part. They offer fine potential for next year's team. Tecumseh matmen took part in their first wrestling this year.

Junior High Fives End Cage Seasons

Tecumseh junior high cagers completed their seasons last week. The seventh graders had a 6-4 record and the eighth graders had a 7-3 record.

Last week Tuesday both teams had wins over Manchester; the seventh graders winning 19 to 12 and the eighth graders winning 30 to 15.

Ross led the seventh graders with six points.

The eighth grade scoring was evenly divided.

Thursday the two teams split with Addison with the seventh graders winning 31 to 23 and the eighth graders losing 18 to 13.

Bruce and Ross got six each for the seventh grade winners. Bill Sisson sunk a long one from almost 40 feet out as the buzzer sounded.

Knights Win Final Game

Boysville's Fighting Knights defeated South Lyon 57 to 41 in a League of the Lakes game Thursday night to complete a 4-10 season.

The win gave the Knights fifth place in league play with a 3-7 record.

Boysville held a one point, 13 to 12, edge in the first period but South Lyon faltered in the second, scoring only five points while the Knights were collecting 15. South Lyon had a 12 to 9 margin in the third but Boysville outscored the visitors 18 to 12 in the final.

Bob Temerowski led the Knights with 14.

South Lyon won the reserve game, 47 to 29.

Joe Fortunato Joins Personnel Staff at Products

JOE FORTUNATO, former athletic director and coach at Adrian College, is now a member of the personnel department of the Tecumseh Products Co. which is directed by M. W. ("Red") Wilson.

A graduate of Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, Joe has been teaching, coaching and directing since 1942.

Names "coach of the year" in 1955 when his Adrian College cage team won the MIAA crown, Joe served in the U.S. Navy from 1943 to 1946 a san athletic officer. He was discharged in 1946 as a lieutenant, (j.g.)

His career includes teaching, coaching and directing athletics in Leetonia high school, Dubuque University, Toledo University, Upper Iowa University and Adrian College.

Joe and his wife and daughter will move to Tecumseh from Adrian as soon as they can.

Field and Stream

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

FIELD AND STREAM .... Standing

The 19th annual observance of National Wildlife Week has been scheduled for March 18-24 by the National Wildlife Federation.

The 1956 Wildlife Week theme will be "Save Endangered Wildlife" and a nationwide educational program will point up the plight of fish, birds and animals that face extinction over vast portions of their natural range.

Included in the "endangered species" category are the rare whooping crane, a species down to its last 28 individuals now wintering in Texas, and the ivory-billed woodpecker which some experts believe may already be extinct.

Other species to receive attention are the grizzly bear, Everglade kite, Eskimo curlew, Attwater's prairie chicken, lake sturgeon, bighorn sheep, sea otter, Key deer, California condor, Montana grayling, trumpeter swan and the lake trout of the Great Lakes.

Only bobcats, foxes and coyotes will be legal game after March 1 and even bobcats will be protected after March 15 in the lower peninsula. The 'cats are considered a game animal in the lower peninsula and may be hunted only during the Dec. 15-March 15 season.

An annual reminder to ice fishermen comes from the Conservation Department: Be sure your shanty is high and dry before the ice breaks up.

State law declares that owners shall remove their fishing stanties before conditions become unsafe. Failure to obey the law can result in fines up to $50 and/or 30 days in jail.

In addition, if the shanty breaks through and conservation officers have it removed from the water, the owner must pay the cost of removal.

Fishnig without a license is a costly pastime in Michigan.

Conservation law convictions reported last week listed 12 persons guilty of fishing without a license. Total penalties for the 12 amounted to $158.80 in fines and court costs.

Michigan resident licenses — good for all species except trout —cost $1.50 a year. Annual non-resident fees are $4.00.

Give Some Books

If you want to make a lasting contribution, give a new book or new books to the public library here.

Members of the new library board have studied the situation and needs of the library and contributions of books would not be out of place. In fact, they would be most welcome.

The board members are doing every thing they can to place the library in the class which it belongs. But they can't do it all alone.

This is where the rest of us come into the picture. We can give new books. Incidentally, such gifts, of course, are deductible items from income taxes.

If you wish to make a contribution of new books to the library, contact one of the board members: Allan Seager, Peg Touborg, Jack Savage, Joseph Galazzi or Clara Waldron. Any one of the board members will be most happy to discuss the overall future plans of the library with you and they will be glad to know your interest in the library.

Share Your Problems

During the organizational meeting of the professional division of the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce many ideas were being discussed as to the merit of establishing such a division.

Finally, Dr. R. G. B. Marsh said he thought the professional division would be a fine thing because members could get better acquainted with each other and with each other's profession. Knowledge, he said, would bring about a better understanding of the other person's problems.

This knowledge and understanding, it seems to us, will become a real benefit from participation in the professional division of the chamber of commerce.

Need, Challenge, Reward

Science and engineering students in our colleges and universities today are presented with unprecedented challenge and opportunites.

The challenge is in assuring the future of our country and its economy in this atomic age. Russia is graduating two and a half times as many engineers as we are. We need between 50,000 and 90,000 engineers and scientists annually to protect our freedom from aggression, and to satisfy the demands of our industrial economy.

Last year, at one college alone, the 200 graduates were interviewed for job opportunities by representatives of nearly 500 industrial companies.

The rewards for the young scientists and engineers are great—both in service to country and materially.

Tecumseh BOOK SHELVES Library

New books available at the library are:

Bowles, Chester, "New Dimensions of Peace." Reflecting on his most recent observations in four continents, Mr. Bowles offers this challenging analysis of the revolutionary forces confronting U. S. policy in the new era of atomic stalemate.

Denis, Michaela, "Leopard in My Lap." A book of adventure, by a woman who chose to travel with the man she loved through the wildest, darkest jungle in Africa.

Kronenberger, Louis, "Best Plays 1954-1955." The ten best plays on Broadway in 1955.

Feininger, Andreas, "Creative Photographer." A book on the theory and methods of photography, ready for you to use to produce the most effective photographs possible.

Ilg, Frances L., "Child Behavior." The first of the Gesell series which not only tells you how behavior grows but gives specific advice on what to do about the many child behavior problems.

FICTION:

Slaughter, Frank, "Scarlet Cord." Biblical novel.

Kenyon, F. W., "Marie Antoinette." Historical novel.

Lockridge, Richard, "Let Dead Enough Alone." Mystery.

O'Hara, John, "Ten North Frederick." The story of three generations.

Who's Afraid of a Snake?

You are! Right? Who wouldn't be? In fact, many folks are scared of little garden snakes.

In fact, many folks are scared, period. They're afraid of sickness and H-bombs and other people and themselves and—well, just life in general.

What they need is somebody to comfort them in times of fear—somebody strong and true.

Who? The Answer Is God.

If you have fears, tell God about them. He will help you overcome them. Get to know God better and you will see. Worship God in Church Every Week—At Home Every Day.

Realty Views

"I would like to ask a question," said a lady's voice on the telephone. "In listing a place for sale, how long a time is it customarily listed for?"

"That depends," I replied, "but in general for 60 to 90 days. Of course, on properties that require lots of promotion, the time may be much longer, up to 6 months or more."

"One more question," the lady said, "Do you give the owner a copy of the listing?"

"Certainly," I answered. "It is a good practice because it goes a long w[illegible] towards preventing misunderstanding as to the time period [illegible] terms, and so on."

"A friend from another state told me to insist on a definite listing period and a signed copy of the listing," the lady said.

"It's fine with us," I answered. "What kind of property do you have for sale and when can we talk it over?"

"It's our home. About five o'clock would be most convenient."

Now that's all that it takes to get us started selling your property — just a friendly phone call. Won't you please call us right away?

The Diary of Thomas Wright

(This is the sixth installment of the diary kept by Thomas Wright who was the first of six generations of the family in Tecumseh.)

March 14—Ground covered with snow that came yesterday, 2½ inches and winter come again. Mercury at 0. In this cold snap we lost our monthly rose, brought from N. H. and kept alive to this time.

March 20—Finished our well and got it in good order.

April 3—Made a contract with Mr. Jeremiah Arnold to plow the whole of the Brown lot for $480 to be finished by the first of Sept. next.

April 6—Began gardening.

May 3—Finished planting corn.

May 13—Bought a cow which proved good for nothing.

May 21—Peter and B. Snickney left us for home.

May 22—Alarm of Indian war. The fright among some people, particular among some women was ludicrous excessively. (Note: This was the Black Hawk war.)

May 23—The militia were called out to go West. Those of Tecumseh marched today. They were gone about a fortnight which proved a serious evil to many farmers who lost the opportunity to plant corn.

May 29—Mr. Loveland called here on his way to Illinois. This was the first person from N. H. who has called on us.

June 6—Mingus began to frame a barn for me which I got raised the 7th, the roof on 17th and boarded up the 21st. I have got a cellar under the east end, 25 by 20 ft. to build which took 34 load of stone and cost me about 45 dollars.

June 27—Hired Royal Howel to work by the month.

June 28—Tonight Elizabeth with her husband and child came.

July 17—My well which I had dug in the spring although we went as low as we could in the skason (casing?) of, proved to be not deep enough and has been for a month entirely dry. I again hired Nesbit and today began taking it up resolved to find water. It proved I was to be disappointed in getting a good supply, we went to 43 feet as low as I could get. Found a bank of clay which we could not perforate. I thought the best I could do was to stone it up again. The second attempt having cost me 77 dollars. It was not until the 17th of August that we finished it.

July 31—My crop of wheat proved good and today finished the getting of it into the barn. Had 2345 sheaves, which yielded about a bushel a dozen.

Aug. 7—Sent a grist to mill after which we eat our own grain. To this time I had to buy for my great family which now regularly consists of 11 persons.

Sept. 7—Moses taken sick. Sept. 6 Royal taken sick. Asahel taken sick. I have now 2 teams and no one to drive them.

Sept. 9—Self unwell but went to church leaving Frances, Moses, Asahel, Elizabeth and Royal at home sick abed.

I succeed for the most part to hire men to drive the teams and on the 12th began sowing wheat on the land ploughed by Arnold. Harriet was taken sick about this time.

Oct. 6—Mrs. Wright again taken sick.

Oct. 24—Today A. L. Wells began preaching in this town.

Nov. 6—Meeting of the S. S. Society. On this occasion I delivered a public address.

Nov. 29—My daughter, Frances was married to Dr. Patterson. (Note, Dr. M. A. Patterson, whose house, now the city office, stood on Wright's store corner.)

1883—

May 1—The past winter has passed away without any extraordinary occurance. Moses had three spells of fever and ague, otherwise we have been in general favored with health. On the 23 of April a fire ran over almost all the country and on my farm did very much damage to the timber.

May 7—Although all of my family have been much afflicted with sickness hitherto I had in the main been blessed with [illegible] health but now the tables were about to be turned. Yesterday in a great shower I got thoroughly wet and I was at this date attacked with an intermittant fever which continued until the 20th when for the first time I had a fit of fever and ague. In the meanwhile both Mrs. Wright and Harriet have the same vile disease. My fever continued several days when by Dr. Patterson's direction on the 3rd of June, for the first time, I broke it.

I had difficulty to hire help to get my corn planted and when it was done it was done miserably and out of season. Self, Mrs. W., Moses and Harriet continued at regular intervals to have the ague. Also my hired man, all the season. I had great difficulty to get through the harvest. Myself could do nothing, Moses but little. In the month of August the matter seemed to be at a crisis. For 20 days nothing was done on the farm or anywhere else but burn and freeze. I know not how we should have got along but for Asahel who did for us all he could and Elizabeth also. Moses could occasionally do some work but for myself from the 7th of May to the 25 of Sept. was unable to go to work on the farm.

After October came in Moses began to gain and when he had the ague it was not so severe, thus also it was with Harriet and Mrs. Wright for we all continued to have it at intervals through the year and the next following. For myself it would come on about every fortnight. After two or three fits take calomel and then quinine and break it as the term is and then have it come on again. So that on the 24th of December I wrote in my diary—got the fever the twelfth time. But this process was all the time wearing out my constitution. I had succeeded to get about 25 acres of wheat sown but with all my weak family it was not got in in season or got in well. I still lived in hopes that the cold of winter would relieve me and my family. Indeed winter came soon enough for on the 24 of October it snowed all day and about the middle of Nov. the ground was covered with snow for about a week. But the ague had got into my system nor would snow or snow water wash it out. The 19th of Dec. was the day appointed by the Governor for a day of public Thanksgiving which my family observed in the New England style, being at that particular time free of the ague.

Christian Science Services Listed

How faith advanced to spiritual understanding of God provides the answer to sin, lack, and other discords will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance" at Christian Science services Sunday.

From the King James Version of the Bible will be read the following (Romans 14:22): "Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (23:16): "Faith, if it be mere belief, is as a pendulum swinging between nothing and something, having no fixity. Faith, advanced to spiritual understanding, is the evidence gained from Spirit, which rebukes sin in every kind and establishes the claims of God."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews (11:1): "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."

SHE KNEW HOW TO FEED THE FISH

Miss Flora Kasik, Tecumseh, Mich., has been awarded a "Jumpmaster" certificate by Marine Studios, Florida's renowned oceanarium. Specially selected visitors from all parts of the country earn this title at Marineland by feeding the famous jumping porpoises by hand.

Miss Kasik received the award after successfully coaxing three of the large aquatic mammals to leap completely out of the water to take fish from her fingers.

Following the porpoise feeding, Miss Kasik stayed to witness the entire program, during which a diver enters the two oceanarium tanks to feed the thousands of living marine specimens.

Seek Postmaster at Tipton, Mich.

An examination for Postmaster at Tipton, Mich., $4190 a year, will be open for receipt of applications until March 27, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announced today.

The commission is taking all possible steps through special publicity to civic and other community organizations to encourage well qualified persons to apply for the examination.

Competitors for the postmaster vacancy must show that they can deal with the public agreeably and effectively and that they are reliable citizens who would command the respect and confidence of patrons of the post office.

They must also show that their background will enable them to maintain simple records of accounts or that it has given them a knowledge of postal procedures.

Applicants must take a written test. Those who pass will be assigned final ratings on the basis of this test and on their experience, ability, and character. There is a one-year residence requirement and all applicants except those entitled to veteran preference must be at least 21 years of age. There is no maximum age limit.

Complete information about the examination requirements and instructions for filing applications may be obtained at the post office for which this examination is being announced. Application forms must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D. C. and must be received or postmarked not later than the closing date.

how to get bouquets
husband

As director of the family budget, you'll rate bouquets (and probably get 'em) if you can squeeze some savings out of the regular income. It's easy to do if you save first, each week or each month, before you spend a penny. And you're extra smart if you save here, where above-average earnings keep the dollars growing . . . where every penny is insured safe to $10,000. Why not try it this week?

Savings received by March 10 earn from the first of the month.

Mama Goes on Safari

Monday

My patience is wearing thin. I'm so-o-o-o miserable! It's so hot, so humid. My skin pricks like a bee sting! I'm tired of all the crawling insects and all of the flying ones that I have to duck—big wasp-like creatures that zoom in and out of the tent; bees treading in the air next to my nose; huge blue bottle flies; ants crawling; cockroaches; mites, tiny lizards scurry around the tent poles. I jerk nervously to find my disturbance just running sweat. Even the brown dirt gives off puffs of dust from tiny holes, like whirlwinds, where another one of God's little creatures is busy digging. There isn't a peaceful spot to turn.

Across the river a crocodile is splashing by the edge. Don't know why the birds dip over him so continually. Upstream on the same side, a group of youngsters is playing in the water regardless that two days ago two miles up one little boy was carried off by a crocodile.

When the sun goes down and the men come back for company, the situation won't look so bad, but right now I want to get out of here where there are no silent malaria mosquitos and I can walk in my barefeet!

March 9, 1955
Wednesday

Moving day. It's seven o'clock and the hot morning sun is filtering through the bamboo slots of the mess hut where I'm eating breakfast alone; the air is already oppressive and sticky; the dust from the court yard where Kipsoi is sweeping diligently with a bunch of leaves, wafts through the sunshine in my direction. Tiny ants are circling the jam jar and using the plate of toast for a playground. A month of this is enough. Have done beautifully but this morning I'm squeamish. After putting on my glasses I observe too much—could just as easily have lathered my face this morning with a fat juicy grub I later found in my wash basin!

HEAR UNEARTHLY SOUND

The other night Jens and I were awakened by an unearthly sound. He was sure is was a lion outside my side of the tent. I thought it came from the mess tent. Tracking the gulps down with flashlights, Jens finally shook a big frog out of a tennis shoe by my bed!! But then, no sleep for him. He was imprisoned in his netting with a mosquito, a dreaded insect in these parts. We were so tired and I felt so sorry for him, shining his flashlight and pumping the spray gun so frantically.

Yesterday Andy sighted a crocodile across the river, half sunning himself on the bank. Andy flipped a coin for shooting honors and Jens, the winner, smacked him "Wham" on the back. All the campboys gathered around to see Bwana shoot—they knew he had been bringing home the bacon, and now they could really see Dead Eye Dick in action. The perfect shot brought enthusiastic cries of approval and hearty handshakes as though he had killed another lion. He had not lost face!

LET'S SHOOT A 'CROC'

Lady Luck has been kind to me so far and I don't want to tax her patience further. Today I was determined to say "No, thank you I'll draw the line on this experience," but I've saved my face. Jens and Andy had the bright idea of including me on a trip down the river in the native canoe, a hollowed out tree trunk, shooting crocodiles. Makes me think of Prokofieu's Peter and the Wolf—"shooting as they come," but, thank goodness, their trip is off. It takes two rivermen to paddle and just one is available. Wouldn't I love cowering in the bottom of the dugout, shots whistling around my ears and over my head—crocodiles snapping at the paddles and blinking their heavy eyelids at me?

Thought it was moving day. The boys are actually breaking up camp, but Bitten wanted one more chance at her lion bait and Jens has not given up yet on his Lesser Kudu.

Tomorrow morning we'll have a 50 mile ride into Garissa where Clausens have a two seater plane coming in to pick them up. They've offered to give me a lift back to Nairobi, but, you know me—don't want to miss a thing.

IT'S HARD TO LEAVE

We'll be traveling through new territory and I'll be nodding a nostalgic goodbye to each bit of Africa. Clutching each scene to me—trying to make photographic impressions of this strange land to carry home with me. Yes — even the tiny Dik, Diks scurrying down the road like frightened rabbits; the familiar bend in the road which brought us in ful view of the salt lick and always a herd of spooked impalas leaping off with the grace of ballet dancers instead of the buffaloes we always hoped to see . . . It's going to be hard to leave our camp life, our Andy, and the boys.

March 10

Just a month ago today we were fresh and expectantly starting on our Safari. This noon I'm in a bad mood and will welcome the New Stanley Hotel. At 4:30 this morning the tents were literally broken down over our heads and I was frantically snatching up my loose belongings ahead of the business like demolition crew. Everyone was busy, darting in and out of the car lights, lugging trunks, folding canvas tubs. No breakfast this morning either but an English cup of tea which the cook set out on the hood of the jeep.

Much business in Garissa getting Clausens on their plane, or rather hoping their plane would arrive, because we've got to get going. Have a long ride ahead of us to Nairobi and through the Mau Mau section before dark. A sign is posted on the front of the government building announcing that all roads in this area will be closed by March 15. "The rainy season is approaching and the roads will be closed for the duration. Whichever comes first, March 15 or the first heavy downpour. From then on all travel on the roads will be prohibited!"

We are making it by the skin of our teeth. Clouds are beginning to show up, the sky is changing, and our Safari is over.

Want some Fun and Fast Action?
BUICK
Buick CENTURY 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera, Model 63

Come join Buick's

THRILL-A-MINUTE CLUB

Here's the why of it:

There's so much excitement at the wheel of a '56 Buick, we had to do something to accommodate all the folks who want to get in on it.

So we set up a little Club to handle matters—and it's for fun and for free.

All you do to join is drive a new Buick—that makes you a member. And all you do to drive this beauty is ask.

From that point on it's pure thrill all the way.

Because then you'll feel the sheer bliss of cradled travel in the best riding Buick yet built—and of a wonderful handling ease in the car with the truest sense of direction yet . . .

Because then you'll tingle with the flash-fast power response that's yours from Buick's big 322-cubic-inch V8 engine—where horsepowers and compression ratios hit lofty new peaks, and road command hits a soaring new level . . .

Because then—and only then—will you feel the absolute smoothness and the electrifying action of today's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow*—where the first inch of pedal travel does new wonders for getaway and cruising and gas mileage—and where flooring the pedal switches the pitch for the most spectacular safety-surge in America today.

So if you want some fun and fast action—if you want to see what it's like to call signals on the most performance-packed automobile in all Buick history—come join our Thrill-A-Minute Club.

As we said, there's nothing else to do for membership except drive a new Buick. And, as we'll gladly show you, there's nothing to match this beauty as a bedrock buy—for we're making the best deals ever on the best Buick yet.

Drop in on us today or tomorrow—press that pedal—and let the thrills fall where they will.

Moore-Gregory Vows Exchanged in Britton Church

The Congregational church in Britton was the scene of the Friday evening wedding of Virginia Gregory and Robert James Moore. Virginia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gregory of 314 N. Maiden Lane, Tecumseh and the bridegroom is the son of Bert Moore and the late Mrs. Moore of Britton.

Altar vases of the church were filled with white snapdragons as the bridal couple took their places at seven o'clock. Mr. Gregory gave his daughter in marriage and the double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. O. E. Priest. Mrs. Ford Exelby at the organ played traditional music.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Carole Ladd while the best man was Joe Gregory, the bride's brother.

Ivory satin formed the rich folds of the bridal gown which was made ankle length in princess style. It had a scoop neckline and long sleeves and a fold at the hip line ended in a bustle bow. Her shoulder length veil of French illusion was held by a satin and pearl crown and she carried a cascade bouquet of Eucharist lilies.

Mrs. Ladd's gown was lipstick red tulle over taffeta made waltz length with strapless bodice. She wore a white lace jacket and matching head band and her flowers were red camelias.

Mrs. Gregory wore a navy blue dress for her daughter's wedding. It was combined with navy lace and she wore navy accessories and an orchid shoulder corsage.

At 8 o'clock a reception for about 200 relatives and friends was held at the Products Union Hall where Mrs. Larry Hart met and registered the guests. A four-tiered wedding cake encircled by a decoration of red carnations and greens was cut by Mrs. Douglas Monigan and Mrs. Dick Purkey, who were assisted by Mrs. Lois Kahle. Miss Vivian Hahn served coffee and Miss Sharon Ost the punch. The gifts were received by Mrs. Lee Phibbs, Mrs. Bob Brooks and Mrs. David Vanderpool.

Mrs Moore, who is employed in the engineering department of the Tecumseh Products Co., is a graduate of Tecumseh high school with the class of 1952. The groom attended Britton high school and served in the U.S. Air Force for four years. He also is employed at the Products. They will make their home in Britton.

Disaster Clinic Planned by County Nurses Assoc.

An important event is being planned for April 5 by the Lenawee District Nurses Association. Under the guidance of the American Red Cross and the Department of Civil Defense they will hold an all day disaster clinic in Adrian, the exact location to be announced later.

Classes will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. in a series of three sessions. Anyone interested in civilian defense in its relation to natural disaster or atomic bombing is included. The afternoon and evening sessions are open to the general public.

The clinic will be under the direction of Mrs. Mildred Schmidt of Manitou Beach and speakers will be present from the state department of civilian defense. Classes will include instruction in improvising, in the new methods of artificial respiration and in infant and maternal care. Classes will be conducted by doctors in first aid and radition burns and sickness.

Two Editorials on Michigan Blue Cross

Featured below are the full texts of two editorials which appeared in The DETROIT TIMES on February 26, 1956 and in The DETROIT FREE PRESS on February 27, 1956. Because they present the considered editorial judgment of two of Michigan's great newspapers, we are reprinting them in full as a public service for the information of our 3,600,000 Blue Cross members and all the people of Michigan.

From The Detroit Times, February 26

BLUE CROSS FUSS

We didn't suspect a week ago today, when we started a series of articles on Blue Cross, that the fuss over hospital prepayment would attain the intensity it has now reached.

The amount of hullabaloo, frankly, is getting out of hand.

Rep. Allison Green has a bill for the Legislature, which he fondly hopes will solve everything. It won't.

Insurance Commissioner Joseph A. Navarre has been quoted with some remarks which we suspect he will regret when he begins to realize what he has said.

A group of unions in Detroit and Flint is proposing to set up a rival "Blue Cross plan," which is entirely within their rights, even though we doubt it will look as simple to them once they have gotten into what is a very complicated problem.

Of the three—Rep. Allison, Commissioner Navarre, and the unions—we think the unions are behaving most reasonably. We differ with them only in our opinion as to whether they CAN produce what they think they can.

But of the whole lot, we think Blue Cross and its present managers are the most capable of providing what we want. We think Blue Cross is getting a vicious and needless pushing around.

In our news stories we have tried to tell what was happening without letting our opinions sway us.

But this is the editorial page, and this is our opinion, and we are saying what we think.

First of all, a series of articles which began concurrently in another Detroit paper is, for all we know at this moment, still running. We don't have any quarrel with the facts in it.

We do believe it has placed too much emphasis on "over-utilization"—that is, the complaint that some people either stay too long in the hospital, or get in under Blue Cross when they shouldn't—when they aren't really sick.

The Times reported that. We can take you back in the files a couple of years and show we were the first newspaper to report there was some of this chiseling going on. It should be halted. We think it is being halted.

But it makes a rather sensational subject to write about—and some people talk too much about it. This "over-utilization" while it does happen, is not occurring to the extent that it makes any vast difference in premium payments.

And that is the most important issue in this whole problem.

Why do we think "over-utilization" is not as great as some people try to suggest?

* *

First, because a Blue Cross study group itself was the first to dig into the matter. No attempt to hide anything. Just an effort to correct the situation, since chiseling by one subscriber is paid for by all the honest ones.

Second, Blue Cross, by subsequent and continuous inquiry, thinks that this evil is under good control, even though there is still an occasional violation.

Third, because Michigan isn't the only Blue Cross plan. The same general plan exists in all the states, each under its own laws and its own management.

If the plan here happened to be at fault, in some way, it is hardly possible that all the states would be at fault in the same way.

Somewhere in the country we would find that Blue Cross rates were markedly lower—we would find it, that is, if Michigan's Blue Cross were letting the customers get away with murder.

Somebody would have found a solution, and would be bragging about it. But no, rates are pretty comparable anywhere you go.

Therefore, we suspect this "over-utilization" has been publicized into a bigger fault than it really is. We don't think very many people get much fun out of going to, or staying in, a hospital.

Now Rep. Green thinks he could bring about lower rates, and thwart all the chiselers (such as there are—most people are honest) by a law making Blue Cross change its policy.

He would make everyone who uses Blue Cross pay the whole cost of the first day in the hospital (the most expensive day, because then you have all the tests, and usually the operation if you need one) and also pay 15 per cent of the cost after the seventh day.

Of course that would reduce the premium you pay for Blue Cross—but you'd soon find it didn't save any money. Furthermore, it would put the biggest burden on the people who are most seriously ill. Who wants that?

* * *

Rep. Green, with the best of intentions, has oversimplified the situation. Besides, he wants to make this compulsory for everybody—doesn't even want to give subscribers a choice of which way they'd rather do it.

Commissioner Navarre, for reasons which escape us, has indorsed Rep. Green's notion. We suspect some politics somewhere, because we think Navarre ought to know better.

We wonder, too, why Navarre has questioned the sincerity of the Blue Cross in offering a so-called "deductible" policy.

People have been able, if they chose, to buy such a policy from Blue Cross for upwards of the last year.

Blue Cross made no secret of the fact that such a policy was being offered. People could have it, at a lower pric[illegible] wanted it. They didn't want it.

To get back to the unions, now. They'd like a policy which gives more benefits at lower cost. Who doesn't like the idea? Who doesn't want the good five-cent cigar back, or the $700 automobile, or the three-cent newspaper, for that matter? We'd like them all back.

But you can't slap economics in the face.

You can't legislate Utopia.

And so far as we are concerned, you can't say that Blue Cross hasn't been doing a good job.

Its prices haven't gone up any faster than factory wages. It has been so good that it now has 3,600,000 people, or half of the whole state, using Blue Cross and liking it.

* * *

Trying to make out, all of a sudden, that something is "wrong," or that some simple little bill in the Legislature can turn time backward and make things cost less—that's nonsense.

We don't think this union group can do it, either, but we'll concede their right to try. At least they aren't trying to tell everybody else how to do it. They're undertaking to show how to do it.

We think, flatly, that Blue Cross is a fine thing, and we hope all the noise won't fool the people and unduly alarm them.

Blue Cross is merely a victim of our rising economy just as everybody else is.

Hospital Insurance Costs

TRYING TO SPOT THE REAL VILLAIN

Old melodramas had their advantages. It was easy to identify the villain. This is not so in the current uproar about hospitalization insurance. Rates have skyrocketed. Many think Blue Cross has thrust its hand too deeply into the pockets of its 3,600,000 Michigan subscribers. Investigations are being made, bills are being submitted to the legislature, and the air is blue with charges.

Much is still being learned, but we think some observations can be made now.

The public's demand in the last decade for better medical and hospital care has been great. Therefore, on top of inflation must be added the cost of this improved care. An increase in Blue Cross rates might, then, be considered automatic.

The question is: Do the allegedly excessive rates reflect only inflation and improved care?

Ample proof to the contrary appears in surveys of hospital cases covered by hospitalization insurance. The studies indicate clearly that alarming abuses have cropped up. These take the form of unnecessary hospitalization, prolonged stays for convenience or comfort and excessive use of drugs and laboratory facilities.

The problem remains the same. Whom do we hiss and boo?

Is it hospitals for operating inefficiently? Is it physicians who find it convenient to group patients in hospitals for quick and lucrative rounds of call that require only an hour or so each morning? Is it patients who unnecessarily demand and get from their doctors a hospital bed and costly care? Is it Blue Cross for permitting such known abuses to continue?

Frankly, we suspect the answer to all such questions may be "Yes!"

At least one offered solution appears to be precipitous and short-sighted. A bill introduced in the Michigan Legislature suggests a deductible plan similar to auto insurance. The proposal to make subscribers pay for the first day of hospitalization and 15 per cent after seven days no doubt would cut rates. It also would greatly reduce the value of the service. It would not, we believe, strike hard enough at the abuses.

It would, however, seem logical to offer optional plans. Blue Cross has such a plan, in which the patient pays the cost of the first two days and $2 a day for the remainder of the hospital stay. The saving of but 16 per cent in premiums does not seem adequate, considering that the average stay is seven days. Blue Cross also is readying a "catastrophe" policy, but if the saving is no greater than offered under the year-old deductible plan it too probably will not be widely popular.

One additional thought stands out prominently. Physicians, through their dealings with patients and because they control both the hospitals and the Blue Cross organization, have failed, in our estimation, to take an active public stand on the abuses under the voluntary hospitalization insurance plans.

Because they are so closely involved in the abuses and because voluntary plans were their answer in a period when socialized medicine appeared around the corner, they should be available to counsel the public. The public wholeheartedly accepted the voluntary plans and should have the wise advice of doctors.

Since Blue Cross is a $100,000,000-a-year business, the entire problem should be thoroughly examined, calmly, circumspectly and publicly.

ONE NIGHT STANDS AT SUTTON'S OPERA HOUSE
(PART TWO)

The sidewalk kibitzers of 1878 had nearly a year of free entertainment, watching masons, carpenters and decorators before the Opera House was ready for its "grand opening" during holiday week of that year. It was practically all a local production. The town furnished most of the labor and nearly all the materials.

The bricks, three ply of which form the thick walls, came from the Comfort brick yard. The massive, hand hewn timbers, forming the frame, that are visible in the shadowy vault high above the stage grew in local woods. Probably the stage, woodwork and floor did also for saw and planing mills were an important part of Tecumseh's economy at that time. Even the chairs, 700 of which comprised the main floor seats were made in the A. J. Palmer Chair Factory, the building now occupied by the local F.O.E.'s. They had solid wooden seats and in the course of an especially long and dull lecture it was a toss-up which were harder, the chairs or the 300 seats provided by the benches in the balcony.

The original floor was flat, of course, and the chairs, placed in numbered rows could be moved out for dancing. Footlights and house lighting were gas, manufactured on the spot by a machine supplied by the "Combination Gas Machine Co. of Detroit. Probably its pervasive odor was not too pleasing but to youthful patrons it was part of the thrill of "going to the Opera House."

Pride of local achievement, however, reached its height in the drop curtain and the scenery. The "artist" who painted them was a home town boy, Lavern Wheeler. He was a photographer by trade but a painter by avocation. He was art teacher, landscape and portrait painter and general exponent of the aesthetics. The curtain was a good example of the style he affected. Heavy red draperies, obviously of velvet were looped back on either side to frame an impressive landscape—a German castle on the Rhine—which no one else but Edith Ingersoll would possibly remember or probably ever knew was the Ehrenbreitstein. Above was a very creditable portrait of the Bard of Avon with the appropriate quotation, "All the world's a stage etc."

This curtain was replaced at least once later when the theater was remodeled but the ten sets of scenery Wheeler painted lasted, with some reinforcements, to the bitter end. They came to be old and familiar friends to be counted on in any situation. Finally the movies and the fire risk brought their destruction.

Some of the dozens of braces that held the "wings" in place, long wooden poles ending in angled irons, still lean against the stage walls and the iron notches into which they fitted are still in the floor. But the "drawingroom" scene, with its painted tasselled draperies and elaborate doorways has gone along with the misty green aisles of the forest scene and the kitchen which served equally well for an English castle or down east "Shore Acres." The rest of the ten sets, each consisting of a backdrop and several wings, were a balcony (in anticipation of Romeo and Juliette perhaps?) a street, a prison, a "common room," a cut over wood, a rocky pass and a garden landscape. It was the last that probably got the most use. Half of the plays seemed to open amid its bowers of improbable roses clambering over pink brick walls. One vivid memory is of Chauncey Alcott, singing "My Wild Irish Rose" with a booted foot resting on a low section of that wall, the effect of his graceful pose a trifle marred by your worry that the quivering wall would not stand the strain.

Only one who lived before the days of movies, radio and television (there really were people living then) can appreciate what the Opera House meant in entertainment. After its completion theatrical troupes playing in Chicago or Detroit could pick up extra profit by playing one or two nights in Tecumseh or Adrian. Rail connections at that time were excellent and the Lilley House hotel was a comfortable place to stay. So it was one of the noted road companies of the day that was booked for the opening three nights of Dec. 26-27 and 28 when "The Ada Grey Theatrical Co. of New York played the famous successes, Betrayed, Camille, and East Lynne." Reserved seats at Adamson's Jewelry Store were 75c or three nights for $1.50.

There was also a grand dedication ball on New Year's Night but perhaps the most interesting of the opening events was a special service in the theater on Sunday, Dec. 29. Then the hall was "dedicated to the temperance cause." Temperance was undoubtedly a burning issue at that time but there is more than a suspicion that there was a secondary reason for this gesture. Mr. Sutton was a member of the "Society of Friends" as was also Mr. Swan who still owned a small share of stock. Concern, to put it mildly was felt, among the church members that two of their number should engage in so "worldly" an enterprise. There is no record of church action being taken but it is just possible that this devotion to the cause of temperance may have had the extra purpose of "taking the heat off."

Fish Cuddle Under Ice

Under that frosty blanket of ice covering the lakes, fish are beginning to cuddle up.

At least some varieties are preparing to spawn, and there are several scientific explanations for it, acording to University of Michigan assistant professor of fisheries, John E. Bardach.

"A fish's genetic make-up determines how it will react to the changing light and temperature as winter turns into spring," Professor Bardach states. He adds that fisheries biologists have been able to pin down critical temperatures below which certain fish will not spawn.

"Temperature and light are translated into spawning activity in the fish by its endocrine system. The proportion of hormones the fish produces changes as he gets ready to spawn," the professor amplifies.

A fish like a pike will spawn at pretty near freezing temperature, and a perch will spawn at about 50 degrees, says Professor Bardach.

For fishermen who want to know more about fish—including how to hook them—The University of Michigan is holding its annual Fishing Clinic March 17. The clinic, which pays for itself, will feature informal talks by fishing experts and will give interested anglers a chance to see some of the latest fishing equipment.

Three Men Plead Guilty to Larceny

Three Tecumseh area men pleaded guilty to simple larceny in justice court during the past week.

Joe Valdez, 25, of Tecumseh was sentenced Saturday morning before justice John Lowe of Adrian. He was ordered to serve three days in jail and he paid a $100 fine and $8.60 costs.

Richard Henkel, 26, of Tecumseh and Edward Swenson, 23, of Tipton were arraigned before justice Lowe Saturday afternoon.

They pleaded guilty to simple larceny after the charge was reduced from larceny from a building.

Each man was sentenced to 10 days in jail and each was ordered to pay a $100 fine and $8.60 costs.

They were given credit for time already served.

The men entered the Tecumseh police station Feb. 5 to recover a bottle of cognac that Tecumseh officers confiscated.

Among the items taken from the station were a stapling machine, various keys and a cartridge.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Elects Officers

Mrs. Robert Greishaber became a new member of the V.F.W. Auxiliary at the regular meeting of the group last Wednesday evening at the Post Home. Mrs. Lloyd Stites was appointed chairman of the poppy sale to be held this spring and it was announced that the auxiliary would serve dinner for the Holloway Mother's Club Saturday evening.

Officers for the new year were nominated and elected as follows: president, Mrs. Lloyd Stites; senior vice president, Mrs. Earl Kruger; junior vice president, Mrs. John Braden; treasurer, Mrs. Richard Butler; chaplain, Mrs. Harold Warren; conductress, Mrs. Warren Filter; guard, Mrs. Robert Felton and three year trustee, Mrs. Frank Daehne.

Delegates to district rallies will be Mrs. Richard Butler, Mrs. Earl Kruger, Mrs. Bert Warren, Mrs. Waldo Mohr, Mrs Harold Warren and Mrs. Warren Filter. Alternates named were Mrs. Carl Kempf, Mrs. Gaza Kish, Mrs. Ted Golat, Mrs. Grace Coffey, Mrs. George Downard and Mrs. Louis Richards.

These officers will be installed at the first meeting in April. The next regular meeting will be March 21 when annual reports of officers and committee chairmen will be given.

Mrs. Donald Clark and Mrs Earl Kruger served refreshments during the social hour.

Civil Air Patrol . . . What It Is and Does

Have you ever wondered what the letters C.A.P. mean and have you ever wondered what members of this organization do at their meetings which are now held every Thursday night in the Sage Building?

The Civil Air Patrol was organized December 1, 1941. At the outbreak of war a group of civilian pilots, realizing the need for a non-military flying organization, volunteered their services and their private light planes to the Office of Civilian Defense. Taking time from their jobs, and working without pay, this group served the war effort by performing jobs that required aircraft which the Army couldn't spare. In the early part of the war submarine hunter-killer patrols were flown over the Atlantic regularly by these pilots. The light, single-engined planes radioed information which led to the destruction of submarines; one was sunk directly from bombs dropped by C.A.P. aircraft.

RESCUE FROM AIR

After the war ended, the Civil Air Patrol began to specialize in air-search and rescue missions to cope with the increasing traffic of aircraft. This has been brought to such a high degree of efficiency that the C.A.P. works with the Air Search and Rescue Service of the USAF when an aircraft is reported missing. In addition to search and rescue work, most C.A.P. squadrons are fully mobilized in Civil Defense units. Contributing manpower, rescue vehicles, radio and first aid equipment, C.A.P. has many times worked hand in hand with Red Cross, police, and National Guard units in times of disaster. During the Flint tornado and the more recent floods in California, C.A.P. aid has proven invaluable.

In 1947 by an act of Congress, the Civil Air Patrol became an official auxiliary of the newly formed United States Air Force. Because of this, many Air Force bases train C.A.P. personnel and assist C.A.P.

CADET PROGRAM BEGINS

In 1942, the Cadet program was inauguerated. Through this, any 15 to 18 year old high school student may receive extensive preflight training. Although no actual flight instruction is included in the training program, Cadets may take courses in theory of flight, meteorology, navigation, radio procedure, and first aid, etc. Cadets are also eligible for orientation flights in the local squadron's aircraft.

(See AIR PATROL, Page 5)

Not Up

The platform of the "Independent Voters' League" which is made up of four candidates for the city council in the April 2 election has not been placed up in the American Legion and VFW homes as was stated last week.

Managers of both veterans' organizations said a copy of the platform was brought into the homes but it was not put up because it is against the policies of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission to have clubs with liquor licenses get mixed up in politics.

The platform since has been taken down at the Eagles too.

Don't Inquire About Your Tax Refund

The Internal Revenue Service urges taxpayers in this region to refrain from inquiring as to the status of refund checks until after July 31. Telephone and written inquiries at this time tend only to delay the receipt of refund checks, Regional Commissioner D. L. Olsen stated.

Mr. Olsen further pointed out that this region, which includes the States of Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin has already issued approximately 450,000 refund checks. Thousands of additional refund checks are being processed daily and will reach taxpayers shortly, he added.

Mr. Olsen explained that approximately eight million individual income tax returns are filed in this region from January 1 to April 15. District offices are therefore confronted with the responsibility of processing a substantial number of returns during a relatively short period of time.

Mr. Olsen emphasized that taxpayers can benefit themselves, can speed refunds, and reduce government costs by avoiding common mistakes and omissions such as these:

A. Failure to sign the tax return — both husband and wife's signature in case of a joint return.

B. Failure to attach copy of W-2 (Withholding Tax Statement) to the return.

C. Illegible writing — returns cannot be identified.

D. Inaccurate figures, mistakes in addition, subtraction, and tax computation.

E. Failure to indicate names of dependents claimed.

Many times temporary delays in the receipt of refund checks are caused by one of the above indicated mistakes or omissions, Olsen added.

Mr. Olsen also explained that additional time is required for the processing of refunds resulting from the filing of amended returns and claims, especially those received during the filing period.

GIRL SCOUTS DISPLAY

Attention is called to the display of Girl Scout and Brownie projects in the Palman building. The display was placed up Saturday to aid in the observance of Girl Scout Week.

Rheins Ride in Plane with St. Clair Embezzlers

A Tecumseh couple who returned last weekend from a week in Mexico, had an unusual experience. Just how unusual they did not learn until after their return. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rhein had left by plane the previous Friday from an airport in Windsor, Canada, and had been mildly interested by a shabbily dressed family who sat directly behind them.

When they came back to Tecumseh and were interviewed by State Police and F.B.I. agents, they learned that their seat neighbors had been the St. Clair couple who were absconding with car license funds.

The parents and little girl had attracted the Rhein's attention because they were wearing such outmoded clothing and they had also thought it rather odd that the child had suddenly developed acute air sickness just before the plane landed and the family had been rushed through the customs because of her condition.

The motives behind this queer behavior became clear Monday in the course of their interview with an F.B.I. agent and State Police Detective Raymond McConnell.

Detective McConnell was on familiar ground as he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted McConnell of Rogers Highway.

FIREMEN CALLED

The fire department was called out at 3:25 a.m. last Saturday morning for a fire in a house trailer in the rear of Harvey's Grill just west of the city.

Ony minor damage resulted from the fire which was caused by a short circuit in the wiring.

Okayed by Big Margins

Voters in three rural school districts by big margins voted Saturday to annex their districts to the Tecumseh Public Schools.

Districts joining Tecumseh were Holloway (Raisin District Three); Grubb (Franklin District Five); and Culbertson (Tecumseh District One Fractional).

The districts were the first of 16 that plan to vote on annexation.

Previously the Tecumseh Board of Education by resolution agreed to accept the three districts that voted Saturday and 13 other rural districts.

The three districts voting Saturday had three ballots. One was for annexation. One was to raise the tax limitation to 13 mills of assessed valuation to support Tecumseh's debt retirement fund. And the third was whether the district should assume its share of the bonded indebtedness of the Tecumseh public schools.

Only district taxpayers were allowed to vote on the last two proposals. Any registered voter in the district could have voted on the annexation proposal.

These are the results of Saturday's voting:

HOLLOWAY—proposal one, 50 yes, 14 no; proposal two, 45 yes, 19 no; proposal three, 41 yes, one no.

CULBERTSON—proposal one, 47 yes, 0 no; proposal two, 45 yes, two no; proposal three, 41 yes, one no.

GRUBB—proposal one, 35 yes, six no; proposal two, 35 yes, six no; proposal three, 29 yes, five no.

Simple majorities were required on all proposals.

Discussion meetings on the pros and cons of the annexation to Tecumseh have been held by other rural districts following a general meeting of all districts here last Dec.

This is the time-table for other district elections on the annexation:

SATURDAY, MARCH 17—Paragon (Franklin Seven) and Sutton (Raisin Six).

MONDAY, MARCH 19—Lanning (Raisin One Fractional.) Voting will take place from 1 to 6 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21—Bird (Macon Three).

SATURDAY, MARCH 24—Centennial (Raisin 10), Lamkin (Franklin 10 Fractional), Franklin Center (Franklin One); Newburg (Clinton One.) Newburg will vote from 1 to 5 p.m.

SATURDAY, MARCH 31—Pink (Franklin Two), Kelley (Raisin Two) and Macon Village (Macon One.)

Colvin (Raisin Five) and Ridgeway (Ridgeway One Fractional) are the only rural districts that have not set elections.

Ridgeway district approved annexation in a straw vote but a technicality concerning bonded indebtedness of its district will have to be cleared before the district can vote.

All districts voting will have three proposals. They are the same proposals that Holloway, Culbertson and Grubb voted on Saturday. Only taxpayers may vote on the last two proposals.

If all the districts planning annexation approve, slightly more than $10,000,000 in assessed valuation will be added to the Tecumseh district.

Elect Bryan President in Britton Vote

Fred Bryan was elected president of the Village of Britton Monday when 49 votes were cast.

Other officers elected were Edmund J. Millyard, clerk; Opal Benedict, treasurer; Douglas Fairbanks, Keith Bottorff and August Maska, trustees for two years; and William Kuster, assessor.

Fay Hindes received one write-in vote for president and William Niblack received one write-in vote for village assessor.

Rehearse Cantata Set for March 29

The choir of the First Presbyterian church, under the direction of Thomas Tipton, is rehearsing the religious cantata "The Seven Last Words of Christ" which will be presented in the church on Maundy Thursday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m.

An orchestra from Ann Arbor will accompany the presentation.

The public is invited.

SUNRISE SERVICE PLANNED FOR EASTER

The Tecumseh Ministerial Association, in cooperation with the youth of the various churches, is planning an outdoor Easter Sunrise Service to be held at Tecumseh Airport at 6:30 a.m. Easter morning, April 1. This service is open to everyone.

Saling Defends City Re-appraisal

The re-appraisel of city real and personal property was one of the best things that ever happened to Tecumseh, stated city assessor John Saling before Tecumseh Rotarians Tuesday night.

He said the re-appraisal should have been done several years ago.

Explaining how men of the J. M. Cleminshaw Co. worked, the assessors said a scale of value for every home in the city was worked out after information was gathered from local builders and plumbers. Then a base price, according to square feet area and type of construction, was used as a preliminary figure. Other factors were the condition of the house and whether there was a garage and other outbuildings.

Depreciation factors were considered and all the information was placed on a file card.

After the total valuation was arrived at the assessor used a 50 per cent formula for tax purposes.

LAND VALUE USED

Most of the misunderstanding developed from the use of a land value, he said. "Tecumseh never used a land value but the re-appraisers did after consulting with local realtors on lot prices.

He said official city thinking is that Tecumseh will be able to operate on 10 mills instead of the 15-mill tax rate used last year.

"And Supt. McDowell and the school board have assured me that they will do everything within their power to hold the millage rate to a minimum."

Roy Titley, a member of the county board of supervisors, said the county also will hold the line.

The assessor said the re-appraisal here will show that one-third of taxpayers will be paying less taxes; one-third more; and one-third will be paying about the same.

"FAIR SHARE" CITED

"But the best part is that everybody will be paying his fair share which was based on a scientific re-appraisal."

He called the re-appraisal about 95 per cent correct. And he said asssements have been about 25 per cent correct in the past..

The assessor said taxpayers in Tecumseh Acres and in Herrick Park probably will be paying less taxes than they did.

Answering a question, he said "Fifty per cent also was taken on personal taxes. Some of the personal had to be estimated; but a lot of it was taken from actual figures where they were available."

He reminded Rotarians that the board of review meets Tuesday, March 26, to hear "aggrieved taxpayers." "We expect quite a number to be there but after he can be shown why and how the re-appraisal was made, the average individual will have a better understanding."

Complete

Postmaster Jack Metcalf appeals to residents to place the complete name and address on letters and packages that are mailed locally and out of town.

"Most folks do this for out of town mail, but mail they send in Tecumseh too often is just marked 'City,' he said. This was all right years ago when Tecumseh was smaller but today the city is too large to have our carriers know everybody and their streets and numbers.

"The problem will be made more acute," he continued, "with vacations coming soon and substitute carriers taking city routes.

The postmaster said complete names and addresses on city mail will make for faster and more efficient deliveries.

The Silver Lining

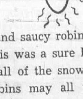
Look for the silver lining
Whenever a cloud appears



CONDUCTED BY BOB WARREN

JIM BEARDSLEY SAW a big fat and saucy robin on his lawn Saturday morning. He said this was a sure harbinger of spring; but by the looks of all of the snow on the ground now (Wednesday) the robins may all take the next plane back down south.

LEON WILLIAMSON who is down there to welcome the robins when they return sent a clipping from a Calif. newspaper on the death of Fred Merkle. The accompanying picture showed Fred at the height of his long major league baseball career.

THE REV. GEORGE Walworth was surprised Sunday when he asked the congregation what happens when you you get in the bath tub. A small fry answered: "The water gets dirty."

SCHOOL SITE GIVEN — Dwight Hodges, secretary of the Tecumseh Board of Education, accepts the deed to a 10-acre future school building site in Brookmeade Subdivision from William Powell, agent for Theodore B. Livernois of Detroit. The deed was turned over to the school board Tuesday night.

Seek Pledges for Bleachers

Copies of a letter to all local organizations and some private individuals concerning bleachers for the recreation field were sent out this week by Jack Osburn for the recreation board.

The organizations and individuals will be asked to make a pledge toward the purchase of the bleachers which will cost $12,000. So far $2000 has been pledged.

The permanent bleachers of concrete and steel have been ordered and they will be installed some time next month. They will be built on the east side of the football field.

All checks can be made payable to the Tecumseh Bleacher Fund, % of the Tecumseh Recreation Board.

Manager Reminds of Electrical Code

City manager Ed Nelson reminds electrical contractors that all work in the city must have a permit before work is begun.

He said the city council adopted and passed an electrical ordinance and an electrical board was appointed to control the functioning of the electrical inspection and electrical examinations to contractors and journeymen.

Permits, he said, are issued at the city office. The electical inspector will be notified of each inspection and of the date the inspection will be made.

"Contractors' cooperation in carrying out the ordinance will be appreciated," the city manager concluded.

Roll

The Tecumseh Board of Review Monday took 50 per cent of the $31,786,000 assessment figure submitted by the J. M. Cleminshaw Co., appraisers, for its preliminary assessment roll.

This means that the assessment roll for the city for tax purposes this year will be in excess of $15,000,000.

Tuesday, March 26, the board of review will be opened to "aggrieved taxpayers" for rechecking on individual real and personal property assessments.

The board will be in session that day from 9 a.m. to 12 noon; from 1 to 4 p.m.; and from 7 to 9 p.m.

PAY FOR BEER

Two young men pleaded guilty before Justice John K. Lowe Monday to illegal possession of beer.

Lowell Kelley, 20 years old, Tecumseh, was ordered to serve five days in jail with credit for three days already served, and paid a $35 fine and $8.60 costs.

Donald G. Morse, 18, Britton, paid a $25 fine and $8.60 costs.

The two young men were arrested by police Saturday with beer in their car.

REMIND RESIDENTS OF POLIO BENEFIT

Posters have been placed in local store windows reminding residents that the benefit polio dance will be held in the high school gym Saturday, April 7. The dance is sponsored by the combined PTA's.

All proceeds will go toward the March of Dimes.

Service Businesses Had Receipts of $338,000

Receipts of 26 service establishments enumerated in Tecumseh in the 1954 census of business amounted to $338,000, according to a preliminary report covering service trades published by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

The combined yearly payroll of Tecumseh's service establishments for the same year was $78,000. They reported 45 employees of whom 26 worked fulltime in the pay period ending nearest Nov. 15. Proprietors actively employed in the operations of unincorporated businesses numbered 21.

Establishments providing personal services numbered 13 and reported receipts of $170,000. Material on establishments primarily engaged in automotive repair, parking and other automobile services was withheld; and so was material on "all other selected services."

"Personal services" group includes such businesses as barber and beauty shops, cleaning and dyeing plants, laundries and laun[illegible] services, garment alteration and repair services, funeral services, photographic studios, shoe repair shops and shine parlors, as well as other personal services.

"Automotive services" group includes general automobile repair shops, battery service shops, tire repair shops, body repair and paint shops, automobile rentals, storage garages, parking lots, auto laundries, and other miscellaneous automotive services.

"All other selected services" group includes business services, miscellaneous repair services, amusement and recreation services, motion pictures, hotels, tourist courts, motels and camps.

Hit-Run Driver Is Apprehended

Howard Ouderkirk, 27, of Dundee, pleaded guilty to failing to stop and identify himself when he was in an accident. He was arraigned before justice L. J. VanDeusen of Clinton, Friday.

He was sentenced to 10 days in jail and assessed a fine and costs totaling $104.30.

Ouderkirk's car struck a car driven by John Corican, 26, of Tecumseh March 6 on M-50 east of Tecumseh.

Clinton state police arrested Ouderkirk after a fellow employee at the Tecumseh Products Co. told police Ouderkirk's car matched the description of the car involved in the accident. Police discovered that Ouderkirk had taken his car to Petersburg for repairs.

SIXTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Mr. Francoeur

A few of the girls have formed a "Bow Club." The members are Mary Alice Stutesman, Ruth Ann Milosh, Dolores Solarski, Della Coopman, and Betty Rangler. They are looking very fine these days.

On Tuesday of this week Winfield Walker and David Irelan brought their microsopes to school. We are using them to study interesting biological things in science. They are giving Robert Bonner, Jim Browning, David Crosby, Gary Honeycutt, Ray Yenor, Don Roe, Robert Richardson, Bill Parham, and Gary Keehl a chance to see blood cells and bacteria. In addition to this, Sam Van Norman is helping Mr. Francoeur with an electrical experiment and Paul Underwood brought in a fossil of great value to the class.

Those interested in music in the class are Larry Flowers, Bob Holmes, and Susan Owens. Of these Larry played his accordion over WABJ just this week.

One of the nicest things which happened so far this term was Mrs. Holdridge's classroom visit to Jerry and Della. Thank you so much, Mrs. Holdridge. That reminds me, I saw Mrs. Greiman, Virginia's mother, at the P.T.A. meeting.

To close let me say, Wayne Davis looks good on the basketball floor. Donna Cubberly, Sandra Miller, and Barbara Wilbar are doing better every day.

SIXTH GRADE—CENTRAL
Miss Engle

An assembly was held in gym class to show our mothers how well we had learned to square dance. Many of the mothers attended.

The boys' basketball games after school are enjoyed very much. The team with John Britton as captain is in first place. The other captains are Gale Miller and Jerry Kapnick.

We have received a new set of encyclopedias which we are using a great deal.

Some of our children have been out of school because of illness. Among them was Linda Dicks who had pneumonia. We are glad she is back and feeling fine again.

PATTERSON

In the kindergarten these are busy days. We have become interested in the farmer and all the things he has to do in the spring time. We made baby chicks for our show case one day. We like to make farm pictures and many of us can write "On the Farm" on them.

Our workbooks heep us busy, too, and we are always proud to take the page home when it is finished.

The first grade is very proud of their Easter egg trees. They have some real pretty ones, and they had a lot of fun painting them. We are very glad we didn't break any of the eggs, even if they were hard boiled.

We are glad that most of the children who have been out of school with colds are back with us again.

Two more reading groups have new books. We had thought they would be difficult to read, but find that we are doing real well with them.

We enjoyed our walk to the high school Friday morning and were very interested in the program of Indian music. We made up some sign language stories after we got back to our own room.

Steven Hollar, Cathy Brown and Cynthia Tatar brought birthday treats to school recently and Paul Stoner brought cookie hatches on Washington's birthday. Rayanna White brought us a cookie treat another day and Linda Gilbert also treated us.

In our language class we are making a play out of a story we heard. It is called "The Bajabi Tree." We hope to be able to make a scene from it for our counter top.

Mrs. Updike came in to the fourth grade one day last week, and told us about her trip to Mexico. We had read stories about Mexico and Mexican children, and it was fun to hear how they live from someone who has been there. We really enjoyed it.

We have also been studying about China and have drawn pictures and made a Chinese village to put in the hall display case next week.

We are decorating eggs for Easter decorations in our room. Jack Dick and Michael Mobley have both been hospital patients recently. The fifth and sixth graders entertained their parents Friday afternoon with a square dance demonstration in the gym.

We Back the Biggest Difference in Cars Today With a Total of PERSONAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT
$25,000 Insurance
Divided Equally Between Husband and Wife
At No Extra Cost To You With Your New Rambler · Hudson · Nash · Metropolitan

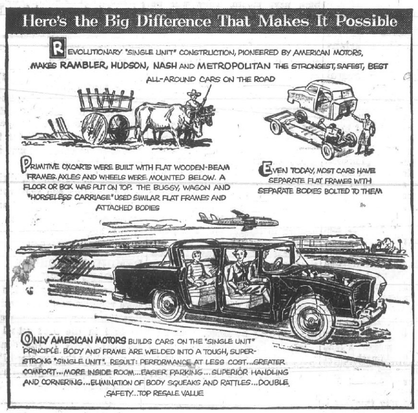
Here's the Big Difference That Makes It Possible



REVOLUTIONARY "SINGLE UNIT" CONSTRUCTION, PIONEERED BY AMERICAN MOTORS, MAKES RAMBLER, HUDSON, NASH AND METROPOLITAN THE STRONGEST, SAFEST, BEST ALL-AROUND CARS ON THE ROAD

PRIMITIVE OXCARTS WERE BUILT WITH FLAT WOODEN-BEAM FRAMES. AXLES AND WHEELS WERE MOUNTED BELOW. A FLOOR OR BOX WAS PUT ON TOP. THE BUGGY, WAGON AND "HORSELESS CARRIAGE" USED SIMILAR FLAT FRAMES AND ATTACHED BODIES

EVEN TODAY, MOST CARS HAVE SEPARATE FLAT FRAMES WITH SEPARATE BODIES BOLTED TO THEM

ONLY AMERICAN MOTORS BUILDS CARS ON THE "SINGLE UNIT" PRINCIPLE. BODY AND FRAME ARE WELDED INTO A TOUGH, SUPER-STRONG "SINGLE UNIT". RESULT: PERFORMANCE AT LESS COST...GREATER COMFORT...MORE INSIDE ROOM...EASIER PARKING...SUPERIOR HANDLING AND CORNERING...ELIMINATION OF BODY SQUEAKS AND RATTLES...DOUBLE SAFETY...TOP RESALE VALUE

Why a total of $25,000 Personal Automobile Accident Insurance is given at No Extra Cost!

We back our confidence that American Motors cars are stronger, safer, more modern than others by giving each buyer of a new Rambler, Nash, Hudson or Metropolitan a total of $25,000 Personal Automobile Accident Insurance at no extra cost—divided equally between husband and wife.

This insurance provides for the payment of $12,500 to beneficiary or estate of either you or your spouse (if a member of your household at time of purchase)—thus providing the total of $25,000—if either or both should be fatally injured while driving or riding (either separately or together) in your new private passenger American Motors car anywhere in the world. Both are insured for the entire first year of ownership.

Covers fatality resulting within 100 days after date of accident. Applies to privately-owned cars purchased in the continental United States and Alaska where state insurance regulations permit.

Don't buy any new car until you get the facts about the priceless protection only American Motors cars can give you! See your Nash dealer! See your Hudson dealer!

Bennett Cerf Interviews George Romney

Noted publisher, columnist and television personality gets inside story of revolutionary advance in car construction from the President of American Motors.

CERF: Mr. Romney, why do you offer a total of $25,000 insurance with your new cars?

ROMNEY: It backs our claim that "single unit" construction makes the strongest, safest, most modern cars.

CERF: Is there really that much difference between the way you and other manufacturers make cars?

ROMNEY: All the difference between yesterday's railway coach and today's streamliner. Other cars still use a principle old as the oxcart: A flat frame bolted under a separate body. In our cars, frame and body are welded as a "single unit". It's the biggest stride since the all-steel body.

CERF: And this makes a safer car?

ROMNEY: Twice as safe. Instead of a flat frame underfoot, our frame is a steel, box-girder enclosure as big as the car. It gives you "wrap-around" protection in front, rear, sides and top.

CERF: That sounds like real protection.

ROMNEY: That's not all. Flat frames others use are stiff, so they transmit collision force throughout the car. Our big steel box-girders up front absorb most of the impact. They take the brunt of the punishment instead of passengers.

CERF: What about performance?

ROMNEY: That's a real plus. "Single unit" construction gives a better power-weight ratio. It's stronger and safer, but eliminates useless weight and bulk. Our cars have set many racing records.

CERF: And economy?

ROMNEY: They're tops. Rambler holds the gas mileage record in Mobilgas Economy Runs. Again, because our "hard-muscled" single unit avoids dead weight.

CERF: I like room and comfort.

ROMNEY: Nash and Hudson have more room inside than any high-priced car. Rambler equals medium-priced big cars. As for ride, the greater strength of our "single unit" lets us use larger springs, and superior front suspension.

CERF: Isn't resale value important?

ROMNEY: You bet. Rambler has top resale value in the low price field. In addition to other advantages, welded single unit cars last longer, make better used cars.

CERF: If all you say is true, why don't the Big Three make cars your way?

ROMNEY: You see, mere "bigness" can be a handicap in advanced automobile engineering. One of the biggest of the "Big 3" was years behind others in adopting the all-steel body. The bigger you are, the more factories you have—the more it costs to change.

CERF: I can understand that.

ROMNEY: Beginning in 1940, we spent over $50,000,000 to develop the "single unit" car. Today, it will cost the biggest companies billions to re-tool for our method.

CERF: Do you think they will follow you?

ROMNEY: No doubt about it. Our major competitors will probably make the change gradually—piecemeal—or one model at a time. Frankly, we will be happy to see our "single unit" construction adopted, because it will mean better, safer cars on American highways.

CERF: Well, I'm about ready for another car. I'm going down to look at American Motors cars.

ROMNEY: All I ask anyone to do is see and drive our modern "single unit" cars at a Nash or Hudson dealer's. The rest is up to you.

Mr. Robert H. Kennedy (right), President of the Detroit Electrotype Co., and Chairman of the Detroit Employing Electrotypers and Stereotypers Association and Mr. Velmer Bartrem, President of the Detroit Electrotypers Union No. 54, make the same statement with equal satisfaction:

"We have written Blue Cross · Blue Shield into our collective bargaining agreement"

Mr. KENNEDY: "When our collective bargaining agreement came up for renegotiation a year ago, the major demand the union made was that Blue Cross - Blue Shield benefits be written into the agreement on an industry-wide basis."

Mr. BARTREM: "That is right. Our union preferred Blue Cross-Blue Shield protection."

Mr. KENNEDY: "Before that, the Employing Association spent quite a bit of money investigating the different kinds of hospital-surgical-medical insurance programs. We decided that there was nothing like Blue Cross - Blue Shield."

Mr. BARTREM: "I have it and like it. I've heard no complaints about Blue Cross - Blue Shield."

Mr. KENNEDY: "I have it, too. I wouldn't be without it."

(MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION OFFICIAL NEWS BULLETIN)

Seven game land purchases, totaling 368 acres, will be considered by the Conservation Commission at its March 15-16 meeting in Lansing.

Pittman-Robertson funds would be used to acquire six of the tracts, located at dedicated state game areas. Lands to be considered for purchase with these federal funds include 120 acres of Rouge River state game area, 80 acres at Deford state game area, 41 acres at Middleville state game area, 40 acres at Gratiot-Saginaw state game area, 40 acres at Nayanquing Pointe wildlife area and 37 acres at Dansville state game area.

A 10-acre tract at Gregory state game area will be considered for purchase with game protection funds.

Smelt spawning runs, expected in late March or early April, will attract thousands of persons to Michigan streams to net the tasty little fish.

The exact time of the spawning runs varies from year to year and is influenced greatly by water temperatures.

Studies of spawning runs indicate the earliest begin in the northern Michigan watershed region late in March, while the latest get under way about mid-April in the Huron and Superior watersheds of the upper peninsula.

The best spots to dip smelt are in streams that flow into the northern third of Lake Michigan, including Green Bay. The next best locations are in streams and cuts that drain into the Saginaw Bay area.

Hand nets, not more than five feet in circumference, may be used to take smelt in designated waters from March 1 to May 31. Larger dip nets may be used in certain non-trout waters from April 1 to May 31.

A complete listing of designated smelt waters is available from the Conservation Department's fish division in Lansing.

Sections of the South Branch and main stream of the AuSable River, Crawford county, will be posted to inform trout fishermen of special regulations which allow "flies only" fishing and a 10-inch minimum size for legal trout.

Through a printing error, the 1956 Fish Law Digest lists a nine-inch minimum size in the 20-mile special management area, but Conservation Department officials said the 10-in minimum will continue in effect. The North Branch of the river will be covered by the nine-inch minimum set last fall by the Conservation Commission.

Placards will be posted prior to the trout season on all experimental areas of the AuSable, specifying the particular regulations.

Michigan issued more than 2,374,000 hunting and fishing licenses during the last fiscal year to continue its reign as the most popular state for the outdoorsman.

Department of Interior figures show that Michigan topped all other states in combined scales of hunting and fishing permits.

Totals for the fiscal year placed Michigan first in hunting license sales and third in sport fishing permits. Michigan, with 1,186,454 hunting licenses, was the only state in the nation to pass the 1,000,000 mark in that category.

The state's 1,188,134 fishing license total was bettered only by Minnesota and California.

Throughout the country, a record 33,046,361 persons purchased hunting or fishing licenses, an increase of more than 392,000 over the previous year.

Fishing, still the most popular sport, recorded more than 18,854,000 paid license holders while hunting license sales topped 14,191,000.

Most of the fishing license sales were in the "resident" category, but more than 2,600,000 persons purchased fishing permits outside their home state. The states to attract the greatest number of nonresident anglers were Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan.

In enjoyment of outdoor sports, hunters and fishermen spent nearly $87,000,000 for fishing and hunting licenses, permits, tags, trout stamps and Federal duck stamps. About $47,000,000 of that total was expended by hunters.

License sales in Michigan reflect only part of the fishing pressure in the state. Angling permits are not required for wives of resident fishermen or for children under 17 years of age. In addition, no license is required for sport fishing on the Great Lakes.

Picture-Pretty Molded Spring Salads

Piquant Apple Surprise in individual molds is a salad to dress up any early Spring table. It's so inviting in appearance, so refreshing and tangy to the taste.

Apple Surprise starts with jellied apple juice given a rich creamy tone with mayonnaise and cheddar cheese. Each little mold is thick with crunchy celery, cucumbers, onion and scarlet pimiento pieces. All these, together with the apple flavor of the apple juice, result in a bright, sharp, piquant taste.

When not doing duty as a salad, Apple Surprise can be a zesty relish with meat. For this you might jell it in one large mold to be cut down in slices.

And it's fun to make. The apple juice, of course, is available in any grocery store in a range of sizes from tiny 6-oz. cans up to gallon jars.

And the other ingredients are just as familiar and just as easy to come by. This is what you do:

PIQUANT APPLE SURPRISE SALAD

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatine
- 2 cups apple juice
- ½ cup mayonnaise
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ½ cup diced cucumber
- ½ cup diced celery
- 1 cup grated American cheddar cheese
- 1 teaspoon grated onion
- ½ cup shredded cabbage
- 2 tablespoons diced canned pimiento

Soften gelatine in ¼ cup apple juice for 5 minutes. Heat 1¾ cups apple juice; add gelatine; stir until dissolved. Beat in mayonnaise Cool slightly; add salt, cucumber, celery, cheese, onion, cabbage and pimiento. Pour into individual molds or 1 quart mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until firm. Unmold on watercress. If desired, garnish molds with diamond-shaped pieces of pimiento. Yields 4 servings.

Grade School News

CENTRAL SCHOOL

"Now It's March Again!" is printed across a bulletin board in Mrs. Puffer's second grade room. Under this heading are pictures the second graders have drawn of themselves engaged in favorite springtime activities.

Mrs. Preston's kindergarten has a very colorful display in the showcase. They have made pictures of going to school which are entitled—"Our Bus," "Our Walking to School Children," "Our School," and "Our Teacher." There are also some splendid self portraits which these children have on display.

Mrs. Munger's first graders have made Easter decorations for the room. We have also made pictures of spring activities. We know that spring must be just around the corner as marbles and jumping ropes have arrived at school.

Sandra Keith and Howard Miller surprised us with their birthday treats.

Mrs. Callihan's second grade room is bright with flowers of spring. The pussy willows were brought by Robert Smith. The hyacinth, which John Wirick brought, gave us a surprise by having two blossoms from the same bulb. Each morning we post on our March calendars, which we made, the kind of weather for that day. We are waiting to see if March will go out like a lion as it came in like a lamb. Dawn Kruse and Gary Hall celebrated their birthdays this month.

Mrs. Baily's fourth grade room had two birthdays too. They were Dicki Graham and Jimmy Newell.

Mrs. Uckele's fifth grade room is glad to welcome a new pupil, Elas Weitzman. Melvin Smith made a very nice water wheel for science class.

Mrs. Whiting's fourth grade room has been busy lately in science class, making pictures showing the "Life of the Butterfly." For health class, they made posters of good breakfasts, lunches, and dinners. Keith Kruse had a birthday last week. Last Wednesday was a highlight in our school year. We invited our parents to a gym program, and demonstrated the dances we had been learning for the past six weeks. Several of our parents visited in our room. They were Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Derr, and Mrs. Creger.

Our P.T.A. fun night was not very well attended because of the inclement weather. Mrs. Miller's fourth grade had the most parents who braved the snow storm and so won the P.T.A. prize for their room. Guy Boss and John Oberlin are the committee to decide what will be done with the prize money. Our next P.T.A. meeting will be held Thursday, March 15, at 8:00 p.m. in the Central auditorium. Mr. William Wilson, the Lenawee County Psychologist, will be the speaker.

We are looking forward to reading and using the 230 new books which have been ordered for our school library. A new set of the encyclopedia, The Book of Knowledge, has already been added to our library.

The boys and girls of the fourth, fifth, and sixth grades were very happy to present their gym program, under the direction of Mrs. Hardcastle and Mr. Hale.

GYM NEWS

Wednesday the fourth grade boys and girls presented a short folk dance program for their parents. They did the following folk dances: Gustof's Skool, Hansel and Gretel, Bingo, and Bleking.

On Thursday the fifth and sixth grade boys and girls had a square dance assembly. Parents and third and fourth grade children were the guests at the assembly. The boys and girls did 10 popular square dances. Some of the dances were: Solomon Levi, I Want a Girl, Just Because, The Irish Washerwoman, and Pop Goes the Weasel.

The clever program covers were designed by Mrs. Westdyke's third grade art classes. Each parent and teacher was given a program and souvenir programs were given to the fifth and sixth graders.

The children were especially pleased that the new phonograph for the physical education department arrived in time for the program. The phonograph is being purchased for the grade school physical education department by the Central P.T.A.

The last piece of news is of much interest to the teachers. The old, dilapidated furniture was moved out of the Teacher's Lounge and new furniture moved in. The committee, Mrs. Neitling, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Baily worked hard and made a very good selection of modern chairs, davenport and desk. We thank the school board for their share in this improvement.

Altar Society Entertained by New Choral Group

There were 40 members present at the Wednesday evening meeting of St. Elizabeth Altar Society at the school auditorium. One new member, Mrs. Louis Caterina was welcomed. A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Roy Whiting, when Mrs. John Tomorsky reported on the recent spaghetti supper given by the society.

A committe to decide on the purchase of new dishes was chosen, namely Mrs. Leo Bishop, Mrs. Tim Neill, Mrs. Paul Breitenwischer, Mrs. John Tomorsky, Mrs. Robert Laidlaw and Mrs. Kenneth McEnroe.

The evening's program was provided by the new choral group of the church, which is under the direction of Wallace Whiting and Mrs. Ben Hammack. It opened with two solos by Mr. Whiting, "Where Ireland Got Its Name" and "He," and one sung by Mrs. Ben McWilliams, "Ave Maria." Numbers sung by the choral group included, "Charmagne," "The Whiffenpoof Song," "Lady of Fatima," "Home," "Sleep," and "Kentucky Babe."

Members of the chorus are Mesdames Leo Bishop, Robert Mohr, Ben McWilliams, Donald Johnson, Carl Gruber, Robert Bowers, David Shrader and Jack Osburn and Donald, Eugene and Frederick Frolich, Carl and Joseph Gruber, Kenneth McEnroe, Joseph Dziachan, Wayne Smith, Jack Reis, William Poole, Robert Noe, David Shrader and James Tressler.

Mrs. Robert Sage and Mrs. William Miller and their committee served refreshments after the concert.

To Sing at Friends Church

Arriving by special bus from Cleveland, Ohio, the twenty-six voice Choir of Cleveland Bible College will present a Sacred Concert at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 18, at the Tecumseh Friends church.

Under the direction of Prof. Richard Elmer, the choir will make many appearances this Spring in cities of Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Virginia and North Carolina.

Coming from widely separated parts of the country, members of the interdenominational musical ensemble plan eventually to serve their respective denominations as pastors, evangelists, missionaries, Christian educators and song evangelists.

Offering a beautifully modulated Sacred Concert of semi-classical hymns and antjems, Gospel Songs, Spirituals, and the famous old hymns of the Church, the C.B.C. Choir will be complemented by a mixed quartette, and other musical combinations.

The concert is open to the public.

Dundee Gets District Title; Clinton Dumps Britton

Dundee high school Vikings proved to be the Cinderella team of the district basketball tournament here. They won easily over Brooklyn 59 to 31 then Saturday night they nipped favored Saline, winner over Manchester in the district game Thursday by a score of 44 to 43.

It marked the first time all season that Saline had been beaten.

The Vikings had a real battle on their hands before they were able to subdue the Hornets. The outcome was not settled until the waning moments of the game.

Dundee led 11 to 10 at the end of the first period and 22 to 18 at intermission. The Vikings had a one point, 33 to 32 lead at the end of the third.

Saline led in the final period by five points at one time but the Vikings held on and overtook the Hornets for the win and the district crown.

Dundee had three players who hit double figures. They were Werhen with 14; Popelar with 11 and Kruse with 10. Wood with 17 and Culliton with 10 led the Saline Hornets.

White Lightning

The snowshoe hare is as much a part of northern Michigan as the jackpine. He likes to camp under brushpiles, like this fellow, to avoid hounds and hunters. But white in winter and dark brown in summer, this northerner is no "dumb bunny," and hunters find him game and elusive and tasty in the pot. ## Clark Rathbun Died Suddenly

Clark Rathbun of Fowlerville, Mich., who at one time lived in Tecumseh died suddenly at his home Saturday morning.

Mr. Rathbun was born July 22, 1898, in Fowlerville and Nov. 7, 1942, was married to Miss Francis Gillespie of Tecumseh. Until 1948 they lived in Tecumseh, moving then to Fowlerville where they built a new home. He had been an auditor for the Cities Service Oil Co. for more than 30 years.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 164 in Fowlerville and of O.E.S. Chapter 277 of which he had been worthy patron for two years. He also belonged to the Royal Arch Masons of Howell, to the Tecumseh Presbyterian church, the Tecumseh Country Club and to the Cleveland Doherty Fraternity of the Cities Service Co.

Mr. Rathbun is survived by his widow, Francis; one son, Robert Rathbun of Detroit; a daughter Marvel, Mrs [illegible] Inkster; two grnadchildren, Michael and Gary Kuhn; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rathbun of Fowlerville; two sisters and one brother.

A prayer service was held Tuesday morning at the Liverance Funeral Home in Fowlerville and the funeral took place at 3 o'clock that afternoon at the Green Funeral Home in Tecumseh. The Rev. George Walworth officiated at the funeral services and the Fowlerville Masonic Lodge at the graveside.

Burial was in Brookside cemetery and bearers were Andrew Lovas, master of the Masonic Lodge; Kendall Hoisington, patron of the Order of Eastern Star, both of Fowlerville; Ray Lidke of Ypsilanti; Loren Campbell, Howell and Kenneth Hall and Howard Truesdale of Tecumseh.

Roy Babb Speaks to Local Grange

Tecumseh Grange held its regular meeting Thursday evening preceded by the usual potluck supper at 7 o'clock. Guests were present from Tipton and Onsted Granges.

It was announced that Onsted Grange had invited the local first and second degree team to confer those degrees on a class of candidates at their hall March 23. Also that Pomona Grange will meet Wednesday, March 15 with Rome Grange when the fifth degree will be conferred and that members of any subordinate grange, not already fifth degree members would find this an ideal time to receive that degree.

Delegates appointed from the local grange were Mr. and Mrs. Noble Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cadmus and Mr. and Mrs. Clare Gillespie.

It was voted at this meeting to fill a booth at the County Fair this fall.

The speaker for the evening's program was Roy Babb, county agent of the Probate Court and his audience found him very interesting and informative. Dealing especially with child welfare, his experiences were most revealing and he answered many questions at the close of his remarks.

There will be a public fish supper at the Grange Hall, March 15 to which everyone is invited.

TEENIE SIX

Beginning Sunday, March 11, the Teenie Six League held its basketball tournament at Boysville.

At a recent meeting of "little man's" League attended by St. Elizabeth of Tecumseh, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Plymouth; Our Lady of Victory, Northville; St. Alphonsus, Deerfield; St. John's of Ypsilanti and Boysville, drawings were made for tournament positions.

Games scheduled for Sunday, March 11 were Plymouth vs Tecumseh and Ann Arbor vs Ypsilanti. Boysville and Deerfield byed into the semi-finals.

On March 18 the semi-finals will be held.

Results of Sunday's games were St. Elizabeth overtaking Our Lady of Good Counsel to win 25-20. Chuck Komon was high man and Dave Weakly was a close second.

St. Elizabeth will meet Boysville on March 18.

St. Thomas defeated St. John's with a score of 18-8. St. Thomas will play St. Alphonsus in the semi-finals.

Other business discussed at the meeting included a field day scheduled for May 30. All schools will participate. Football schedules for next fall were also discussed.

MICHIGAN HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW—Elizabeth Ann Kunst of Catholic Central High School, Grand Rapids, Mich., was named Michigan's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She received the state's highest score in a written homemaking examination and will be awarded a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills. She will also receive an expense-paid trip with her school advisor April 8-12 to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Philadelphia. Miss Kunst will be a candidate for the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow $5,000 scholarship award.

Freeze More Food; Bring Costs Down

There's no economy in any empty or part-empty freezer.

The more turnover of frozen foods in your home freezer, the greater the economy in using this appliance. It costs more than twice as much per pound to store 360 pounds of food for a year in a home freezer than to store and use 900 pounds from the same freezer during the year.

This excludes the cost of the food itself, say researchers at the U.S. Department of Agriculture. As more food is used and replaced in a freezer, storage costs are spread over a larger number of pounds, and cost per pound decreases.

Household equipment specialists point out that certain fixed costs of freezer operation are relatively large compared to other costs — such as that for wrapping — which vary with the amount of food handled by the freezer. Whether the freezer is empty or full, researchers have found that the electricity required to hold zero F. remains the same.

Besides amount of frozen food, the cost of electrical energy to operate a home freezer depends on the amount and effectiveness of its insulation, room temperature, size of the unit, temperature at which the freezer is operated, and of course, the cost of electricity.

Vienna Academy Chorus Highlights Concert Series

The Community Concert Association has announced that the Vienna Academy Chorus, composed of 24 men and women graduates of the century-old Vienna Academy of Music, will be presented in concert in Adrian during the 1956-57 concert series. The sale of memberships for the series will be opened Monday to the public and will continue through March 19.

The board signed earlier than usual for this concert as the Vienna chorus has had a sold-out series of concerts for the last two years. The group, under the direction of Professor Grossmann, has developed one of the most enviable reputations ever attained by a similar group. The 12 women and 12 men were chosen by Professor Grossmann from the ranks of the most talented graduates of the Vienna Academy of Music. Each member, besides being a singer, is a graduated instrumentalist. Consequently, the accompaniment for the concert is not just a piano or organ but specifically required instruments.

For American audiences, the chorus has arranged programs designed to give an evening of incomparable music and to display the versatility and artistry that have made these singers the talk of Europe. Each concert has two instrumental interludes to lend greater variety.

Vocally, the evening is divided into three parts, Sacred choral music opens the program. For the second part, the members don the native dress of the Austrain countryside to sing Austrian folksongs and popular rural airs. The third part features the songs of Old Vienna, including Brahms' "Liebeslieder Waltzes", Schubert's "Serenade" and the waltzes of Johann Strauss.

The membership drive opened Monday with a dinner at the Lenawee Hotel for the divisional chairmen and committee members. Mrs. J. A. Fassezke and Robert Perry are general co-chairmen. Tecumseh chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. John McColl whose phone number is 1030-W and Mrs. William Hayden whose phone number is 337-W.

Darrell Lowery Heads FFA Group

The Tecumseh F.F.A. chapter met Monday in room 18 of the high school. The election of officers for the coming year was held at this time with results as follows: president, Darrell Lowery, who will be in charge of the group's livestock program. He will be a junior and last year had swine breeding for a project.

Vice president will be Ramon Aylesworth, who will be in charge of soybeans. He will be a senior and his last year's project was one acre of corn. Secretary, Sylvan Echelberger is in charge of the group's corn project. He will be a junior and last year had one acre of corn. Bill Lopshire, the new treasurer will take over the wheat project for the group. A senior in the fall, his last year's project included four beef cows, one steer and ten acres of corn.

The oat project of the group will be in charge of Richard Neidermier, the new reporter, who will be a senior in Sept. Last year he had three feeder pigs as a project. Melvin Scheffler, the new sentinel will head the work in alfalfa for the group. He also will be a senior and his past project was a gilt and four acres of soybeans.

Classified Ads Pay

Classified advertising can be profitable to both the smallest of merchants as well as the biggest, declared the keynote speaker at the Fourth Annual Classified Advertising Conference at Michigan State University.

The merits of classified advertising were cited by Kenneth Harrington, of Dayton, Ohio, president of the Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers.

"Classified advertising will sell any commodity, especially if it is for public use," he contended. He added, "Through the lack of understanding of classified advertising, manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers are depriving themselves of one of the most lucrative markets available today.

"Classified today is still in its infancy as far as potentialities are concerned," stated Mr. Harrington.

"Classified columns supply over 75 per cent of the public's needs, providing the basic needs of employment, living quarters and transportation," the speaker said. He reported, "There are newspapers today carrying food, new clothing and new furniture advertising on classified pages, but not to the extent that classified warrants."

Health Dept. Cites Dangers of Diphtheria

State health officials fear recent diphtheria outbreaks show many parents are either failing to have youngsters immunized, or neglecting booster shots.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner, said diphtheria is threatening a comeback, and he urged more emphasis on protective treatments, particularly for youngsters from three months of age to ten years old.

Health department records, Dr. Heustis reported, show 35 cases of diphtheria reported in the first two months of 1956, compared with only 59 cases all last year. So far, cases have turned up in St. Clair, Kalamazoo and St. Joseph counties, and Detroit.

"We can expect even more trouble from diphtheria unless every child is immunized and given booster shots on schedule," Dr. Heustis warned. "Protection against diphtheria by immunization is safe, sure and as close at hand as your doctor's office."

In areas where diphtheria cases do develop, the commissioner said teen-agers, and even older adults should have booster doses of vaccine, or be tested to determine whether or not they still have immunity to the disease.

"In years past," he said, "when there was more diphtheria, vaccinated persons were naturally exposed to the disease from time to time, and this boosted their immunity, keeping it at a safe level. Today, our good fortune in almost cleaning up on diphtheria means that most of us are not exposed to the disease, and there is a chance that the immunity built up by vaccinations early in life has worn thin. This is why teenagers and even older adults in areas reporting diphtheria cases should be checked, and given booster shots of vaccine if necessary."

The Commissioner added that the source of the diphtheria outbreaks is usually "a person or persons who are unsuspectingly carriers of diphtheria, and suffer no ill effects from the disease themselves, but are capable of passing it to others."

Try this: If you will tear a sheet of correspondence paper in half, scribble on it—as if you were leaving a note for a friend—the following statement: "If you are interested in knowing what goes on behind this door, just step in and we'll tell you."

Fasten the note to the outside door with tape. The more it looks like personal business, the more people will be interested in what you have written.

You may be surprised.

Leaving Nairobi. The plane is still flying low — our green hills of Africa are stretched beneath us, looking lush and peaceful. The lump in my throat is getting larger and larger. How can I put into words this feeling that I am leaving something that has grown dear to me. My eyes strain for a last look far below as the clouds close in and shut it from view.

[illegible] the Africa is a [illegible] teeming with crawling, biting, stinging insects; where "the night is more alive than the day" — lions stalking their victims, leopards crouching with cat-like slyness, waiting to pounce on their prey; monkeys screaming, hyenas laughing ghoulishly. I know this to be Africa, but Africa has also a softer face — the vastness and beauty of its plains, its soft green hills, its wild flowers, the colorful flash of exotic birds, the chartreuse fever trees silhouetted against the sunset; the starry nights around the campfire discussing the days adventure; the plaintive strumming of the camp boys crude guitar; the crispness of the morning air as we watch the sunrise over the plains. This, too, is Africa, this is the Africa I shall remember.

Britton Farmers Go on Tour

Twenty-five [illegible] in the Britton area attended the farm tour, Feb. 28, sponsored by the adult farmers class of Britton's Vocational Agriculture Department.

The first stop was at Leland Bush's farm where the farmers viewed an all metal 20,000 bushel corn storage. Bush harvests his corn with a picker sheller and immediately dries the shelled corn in a 360-bushel capacity "batch dried." Bush said "the fuel costs of the drier are about .02c per bushel." "The system makes it possible for him to pick and shell corn at around 28 per cent moisture." He said "this way I can cut field losses."

At the Elwood Bush farm the farmers saw a commercial swine operation where pigs are raised to be sold as feeder pigs. Elwood uses farrowing crates in his meat type swine program with a two litter system. He plans to save every pig possible by the most modern practices which include flushing the sows and gilts at breeding time, creep feeding the baby pigs, castrating at two to four weeks, and vaccinating for hog cholera before the pigs are weened. He is a believer in swine sanitation using lye in hot water as a disinfectant.

The farmers stopped next at the Stanley Woods farm where David cWoods explained how they feed cattle. They are feeding heavy steers this year and have them on a full feed of corn with two pounds of a 40 per cent supplement per day.

The farmers finished the tour at the Ivan Brothers farm where they saw modern facilities for raising, cleaning and bagging Michigan Certified Soybean and Oat Seed. Assistant County Agent Ingerson and Russell Spaulding, agricultural pointed out to the farmers that pointe dout to the farmers that Michigan certified seed of the varieties recommended by Michigan State University are a farmers best buy. Seeds well adapted in other states are often sold by peddlers to Michigan farmer for high prices and prove very disappointing according to Ingerson.

Christian Science Services Listed

The idolatry of relying on material rather than spiritual power will be stressed at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" is the Golden Text from Isaiah (42:8): "I am the Lord: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (277:29): "Nothing we can say or believe regarding matter is immortal, for matter is temporal and is therefore a mortal phenomenon, a human concept, sometimes beautiful, always erroneous."

The following is among the passages to be read from the Bible (Isaiah 44:9): "They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed."

HOORAY!

Spring Will Be Early

Spring will be early this year. Three-quarters of a day. It will arrive at 10:21 a.m. Tuesday morning, March 20, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of Astronomy.

"The spring season begins when the Sun enters what is called the 'vernal equinox,' the time when it crosses the equator on its way north in its apparent yearly journey," she explains.

On the day of the equinox the sun will rise and set almost exactly at the east and west points of the horizon, and day and night will be of equal length.

FULL MOON COMES

March 26 will bring a full moon of special significance, says Professor Losh. It is the first full moon after the vernal equinox which determines when Easter will be. "Easter falls on the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox," Professor Losh describes.

Venus continues as the conspicuous "Evening Star" in the southwest. It is steadily growing brighter and is visible for a longer time after sunset. On the evening of March 15, the crescent moon will pass about a degree above Venus, the astronomer points out.

Jupiter, another bright planet, rises in the east around sunset and remains close to the bright star, Regulus, in the Sickle of Leo, the Lion.

Two interesting Spring constellations will begin coming up soon after sunset in March, Professor Losh observes.

LOOK FOR BOOTES

The first to look for is Bootes, the giant "Bear Driver." This constellation is easily recognized by the kitelike outline formed by its principal stars, and by the presence of the bright orange star, Arcturus, in the tail of the kite.

"Arcturus is one of the bright gems in the heavens during the Spring and early Summer evenings. It rises about twenty-five degrees north of the east point of the horizon," she says.

Rising at about the same time as Bootes but farther toward the south is the star group known as Virgo, the Virgin. It is a long constellation, its stares roughly outlining a human figure, astronomer Losh notes.

Its brightest star is Spica, easily located by continuing the sweep of the Big Dipper's handle through Arcturus on to this star, only bright one in the area.

We see Arcturus as it was in 1920 and Spica as it was in the year 1800, she declares. The light has taken the time between these years and 1956 to reach us.

Maid Service Foods May Cost Less

Foods may be pre-cut, prepackaged, pre-cooked and almost completely prepared. But this doesn't mean they must cost more.

These "built-in" services have probably increased the cost of some foods, but they have also lowered the cost of others.

Foods such as frozen peas, frozen orange juice, angel food cake mixes and the everyday loaf of bread are not likely to be prepared at home for a lower cost when you start with basic ingredients, claims K. A. Adams, retailer education specialist at Michigan State University.

He explains that "built-in" services reduce food costs because they increase the efficiency of marketing for the manufacturer and for your local grocery store. That is done by reducing spoilage, increasing efficiency of labor and machinery, lowering inventory investment on your grocer's shelves, increasing ease of handling and storage and increasing the sales

Most of these "built-in" services
Host of these "built-in" services have developed because they make possible lower costs to the consumer. This marketing efficiency leads us to believe, Adams contends, that it will be possible to offer pre-cut, trimmed, package, frozen and maybe pre-cooked meat at a future time at a cost lower than fresh meat today.

Do you think you could buy a pound of crackers from a barrel at as low a cost as a one-pound package of crackers sells for today? Packaging and other food services.

Mrs. Curran Heads Missionary Group

Mrs. Clifford Curran was re-elected president of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society at their regular meeting Monday evening.

Mrs. Earl Wood was chosen first vice president and the vice presidents of the various departments are as follows: missions, Mrs. Lillian Hoagland; Christian service and love gifts, Mrs. Llewellyn Sisson; white cross, Mrs. Charles Beland; social relations, Mrs. Eddie Kirkland; missionary education and stewardship, Mrs. Delmar Finch.

Mrs. Garland Gove is the new secretary; Mrs. John Surratt, treasurer and the treasurers of missions and Christian service are Mrs. Jay Morse and Mrs. Lee Prettyman.

The society decided to hold a rummage sale in the Youth House April 12, 13 and 14.

The devotional period was in charge of Mrs. Hoagland and Mrs. Floyd Bryan was leader of the program. She told of the white cross work done by the society during the 20 years that she has been chairman of that department. She described some of the outstanding quotas which have been filled, stating that the one just completed was the largest in money value although others have represented much more work.

Mrs. James Danforth sang as a solo, "Go, Give and Pray," and eight members described the help that had been derived from white cross in different places reached by mission work. Mrs. Finch told of help in Puerto Rico, Mrs. Hoagland in Africa, Mrs. Lillian Owen among the Indians in Oklahoma, Mrs. B. O. Bashore of special aid to a girl in Boston, Mrs. Lillian Fielder among the Chinese in Sacramento, Mrs. Curran in New York City and Mrs. E. H. McConnell at the Mather School in S. C.

A center piece of iris and snapdragons decorated the refreshment table where Mrs. Charles Beland and Mrs. Jesse Nichols poured. Mrs. Jessie Matthews was chairman of the hostess committee.

The society will entertain a troop of Girl Scouts at their next regular meeting April 9.

Bigelow-Wise Vows Exchanged

At the close of the morning service at the Macon Methodist church last Sunday, the Rev. H. Vaughn Whited united in marriage Mrs. Rubena Wise of Tecumseh and Clayton Bigelow of Macon. The ceremony was witnessed by the congregation and Mrs. Whited was organist.

The bride wore an orchid two-piece suit with beige accessories and an orchid corsage.

They will reside on Mr. Bigelow's farm near Macon on their return from a two weeks tour of the southern states and Florida.

Local Delegates to Attend State D.A.R. Conference

The members of Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. are assisting this week in the entertainment of the state D.A.R. conference being held at the Hayes hotel in Jackson Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Delegates from the local chapter are Mrs. A. H. Brown, Mrs. Burtsell Claus and Mrs. Howard Wilson Sr. with Mrs. Hoyt Whelan, Mrs. Francis Stone and Mrs. Leon Roscrans as alternates. The remaining members of the chapter, divided into three groups are assisting during the session.

The local regent, Mrs. Neil Pearson and Mrs. Kenton Hunt, who will furnish music during the meetings will be in Jackson for the entire conference.

Saturday the Good Citizenship girls, Shirley Larned of Tecumseh, Beverly Ann Rohrback of Britton and Sandra Manchester of Clinton will be guests of the conference. They will be accompanied to Jackson by Mrs. F. C. Dickinson, Mrs. Charles Mensing and Mrs. Fay Whelan and will compete with other Good Citizens of the state for the privilege of entering the contest at the National Continental Congress in Washington.

AMERICAN INDIAN IS CHURCH CIRCLE TOPIC

The monthly meeting of Circle 7 of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Titley. The devotional period was conducted by Mrs. John Quigley.

Mrs. Ralph Easton was appointed to the position of vice president to replace Mrs. Roger Linger who resigned and two names for the circle, which had been suggested by members, were submitted to the Women's Association for their choice.

The program topic of the evening was "Presenting the American Indian" and this was done by a group of members, Mrs. C. L. Cook, Mrs. Fred Marsh, Mrs. William Sisson, Mrs. Ralph Easton, Mrs George Walworth, Mrs. William Snook and Mrs. Junior Fouts. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Quigley and Mrs. Percy Heidenreich.

Methodists List Church Activities

The second Lenten "get-together" will be held this Thursday, March 15 at the Methodist church beginning with potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. followed by pictures on the Passion story and concluding with meditation by the Rev. Haybert Woodall, pastor of the Britton Methodist church.

Next Sunday the Rev. L. LaVerne Finch, superintendent of the Ann Arbor district, will be special speaker at the church hour at 11 a.m. This is to be followed by a church potluck dinner to which all church folk are invited. At 2:30 p.m. the Rev. Finch will conduct the annual fourth quarterly conference. The quarterly conference is open to all church folk.

Officers Installed By D.A.R. Chapter

Mrs. Clifford Hardy entertained the Abi Evans Chapter D.A.R. in her Tipton home last Friday. She also led the program which featured American music, especially that of Stephen Foster. She gave a sketch of his life, illustrating her remarks with colored slides. A group of his better known songs was sung by Mrs. Richard Carter, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Every.

During the business meeting, final plans were made for the part the local chapter will take as one of the hostess chapters at the state conference to be held in Jackson, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. This was followed by installation of the newly elected officers: Mrs. James Artman, new registrar; Mrs. Howard Wilson Sr., historian; Mrs. Kenneth Hall, secretary and Mrs. Richard Carter, corresponding secretary. The remaining officers for 1956 are the same as those in 1955.

The hostess committee, composed of Mrs. James Artman, Mrs. Burtsell Claus, Mrs. Ivan Hunt, Mrs. Earl Lindsley and Mrs. Perley Tripp served refreshments during the social hour. Mrs. Hoyt Whelan and Mrs. Neil Pearson presided at the tea and coffee services at a table decorated with spring flowers.

Willow Run Wins District Cage Title

Airport Clipped by Tecumseh, 63-57

Tecumseh high school Friday night earned the right to play in the championship district tourney basketball game by edging an improved Airport Community five, 63 to 57.

In the first game Willow Run also earned the right to take part in the championship game by defeating Milan 60 to 53.

The Tecumseh-Airport game was unlike regular play during the season when Tecumseh had easy times against the Jets.

The Shadford men were "up" for the tournament game and gave the Indians fits before losing in the final three minutes.

And as it turned out it was accuracy from the free throw line that won for the Indians. The Jets scored 22 goals and 13 free throws. Tecumseh scored 20 field goals but they hit 23 free throws.

And it was significant also that Price and Whiteside, two Jet starters, were missing from the game when the Indians won in the waning minutes. Both players went out via the personal foul route with slightly more than four minutes to go in the game.

Another important aspect of the Indians' victory was the team balance. Four of the five starters hit for double figures with Sisson and Miller dumping 17 points each. Hansen added 14 and Spangler contributed 11.

The Jets had three players who hit for doubles. Leading the trio was Frankhouse with 18 points. Others were Price with 12 and Hatcher with 10.

Tecumseh took a slim, one-point lead, 20-19, at the end of the first period.

Both clubs slowed almost to a walk in the second quarter but the Indians still managed to outscore the Jets 11 to 9 in this time to lead 31 to 28 at intermission.

Airport chopped two points off the slim Tecumseh lead in the third period by outscoring the Indians 18 to 16 and when the hectic final quarter began the local five held a one point, 47 to 46 lead.

Goals by Sisson and Miller, three shots by Big Mike added five more points to the Indians' total. But meanwhile two goals by Frankhouse and a free throw by Breitner made the score 53 to 52 with 3:18 to go in the game.

The Indians began a semi stall but Breitner stole the ball and went in alone to put the Jets ahead 53 to 52. Miller than made the last of his five goals to put the Indians back in the lead 54 to 53 and Mike Sisson cashed two of five free throws he made in the quarter to give Tecumseh a 56 to 53 with 1:50 to go.

Frankhouse banged the ninth of his goal production to make it 56 to 55 to continue the hectic conclusion. Spangler and Miller added five free throws in a hurry to make it 61 to 55 and Hatcher banged a goal to make it 61 to 57 with 10 seconds to go. And as the buzzer sounded Bill Hansen dumped one to make the final count 63 to 57.

Accuracy at the foul line really showed for the Indians in the final when they dumped 10 to 12 attempts.

Plan Selection of Dairy Queen

Donald Fatchett, chairman of the Lenawee County dairy committee, announced today that Lenawee County's Dairy Queen will be announced, March 27, in an evening program which will take place at Michigan Producers Dairy, Adrian.

Mrs. Loren Bretthauer, Munson, Michigan; Mrs. Barbara Johnson, home demonstration agent; Mrs. Martin Halley, Tecumseh; and Mrs. Harold Broderick, Hudson, were appointed by Fatchett to guide the selection and honoring of the queen and her court.

The requirements are that the girls must be between the ages of 17 and 20 years of age and unmarried.

Selections are based on appearance, personality, ability to speak before an audience and on radio, and a dairy farm background.

Applications are being sent to 4-H clubs, Farm Bureaus, Granges, and Future Homemakers Clubs of the county high schools.

The applications must be returned by March 15. The Lenawee County winner will compete for the Michigan dairy princess in April or early May.

Britton Gains Final District Tourney Game

Britton-Macon Tories gained a berth in the district Class "D" championship basketball game at Adrian College Thursday night by nipping Deerfield 45 to 44 in the last seconds of the game.

With 11 seconds remaining and with defending district champ: Deerfield leading 44 to 43 Britton's Patterson was fouled. He made both free throws to give the Britton five a win.

Britton hopped off to a 15 to 7 first quarter lead and went ahead 26 to 19 by intermission. In a slow third quarter period the Tories edged the Minute Men 7 to 6. This one-point margin ironically was the edge Britton had at the end.

Deerfield got hot in the final period, outscoring the Tories 19 to 12 but lost in the roaring finish.

Rhora with 14 and Patterson with 13 were leading point producers for Britton. Tiede scored 14 for the losers.

Knights Knocked Out of Tourney by Brooklyn, 51-47

Boysville's Fighting Knights were knocked out of district tournament play Wednesday, March 7, by Brooklyn but the Knights put up quite a tussle before bowing 51 to 47.

Boyesville trailed 35 to 17 at the end of the first half; then made a brilliant second half recovery only to lose when Brooklyn stalled for the final three minutes.

Boysville just couldn't get started in the first half, scoring only eight and nine points in the first two periods while Brooklyn hit for 20 and 15.

But the second half was a different story with the Knights outscoring the Brooks 16 to 10 and 14 to six in the final two stanzas.

But Brooklyn's stall in the last three minutes kept Boysville from regaining enough lost ground to win.

Bob Temerowski with five and five, good for 15 points, was leading Knight point maker. Joe Velesquez and Paul Carry contributed 12 points each.

Indians Beaten by Flyers, 63-50

The 1955-1956 basketball season ended Saturday night at 10:01 for the Tecumseh high school as the high-flying Willow Run Flyers stopped the Indians for the district tournament title, 63 to 50.

The Indians going all out to stop Airport Friday night, appeared a bit tired after the first quarter of the game. Willow Run, on the other hand, played "underwraps" Friday night against Milan and showed just enough to get by the Big Red. The Flyers were sharp and extremely fast and after the waning moments of the first quarter they were never headed.

Tecumseh definitely was off on its shooting, hitting only four goals in each of the first and second quarters. Meanwhile, the Flyers hit nine goals in each of the first two periods.

The second quarter was a duplicate of the first, Willow Run hit nine goals and no free throws in the first while Tecumseh hit four goals and five free throws. The marks gave the Flyers an 18-13 first quarter advantage.

And the same scoring for both sides in the second gave Willow Run a 36 to 26 first half margin.

The third period was the slowest of the night with the Indians hitting three goals and two foul shots for eight points. The Flyers, meanwhile, did little better. They hit four goals and a single free throw for nine points.

Most of the action actually came in the final period with Tecumseh hitting seven goals and two foul shots for 16 points while Willow Run hit six goals and six free throws for 18 points.

Balance paid off for the Flyers. Four of the starters hit for double figures with Willie Prewitt with eight goals good for 16 points leadin gthe quartet. He was followed by Gibson with seven goals good for 14 points; Freeman with six goals good for 12 points; Blackburn with three goals and four free throws good for 10 points. The little play maker was followed closely by Etherington with four goals and one foul shot good for nine points.

It's a matter of record! You get more for your money in Olds for '56! Oldsmobile owners have known this for years, and many of them have enjoyed the pleasure of Rocket performance for less than the cost of owning one of the small "lowest-price" cars.

Let us show you the facts and figures. You'll see that it's easy to get out of the ordinary and into an Olds . . . that it's good sense to make the move now!

For example, look at what you get. Start with power. Oldsmobile pioneered the high-compression era with the Rocket Engine. The 1956 Rocket is mightier, peppier than ever, with a 9.25 to 1 compression ratio! Take your choice of 240 horsepower in Super 88 and Ninety-Eight or 230 horsepower for the lower-priced "88".

Want trend-setting style? Olds shows the way again with the double-duty beauty of the new "Intagrille" front bumper. It's two sturdy bumpers in one—and a smart grille besides!

And you'll never know what a pleasure riding and driving can be until you've tried an Olds. This car snuggles down to the road, holds a straight-as-a-string course, rounds a curve dead-level.

You'll find many of the reasons behind this marvelous roadability in the new Safety-Ride Chassis. Oldsmobile's six-point suspension features such advances as dual stabilizers, center-control steering, and a heavy, solid-unit frame. It all adds up—come try a Rocket ride yourself! We feel sure we can show you the greatest values ever in the car that holds its value high!

The New Re-Appraisal

City councilmen who voted to have city real and personal property re-appraised so every taxpayer would pay his fair share of city taxes, no more and no less, certainly should be commended for having the re-appraisal made.

There will be those who will not agree with this statement. These same folks were the ones who hollored the loudest when the re-appraisal was first mentioned. But councilmen, believing that the re-appraisal would be best for the city in the long run, faced rumor and grumblings and went ahead anyway. They took a courageous stand: they saw the need and acted. We feel that this was the greatest thing that has happened since Tecumseh became a city.

The need for the re-appraisal was brought out even more clearly when the J. M. Cleminshaw Company gave city officials the final figures.

Tecumseh, according to the crew that made the re-appraisal is valued at $31,786,000. This is more than three times the $9,700,017 city valuation last year. And it is $10,834,630 more than the state tax commission said Tecumseh was valued at when it made a spot check here several months ago.

Part of this increase is probably due to the fact that a land value was put on land by the re-appraisers. Heretofore there was no land value in Tecumseh.

The discrepancy in the city's valuation and the Cleminshaw figures should show the most doubtful that there was a desperate need for re-appraisal.

The assessor and the board of review, however, will not use the $31,736,000 figure for the assessment roll. As this is written, their formula has not been determined but official thinking has been that about 50 per cent of the total will be used.

Let's assume the 50 per cent figures will prevail. This would mean an assessment roll of $15,893,000.

Let's also assume, again according to preliminary official thinking, that the millage rate is reduced from the present 15 mills to 10 mills. In round numbers the 10 mills would bring in $159,000 in taxes. Last year 15 mills on $9,700,017 brought in $145,500 in taxes.

By using 50 per cent of the Cleminshaw figures and by reducing the millage the city's overall gain in tax money would be about $13,500.

The gain would little more than pay for the work done by the re-appraisers whose service charges will be about $13,000.

Would you like a "fortune?" Most of us are inclined to think of a fortune in terms of excess instead of moderation. But a "fortune" is well within your reach.

A fortune, according to a recent business writer is a "substantial improvement in our financial condition that relieves us of many petty anxieties and frees us for a larger and more abundant life."

The answer as to how to achieve a "fortune" in this sense is contained in the same writer's views: "A man with an acre of land and house on it without a mortgage is better off than the man who covets the earth and loses his shirt in the pursuit of avarice."

In order to attain a home without a mortgage, you must begin by buying a place of your own — probably with the aid of a large mortgage. It is like building a brick home, you have to start with the bricks, not the completed house.

Remember a "fortune" is not built in a day. And that the most important step towards realizing a fortune is to begin!

Let us help you towards your goal of financial independence. We'll gladly show you "an acre of land with a house on it" or any other type of home you may desire.

"But I Am Different!"

"Don't tell me I'm just like the rest of those babies! I'm different, I am marvelous!"

Yes, he is marvelous. And so are the others. And they, too, are different—even twins, who look alike.

Do you marvel that of the billions of people in the world, we all are distinctively different? What is the answer?

The Answer Is God.

Man, the mass-production master, stands in awe at an Intelligence that can create billions of immeasurably complex human beings and make each one a precious individual, like none other.

Let us bow in reverence often before our Great Creator, our infinite, all-knowing God. Worship God—In Church Every Week—At Home Every Day.

SUBMITTED TO THE LAYMENS' NATIONAL COMMITTEE
BY N. W. KELLEY
President and Treasurer, Southern Varnish Corp.,
Roanoke, Va.

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men.

We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to Whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. # Is That So!

ONE NIGHT STANDS AT SUTTON'S OPERA HOUSE (PART THREE)

At first glance it seems a bit odd that a theatrical company should waste advertising posters on stage walls where only people of the theater would see them. But Walter Nichols, present manager of the reconstructed Opera House, whose hobby is the theater past and present, says each advance agent pasted one there to let other companies know who had been and who was coming to that stage. A sort of "Romany patteran" in the gypsy world of show business.

It is regrettable from our point of view that most of the posters that look down from the dim walls carry only the month and day, not the year in which they were shown. Only someone who was on intimate terms with plays and players during those nearly 50 years could sort them out. One, carrying he name of "Sidney Burt" is dated the year the house was built but there is nothing to indicate whether that was the name of the play or the leading man.

Sheridan's "School for Scandal" featuring William Owen is more easily dated as probably somewhere in the '90s and "Dorothy Vernon of Hadden Hall," picturing a beautiful young lady in a tailored riding habit topped by a plumed hat recalls the days of George Barr McCutcheon and the early 1900s.

"Graustark," headlined as being then in its fifth season, was of the same vintage and for this the prison scenery, painted by Wheeler, must have come in to its own as the castle dungeon. It probably had received an earlier workout when "Devil's Island" was shown. A dramatization of the celebrated Dreyfus case, which aroused so much indignant interest in America as well as France, this no doubt "packed them in."

We know that the fall season of 1879 opened with Edwin Crane in "Rip Van Winkle" and that it came "directly from New York" but there is no date line on the appearance of John Dillon in the "Model Husband" which has the subtitle of "When His Wife's at Home" listed as a John Daley production. In fact the dramas and melodramas seem to have been well interspersed musical comedies. There was "The Girl Question," produced by the Joseph Howard Co. said to have run for 100 nights in Chicago; "The Girl from the U. S. A." with the Harry Scott Co.; "The Vanderbilt Cup," "The Liberty Belles" and "The Three Twins" featuring Victor Morey, a name that evidently meant something then.

Oddly enough there is no surviving poster of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." One picture high in a dark corner, looked promising but after Mr. Nichols had risked life and limb to spot it with his flash light it proved to be "The Swanee Minstrels." There must have been many productions of Uncle Tom over the years, including the one that wrung out youthful hearts. One company even staged a parade, led by the "ferocious" bloodhounds that proved to have a singularly benevolent expression.
